October Artist

Hampton resident, Darrell Eifert, is our featured artist for the months of September and October. Like many photographers, he fell into the craft almost by accident. After a trip to the Isle of Mull off the coast of Scotland in 2001, he returned with some black and white film of that magical place of hidden glens and ancient standing stones. What he saw as the pictures began to emerge from the developing tray convinced him to start a serious and lasting study of this most accessible and popular of modern art forms. The images on display are representative of his work mainly from the seacoast and Lakes District towns of Great Britain, along with some favorite compositions from several castles and cathedrals.

Looking for Legos

The library is looking for Legos. If you have any lying around the attic or basement and you would like them to find a happy new home, consider donating them to the library. We will be starting a new Lego program this fall and are in need of lots and lots of Legos.

Kearsarge Indians
Wednesday, October 7
7 p.m.
Lee Safety Complex

Liz Charlebois, Education Director, of the Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum, will present a program about the history of the Abenaki Indians. This will bring to us a new perspective of the vastness and richness of the Native American culture that not only includes New Hampshire, but most of New England and parts of eastern Canada. The program is Free and Open to the Public. Cosponsored by the Lee Historical Society & the Lee Public Library.

Shadow Divers by Robert Kurson

“Robert Kurson’s Shadow Divers, about the divers exploring a sunken shipwreck off the New Jersey coast, is a gripping account of real-life adventurers and a real-life mystery. In addition to being compellingly readable on every page, the book offers a unique window on the deep, almost reckless nature of the human quest to know.”

–SCOTT TUROW

Copies of the book are available at the library. All are welcome to participate.

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

This is a new library program that encourages Lee families to read 1000 books with their young children before they enter kindergarten. It's easy - just register and keep track of how many books you've read on a reading log. We'll help you celebrate the first 100 books milestone with the gift of a canvas book bag. And at each 100 books mark, you'll get a 100 books sticker. Reach 1000 and you'll receive a copy of Miss Bindergarten Gets Ready for Kindergarten! Registration is ongoing and begins October 1.

Library Legos

Kids in grades 1-4 can have fun at the library building cool stuff with Legos. This program will run for 8 consecutive Fridays from 3:30-4:30 p.m. beginning October 2 and ending November 20. A building theme will be suggested each week. Registration is not required. Mast Way students may arrange to ride bus 6 directly to the library.
