Evangeline Durgin came home last Tuesday evening after a short visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Hatch in Dover.

Virginia Menter spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. William Kennard of Dover.

Mrs. John Davis and daughter Priscilla and Mrs. Baldwin of Boston, also Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Portsmouth were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Davis over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thayer spent the Fourth at the Wellington Homestead. Mrs. Helen Gray came Thursday night and stayed until Sunday while Mr. and Mrs. Eliot Wellington came Saturday night and will stay for a week.

Barbara James was operated on for adenoids and tonsils at the Exeter Hospital last week Tuesday and came home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Menter motored to Nashua Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. William Graves and Lena James of Brentwood called on Mrs. Chester Ellison last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gibline of Somerville, Mass., spent the week-end with Mr. Jennison.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson returned to their home in Dorchester, Mass., Sunday afternoon after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Grandville Thompson for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Menter motored to Nashua Sunday afternoon.

Fred Comings spent the Fourth with his niece, Mrs. William Place on Durham.

Carrie Comings of Berkley, Cal., and Mrs. James Walker, enjoyed a motor trip through parts of Maine on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis in and friends of Lynn, Mass., spent last Wednesday at the Old Willow Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker of Lewiston, Me., and Mr. John Walker were callers on Mr. and Mrs. James Walker last week.

The Lee Congregational Church will observe Grange Sunday and all Grangers are invited to attend.

Mrs. Homer James of Somerville, Mass., is the guest of Mrs. Hattie James.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Widgren and son of Haverhill, Mass., were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernald.
July 17, 1930

Clare E. Ellison, Representative

The Lee Ladies Missionary Society held a picnic for the children last Thursday afternoon on the church grounds. Games were enjoyed by all the children who were in charge of Evangeline Durgin. Ice cream, cake and lemonade were served to all, there being about 50 present.

Harry M. Rugg is at the Naval Hospital in Portsmouth for treatment.

Mrs. Belle Garrity, Mrs. Katherine Jones, Esther Garrity and Gladys Jones, motored to Rye and Hampton Beaches last Friday where they visited Camp Tobey.

Mr. and Mrs. Algot Carlson of Winthrop, Mass., called on Mrs. Carlson’s sister, Beth Jennison, last Sunday.

Mrs. Ethel Tibbetts has a new Chevrolet sedan.

Pauline Johnson has returned from the Exeter Hospital and is rapidly improving.

Violet Johnson and father and Mr. Henry of Rockland, Mass., called on Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison and daughter last Friday for the day.

George Roma is having wonderful luck this year with his crop of peas. They have grown to a height of seven feet and each pod has an average of seven to eleven peas in it.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morrison of Raynham and Mr. and Mrs. Justin Morrison of Epping called on Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Davis last Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie Tyler has returned home after visiting her daughter in Hudson.

Inez Carlson of Winthrop, Mass., and Ruth Buzzey of Dorchester, Mass., returned to their homes after spending two weeks with Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Grandville Thompson.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jennie Tyler.

Leon Dudley with two friends from Reading, Mass., was home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Phipps were callers at the Cartland Farm last Monday afternoon.

Gene Wellington is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe for a week or two while her mother is at the Hayes Hospital in Dover. Her father returned to their home at Dorchester, Mass., last Sunday.

There was a large attendance of Grangers at the church services on Sunday which was observed as Grange Sunday.

Carl Sanders has had lightning rods put on his buildings.

Mr. Minot Bartlett of Worchester, Mass., were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders and family last Saturday.

Marion Mariotta has returned home from the Exeter Hospital.

Mrs. Carrie Mason and two children were callers on Mrs. James Walker of Dover last Sunday.

Norman Demerit was taken to the Hayes Hospital last week for appendicitis.

Fred and Raymond, sons of Fred Thompson of Roxbury, Mass., are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Sanders for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland W. Thompson and family and Clifford H. Thompson of Methuen, Mass., were callers on friends here last Saturday.
Mrs. Jennie Tyler spent a few days in Barrington with friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McRae have exchanged their car for a Pontiac.

Lee Cartland Tyler is at the home of his mother for a few days.

A family party was held on the lawn of Arthur J. Thompson last Sunday afternoon at which there were 18 present.

Belle Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. Knowles of Swampscott, Mass., were visitors in town last week.

Lucille and Marcia Thompson have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Arthur McNally in Barrington.

A Sunday School Picnic will be held at North River Pond on August 5 for all day.

Mrs. Bertha Geissler from the west is staying with her sister, Mrs. William Lee.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. R. Temnon Caverly and daughter Flora, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Lampe and daughter Margaret called on Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson. They are from Winchester, Mass.

Mrs. Roy Hill and daughter Ruth of Laurel, Md., and Mrs. Thomas Baldwin and daughter Dorothy of Washington, D.C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durbin for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Geblin of Somerville, Mass., are spending their vacation at William Jennison's.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders and family spent Sunday at Wallis Sands.

Mr. and Mrs. Kurkish of Belmont, Mass., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor.
July 31, 1930

Clare E. Ellison, Representative

Mrs. Addie Mitchell of Boston and daughter Ethel of Chicago are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell.

Mrs. Helen Gerrish of Northwood is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne, for a few days.

Mrs. Frank Williams of Rhode Island called on Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Davis last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams of Barre, Vt., were the guests of Mrs. Milden’s sister, Mrs. Charles Johnson, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Porter, and two children from Haverhill, Mass., Mrs. Derossier, and her friend Mrs. May Roop, and daughter and friend, of Lynn have been visiting Mrs. Clarence Fernell.

Mrs. Ruth Rimes of Barrington has been the guest of Clara Ellison for the past week.

Harold York of Seattle, Wash., formerly of Lee, passed away at his home there Saturday, following a heart attack, his widow was formerly Anna M. Plumb of this town.

Leon Dudley was home over the week-end.

Mrs. Bertha Gerrish and Mrs. Frank Morrison were visitors in town last Sunday.

Mrs. Algot Carlson of Winthrop, Mass., was the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Charles Johnson and Chester Ellison are cutting the hay on the Charles Caverno farm.

Mrs. Frank Willey and two daughters and son, are spending two weeks’ vacation at Mrs. Lawlor’s place, formerly the Bradford Caswell Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis and family of Lynn, Mass., spent a few days last week at the Willow homestead.

Mrs. Sydney Davis has been employed by Mr. Potter of Durham to work at the Horticulture Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson picked 52 quarts of blueberries in a neighboring town in less than three hours last week.

Harry Rugg is still in the Naval Hospital at Portsmouth and will have to remain there for some time to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity entertained Mrs. Garritty’s aunt, Lillian Graves of Providence, R.I., for the past week.

Alex MacRae is having his buildings painted.

Little Shirley Thompson of Methuen, Mass., is visiting her cousins, Lucille and [M] Thompson for two weeks.

The Sunday School picnic will be held at North River Pond on Tuesday, August 5 for all J.L. students. The picnic will be held at the Lee Church. Ice cream, cake, candy and mystery packages will be on sale.

Bertha Tootill has been visited Fred C. York.
August 7, 1930

Clare E. Ellison, Representative

Miss Nora Whitehouse passed away at the home of her nephew at Alton last Saturday. She was the former housekeeper of Alphonso Jones and had been a resident of this town for over 25 years. The funeral service was held at the Advent Church in Farmington on Monday at 1 o'clock, to which some of her very close friends from here attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison of Fitchburg, Mass., called on their brother Chester Ellison last Sunday.

Charles and Inez Carlton who have been staying with their aunt Mrs. Robert Thompson, for the past few weeks, returned to their home in Winthrop, Mass., last Monday.

Lawrence Bloom is at home from his position in Bingham, Me., where he has been working on a contract job. Edna Bloom has gone to Braintree, Mass., where she has a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Meserve of Lynn, Mass., were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe on last Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Gray and family, Mrs. Eliot Wellington and daughter Jean, Mrs. Grace Phayer, Mrs. Frank Kimball and Mr. Walter Wellington, are all staying for a two weeks vacation at the Wellington Homestead. Mr. Eliot Wellington and Mr. Phayer were there for over the weekend.

Mr. William Taylor and son Billie, were week-end visitors of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor.

Bertha Tootill is visiting Mrs. James Walker.

A large delegation from Lee went to the Sunday School Picnic at North River Pond in Northwood last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gebbin have been visiting Beth Jennison and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bierwilder are staying with Miss Jennison for the month of August.

August 21, 1930

Clare E. Ellison, Representative

Mrs. Charles Johnson and two sons, Homer and Dana with Grace Adams motored to Amesbury, Mass., and Hampton Beach last Sunday.

The following names were drawn by Fred Cummings for the September term of the Superior Court, to be held at Dover: Wilber Burley, Grand Jury and W. D. Smith, Petit Jury.

Homer James of Somerville, Mass., spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Hattie James.

There will be no more church or Sunday school until the first Sunday in September.

The Misses Lucille and Marcia Thompson have returned home from their week's visit with their cousins in Methuen, Mass.

Mr. Daniel Fernald is spending his vacation with his brother Clarence.

Harry M. Rugg is home for a few days from the hospital but must return to the hospital later.

Mrs. Hattie James has gone to Boston for a visit. Barbara has returned home while her mother is in Boston.

Cora Carson is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe.

Many people from this town attended the auction held at the Barber place last week. William Flummer was the auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson motored to Salem and Methuen last Saturday,

Mrs. Jennie Hopper returned to her home in Dover last Monday after her week's visit with Mrs. Grandville Thompson.

A birthday party was given to Gilman Menter and Raymond Kennard on their 13th birthday, last Tuesday evening at the Grange Hall. Thirty children were present, and games were enjoyed by all. Ice cream, cake and fancy cookies were served.

Marion Walker and girl a friend from Franklin, motored through Canada and New York last week.

Dorothy Davis is spending a few days in Portsmouth.

Dorothy Menter returned to her home in Londonderry last Monday after spending her vacation with her cousin, Ernest Munroe.
Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson motored to the Benson wild animal farm in Hudson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bean and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bean of Haverhill, Mass., called on Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison and family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Thompson and two daughters with Mr. Thompson's sister Louise, motored to Adams' Point in Durham Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Belle Garrity and family motored to Portsmouth to see her daughter, Mrs. Cora Canney, who is ill at the Portsmouth Hospital.

Herbert Currier who has been so long at the Exeter Hospital has returned to his home here and is quite well at present although he still goes on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity entertained friends from the West and New York last week.

Isabelle Smart of Durham was a caller on Mrs. Kathrine Jones last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe and Mrs. Robert Thompson motored to Pittsfield and Barnstead last Monday.

Mrs. James Walker and Mrs. Grandville Thompson motored to Manchester last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson and Mrs. Robert Thompson went to Dover on business last Tuesday.

Chesley Durgin went to Lynn, Mass. last Tuesday to make a short visit with Dana Wiggin.

Mr. Harry M. Rugg is at the present very ill at the Portsmouth Naval Hospital.

Mrs. Ed Hancock and Mrs. Helen MacRae called on Mrs. Mason last week and also visited friends in Newmarket.

Among the recent callers on Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter were Mrs. Howley of Boston, who is spending a few days there, Mr. Jerome Crawley, also of Boston, is spending his vacation there and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Maxon and daughter Priscilla of Portland, Me., spent Sunday there.

Mrs. Arthur Kingsbury and daughter Theodora of New York, were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Will Mason Thursday and Friday of last week.
September 4, 1930
Clare E. Ellison, Representative

The Happy Workers 4-H Club of Lee with their leader, Mrs. Burns Bartlett, held a picnic at the Grandville Thompson swimming pool last Thursday afternoon. There were 22 present. After the bathing, roasted frankfurts, marshmallows and tonic were served.

Among those at the Wellington homestead for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Eliot Wellington and daughter Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimball, Mrs. Helen Gray and family spent the holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Legallee and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Legallee and children of Hudson spent the holidays at Mrs. Jennie Tyler’s. Mrs. Phee Legallee and daughter are staying with Mrs. Legallee’s mother, Mrs. Tyler, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Munroe and family and Mr. and Mrs. Meservie were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson and Mrs. Jennie Tyler and son Lee, also Norman ROWELL, motored to Adams' Point where they called on Fannie Adams.

Mrs. Anna Raymond is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ernest Menter.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe have sold their farm to Mr. Buillearger, formerly of Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Munroe are planning to live with Mr. Harry Munroe for the coming winter.

Macrilla Groeby, a former teacher at the Center School and friend from Lowell, Mass., were callers on Mr. and Mrs. Grandville Thompson last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson of Dorchester, Mass., were in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grandville Thompson over the week-end. Donald returned to Boston Monday but his wife is staying here for a few more days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Caverno and family of West Somerville, Mass., were at the old Horace Caverno farm over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson and two daughters moved to Barrington last Sunday.

Married at the Baptist Church, Newmarket, last Saturday by Rev. Herman J. Morrison were Norman Cilley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Cilley and Miss Stella Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith of Hampton Falls. The double ring service was performed. The bride was attired in blue georgette. After their honeymoon they will reside in Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peach of New York are visiting their father Mr. Henry Peach for a few days.

Donald Leonard and family of Burlington, Mass., were also visiting at his mother’s, Mrs. Henry Peach.

The Ellison families held their annual family reunion and picnic at Palfrey’s Point near Portsmouth last Sunday. There were 39 present as there were several families who were not in attendance. A bountiful dinner and supper were served and swimming was enjoyed by nearly everyone.

Mrs. Belle Garrity and family motored to Northwood on last Sunday.
September 11, 1930

Following is a record of the votes cast at the primary election in the Town Hall Tuesday:

Republican—Governor, Hugh K. Moore, 5; John G. Winant, 18; Arthur P. Morrill, 43; United States Senator, Henry W. Keyes, 37; Representative to Congress, Fletcher Hale, 52; Governor, George A. Wood, 22; William S. Davis, 43; State Senator, Frank F. Fernald, 38; Edward D. Smith, 18; Representative to General Court, Loren Fernald, 12; Daniel H. Hill, 11; Fred C. York, 7; Sheriff, Andrew H. McDaniel, 36; Fred E. Goodwin, 26; County Solicitor, Errol S. Hall, 32; Stanley M. Burris, 30; Country Treasurer, Frank R. Bliss, 56; Register of Deeds, George G. Welch, 56; Register of Probate, William W. Marten, 48; County Commissioner, John I. Gray, 6; Charles P. Kinsman, 21; William H. Knox, 31; George I. Leighton, 16; Nathanial H. Lunt, 3; Mark E. Whaley, 36; George E. Wescott, 3; Harry E. Backford, 4; Harry G. Backford, 4; Alfred C. Brainard, 26; Harry L. Brewster, 3; Edward M. Carr, 8; Frank F. Davis, 21; Supervisors of the check list, Chas. H. Johnson, 12; Horace G. Hill, 9; Ralph C. Kinsman, 1; County Commissioner, Frank A. Woodman, 6; Carrie B. Mason, 6; Edna B. Bartlett, 4; Delegate to State Convention, Fred P. Comings, 7; Fred C. York, 1; Horace G. Hill, 9; Daniel McE. Hill, 6; Chas. A. Woodman, 6; Edna B. Bartlett, 3; Carrie B. Mason, 3; Moderator, Frank I. Caldwell, 2; Delegate to State Convention, Fred P. Comings, 2.

Democrats—Governor, Albert Noon, 3; Fred C. Small, 1; United States Senator, Albert Noon, 2; Amos L. Blandin, 3; Representative to Congress, Napoleon Dwyer, 3; Councilor, Fred P. Comings, 2; Representative to General Court, Fred C. York, 5; Sheriff, Stephen W. Scudder, 4; County Solicitor, Edward P. McCabe, 2; County Treasurer, George W. Nutter, 4; Register of Probate, Wilfred F. Willett, 3; Register of Probate, Chas. E. Tanner, 3; County Solicitor, Edward P. McCabe, 2; County Treasurer, George W. Nutter, 4; Register of Deeds, Wilfred F. Willett, 3; Register of Probate, Chas. E. Tanner, 3; County Commissioners, John F. Beamish, 3; Adelard G. Gelinas, 5; Joseph C. Roberts, 44; Supervisors of the check list, Chas. A. Woodman, 3; Edna B. Bartlett, 3; Carrie B. Mason, 3; Moderator, Frank I. Caldwell, 2; Delegate to State Convention, Fred P. Comings, 2.

Anna E Raymond of Portland, Me., has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ernest Menter for the past week.

Callers and guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Menter over the week-end and Labor Day were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arington and granddaughter, Madeline, of Portsmouth; Alfred Menter and two children of London-derry, George Menter, jr., and daughter Beatrice of Nashua; aage and Ina Andreasau of Portland, Me., and Lawrence Whynot of Nashua.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders and daughter Betty were visitors in Reading, Mass., Monday.

George Menter is vacationing at the home of his son Ernest Menter, here.

Elmer Keniston was the guest of his brother Herman over the week-end.

Albert Dudley of Newmarket spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Thompson. The also visited in Dover on that same day.

Mrs. Daniel Knowlton and son Phillip called on Mr. and Mrs. Grandeville Thompson last Sunday.

Ernest Menter and friends motored to Franklin on Labor Day to attend the motorcycle races.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson motored to Boston Saturday night taking Mrs. Donald Thompson, who has been the guest of Mrs. Grandeville Thompson, with them. They stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson overnight and returned to Lee Sunday.

Robert Davis returned home Saturday after a week's visit with his sister, Mrs. Alonzo Whitehouse of Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cobb and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cobb were Sunday callers on Mr. and Mrs. Grandeville Thompson.

Beth Jennison motored to Boston Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Hattie James is having her house shingled. Her son Hunter, of Somer-ville, Mass., and Grandeville Thompson are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Whitehouse of

(Continued on next page)
Dover spent the week-end with Mrs. Whitehouse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Davis.

Pauline Johnson has entered the Dover Business College.

Mr. and Mrs. Dame and two children of Durham have moved into the old Jim Lee house now owned by Charles H. Johnson.

Pauline Johnson went to York and Wells Beaches on Monday of last week.

Mr. Gilchrist of Derry and Mrs. Parguet and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plumer of Haverhill, Mass., were callers on Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain and son of Winchester, Mass., made Sunday calls on Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin.

Marion D. Walker was at home over the week-end with her parents.

A week ago last Friday night the lightning struck the home of Frank Caldwell and also the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Caldwell, but did very little damage.

September 18, 1930
Clare E. Ellison, Representative

Charles Smith of Winthrop, Mass., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Grandville Thompson, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennison of Wellesley, Mass., visited with their brother, William, at the Buzzell farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Synder of Limington, Me., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. York for the past week.

Mrs. Alphonso Lavallee and George Corson were callers on friends here in town on Sunday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity at the Exeter Hospital last Wednesday evening.

The trunk line on the north side of the town was completed this week.

Marion Walker and Norma Burton of Franklin were home over the week-end.

Homar Johnson took the University of New Hampshire exhibits at the Eastern States Exposition, to Springfield, Mass., last week.

Josephine Durgin has returned to her home in Andover, Mass. She spent her vacation with relatives in Lee and Bar-} rington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kenniston and Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter motored to Hudson to visit the wild animal farm.

Harry M. Rugg was home over the week-end.

Raymond and Harry Munroe are helping "Wood" Sherburne cut his ensilage corn this week.

Roland and Clifford H. Thompson of Methuen, Mass., and Helen Johnson, called on Lizzie and William Thompson last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury C. Cammet and daughter Elsie, who went to Cedar Point, Sandusky, Ohio, last June, where Mr. Cammet was connected with Austin & Kuntz, Palace of Wonders, as a musician, are not returning East. Mr. Cammet has secured a position at Willard, Ohio as a radio service man and salesman.
September 25, 1930

Clare E. Ellison, Representative

The Union Missionary Society will hold its seventh annual meeting, with the towns of Lee, Barrington, and Madbury, at the Lee church, Tuesday, September 30 at 2 o’clock. Mrs. Charline M. Abbott of Rochester, president of the State W.C.T.U., will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Breed and sisters of Weare, called on the cartland cousins Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steele of Hudson called on Mrs. Tyler last Sunday.

Lee Cartland Tyler is employed at the Cartland farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison of Fitchburg, Mass., called on his brother, Chester Ellison, last week.

Miss Belle Tuttle of Swampscott, and friend of Newbury, Mass., were callers at the Tuttle homestead over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Davis of Portsmouth were Sunday callers at the home of Sydney Davis.

Mrs. James Johnson of Nottingham is staying with her son, Charles, for the present, while her daughter, Mrs. Alice Case, with whom she has been staying is working in Haverhill, Mass.

Many of the Lee ladies attended the missionary meeting held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Clarence Laughton of Nottingham, which included sewing in the forenoon and a program in the afternoon. There were 16 present.

William Flummer who has pneumonia, is greatly improved and it now able to sit up in bed.

Mrs. Mabel Haines was home over the week-end.

Parkman Haley is having water put into his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Widgren were week-end guests of Mrs. Chester Foster, both of Richmond, Mass. They returned home Friday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Widgren were week-end guests of Mrs. Clarence Fernald.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Chester Ellison and daughter, Clare, with Donald Davis, took a 500-mile trip through Maine, visiting the State House and Museum at Augusta and the Soldier’s Home in Togus. They were guests of Mrs. Ellison’s brother, Herbert Thompson, and also her niece, Mrs. Chester Foster, both of Richmond, Me. They returned home Friday noon.

Ellsworth Garrity, and mother, sister Esther and Gladys Jones, motored to Hudson last Sunday to visit the wild animal farm.

Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity and infant son, Allen Kimball Garrity, returned home from Exeter Hospital Sunday.

Robert Thompson is having an artesian well dug at his home.