Looking Back: Changes in Land Use 1850-2000

Monday, February 27

7 p.m.

Jeremiah Smith Grange

Presenters will share reminiscences of local farms and farmers; discuss the impact of the railway on dairy farmers and fruit and vegetable markets as well as talk about how the mills and machines on the farm changed out of necessity and practicality.

Sponsored by the Backyard Farming Initiative of the Lee Agricultural Commission and the Lee Public Library.

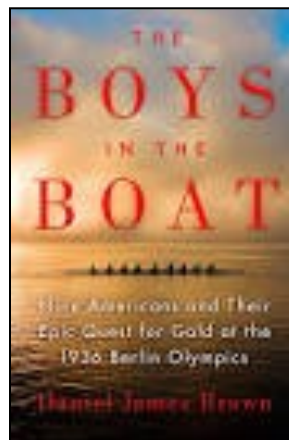

Adult Book Discussion

Monday, February 13

7 p.m.

“For those who like adventure stories straight-up, THE BOYS IN THE BOAT... is this year’s closest approximation of Unbroken... It’s about the University of Washington’s crew team: “Nine working-class boys from the American West who at the 1936 Olympics showed the world what true grit really meant.” —New York Times

Coming in March :Writing Workshop

Thursdays, March 9, 16, 23, & 30

3-4 p.m.

For 5th –8th grade

Do you love to write stories? Then you won't want to miss this series of 4 workshops led by Lee resident, Ginger Johnson whose first middle grade novel entitled Spectrum will be released in Spring 2018. The workshops will include segments on creating the things that make up a good story: character, setting and plot. Revision and what goes into the making of a book will also be discussed. Students may ride bus 30 to the library. Please register by calling 659-2626.

Story Time

Thursday mornings @ 10:30 a.m.

These fun 30-40 minute programs for ages 2-6 include stories, songs, finger plays, flannel board and a craft. Registration is not required.

Tiny Tots Lapsit

Friday mornings @ 10:30 a.m.

Join us on Friday mornings for a baby/toddler lapsit! For children up to 2 years of age, this 20 minute program offers songs, stories and movement with relaxed time afterwards for play and socializing! Registration is not required.

No Lapsit on February 17.

Story Trekkers

Tuesday afternoons @ 3:30-4:30

This program for grades K-4 will introduce children to a variety of authors and award-winning books. A snack, games and a craft are also included. Mast Way students may arrange to ride bus 30 directly to the library after school. Please register by calling 659-2626.
