Artist of the Month

Joy McCarrick is our November artist. A resident of Lee, Joy is a self-taught painter who usually finds her inspiration in nature, particularly landscapes. She has been painting since childhood, working in a variety of media including oil, acrylic, pastel, watercolor and others. Her subjects include a wide range of settings and views in and around the New England and California towns in which she has lived. You can find Joy's work at Sunshine Valley

“The Poacher’s Son” Paul Doiron
7:00 p.m.

“[Doiron’s] first novel comes with stunning vistas of the dense forests and wild rivers that have impressed visitors to Maine ever since Benedict Arnold passed through on his march to Quebec in 1775. . . . The novel’s eye-popping scenes, idyllic and otherwise, are conveyed by Doiron’s narrator, Mike Boditch.”—New York Times Book Review
