February 7, 1929

The church was again open for service February 3, after being closed for three Sundays owing to much sickness among the “always go” members. The below zero weather and very uncomfortable traveling would also have made church going difficult.

The postponed missionary meeting is again postponed to next week, where it will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Case. It is to be an all day meeting for sewing. Dinner will be served at noon.

Arthur MacDaniel, who has been quite ill with the prevailing colds, is improving and is now able to sit up most of the day.

Fred Comings was confined to his house several days last week; Frank Oldham and Chester Ellison are also having severe colds, and Herbert Wiggin was out of school several days last week.

Henry Peach and wife sailed from Boston Friday for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Howes of Watertown, Mass., spent the week-end with Thomas Simmonds of Wadley’s Falls.

Measles which caused the closing of the schools in Northwood are heading toward Lee. Hartford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laughton is just now recovering from them and the younger child, Richard, is thought to be developing the disease.

Mrs. Molly Carpenter is spending the week-end in Boston with her sister, Miss Pauline Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiggin are very much enjoying their new Ford sedan.

Pleasant news comes from Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin, who are at Miami, Florida. Mrs. Mary Chesley Hatch and husband of St. Petersburg are with them. All are well and enjoying the warmth and beauty of that famous city. Later they will return to St. Petersburg.

Caverly, Evangeline and Chesley Durgin have recovered from attacks of the grippe. Evangeline and Chesley are to visit Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson during their vacation.
February 14, 1929

Mrs. Frank Young has been on the sick list the past week.

George Young is able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall were visitors in town last Sunday.

Mrs. Kenneth Fogg entertained Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity, Mrs. Chester Tebbetts and Mrs. Lloyd Fogg at whist last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Layne have been suffering with the prevailing colds.

Attendance at the church service at Lee Hill, Feb. 10, was small, owing to so much sickness in several families and the very bad traveling. Rev. Boyd E. Tryon of the Methodist church of Epping gave an interesting and appropriate sermon on Abraham Lincoln.

Marcia, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, is ill and under a doctor's care, but is improving. Norma Rowell is also out of school. The children in the schools are generally well and the attendance about normal.

Representative and Mrs. Fred Carl York have given to their little son the name of Frederick Perkins.

Mrs. Helen Wiggin entertained at tea last week Miss Wilkie, teacher of the South Lee school, and with her Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Carpenter.

The Snow Moon is with us but to date we have had very heavy rains instead of snow drifts. We are still anticipating the usual February snow storms.

Miss Nora Whitehouse was a visitor in Farmington last Saturday.

Mrs. Lloyd Fogg and son, Russell, have returned from a visit with her mother in Concord.

Dexter Layne recently lost a valuable horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tebbetts were visitors in Rochester last Saturday.

Miss Grace Ballad of Concord is a guest of Mrs. Lloyd Fogg this week.
February 21, 1929

A very good audience for the season listened to a most excellent sermon from Luke, by Rev. Boyd E. Tryon, last Sunday. This is one of a series specially prepared for the Lenten season.

The funeral of Mrs. Abbie Dudley was held at Manchester on Saturday, Feb. 16. She was the mother of George A. Dudley and in former years lived in Lee and will be remembered by friends here.

Miss Alice E. Dudley, who teaches in Worcester, Mass., was at her home over the week-end.

Mrs. Nellie Durgin remembered several friends and neighbors the past week with postcards of Miami, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Durgin go next week to St. Petersburg.

Chelsey Durgin is recovering from the mumps.

The all-day missionary meeting, held Feb. 14 with Mrs. Charles Case, was well attended. There will be another all-day meeting the first Thursday in March, at the home of Mr. Robert Thompson, when work will be continued on the quilt that the ladies are making. Everyone is welcome to these meetings whether a member of the society or not.

Mrs. W. A. Carpenter is spending two weeks in Boston.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Grace Snell Ecklund, wife of Oscar Ecklund. She died Monday at a hospital in Philadelphia, following a long illness. Funeral services will be held in Dover at the Ricker Memorial Chapel, Friday afternoon at two o’clock, Rev. Mr. Purdum of the First Parish church officiating. Interment will be in the family lot in the Lee Hill cemetery. Mrs. Ecklund was the youngest daughter of the late Deacon Nehemiah C. and Martha (Hanson) Snell of Lee. She was born in Madbury and was 57 years old. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Dwight Vittum of San Francisco, Calif., and Liep Paul Ecklund of Philadelphia, Pa., and one sister, Miss Carrie E. Snell, of Dover.

Mrs. Kimball has returned to Newmarket after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity.

Mrs. L. W. Fogg and Mrs. Chester Tebbetts were hostesses at a valentine party at the home of Mrs. Tebbetts last Thursday evening. Whist was enjoyed and light refreshments were served.
February 28, 1929

A small audience greeted Rev. B. E. Tryon Sunday. The roads in some places between Lee and Epping made travel with a car very difficult but he was nearly on time. The few that were there listened to a very earnest sermon from Revelation, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock."

A briskly burning fire, caused by an overheated chimney, was discovered in the dining room of Robert Thompson's home about one o'clock Sunday morning. Frank Oldham, who boards there, noticed the smoke and aroused the family. Had the fire been allowed a little more time it is feared the house could not have been saved. Only one room was damaged.

Lawrence Bloom, John Currier and his son, John, are working on a lumber lot on the Epping road in Exeter.

Frank Frisbee of Guatemala lately remembered his cousin, Miss Lizzie Thompson, with a greeting card.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wood spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson.

James Walker has moved his mill from the Norton lot in Newmarket to a lot on Hilltop Farm.

Miss Marion Walker was at home last week and was quite ill with a cold, but is gaining.

William Jennison of Boston spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Robert Thompson.

The funeral of Mrs. Sophronia A. Locke, aged 96 years, widow of Samuel A. Locke, of Barrington, and the oldest resident of the town, was held last Friday afternoon at the Congregational church in East Barrington. Rev. Raymond Hall officiated. The attendance was large, and there was a profusion of floral tributes. Burial was in the Sherburne family lot in Pine Grove cemetery. Tasker & Chesley of Dover were the funeral directors.

The young people of Lee who attend Dover high school are having a two weeks' vacation.

Marion James spent the holidays with her teacher, Mrs. Isaacson.

Alice Davis visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bernard of Dover last Sunday.

Benton Layne, who has been in poor health, went to Dover Saturday to consult Dr. Richard.

Miss Anna Kelley was in Newmarket Wednesday of last week, and was the dinner guest of Mrs. Barton.

Dexter Caldwell has recently purchased a Ford coupe.

David Bartlett sang at the funeral of Mrs. Sophronia Locke of Barrington last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dodge and family of Wakefield, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel over the holiday.

Mrs. Raymond Munroe entertained her sister, Miss Anna Kelley, over the week-end.

Dexter Caldwell has recently purchased a Ford coupe.

Walter Ellison is chopping for Seth W. Sherburne.

Winston Caldwell has been confined to the house this week with the flu.

MARY C. THOMPSON

The funeral of Mrs. Mary C. (Wetherell) Thompson, beloved wife of Edwin J. Thompson, who passed away Tuesday afternoon, March 5, at her home in Andover, Mass., at the age of 68, was held Friday afternoon at her late home. Rev. Wesley Wiggin, former pastor of the Parker street church of Andover, now in Chelsea, conducted the services. Two solos, “Beautiful Isle of Somewhere” and “Jesus, Lover of My Soul,” were rendered by Mrs. Frank Gould of Andover.

Mrs. Thompson is survived by her husband, two sisters, Mrs. John Ferrill of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mrs. A. J. Woodward of Bethlehem, Conn.; one brother, George Wetherell of Middlefield, Conn., and three sons, Roland W. of Lawrence, Clifford H. of Andover and Arthur E. of Newmarket.

Following the services in Andover the body was brought here for interment in the family lot in Lee cemetery. The bearers were William H. Thompson, Arthur J. Thompson, Arthur E. Thompson, Clifford H. Thompson, Irving G. Thompson and Frank W. Frisbee.

The floral tributes were as follows; Pillow, “Wife,” husband, pillow, “Mother,” sons, mound, “Grandma,” grandchildren, mound, employees of repair shop, Marlond Mills; mound, “Neighbor,” the neighbors, mound, press room, Tyler Rubber Co., wreath, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradstreet, wreath snapdragons and roses, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Terrill; spray red roses and white peas, Brother George Eva and Rob; spray pink carnations, A. J. Woodward and family, spray mixed carnations, Addison Pierce and family, spray calla lilies, A. J. Thompson and family; spray pink carnations; Lizzie L. Thompson and W. H. Thompson, spray pinks and snapdragons, Frank W. Frisbee and family, spray red roses, J. B. Bennett; spray pink roses, Dolly Johnson; spray pink roses, Mr. and Mrs. James A. King, spray sweet peas, Virginia and Eula Parsons, spray pink tulips, Mrs. Coles and Mrs. Gray; spray lavender tulips, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franz; spray red roses and white sweet peas. Miss Mary E. Coombs and Mrs. John E. Burgess; spray lavender sweet peas, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Morse and family, spray pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bracewell; bouquet lavender sweet peas, Molly Bennett; spray white carnations, Carl Swenson; spray pink carnations, William Hyde, Jr., spray pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Parsons, Jr.; spray red and white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chadwick; spray mixed flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Reed and the Sampsons.
The annual town meeting was held March 12 and the following officers elected: Town clerk, Fred P. Comings; selectman, for three years, Granville B. Thompson; tax collector, Marion Sanders, treasurer, Frank I. Caldwell, highway agents, Dexter Layne, North Side, Raymond Munroe, Center, Herbert J. Cilley, South Side, auditors, James B. Walker, David B. Bartlett. It was voted to raise $1000 and hire money from the state to complete trunk lines.

School meeting will be held Thursday, March 28, at 2 P.M.

Margaret MacRae is ill with the mumps.

Robert Lee Keniston returned Saturday from Hayes Hospital, where he was ill with pneumonia.

Miss Edwina Bagley of Albion, Maine, who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter, returned to her home Sunday.

Miss Adah Anderson of Pembroke is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William A. Carpenter.

Have you looked for the first Spring flower—the skunk cabbage? Forget the name and the suggestion of “Jimmy Skunk” and enjoy the rather wonderful arrangement of flowering spadix and the enveloping spathe. It is found in boggy land. It is poisonous to eat but not to touch.

The town meeting folks had a fine day—over head—for their meeting. Roads and road agents seemed to be the topic of special interest.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson and Mrs. Jennie Tyler were in Dover Monday to visit their sister, Miss Bessie Cartland, who has been ill, but now somewhat improved.

Herbert Paul Cilley of Portland, Maine, spent the weekend with Herbert J. Cilley at Wadley’s Falls.

South Lee School is closed on account of the very bad traveling.

The annual school meeting will be held in the town hall March 28, at 2 P.M.

Messages sent by airplane from Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peach in Florida have been received by friends at Wadley’s Falls.

Chester Tebbetts is suffering from an abscess in his throat.

Mrs. Robert Thompson entertained the missionary society last Thursday for an all day sewing meeting.

Schools in town are to close Friday, March 22, for a two weeks’ vacation.

CHESTER E. TEBBETS

Chester E. Tebbets of this town passed away Thursday morning at his home on the Turnpike road after a short illness.

Mr. Tebbets was born in South Berwick, Maine, Oct. 2, 1892, the youngest son of Charles and Emma (Jordan) Tebbets and came to Lee from East Rochester eight years ago. He was a loyal friend and good neighbor, whom it was a pleasure to know, and the community regrets his sudden passing. He was a member of Jeremiah Smith Grange. He enlisted in the World War and trained in the 212th Engineers at Camp Devens.

Besides wife, Ethel (Caldwell) Tebbetts, he leaves his mother, Mrs. Emma Tebbets of East Rochester, three brothers and two sisters. Mr. Tebbetts was a carpenter and machinist by trade.

The funeral services were held at his late residence Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Fred E. Buschmeyer, pastor of the Durham church, and were largely attended. The committal service was performed at the house and the body was taken to Dover, where it was placed in the receiving tomb in Pine Hill cemetery to await burial later in the family lot at Lee Hill. The bearers were Harry A. Munroe, Ellsworth Garrity, Kenneth Fogg and Lloyd Fogg. Glidden & Wiggin of Dover were the undertakers.

There were many beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends and were as follows: Pillow, roses and lilies, “Husband,” Mrs. Ethel C. Tebbetts; spray pink carnations, “Son,” Mrs. Emma S. Tebbetts; spray pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tebbetts and Mr. and Mrs. Emma Hodge; spray calla lilies, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Caldwell; spray pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Caldwell; spray white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Miner L. Fall; spray pink carnations and jonquils, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Reynolds; wreath, roses, and sweet peas, Jeremiah Smith Grange; spray carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe; spray carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe; basket, roses and pinks, Mr. and Mrs. George T. McDaniel; spray mixed flowers, Seth W. Sherburne; spray carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey C. Fall; spray mixed flowers, Seth W. Sherburne; spray carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Prescott; spray carnations, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Simpson; spray lilies, Mike Tecce and family; spray carnations, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowel; spray lilies, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellison and Miss Ruth Ellison.
The many friends of Miss Amanda S. Randall will learn with deep regret of her death Wednesday at the Hayes hospital, Dover.

Miss Randall was born in Lee on Jan. 19, 1856, the youngest daughter of John and Mary (Demeritt) Randall and spent most of her life in her native town. She was a quiet, unassuming woman, always ready to help the poor and needy in her quiet way. She leaves a brother, Frank D. Randall, of Lee and three nephews, Harry R. Hill of Durham, Frank H. Hill of Dorchester, Mass., and John L. Randall of Fitchburg, Mass., and one niece, Miss Alice Matthews.

The funeral services were held at her old home here Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, conducted by Rev. Fred Buschmeyer, pastor of the Durham Community church. Many relatives and friends were present. There were many floral tributes. The bearers were her nephews, Frank H. Hill, Harry R. Hill and John L. Randall, Jr. Burial was in the family cemetery on the homestead. Tasker & Chesley, undertakers, of Dover, were in charge.

The Easter weather was all that could be desired and a fair audience greeted Rev. Boyd Tryon as he spoke on “The Resurrection of Christ.” The traveling still prevents many from attending Divine Service.

The 100th annual conference of New Hampshire Methodists is being held at Lebanon this week. Rev. Mr. Tryon will be in attendance.

The Lee pulpit will be supplied on April 7 by a student from Boston University. The Sunday school session will be held at the usual hour, 11 A.M.

The Lee schools open April 8. Full lunch boxes will be in order as there will be no more hot lunches served.

The annual school meeting was held March 28. The officers of last year were re-elected and the usual amounts voted for school maintenance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cassell of Dover called Sunday on Mrs. Cassell’s father, William Carpenter.

Miss Pauline Bartlett and Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin of Lexington, mass., spent Easter with Miss Bartlett’s sister, Mrs. William Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and son, Bartlett, of Dover called Sunday on Mrs. Walker’s sister, Mrs. Carpenter. Also, Mrs. Carrie Mason and two daughters of Lee Hook joined the family reunion.

Look for the spring flowers as they come along. The dainty Hepatica blossoms in their lavender and white dress are already to be seen. Soon the Wood Anemone or Wind Flower and the Dog-tooth violet or Trout Lily or Yellow Adders tongue will greet us. The Marsh Marigold or Cowslip will soon color the meadows. Indian Poke or Poor Annie or False Hellbore with its lush growth in the boggy lands will brighten the otherwise dull swamps. The leaf is a yellowish green, 10 to 12 inches long, strongly ribbed and a remarkably handsome growth. Later it has a red fruit, which is poisonous, as are the roots. Be content to look at it and not handle. The wonderful crosiers of the ferns will prove most interesting and they are easily named if one studies them with care.
Mrs. Annie Belle (Stimpson) Burnham, daughter of the late Curtis P. Stimpson, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest W. Menter, April 1, after a long illness, at the age of 60 years, 4 months and 21 days. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Ernest W. Menter, Mrs. Mabel Davis and Miss Anna Raymond, 12 grandchildren, one great grandchild, a niece and a nephew. The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Menter, April 3 at two o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Tryon of Epping. Bearers were James Walker, William Carpenter, Walter Plumer and Fred Comings. Interment was in the Lee Hill Cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful, testifying the affection by which the deceased was held.

Rev. Mr. Mulder, a student from Boston University, gave the Lee church a most excellent sermon Sunday afternoon. The mud is still much in evidence between Epping and Lee and the service was quite a little later than scheduled on account of it.

The postponed business meeting of the Congregational society and church will be held Tuesday, April 23, at the vestry.

Mrs. Alfred Durgin will entertain the missionary society at her home Thursday afternoon, April 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Nigel Chapman welcome a son, Arthur Herbert.

Annie Connor and nephew, John, spent a day in Haverhill last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McClellan and children motored from Boston Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prest at Wadley's Falls.

Norman Cilley spent the week-end at Portland with his brother, Paul.

And now the Mayflowers or trailing Arbutus or Ground Laurel, beloved by the pilgrims, is announcing the Spring, though it may "come slowly up this way". In the olden days it was peddled in Boston streets as "Plymouth Mayflower." Be reasonable in your gathering that this delight of our New England be conserved.

“And Winter lingering chills the lap of Spring” but according to Goldsmith it is the “lap of May.” Though we were certainly chilled be it April or May. It was a very beautiful snowfall and the trees laden with the “glory of its whiteness” has not been surpassed during the winter. Whittier says, “Beauty seen is never lost.”

Remember the church and society meeting at the vestry April 23, at one o’clock P.M.

Edwin J. Thompson of Andover, Mass., with his sons, Arthur and Clifford, and grandson, Lawrence, spent Sunday at Hilltop Farm. The “boys” much enjoyed rolling snow balls down “Susannah’s Hill.”

Mrs. Ethel Thompson, committee for book fund at the Congregational Sunday school, gave to those scholars who had made perfect records a total of 116 books. The year is divided into two terms—December to April and May to November — and each scholar is allowed three absences during each term. The money for these books is provided by a fund established, we think during the 1860’s, by Mrs. Elizabeth Hale Smith. The interest only of this fund is used.

Herbert Wiggin of Newmarket Sunday with his son, Arthur Wiggin, at Wadleys Falls.

Herbert J. Cilley went to Boston Monday for a few days.

House cleaning is now in order. Do not forget the outside cleaning and especially the back yard. Let us have a clean-up day in Lee. Make our town more attractive by carrying away the accumulated rubbish by the roadsides and dump it out of sight.
