May 9, 1929

Benton Layne is quite sick with the mumps.

A home demonstration meeting for the making of hats was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Case last Tuesday. There were twenty-two ladies present.

Mrs. Frank Caldwell has been visiting friends in Malden and Newton, Mass.

MRS. MARTHA E. BUZZELL

Mrs. Martha E. Buzzell passed away at her home in Barrington, early Sunday morning, where she was born December 23, 1851, the daughter of Timothy W. and Mary S. (Buzzell) Tuttle. After a good education she taught school in Barrington and other towns. In 1877 she married James Buzzell of Lee, who died in 1914.

Mrs. Buzzell was a resident of Lee for thirty years, where she was active and prominent in church and school work and the social life of the town. Mrs. Buzzell was noted for her keen intellect and positive opinions, frankly expressed. She served on the school board a number of years and also taught school in Lee. For nearly ten years she has been blind and was cared for by her son, Maurice T. Buzzell, and his wife.

Mrs. Buzzell is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Alexander MacRae, of Lee and one son, Maurice T. Buzzell, of Barrington, and ten grandchildren. She was a member of the Congregational church of Barrington.

The funeral services were held from her late home Tuesday afternoon and burial was in the family lot in Pine Grove cemetery.

Sunday services are being much attended now that the roads are in fair condition and there were forty at the Sunday School session, May 5. Mrs. Harry Trees of Lawrence, Mass., sang two very pleasing solos.

Sunday, May 12, will be observed
Sunday, May 12, will be observed as Mother's Day at the chapel. Rev. Mr. Tryon will give an appropriate sermon for this annual observance for motherhood.

The annual church and society meeting was held recently and the officers of last year were re-elected.

Miss Belle Tuttle is at her old home for a few days.

Mrs. Martha Buzzell, widow of James Buzzell, died at Barrington on Sunday, May 5. Mrs. Buzzell spent her early married life in Lee and will be remembered by many of the older residents.

Miss Vivian Bloom is at Merrimac keeping house for Mrs. Wilson, who is at a hospital. Mrs. Wilson was formerly a teacher at South Lee.

Elsie Cammett is recovering from an attack of laryngitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith have moved to the George E. Chesley place.

Mark Preste died April 30 at the City hospital, Boston. Burial was in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Jennie Tyler attended the funeral of Mrs. Martha Buzzell at Barrington, going with Mrs. Abby Buzzell Bennett of Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Bloom announce the birth of a son at a private hospital in Northwood.

Mrs. Granville Thompson is ill with laryngitis and Lavina Soles is with her to assist with the housework.

"Such beautiful things in the heart of the woods, Flowers and ferns and the soft green moss," sang Margaret E. Sangster, and it is even so. The flowers of the sunlight are not more wonderful than those more hidden and for which one must make careful search. Charles Wiggin at Wadley’s Falls has found ten kinds of flowers to date and a total of fourteen for the family. Who can do better? Let the writer know if any scholar finds more.
May 30, 1929

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Warren and family of Winchester, Mass., called on their uncle, Charles Ellison, and on Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison last Sunday.

Memorial Sunday was observed at the chapel with an appropriate sermon by the pastor, Rev. Boyd E. Tryon, singing by a group of girls and a very good audience.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson and Mrs. Helen Wiggin were in Dover Monday, going with Mrs. Molly Carpenter.

Mrs. Granville Thompson was with her sister, Mrs. Fred Cobb, at Biddeford last week and is to return this week. Mrs. Cobb has had two serious operations but seems to be improving.

L. J. Lewis and family visited Sunday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

Miss Lavina Soles spent the weekend with her grandmother in Nottingham.

Edwin Thompson and son, Roland, were at Hilltop Farm Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Tyler visited her sister in Dover Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dionne and family motored to Hampton Beach Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawlor, with friends, are spending weekends at their camp at Wadleys Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rhines and family of Farmington were callers at the Hale farm Sunday.

Mrs. Cynthia Goodwin of Suncook, sister of George H. Corson, is quite ill.

Charles Caverno of Somerville, Mass., was a recent visitor at his old home here.

A. W. Lowe is doing quite a lot of farming this season in addition to planting shrubbery, dahlias, etc.

Alice Davis spent the week-end in Dover.

Alphonso Lavallee visited his mother and sister in Putnam, Conn., over the week-end.

June 6, 1929

The Missionary Society will hold an all day meeting for sewing at the home of Mrs. Frank Caldwell June 13.
June 13, 1929

Mrs. A. L. Calef of Barrington, with her mother, Mrs. Chesley, and daughters, Ruth and Mildred, called on Mrs. Tyler Wednesday of last week, also Mrs. Mathes and Mrs. Dorr of Epping.

Monday Mrs. Frank Clark and son, Everette, of Barrington were at the Lee parsonage.

Fred Comings is having his house painted.

Eight of the pupils in the North Lee school were taken to Newmarket one day last week for the purpose of having dental work done, at the office of Dr. C. H. Chase.

Charles A. Ellison of Barrington has been helping his uncle, Chester Ellison, with the spring work.

There was a very large attendance at a whist party and dance at Grange hall last Friday evening. Another party will be held this Friday night.

Kathrine Jones of Dover spent the weekend at the home of her mother and sister.

All the schools of the town close this Friday. Children's Night will be held Thursday at Grange hall, the program being furnished by the school children.

Mrs. Raymond Munroe was a visitor in Manchester and Northwood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fogg are moving to Packer's Falls.
June 20, 1929

Ben Reid of Durham was a caller on Fred Comings last Wednesday evening.

Charles Ellison has had medical treatment recently for a bad foot trouble caused by an irritated bunion.

Haven Layne and Nehemiah Snell are working on the Turtle Pond road.

Mrs. Ernest Menter and daughter have started to work at the University in Durham.

On Children’s Night last Thursday at Jeremiah Smith Grange a very interesting and excellent program was given by the children of the North and Center schools, under the supervision of the teachers, Mrs. Munroe and Mrs. Isaacson. The Center school program consisted of a fairy land play, the cast including all the scholars. They were dressed in colored crepe paper costumes which, when all the players were on the stage, made a very pleasing sight. The program of the North side school was made up of seventeen recitations and three songs, which were all very good, and a dance given by the girls in a pleasing manner. The children were served ice cream and cake as a light refreshment, furnished by the Grange members. Dancing and games were enjoyed by all.

Many Lee people attended the Junior promenade at the city opera house, Dover, last Tuesday evening.

At the closing of the North Lee school the pupils were served ice cream, cake, candies, cookies and lemonade by their teacher, Mrs. Munroe, assisted by Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Albert Dudley. Games and stunts were indulged in by all.

Pupils of the North Lee school on the honor roll for the term ending June 14 are Elizabeth Ellison, George Ellison, Mildred McDaniel, Madaline Caldwell, Edward Dionne, Blanche Dionne and Emily Archer. Elizabeth Ellison received honors for the entire year.

The regular Friday night whist party at Grange hall drew a very good attendance last week. Another party will be held this Friday night.

Miss Audrey Spencer has been stopping over the week ends at Mrs. J. C. Kendall’s in Durham.
The pupils of the Lee Center school were entertained Saturday by their teacher, Mrs. Mina Isaacson at Stimson's hall, Durham, and at Barbadoes Pond. Twenty-three of the children were present. They were conveyed by autos and at Stimson's they were served a lunch of sandwiches, cakes, ice cream and tonic by the teacher.

The graduates of the Center school were Alice Davis, Dorothy Whitehouse, Ellen Marrioti, Marion and Charles James.

Charles and Forrest James, with Robert Thompson and Haven Layne, went deep sea fishing last Sunday with friends in Durham. The largest fish caught, by Haven Layne, weighed 35 pounds.

Arthur Dionne has a new car, a Hudson coach.

Mrs. Maud Page has returned to the home of her father, Alphonse Jones, for a few weeks vacation.

Nolan James has been working at John Currier's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dionne and family spent Sunday at Hampton and Salisbury beaches.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker of Dover were callers at Alphonse Jones last Sunday afternoon.

Homer James and friend, Mr. Wells, spent the week-end at Mrs. Hattie James'.

Mrs. Ruth Munroe received a beautiful geranium from Gladys Jones as a token of remembrance of her teacher.

Major Lowe presented his neighbor with a basket of everbearing strawberries from his garden.

An all day missionary meeting was held last Thursday at Mrs. Frank Caldwell's.

Mrs. Chester Ellison called on Mrs. Channing Folsom of Newmarket last Monday afternoon.

Donald Thompson was home from Boston over the week-end.
Mr. Dame and Mr. and Mrs. French and children spent Sunday at Charles Piper's.

Charles W. Thompson and Oscar Paul went to Pawtuchaway mountains Saturday.

Louise Tuttle is visiting in Boston this week.

Mrs. Dora Caswell of New Hampton has been visiting friends in Lee and Newmarket.

Grace Thurston and Oscar Paul were visitors in North Andover Monday.

Miss Gertrude Marcotte of Claremont and Mrs. Gage and daughter of Epping called on Grace Thurston Friday.

Callers at the Thurston farm Sunday were Mr. Paul and two sons and Charles Thompson of Dover, Mr. and Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Sanborn of Portsmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerouard and children of Salmon Falls.

Mrs. Arthur Dionne has completed her occupation at Follansbee's lunch cart in Durham.

Charles Ellison has been the guest of Charles Langmaid the past few days.

Several people of this town went to Sells Floto circus in Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps of Dover called at the old Hale farm last Monday evening.

Miss Gladys Jones is now studying music under Mrs. Platts of Dover.

The Misses Eva and Mabel Bunker of West Somerville, Mass., were callers on Mrs. Chester Ellison on the 15th. They were on their way to the Bunker family reunion held at Durham on the 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dionne and two children motored to Nashua Saturday to spend the week-end there with Mr. Dionne's parents. Miss Blanche will remain for a two weeks visit.

Mrs. Arthur Dionne has completed her occupation at Follansbee's lunch cart in Durham.

Charles Ellison has been the guest of Charles Langmaid the past few days.

Several people of this town went to Sells Floto circus in Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps of Dover called at the old Hale farm last Monday evening.

Miss Gladys Jones is now studying music under Mrs. Platts of Dover.

The Misses Eva and Mabel Bunker of West Somerville, Mass., were callers on Mrs. Chester Ellison on the 15th. They were on their way to the Bunker family reunion held at Durham on the 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dionne and two children motored to Nashua Saturday to spend the week-end there with Mr. Dionne's parents. Miss Blanche will remain for a two weeks visit.
Lee Cartland Tyler was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Jennie Tyler, for several days, returning to his home last Wednesday.

Miss Marcia Thompson is improving after an operation on her tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rugg of New York City were visitors at the old Hale farm over the week-end.

Mrs. Jennie Tyler visited friends in Barrington Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimball and son, Robert, of Kensington, with Mrs. Maud Page, mother of Mrs. Kimball, motored to the White Mountains where they spent a delightful week-end. Saturday night was passed in Glendale.

Miss Audrey Spencer and friend motored to Suncook and Concord last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe spent Sunday in Northwood with Mrs. Munroe's mother. They returned home by way of Manchester, where they left Miss Anna Kelley, sister of Mrs. Munroe, who is training as a nurse.

Miss Alice Davis is working in New Castle.

Forrest Twombly of Dover was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson last Sunday.

Ellsworth Fiske's mother passed away at her home in Exeter Monday morning after a long illness.

Miss Lavinnia Soles spent the week-end with her grandparents in Nottingham.

George A. Bennett is substituting for his brother, Robert, as carrier on the Newmarket rural mail route.

Miss Pauline Johnson is clerking at Rand's store in Durham. She plans to stay until August.

Lewis Ellison will soon complete his saw mill job on the Ellison lot in town.
July 11, 1929

Mr. Waite of Lynn, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Charles Johnson for several days.

Mr. And Mrs. Arthur Dionne and family, who have been living at the Old Hale Farm for the past year or two, have moved to one of Charles Ellison's tenements in Newmarket.

G. J. Kimball of Cordaville, Mass., is stopping at his home here for a few days.

Mr. Johnson and daughter, Violet, with Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and friends, all of Rockland, Mass., were callers on Miss Clare Ellison last Monday.

Alphonse Lavallee had some midnight callers last Thursday night. His sister, Ida, with her husband and four friends of Putnam, Conn., called on the Lavallee family at 12 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Johnson and her husband and son motored to Burlington, Vt., last Monday to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Ben White.

July 18, 1929

There will be a lawn party on the church grounds at Lee Hill Friday, July 19. Ice cream, cake, candy and mystery packages will be on sale. Admission is free. In case of rain the party will be held in Grange hall.

H. M. Rugg of New York City is on a two weeks vacation at his future home, the Hale farm.