October 4, 1928

The Ferguson family were at their farm Sunday.

Charles Allen and granddaughter were Exeter visitors recently.

Edgar Dame and family of Haverhill were callers at Charles Piper’s Sunday.

Callers at the Thurston farm on Sunday were Arthur Tenney and family of Worcester, Ralph Kent and family and Laura Sanborn of Newmarket, and Wesley Thompson of Dover.

The Lake Wheelwright 4-H Club met at Miss Audrey Spencer’s home last Saturday morning.

Alphonso Lavallee’s mother and sister and some friends from Putnam, Conn., called on him and his family last Sunday.

The children of Forrest James feel quite badly over the loss of their pet dog, “Buster.” He was hit by a passing car and died a few hours later. The dog had been in the family for a long time.

The Eastern New Hampshire Pomona Grange met with Jeremiah Smith Grange of this town for an all-day affair last Thursday. A closed session was held in the morning, with two candidates from Jeremiah Smith Grange. They were Vivian Bloom and Frank Oldham. A public meeting was held in the afternoon, which was well attended.

Arthur Dionne had callers from Nashua. Among them were Mr. Dionne, father of Arthur Dionne, Mr. Richard and Mr. Mignsault and two sons. Also some friends from Maine.

Charles Caverino visited his father, who is not feeling well.

Mrs. Don Lewis, sister of Granville Thompson, fell and broke her leg while leaving the 5 and 10 cent store in Dover. She was taken to the Hayes hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rounds of West Moreland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fogg last Sunday.

Lee branch of the Red Cross contributed $45 for the hurricane relief fund.

Mrs. Lloyd Fogg and son, Russell, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Vermont and Massachusetts, and in Concord and Keene, have returned home.

George Fox of Arlington, Mass., called on friends in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Todd and family of Concord were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fogg last Sunday.

Among the Lee people who were invited to attend the meeting of Margery Sullivan Chapter, D.A.R., held at the "Old Demeritt Homestead" in Madbury last Monday afternoon, were Mrs. Frank D. Randall, Miss Amanda Randall, Mrs. William Caldwell, Mrs. Elizabeth Snell and Mrs. Frank I. Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Willmott of Athol, Mass., are expected to be present at the union meeting of the Barrington, Madbury and Lee missionary societies to be held at the Madbury church Monday afternoon, October 15. Mr. Willmott is a former pastor of the Lee Congregational church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell attended the fall inspection of Rochester Grange held last Saturday evening.

There will be a demonstration meeting of "simple desserts" held at the home of Mrs. Benton Layne Thursday afternoon.

A surprise party for Miss Gladys Jones was held last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity, the occasion being her tenth birthday. She received many pretty gifts from her friends. Games were played, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.
October 18, 1928

Mrs. Ann Derosier, sister of Mrs. Clarence Fernald was a carer at the Fernald farm, also Clarence Fernald is visiting his uncle Clarence.

Mrs. Mary Childs, who has been an invalid for the past six years, took an auto ride with her daughter from Lynn, Mass. She enjoys the ride very much.

Horace Caverno, who has not been feeling well of late, is under the care of Dr. Lawler of Dover.

Miss Audrey Spencer and Miss Clare F. Ellison attended the 4-H [nb] meeting held at the [nb] last Wednesday [nb].

The Lake Wheelwright 4-H Club members of this town have completed their year's work. They will probably receive their pins and certificates on Achievement Night, which is to be held on October 31, at the town hall. The club would like to enroll any new members who might wish to join. The new year's work will begin soon.

Mrs. Aaron Corson, mother of George Corson, had an illness last Monday night. There will be a Hallowe'en party held at Grange Hall on the evening of October 30. The program will be printed later.

Mrs. Bessie J. Richardson died in East Candia on October 13 in her 77th year. She was born in Lawrence, Mass. Her mother passed away when she was very young and she came to Lee and spent her early girlhood with her uncle, Burnham Buzzell, and will be remembered as Bessie McQueston. She married George F. Richardson in 1872, and she leaves her husband, one son, Josiah C. and a daughter, Fila B. Dearborn with whom she has made her home the last few months. Mrs. Richardson early joined the Congregational church in Lee and has been an earnest worker in her church and in the town of her adoption. She was laid to rest amid beautiful flowers in a quiet spot in Candia Village cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and daughter of Newton, Mass., were in town over the weekend.

The church will hold their annual harvest supper Friday, October 26, at 6.30 p.m. at Grange Hall. Fruits and vegetables for exhibition are respectfully solicited by the committee.

The fall inspection of Jeremiah Smith Grange will take place Tuesday evening, October 23. The Grange is planning for a Hallowe'en party on Tuesday evening, October 30.

A community meeting with the county agent, home demonstration agent and the 4-H club leader will be held at the town hall on Wednesday evening, October 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodge of Somerville, Mass., spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel.
Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett went to Manchester Sunday to celebrate the eighty fifth birthday of Mr. Bartlett's father.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel motored to Somerville Sunday.

The harvest supper will be held this Friday evening at 6.30, and will be followed by a good program.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell and family visited friends in Haverhill, Mass., last Sunday.

Mrs. Helen MacRae, who went under an operation for goitre last week at the Hayes hospital, Dover, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lang were visitors in town last week.

There will be a Hallowe'en party at Grange Hall next Tuesday evening. It will begin at 8 o'clock, with all kinds of games that will last until 9 o'clock, when a short play will be presented, also a drill and other features. At 10 o'clock there will be a grand march and every one should be in costume. A prize will be given for the best costume and the funniest. After this there will be dancing until 12. An admission of 25 cents will be charged.

The Fall inspection of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held last Tuesday night.

Alphonso Lavallee is in the Manchester hospital.

Horace F. Caverno died Oct. 22, aged 77 years, 6 months and 6 days. He was born in Strafford, and had resided in Lee for 50 years. He is survived by three sons and one daughter, none of whom live at home. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at his late home.
November 1, 1928

The Hallowe’en party held at the Grange hall Tuesday evening was a great success, many attending and everyone having a good time. The prize on the costumes was awarded to Mrs. Gertrude Hayward.

Alphonso Lavallee, who was operated on in Manchester last week, is gaining very slowly and is not yet out of danger.

Mrs. Helen MacRae has returned home from the Hayes hospital, where she has been for a few weeks.

There is to be an entertainment for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange in Grange hall, Monday, Nov. 5, at 8 p.m. The program will consist of farces, vocal and instrumental music, dancing and novelty features. Special Deputy Frank L. Reardon, with a select troupe of entertainers from Concord, and also talent from Banner Grange, East Rochester, and Somersworth Grange will participate in the program.

The church held their annual harvest supper last Friday evening and about $36 was realized from the event. The committee wish to thank all who so willingly helped to make the affair a success.
November 8, 1928

The Lake Wheelwright 4-H Club had their achievement meeting last Wednesday evening, when their county agent presented the achievement certificates and the 4-H Club pins.

There was a very good entertainment at the Grange hall last Monday. The program consisted of various subjects, including singing by Mr. Dod of Boscawen, assisted by his wife at the piano; three farces, by members of Somersworth, Banner and Boscawen Granges; a clog dance by Eddie Spellman of Somersworth, which was very good; and a doll dance. The hall was filled, with some having to stand.

Herbert Thompson, brother of Mrs. Chester Ellison, made a short visit on his sister last Wednesday when on his way home to Richmond, Maine, from Boston, Mass.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the Lee church services on Sunday, November 11, at 12:15 P.M. Rev. Mr. Tryon of Epping will speak on the subject “Never Again.” Mr. Tryon is an overseas man. It was ten years ago, on Nov. 11, 1918, that the terrible war ceased. Do not forget to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dionne and family spent the weekend at the home of Dr. Dionne’s parents in Nashua.

The leader, Clare Ellison, and the assistant leader, Audrey Spencer, of the 4-H Club attended the round up, held in Rochester, November 3. Miss Ellison received a ribbon for second place in the county championship on clothing. Her club received a Boys’ and Girls’ Club Charter with seal for scoring with a high percentage. A leader’s pin was also awarded Miss Ellison for the high scoring of her club, besides other prizes. About 140 boys and girls were present, representing many clubs.

Ralph Hanscom of Connecticut, formerly of Durham, has been visiting friends and relatives in town this week.

Mrs. Helen MacRae, who returned from a Dover hospital a few days ago, was able to be out to vote Tuesday.
November 15, 1928

There will be a three act play at the Grange hall this Friday evening, the title of which is “The Poor Married Man.” There will also be a dance.

The election of offices of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Tuesday evening, and are as follows: Master, Robert Thompson; overseer, Ellsworth Garrity; lecturer, Winnie Dionne; steward, Raymond Munroe; ass’t steward, Grover Smith; chaplain, Fred Comings; treasurer, Ruth Munroe; secretary, Helen Thompson; gate keeper, Ernest Mentor; Ceres, Vivian Bloom; Pomona, Esther Garrity; Flora, Florence Mentor, lady ass’t steward, Virginia Mentor. They were elected for the year 1929.

Many children were out of school this week on account of very severe colds.

Charles Johnson lost a very valuable cow this week.

Alphonso Lavallee, who is at a Manchester hospital, was not so well last Sunday.

There will be a community fair and supper, also an entertainment, at the Grange hall November 23.

November 22, 1928

There will be a community fair and supper at Grange hall this Friday evening, There will also be an entertainment.

Charles Johnson has purchased a new farm, what used to be known as the old Snell farm, or James Lee place.
November 29, 1928

Mrs. Susan Corson

The funeral of Mrs. Aaron Corson of Lee, formerly of Durham, was held from her home on Sunday. Rev. H.J. Morrison of Newmarket spoke words of comfort. Two vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Frank Sinclair. Mrs. Corson was 88 years and 8 months old. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Irving Young of Dover and Mrs. Cynthia Goodwin of Suncook, and four sons, George and Albert of Lee, Sam of Durham and Frank of Dover, also thirty-four grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren, besides several nieces and nephews. She was the last member of the Rollins family.

Many flowers were given, showing the regard felt for her and the great sorrow at her loss, including the following:

- Spray of red and white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Young and son
- Spray of red carnations and lavender chrysanthemums, George Corson and Audrey Spencer
- Spray of red and white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Lavallee and son
- Spray of pink and white carnations, Mrs. Cynthia Goodwin
- Spray of chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Corson
- Spray of red and white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Nichols and son
- Spray of yellow chrysanthemums, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Corson and daughter
- Spray of mixed carnations, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts
- Spray of red and white carnations, Mrs. Annie Wheat

There were several other floral tributes but it was impossible to obtain the names.

William Plumer has had a new Kolster radio installed recently and Walter Plumer had a new Crosley radio installed a short time ago.
December 6, 1928

Miss Ruby Goodwin and friend of Suncook called on her cousin, Miss Audrey Spencer, last Sunday.

Mrs. Maud Page is again at home with her father, Alphonso Jones. Mrs. Page has been staying with her daughter in Kensington.

Clarence Fernald has already killed thirty-two hogs this fall and has more to kill.

Mrs. Thebe Carlton Tyler Legallee, with her two little girls, of Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spaulding of Nashua called on Mrs. Legallee’s mother, Mrs. Jennie Tyler, recently.

December 13, 1928

The Lee Ladies’ Missionary Society held a meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Mrs. Arthur Dionne was a visitor in Dover on Monday.

Alphonso Lavallee, who has been quite ill at a hospital in Manchester, is now much improved and has returned home.

Eugene Sawyer killed a seven point buck while hunting in the vicinity of Wednesday Hill last Tuesday afternoon.

December 20, 1928

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sawyer, Dec. 14.

Members of Jeremiah Smith Grange attended the meeting and Christmas tree party of Lamprey River Grange, Newmarket, Wednesday evening.

All the schools in town are closing this Friday for the annual Christmas vacation. The North Lee school hold their program Friday afternoon, while the Center school will hold their program in Grange hall, with their annual tree. Aprons, candies and “mysteries” will also be on sale. The proceeds will go toward the fund for supplying hot lunches to the school children during the winter months. A good program will be furnished by the children.
December 27, 1928

Mrs. Jane Plummer, widow of George Plummer, passed away at her home Dec. 19. She was born April 19, 1837, in Lee and was a lifelong resident of this town. She had always enjoyed good health until the past few years, when she has been afflicted with rheumatism, but was always up and about the house doing her bit. In years past she was on the lookout for the sick and caring for them, and seeing to every comfort that she could do to help. Rev. I.D. Morrison officiated at the funeral, which was largely attended. Many floral tributes showed the respect felt for her. Mrs. Plummer is survived by one son, William Plummer, and two grandsons.

Forest Twombly was a recent caller at the Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe were home with Mrs. Munroe’s parents over Christmas.

Catherine Jones was home over Christmas.

Donald Thompson was home of the holidays.

Major Lowe had Christmas dinner at Charles Johnson’s.

Marion Walker was home of Christmas.

Elsie Cammett is visiting in Portsmouth for a few days.

Flora and Carlton Nichols and family were at the home of their uncle and sisters over the Christmas holidays.

Arthur Thompson and family and Alfred Durgin and family spent Christmas at the home of Arthur and Mercy McDaniel in Barrington.

Mrs. Robert Thompson and sister, Beth, were visitors in Boston on Christmas.