"For blessed deeds, like balls of snow,
Kept rolling on through life's rough weather,
Enlarge their fullness as they go,
Until they bind the world together."

There will be a meeting of the Old Home week association at Grange Hall Tuesday evening, Aug. 6, at 8 o'clock, sharp. It is hoped that all of the several committees will be present, as it is desired by those in charge to perfect all arrangements at that time.

Miss Gertrude Smith, staying in Durham, passed Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, at Harmony Dale.

Mrs. Robert Jones and two children of Lawrence, Mass., have been the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Susan Howe, the past week.

Last Friday it became necessary to remove John Gibbs, who has recently been stricken by senile insanity, from his home to the State Hospital at Concord.

Daniel E. Plummer had business in Dover the first of the week.

Mrs. Bert Pray and children, Mrs. Emma Hale and children made a trolley trip to Hampton Beach last Thursday.

Mrs. John Jones, nee Florence Fernald, of Alton is visiting for the present with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fernald, "Mast" road.

Richard Knight of Newark, N.J., has for two weeks been staying with Charles Stackpole.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn is entertaining this week Miss Alice Jenkins and C.T. Wheeler of Worcester, Mass.

Miss Nellie Chesley is visiting with friends in Boston this week and taking in the Old Home week celebration.

Rev. G.E. Kinney and family have returned from their vacation and there will be services as usual at the chapel Sunday.

The friends of Miss Mollie Bartlett will be pleased to know she was able to return Wednesday from the Wentworth hospital in Dover, where she has been for several weeks for surgical treatment, and is getting along nicely.

Arthur Gillis of New York City has been staying at Willow Homestead the past week, preparing for the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Howard and family, who came Thursday, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Barnes. They will pass the month of August at The Larches.

Simeon C. Hardy has been home from Ayer, Mass., for a few days and has now gone to Hillsborough and Antrim.

Curtis Stimpson has been entertaining his cousins, a Mrs. Stimpson, of Berwick, Me., for a few days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. York had business in Dover Tuesday.

Miss Rose Bartlett, a nurse at the Wentworth hospital in Dover, is afflicted by a light case of typhoid fever.
August 2, 1907 cont.

Very "catching" weather for the farmers who have not finished haying and nearly all of them have more to do yet.

Summer boarders are gathering in this quiet place for rest and recreation. Edwin Caldwell and Will Layn both have a houseful and more to come. Other houses in town are also supplied with boarders and visitors, so there are new faces to meet everywhere.

Mrs. Horace G. Hill made a week-end visit with her parents at Rochester last week.

Mrs. Mary J. Hill had quite a severe attack of indigestion last week. Dr. Grant of Durham was called, and she is now able to be about again, though in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Roberts of Dover and Miss Bernice Stearns spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lane, Mrs. Susan P.D. Lane, and Mrs. H. Brooks and Miss Beatrice Brooks also were there. Miss Stearns goes to Concord to teach this fall.

Maurice Lane has taken the contract of the B & M railroad to grade up and level the sidetrack at Hoitt's Crossing, a nice job for the fall weather.

Mrs. Granville Thompson and two children have returned from a two weeks' visit with her mother at Biddeford, Me.

Daniel Burley and wife have moved into the house of Mrs. Susan Dow, for the present. Mrs. Dow, although 88 years of age, is very smart and prefers to live alone and to do her own work.

Dr. A.W. Hill of Concord and friend, Frank Kilburn, visited at S.W. Lane's last week.

Mrs. B.F. Layne and two children visited at Walter Buzzell's at Barrington last Sunday.

Miss C. Grace Hill, who teaches in Andover, Mass., is passing her vacation at the Hill homestead with her mother and brother Horace.
Chas. H. Hill from Lowell, Mass., is there for a few weeks, also John H. Hill and Augustus Hill from Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Philbrick are stopping at the Snell farm for a couple of weeks.

Berries are quite plentiful and old and young are improving the time in gathering in the delicious fruit.

Nearby,

Mrs. William Kirkwood and son, Robbie, of Nashua were visitors at Jacob Cilley's recently.

Miss Julia Sullivan of Haverhill is passing a few days with the Connor sisters.

There is a general complaint of the poor quality of the drinking water at Wadley's; the fibre company's well being abandoned.

Mrs. Hannah Tuttle, who is 84 years young, sure, was out scouring the woods last week for berries, but found none. This isn't the glad year for them. How do they pan out over your way, Nearby?

Mrs. S. M. Haley is taking in the festivities of old home week in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Keeler of Haverhill, who are camping at Newton Junction for the summer, were in Wadley's Tuesday, Mrs. Keeler continuing on to her old home in Somersworth.

Nature seems to have given an extra touch of thrift and beauty to the vegetable kingdom to make amends for her bad behavior all the wretched spring, when the general cry was "we shan't raise anything this year". I think I never saw finer potato fields—and everything else, in fact, "blossoms like the wilderness."

Misses May and Catherine Coombs of Melrose, Mass., spent Sunday with Mrs. B. J. Thompson at Pine Grove Farm.
August 9, 1907

“Life has some joys in it yet—
You may never be rich, you may never be great,
But carry your head like a ruler of state—
Don’t sorrow, don’t grumble, don’t fret.”

Mrs. E.F. Chandler and son, Master Rete, of Nashua are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E.O. Fifield for a few weeks. Mrs. Hopkins, who is also staying at Breezy Hill this summer, is passing a few days in Nashua.

Mrs. Rebecca P.D. Bennett was present at the Frost reunion held at Salem Willows, Mass., last week. Her maternal grandmother was a Frost.

All who own lots in Lee Hill cemetery, and all who are interested in the appearance of the resting place of the town’s dead, are requested to meet at Lee Hill, Thursday, Aug. 15, prepared to tidy up and make any improvements and repairs that may be deemed necessary before Old Home Day.

Miss Mary B. York passed a few days last week with friends at Newmarket, and while there made a trip to Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Nichols of Winchendon, Mass., are passing a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Gilman V. Durgin. Mrs. Olive Hayes of Dover has also been a recent guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton McLaughlin of Wakefield, Mass., also made a week-end visit at Glenmere.

Daniel E. Plummer went to Concord Monday to take charge of the body of John Gibbs, who died Sunday at the State Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Barnes and a friend, Mrs. Christopher, of New York, and Mrs. Ada Frost and friend, Mrs. Spinney, of Lynn, Mass., are guests at Willow Homestead.

Miss Rena Young, on the Newmarket road, accompanied Miss Nancy Pendergast, who is summering at Elm Rest, to Boston to consult an oculist. She is having serious trouble with her eyes. Miss Enwright of Charlestown came back with Miss Pendergast Monday, and will remain awhile at Elm Rest.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Joseph D. Thompson of Exeter passed a part of last week at Pine Row.

Mrs. S. Fleischer and little son, “Teddy,” and Miss Goldie London of Boston are passing a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Webb. Mrs. Turner and daughter, Miss Nellie, and Mrs. Elmer Chandler, with three children, of Lynn, Mass., have also been visitors at the Webb farm the past week.

Miss Nellie Wiggin is visiting with friends in Brookline, Mass.

There will be a lawn party on the grounds of Grange Hall on the evening of Aug. 15, under the auspices of the church social committee. There will be a fine musical programme, as it is expected there will be a violinist from Boston, a pianist from New York and other out-of-town talent present, and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated. A cordial invitation is extended to all and it is hoped there will be a large number present.

Miss Mary Catharine says, from...
Miss Mary Critcherson came from New York Wednesday, to visit with her aunt, Mrs. Ora Howard, at The Larches.

Mrs. Charles Manning and son, Master Frank, of Haverhill, Mass., came Thursday to visit their aunt, Mrs. R.P.D. Bennett, at Hill Crest.

Miss Rose Keniston, who met such a horrible death at Newmarket, Aug. 3, lived just across the Newmarket line. She was fourtteen years of age, and is survived by a father, mother, and three brothers. The funeral occurred at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon. Rev. W.L. Phillips had charge. Beautiful musical selections were rendered by Mrs. F.H. Pinkham and Mrs. C.H. Neal. There were many beautiful flowers. The bearers were Albert Dudley, Willie F. Chapman, Remie Bergeron and George A. Bennett, C.E. Tasker, conductor, and interment was in Riverside cemetery. Miss Keniston was kind, affectionate and helpful in the home, and especially so to her little brother. Her teacher, who has had charge of her for ten years, was very much attached to her, speaks of her willingness to assist in many ways, and of her kindness to the smaller children. O, the pity of it! That one so young, scarcely more than a child, should fall helpless under the influence and into the hands of such a brutal man. Sometimes the question arises in our mind why such things are permitted. Sometime, somewhere, the mystery may be solved, and somewhere, in a purified existence, we shall meet our loved once again.

"So many paths lead up to God, 'Twere strange if any soul should miss them all."

John Gibbs, who died at the State Hospital in Concord, Aug. 4, of senile insanity, aged seventy-seven years, is survived by a widow only. His funeral occurred at the chapel Wednesday afternoon, C.E. Tasker of Newmarket, director. Rev. G.E. Kinney conducted the services. Appropriate musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Miss Ethel Durgin, with Mrs. George Dudley at the organ. The bearers were John C. Bartlett, Daniel W. Burley, Daniel E. Plummer and Charles Dame. Interment in Lee Hill Cemetery. The floral gifts were many and beautiful. Mr. Gibbs was not a native of Lee, but has lived here many years, his wife being a native of this town. He was a kind husband, a good neighbor and a peaceable citizen. Mr. Gibbs was a member of the Sawyer Post, G.A.R., of Dover, which, was represented, as was also the Newmarket and Epping posts.
August 9, 1907 cont.

He was one of the first to respond to the call for volunteers to serve in the civil war and served three months as corporal in the First New Hampshire regiment, re-enlisted for three years in Co. E. Thirteenth New Hampshire Vol., and was appointed sergeant. In the engagement at Fort Harrison the ammunition running short, on account of the teams being unable to approach, as the mules were shot by sharpshooters, Major Stoodley called for volunteers to bring it. Mr. Gibbs nobly responded, bringing boxes of ammunition under a heavy fire over an open field. For this act of bravery he was promoted to 2d Lieutenant. "Taps" have sounded, he has answered the last roll-call and entered the ranks of the comrades who are crossing the broad river, at the rate of sixty thousand a year, to the white tents of the silent, to rest in the bivouac of eternal peace.

"There is left a shattered remnant
A worn and weary few,
Of the mighty host that sprung to arms
Way back in '62."

Was glad to learn that blueberries are plentiful over Clearfield way. Wish we could say the same of Wadley’s.

Miss Ida Small has a maltese cat fourteen years old. Quite an aged feline.

Daniel Shannon’s physician has ordered hospital treatment for him, on account of a serious stomach trouble. He is going to-day (Wednesday) to the Cottage hospital, Exeter.

Since putting an air box in their pump, the drinking water at the mill is fit for use once more.

Fred Sewall accompanied his mother, Mrs. Charles Sewall, of the Plains, to Boston last week, where she is to receive surgical treatment.

Guy Glidden went to Boston Monday, returning in his auto, which had been left there for repairs.

Mrs. Frank Haley has been appointed organizing president for the state of New Hampshire of the Daughters of 1812.

Jacob Cilley, a valuable employee at the mill, has been obliged to give up work there for awhile, owing to poor health.

This is the kind of weather that would suit the good shepherd of Salisbury Plains.

After having had experts from Boston and otherwhere, to try to get the fibre company’s engine in running order, but without avail (it having been a refractory sort of beast ever since it arrived here), it was suggested that they try an old-time, retired machinist, Charles P. Young of Newmarket Plains. "He came, he saw, he conquered" the creature in a few hours, it came to terms at last. Not warranted to always be good, machines will balk.

Mrs. Horace E. Morse and daughters, Helen and Sara, of Malden, Mass., are stopping at Pine Grove Farm with Mrs. F. J. Thompson for two weeks.
"What asks our Father of his children, save Justice, and Mercy, and Humility, A reasonable service of good deeds, Reverence and trust and prayer for light to see The Master's footprints in our daily ways?" —Hittier.

Mrs. Frank Randall is entertaining her nephew, Elmer Manock, of Annapolis Naval School.

Miss Susie Blanchard and Miss Nellie Kinnie of Malden, Mass., are the guests of Miss Mary B York at Meadowbrook Farm.

Miss Bernice Stearns of Dover is visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lane, at Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Wagner of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Albion Soule of Kingston, Mass., at Maplewood.

David Davis of Duluth, Minn., is passing a few weeks at Durham, dined with Mr. and Mrs. Fred B York at Walnut Avenue Farms Sunday.

Daniel Shannon, who went to the Cottage Hospital at Exeter recently for surgical treatment, is rallying nicely, as the operation was very successful.

Ralph Bryant of Portland, Me., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F Davis at The Meadows over Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Welch of Swampscott, Mass., is staying for awhile with her sister, Mrs. Susan Edgerly.

Miss Mollie Bartlett and visiting friend, Miss Mollie Costello, went to Exeter Thursday to remain over night. Friday, they will go by trolley to Hampton Beach, and pass Friday night with friends in Newmarket, returning to The Ranch Satuday.

The ladies in town are requested to sustain their reputation, as generous providers, Old Home Day, Aug. 21, by contributing cake, doughnuts and turnovers, instead of pies, as formerly.

Miss Mary Costello of Haverhill, Mass., is the guest of Miss Mary Connor for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Glidden took an early start Sunday morning (4 am) for Derry. Notwithstanding the heat they found it very comfortable travelling by auto.

Miss Rosa Nichols of Boston is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pendergast.

Mrs. Byron Grover and daughter, Miss Louise of Lynn, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. Blanche Learnd at H.M. Glidden's.

Walter Webb, who has been staying at home for several weeks, returned to his work in Lowell, Mass., Sunday evening.

Miss Alice Manning of Haverhill, Mass., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R.P. D. Bennett, at Hill Crest.

Ira B Hill of Durham called on Mrs. R.P. D. Bennett last Friday at Hill Crest.

Frances C. Davis of Newark, N
Erastus C. Davis of Newark, N.J., is visiting his daughter and sister, Mrs. A.D. Wiggin and Miss Ethel I. Davis, at Willow Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Randall and four children, Misses Maud, Edna, Ellen and Master Maurice, of Amesbury, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Mary F. Taylor of Wollaston, Mass., is also a visitor and Bert Cass and Miss Phoebe Hopkins of Somerville, Mass., made a week-end visit at Wayside Farm.

Friday, Frank Page of Dover visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. York. Ira B. Hill of Durham also called at Walnut Avenue Farms.

We received a souvenir postal card from Mrs. Thomas J. Davis of Duluth, Minn., (Mr. Davis was a native of Lee) dated July 27, giving a fine view of that old city, Florence, it also showed three of the four fine bridges that span the river, Arno, which divides the city into two unequal parts. The chief being on the northern bank, prominent is the Cathedral, the foundation of which was laid with great solemnity in 1298. Mrs. Davis and daughter, Miss Millet, have been touring England, France, Switzerland and Italy and will return early in September.

Miss Olive Brackett of Boston has been spending a week with Mrs. Herbert Thompson.

Mrs. Belle Garrity’s house is nearly ready for occupancy, as the carpenters have finished their work and the masons are now employed.

The C.E. meeting last Sunday night was quite fully attended. Mr. George Dudley was leader. Miss Critcherson gave an interesting account of the settlement work in which she is engaged.

Mrs. James Buzzell returned home Tuesday, from Barrington, where she has been stopping for several months, accompanied by Miss Helen Buzzell, who has been there for a week or two.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. A class of four were instructed in the first and second degrees, after which the programme for the evening was carried out.

Many families in town are making preparations for guests coming Saturday, to spend “Old Home Week” with them.

Frank Dearborn and family spent the day in Portland, Wednesday.

Miss Bernice Stearns, who has been stopping with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lane, for a short time, is visiting this week with her aunt in Worcester, Mass.
August 23, 1907

Mrs. Frank Tyler and two children, Miss Elizabeth and Master Lee, of Hudson are passing this week with her sister, Bessie Cartland. Charles Cartland of Dover also passed Sunday at the old home, Walnut Grove.

As Rev. G.E. Kinney preaches in Madbury Sunday afternoons, the old home week association invited the society to join with us in the morning worship. Several responded. Mrs. Sarah Burley of Epping also attended the morning service at the chapel Sunday.

Miss Mary A. Chesley is visiting with an old schoolmate in South Manchester, Mass., this week.

Miss Catherine Hartenstien and Miss Emma Scherpher of Jamaica Plain, Mass., are guests at Wayside Farm.

Mrs. Josephine Ladd and little son, Karl Plummer Ladd, of Epping have recently visited with Mrs. Ladd’s mother, Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson, at Riverside Cottage.

Mrs. Frank Bunker of South Berwick, Me., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison this week.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. George E. Chesley entertained fifteen of the young friends of her daughter, Miss Nellie, in a very pleasing manner. As they have a spacious lawn the greater part of the time was passed out-of-doors in games and social intercourse. Dainty refreshments were served and Miss Nellie was remembered by several beautiful gifts.

Mrs. William Davis and daughter, Miss Velma, of Dover are passing the week at Curtis Stimpson’s.

The concert at Grange Hall last Thursday evening was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. The solo by Mrs. Frank Merrill of Boston was fully appreciated, as was also the readings by Miss Flora Wellington and John McDaniel.

At last the drought is broken. We had a gentle rain Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas Parsons and daughter, Miss Dorothy of Portsmouth, are passing this week with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins.

The bonfire on Wednesday hill Saturday evening, which ushered in Old Home Week, burned bright, true and steady, like a beacon light. Tuesday evening there were about four hundred who witnessed the fine display of fireworks on the ground of Grange hall, after which ice cream

Cont..
August 23, 1907 cont.

And cake were served. Although Wednesday, “Old Home Day,” was cloudy in the morning, and during the forenoon the rain fell steadily, there was a goodly number present. Old acquaintances met and exchanged greetings, clasped friendly hands, which caused hearts to grow warmer. Early in the forenoon there was the usual ball game between the married and single men, the former won with a score of 19 to 15. Miss Jennie Farwell attended to registering the names of visitors, in a graceful, pleasing manner, and Miss Edna James deftly pinned badges to each guest. At noon a bountiful lunch, supplemented by fruit and hot coffee, was served to about two hundred and fifty guests. The chapel was tastily decorated with wild flowers, and the entertainment programme was presided over by Fred P. Comings, president, who “did himself proud” by his address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. Jennie Cartland Tyler, a former resident, who in a natural, easy manner, with beautiful, well-chosen words, expressed her great love for Lee and its people. There were selections by the Newmarket orchestra, interspersed with an appropriate selection by a quartette, singing by the audience, reading of letters from former citizens, who were unable to be present, which were replete with love for the old home and the friends of yore, a duet by the Durgin sisters, in their usual pleasing manner, and remarks by former residents. We wish to especially mention those who were visitors and who so kindly assisted Miss Mollie Costello of Dorchester, Mass., sang a solo in a sweet, clear voice, which was very pleasing, little Miss Dora Hubby of Dover rendered a violin solo in an attractive, skillful manner each responded to an encore. After all joined in singing “God Be With You ‘Till We Meet Again,” we started out in the mist which was powerless to dampen the pleasure we had experienced during the whole day. Later in the evening E.O. Fifield lighted a bonfire at Breezy Hill, which glowed redly and warm against the murky sky, typical of the warmth that had been revived in our hearts by the remembrance of the old days.

“The old days”—the far days
The ever-dear and fair —
The old days—the lost days—
How lovely they were
The old days of Morning
With the dew-drench on the flowers,
And apple buds and blossoms
Of those old days of ours.

Gen. Charles W. Bartlett, who was to have delivered an address, was not present. The committee received a letter from him Thursday morning, stating that he was in Western Massachusetts on very important business, which he could not conclude in time to get to Lee Wednesday. He wishes the committee to apologize for him to the people, and regrets that he could not be present.

There bide the true friends—
The first and the best,
There clings the green grass
Close where they rest
Would they were here? No,—
Would we were there
The old days—the lost days—
How lovely they were!”

Gen. Charles W. Bartlett,
A pleasant home wedding was celebrated at high noon Wednesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Davis of South Lee, when their daughter, Grace, was given in marriage to Mr. Ralph N. Bryant of Portland, Maine. Mr. Bryant is a graduate of Amherst College in the class of 98, and now has charge of the Portland office of a Boston banking house. The bride is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College in the class of 1903. Only the near relatives of the young people were present.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants, ferns, palms, and cut flowers, while ropes of laurel and smilax, festooned with white ribbons, draped the staircase, hallway, and doors through which the bridal couple passed. The bay window of the parlor was filled with green, studded with white asters, and from the centre hung a large bell of white asters.

Mr. Glidden Bryant of Newcastle, Me., brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Miss Della Gray of Dover, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Master Nelson Kinney was ring bearer. Misses Cora and Ethel Littlefield of Brookline, Mass., cousins of the bride, played the bridal and wedding music upon the piano and violin.

The bride came in upon her father's arm, by whom she was given away, looking very sweet in a lovely white satin gown, with trimmings of rich lace and applique. She carried a bouquet of white roses and her veil was also fastened with white roses. The maid-of-honor wore a pink silk, lace trimmed, and carried sweet peas.

Rev. George E. Kinney, the pastor of the bride, united the couple, using the double ring service.

After the wedding breakfast had been served in the beautifully decorated dining room, the young people left amid showers of confetti to take the train to Portland. The honeymoon will be spent in a cottage off the Maine coast, after which they will reside in Portland, Me. The presents to the young people included silver ware, some of the pieces being very beautiful, nice china, cut glass, elegant paintings in oil, a fine piano, and last, but not least, several checks of large size.

The young couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends, with whom they have both been very popular.
Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hill and daughter, Miss Dorothy, and son, Master Benjamin, of Somersworth, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. True Bartlett at The Ranch several days the first of the week.

Miss Nellie Chesley passed three days this week in Boston, returning to her home Wednesday.

Edward Bartlett of Exeter, a former resident, visited with his brother, John C. Bartlett, at Wayside Farm last week.

A Mrs. Hooper of Dover is the guest of Miss Laurette Langley at the present time.

Miss Rebecca Osborne of Boston is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. R.P.D. Bennett, at Hill Crest.

Mrs. Mary Robinson of Merrimac, Mass., is staying with her sister, Mrs. G.E. Chesley, for awhile.

Miss Helen Frost and Miss Mildred Bowen of Lynn, Mass., are passing two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin. Charles F. Davis, also of Lynn, passed two days last week at Willow Homestead.

There will be a lawn party on the grounds around C.E. Hall this (Friday) evening. There will be something for entertainment, and ice cream and cake will be on sale. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Sarah Chapman of Newmarket was the guest of Miss Mary B. York a few days recently at Meadowbrook Farm.

Dr. Arthur Oldham of Wellesley Hills, Mass., passed a few days last week with his brother, Frank Oldham, at Maplewood.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson of Exeter are passing this week at Pine Row.

Daniel E. Plummer and John Noble were in Boston three days last week and also attended the Readville races.

The Woman's Missionary meeting will be next Wednesday with Miss Nora Whitehouse at Alphonso Jones'. All who are interested in missionary work are invited to be present.

Miss Katherine M. Quint of Marion, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. G.E. Chesley this week.

Miss Kate Adams of Dover is the guest of Miss Bessie Cartland at Walnut Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dalton of Haverhill, Mass., spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Marilla Dalton, last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Dalton of Haverhill, Mass., spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Marilla Dalton, last week.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Tuxbury of Amesbury, Mass., who once lived in this town about fourteen years, will be pained to know that Mrs. Tuxbury is entirely helpless and speechless from a stroke of paralysis, and that Mr. Tuxbury is severely wounded in the cheek and arm by an accident in handling an axe.

Charles Cartland, Miss Bessie Cartland, Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson and Mrs. Jennie C. Tyler attended the old home celebration in Weare last Friday, it being the birthplace of their mother and at one time their home.

Saturday the preparatory meeting will be at Lee Hill. The Lord's supper will be commemorated Sunday at the chapel.

Simeon C. Hardy went to Antrim Monday, where he has recently purchased a farm. Woodbury Burleigh accompanied him to assist in putting the buildings in repair, which will take about two weeks.

The Misses Mollie and Pauline Bartlett took a trip over Lake Winnipesaukee last Saturday.

S.E. DeMerritt, who lost his house by fire last spring, has workmen employed in putting up another, hoping to be able to move in before cold weather.

Mrs. E.O. Fifield and sister, Mrs. Chandler, left Wednesday for a few days' visit in Atkinson.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn and daughter, Miss Hazel, and Miss Jennie Farwell recently spent a few days at Hampton Beach, and reported a very enjoyable time.

John Randall has returned from teaching in the summer school, and has spent a few days in town before returning to Clinton, Mass., where he resumes teaching in Clinton High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Durgin are visiting relatives this week in Chelsea.

Miss Winnie Chesley has recently made a short visit at Silver Lake, Newton Junction, and is now visiting in Malden, Mass.

A goodly number of guests are summering in town at the present time, quite a number are stopping at the pleasant homes of William Caldwell and William Lane, on the North Side.

On Tuesday evening a large number were present at Jeremiah Smith Grange. A class were instructed in the third and fourth degrees, after which a supper was served.

On Friday last, a few families met at E.O. Fifield's Breezy Hill, for a picnic. The weather being cool, dinner was served on his spacious veranda. The day was delightful and everything was made very agreeable for the guests.