Universal Class
Bird Watching 101: Food, Feeders & Behavior

Bird watching is such an exciting world to explore. This self-paced online course covers bird identification and location, feeding, types of birdhouses, equipment, emergency care and behavior and habitats. Whether you are a casual backyard bird watcher or a serious enthusiast, you'll soon discover that the more you watch birds the more you will want to learn about them.

Continue your lifelong pursuit of knowledge with Universal Class. Bird Watching is one of over 500 courses available to Lee Library patrons.

See your librarian for course listing and availability details.

“Mudbound”

Hillary Jordan

"A compelling family tragedy, a confluence of romantic attraction and racial hatred that eventually falls like an avalanche...The last third of the book is downright breathless."
 —The Washington Post Book World

Copies of the book are available at the library. All are welcome to participate.

Upcoming...
Adult Summer Reading Program
Exercise Your Mind
Begins July 1st

Write very short reviews (one or two sentences) about the books you read this summer to enter our weekly summer reading drawing!

Thank you to the Friends of the Lee Public Library for encouraging all readers to read by providing fun prizes.

Children's Programs

Babysitting Class Saturday, June 11 10 a.m.

This course is designed to certify kids who are looking to, or already babysit. They will get a CPR and First Aid certification, learn about safety, how to handle emergencies, care and feeding of infants and children, the business aspects of being a babysitter, and more. All students will receive a Babysitting certification. Fee is $35. Please bring lunch, drink and snack to class.

Award Nominee Books

The 2016-2017 Great Stone Face (grades 4-6), Isinglass (grades 7 & 8) and Flume (grades 9-12) award nominees have all been ordered and will be ready for eager summer readers! Easy to find, they will be labeled and prominently displayed.

Summer Reading Program—On Your Mark, Get Set...Read

The theme for this summer's reading program is movement, fitness and wellness. Registration for this 5 week non-competitive program begins on Monday, June 20 and is for preschool-grade 6. Join us for a summer of great books and fun activities. Don't miss the kickoff event on Thursday, June 30 at 10:30 a.m. at the Safety Complex when we will be entertained by Lindsay and Her Puppet Pals.
