September 2, 1910

Mrs. Annie May (Plummer) York and two children passed a few days last week at Northwood Narrows.

Miss Olive Manning of Haverhill, Mass., spent a few days last week with Mrs. Rebecca Bennett.

Miss Mary Chesley returned Tuesday night from a short trip to Silver Lake, Newton Junction.

Daniel Plummer went to Boston Monday to attend the races at Readville.

Mrs. J.P. Horne and daughter, Miss Grace, of Worcester, Mass., are visiting with Mrs. Horne's sister, Mrs. Fred B. Tyler.

J. True Bartlett went to Boston Tuesday.

The schools in town will open next Tuesday, Sept. 6, having the same teachers as last year.

The ladies' missionary society will meet with Mrs. George E. Chesley, Wednesday afternoon, September 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bixby and two children, with Miss Georgiana Chesley, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn and Miss Hazel Dearborn spent Wednesday at Hampton Beach.

Rev. F.A. Arbuckle came from Houlton, Me., Tuesday to spend a week with his family at Fred Coming's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel are taking a trip this week to Boston and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. James B.C. Walker returned home Wednesday night, after attending the races at Readville, Mass.

Several from this town attended the Old Home Day celebration at Northwood last week.

Mrs. Joseph Smith and daughter, Mrs. Emery, and Mrs. Belle Mathes, of Durham, called on Miss Mary Hoitt Tuesday.
Mrs. Martha Frisbee of North Andover, Mass., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Lucy Thompson.

Mrs. Hopkins, who has been stopping several weeks at Breezy Hill returned last Friday to her home in Nashua.

Ora Howard returned to his summer home Sunday from New York where he has been stopping for a week.

Miss Nellie Wiggin has gone to Peterboro, where she is engaged teaching school this season.

Miss Mary A. Chesley returned Saturday to Thetford, Vermont, where she commences teaching in the academy for the third year.

Miss Flora Wellington is spending a week in Boston and vicinity, visiting friends.

The Misses Nellie and Amanda Randall are stopping for a time with their brother, Frank Randall.

Mr. Barnes of New York, who has spent the summers for several years with Albert Wiggin at Willow Homestead, has recently purchased a nice residence in Stratham.

Ralph Bryant, who, with his wife, have been stopping most of the summer at B.F. Davis, returned to Portland on business last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker and little daughter, with Mrs. Harold York and two children, spent the day last Sunday in Exeter.

Mr. and Mrs. F.O. Fifield recently took an auto trip in the upper part of the state.

Last Sunday Mrs. William Caldwell and Mrs. George E. Chesley were chosen delegates to the Strafford Association of Congregational churches, to be held in Milton, Sept. 20-21.

Miss Jennie Young passed the night Tuesday with Miss Bertha Tootill at Walnut Avenue Farms.

Mrs. Ingar Christopher, who has summered at Willow Homestead, returned to New York last week.

Miss Ethel Durgin went to Boston Thursday.
September 23, 1910

Timothy Joy and wife of Minneapolis, Minnesota, called on several friends in town last week.

Daniel Plummer is painting his set of buildings, known as the Furber place.

Several from Lee attended the Eastern N. H. Pomona Grange, that was held at Durham last week.

Mrs. A. Flora Davis has been quite ill and is under the care of Dr. Mitchell of Epping.

Mr. and Mrs. E.O. Fifield returned last Friday from an extended auto trip in the upper part of the state.

Herbert Hardy of Ayer, Mass., was recently a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pray.

A pleasant evening was reported from the first husking party of the season, held at Alphonso Jones’ last week.

John C. Bennett and Miss Sarah Chapman of Newmarket spent the day last Thursday with Miss Mary York.

Miss Lillian DeMeritt of Newmarket passed the day Sunday at Chester Atherton’s.

Albert Durell of Portsmouth visited Sunday with Mrs. Rebecca Bennett.

John McDaniel and sister, Miss Bertha, started Monday for Lewiston, Maine, where Miss Bertha will enter the Freshman class of Bates College, John being a Sophomore.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall and daughter and Mark Mills of Durham were guests Sunday of Mrs. Josiah Thompson.

John C. Bartlett went to Concord Wednesday to attend the Democratic state convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Howard have closed their summer home and returned to New York, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec McRae are mourning the loss of their little daughter, who died Monday. Funeral services were held Wednesday and interment was in the Lee Hill cemetery.
Mrs. Mary S. Taylor of Wollaston, Mass., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. John C. Bartlett, at Wayside Farms.

Last Saturday F. B. Tyler met with quite a painful accident by spraining his ankle quite seriously, falling through a trap door at Nutwoods in Durham. He is now improving, under the care of Dr. Grant.

Several of the farmers are cutting their ensilage and are busy filling their silos.

Mrs. Harold York and Mrs. James B. Walker passed the day on Thursday of last week in Manchester.

Miss Mary York and Mrs. Rebecca Bennett had business in Dover last Thursday.

Miss Molly Costello of Dorchester, Mass., has been visiting Mrs. William Carpenter the past week.

Miss Alice Holm and sister of Everett, Mass., are stopping for a time with Mrs. William Caldwell.

Miss Mary E. Robinson of Merrimac, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley have been away with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Burley.

Albert Dudley, cutting ensilage for Fred Sanborn in Newmarket.

Frank H. De[...] is at work for the Boston and Maine railroad, where they are laying the new track in Durham.

Bert Pray has gone to Ayer, Mass., to engage in carpentry.

The work on the state road toward Dover has been completed this week.

A large number of our townspeople are attending the Rochester Fair this week. The many attractions offered induce a large number to attend.
L E E.

What a magnificent spectacle of fruit and foliage these October days present. O, that we were able to picture the glories of this delightful season to those deprived of viewing it. None but the Creator's hand could make such a display.

Rev. F. A. Arbuckle of Houlton, Me., on his way to Boston, stopped over night Monday at Fred Cummings', where his family have passed the summer, and will return Thursday and supply the pulpit the coming Sunday, Oct. 9.

Mrs. William Carpenter went to Dover last Saturday.

Miss Bessie Cartland and niece of Dover are passing a few days at the Cartland homestead.

The ladies' missionary society meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 12, at 2:30, at the vestry. It is hoped there will be a large attendance, as Rev. T. Taisne of Durham will address the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glidden and Mrs. Charles Edgerly had business in Dover Tuesday.

Miss Helen Thompson of Weare, N.H., spent the day Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, who have spent several summers at Willow Homestead with Albert Wiggins, have returned this week to their home in New York.

At the C.E. meeting last Sunday evening, Arthur J. Thompson was chosen delegate to attend the state C.E. convention, to be held in Dover, Oct. 6-8. Several from this town expect to attend.

October 7, 1910

What a magnificent spectacle of fruit and foliage these October days present. O, that we were able to picture the glories of this delightful season to those deprived of viewing it. None but the Creator's hand could make such a display.

Rev. F. A. Arbuckle of Houlton, Me., on his way to Boston, stopped over night Monday at Fred Cummings', where his family have passed the summer, and will return Thursday and supply the pulpit the coming Sunday, Oct. 9.

Mrs. William Carpenter went to Dover last Saturday.

Miss Bessie Cartland and niece of Dover are passing a few days at the Cartland homestead.

The ladies' missionary society meeting will be held on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 12, at 2:30, at the vestry. It is hoped there will be a large attendance, as Rev. T. Taisne of Durham will address the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glidden and Mrs. Charles Edgerly had business in Dover Tuesday.

Miss Helen Thompson of Weare, N.H., spent the day Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, who have spent several summers at Willow Homestead with Albert Wiggins, have returned this week to their home in New York. At the C.E. meeting last Sunday evening, Arthur J. Thompson was chosen delegate to attend the state C.E. convention, to be held in Dover, Oct. 6-8. Several from this town expect to attend.
October 14, 1910

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Walker and son of Dover were the guests last Sunday of Mrs. Walker's father, J. True Bartlett.

Charles Robbins of New York stopped over Sunday at Willow Homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fifield went to Nashua the first of the week and are expecting soon to leave their home in Lee to remain in Nashua for the winter.

Frank Caldwell attended the Brockton Fair last week.

Minot Bartlett, who is attending school in Exeter, spent the day last Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett.

Mrs. Walter Wellington has been ill for a week or two.

Mrs. Charles Weeden, who has been stopping on Lee Hill most of the summer, has gone to Northwood for a visit.

Frank A. Christie and Joseph Churchill of Dover spent the day Tuesday with George E. Chesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham are entertaining Mr. Oldham's mother, Mrs. John W. Oldham, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., and Mrs. Ann W. Cross of South Boston, Mass. Mrs. Cross being eighty-seven years of age, Mrs. Oldham made a dinner party Tuesday, inviting several elderly ladies in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Thompson are anticipating spending the winter in South Carolina, expecting to leave town in a few days.

Rev. J.T. Berry of Newcastle visited with friends in town over last Sunday.

Rev. F.A. Arbuckle goes to Chicago Thursday.

Mr. Baker of Raymond, the superintendent of schools, was in town this week. He has charge of the schools in Raymond, Hampstead, Plaistow and Lee, and intends to visit each school every week.

Exercises will be given by the Lee Hill school in Grange Hall on Saturday evening, Oct. 22. Ice cream and cake will be on sale after the exercises. The children are desirous of securing a clock.
October 21, 1910

Next Sunday, Oct. 23, Rev. Mr. Blackmer of Prospect, New York, will preach in the Congregational church and comes as a candidate.

Samuel H. Bartlett, a former resident of Lee, was in town last week. He is now proprietor of a hotel in Walpole, Mass.

John F. Sanborn of Winthrop, Mass., called on Fred Carl York last Saturday.

Charles Simpson of Concord visited with his niece, Mrs. Chester Atherton, last Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Randall was called to Dover Tuesday to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Charles Nute, who has been sick all summer, and passed away last Sunday.

Mrs. Colomy of Newmarket is stopping a week with her daughter, Mrs. George James.

Rev. John Quint of Brunswick, Me., on his way to Boston last week, passed a night at Miss Mary Hoitt's. Miss Katherine Quint, who is teaching in Saco, Me., was at church Sunday, and was the guest of Miss Hoitt.

Albert DeMeritt of Durham has been buying apples in Lee and surrounding towns and shipped them to Boston this week.

Mrs. Granville Thompson is spending a few days with friends in Biddeford, Me.

Miss Ethel Durgin went Wednesday as a delegate to the Sunday School convention, which was held in Manchester, Oct. 18 to 20.

M. Berry Chesley of Amesbury, Mass., visited with his cousin, Irving G. Chesley, and at George E. Chesley's last Saturday and Sunday.

Don't forget the entertainment given by the school children on Saturday evening at Grange Hall.

The missionary meeting, which met in the vestry last week, was very well attended and the ladies were favored with an interesting talk by Rev. T. Taisne of Durham, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. B. F. Davis, who has been ill for some time, we are happy to say is able to ride out, but we are sorry to learn the family expect to go to Portland, Maine, to spend the winter.
October 21, 1910 cont.

Mrs. Nellie Robinson and child of Epping spent several days with Mrs. Alice DeMerritt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cook and son, Albert, of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Maloy of Nashua were the guests of George Cook and family Sunday.

Recent visitors at Frank Haley’s were Mrs. Charles A. Haines and son, Robert, of Melrose, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. D. Roy Buchanan and little son, Donald, of Milo Junction, Me. Mr. Buchanan was a former station agent and left many friends who were glad to welcome his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Cook and son, Albert, of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Maloy of Nashua were the guests of George Cook and family Sunday.

Recent visitors at Frank Haley’s were Mrs. Charles A. Haines and son, Robert, of Melrose, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. D. Roy Buchanan and little son, Donald, of Milo Junction, Me. Mr. Buchanan was a former station agent and left many friends who were glad to welcome his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lord of Melrose, Mass., called on friends in town Saturday.

Mrs. F. J. Plummer and Mrs. William H. Lee spent Thursday with Mrs. Frank Morrison in Durham.

Miss Jesse Cartland and niece, Mary Cartland, of Dover, Mrs. J. Winfield Robinson and son, Karl, were recent visitors at the Cartland Farm.

Miss Susie Kenerson of Dover spent several days with her brother, Frank, last week.

Among the apple buyers who have been shipping from Lee station are D. Webster Dow of North Epping, W. H. White of Deerfield, Mark Scribner of Raymond and D. W. Ladd of Epping. Over 1200 barrels were shipped Saturday.
October 28, 1910

A new $60 range given away. See page three.

Miss Ada Perkins, the school teacher at the North Side, attended the state teachers' convention, held at Manchester, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21-22.

The entertainment given by the school children of the Centre school last Saturday evening was well attended and highly enjoyed. A nice sum was realized and will furnish a fine clock for the school room.

Rev. E. F. Blackmer of Prospect, N.Y., who preached last Sunday, was listened to with a great deal of interest, and he will supply the pulpit next Sunday, Oct. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter spent last Saturday and Sunday in Dover.

Mrs. Daniel L. Burley is stopping for a week with her daughter at Salisbury Beach.

Lewis Snell and son, Norman, Blake Hill and Alfred C. Durgin attended the fruit exhibit of the New Hampshire Horticultural Society, held in Manchester last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ruch and two children, Mrs. Flora Otis and Mrs. Nutter of Dover called on Mr. and Mrs. Oldham, Wednesday of last week.

Miss Gertie Smith spent the day recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Josiah Thompson of Exeter is stopping for a time at Pine Row.

The farmers in this vicinity have raised more corn this year than has been raised for many years previous. Chester Ellison has harvested over 750 bushels of ears of corn.

Apples have been quite plentiful and have found a ready market. Several have had over a hundred barrels. We understand Lewis Snell had over 200 barrels.

We have been favored this season with fine weather, with but very little frost, but the thunder shower Tuesday evening is an indication of colder weather.

Alfred Durgin has improved the looks of his house by having a porch put on the front of it.

It is reported that Miss Mabel Kenniston and Harold Caldwell were married a few days ago.

The annual harvest supper of the Congregational society will be held in Grange Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 4. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. At 8:30 the entertainment will be announced.
November 4, 1910

Frank McDaniel was chosen delegate last Sunday to attend the Strafford County Sunday School Convention, which meets at Rochester, Wednesday.

Roland Thompson passed Sunday with his brother, Arthur E. Thompson.

Miss Ethel Durgin spent the day last Thursday in Boston.

Miss Belle Tuttle and Miss Edith Sparrow, who are now living in Bradford, Mass., are stopping this week at the old home in Lee.

Miss Charlotte Morgan, who is teaching in Madbury, was a guest over Sunday at Mrs. Frank Dearborn's.

Miss Prince, who is teaching the Center School, went to her home at Orr's Island, Me., Friday, and returned Monday. Miss Flora Wellington substituted for her Monday.

H.B. Williams of Topsfield, Mass., spent Tuesday and Wednesday at George E. Chesley's.

Mrs. B.F. Davis went to Portland, Me., Monday.

Albert Durell is passing a vacation with his aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Bennett.

Mrs. Bert Pray and children have gone to Ayer, Mass., to spend the winter, where Mr. Pray has been employed at carpentering.

Mrs. Susan Howe went to Methuen, Mass., last Saturday for a few days.

Frank Page of Dover called at F. B. York's last Wednesday.

Mrs. A.W. Crane of West Somerville, Mass., recently visited with Mrs. Frank Oldham.

Frank Oldham returned Monday from several days' visit in Boston.

George H. Bixby of Haverhill, Mass., and family called on friends in town last Sunday.

Oliver Coleman, formerly of Dover, now of West Somerville, Mass., drove over the road Saturday and passed the night at Mr. Oldham's, returning Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ruche of Dover called Tuesday.

Grant Farwell of Boston is spending a week with his mother, Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kelley of Concord called at Chester Ather- ton's last Monday.

The annual harvest supper will be held on Friday evening, Nov. 4. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock, entertainment will commence at 8:30. Admission, 10 cents; supper, 15 cents.
November 11, 1910

Mrs. Granville Thompson is entertaining for a few weeks Miss Margaret Mosher of Boston, Mass.

Miss Mary Hoitt went to Stratham last Saturday to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ivory Chamberlain, over Sunday, returning Monday afternoon.

The Miss Mary and Ethel Caldwell attended a Hallow-e'en party in Dover last week.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of an infant son, Roger Davis Bryant, to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph N. Bryant, Portland, Me.

Charles Edgerly is stopping in Nashua at the present time, employed by E.O. Fifield at his box factory.

Miss Ednah James of Sanford, Me., spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George James.

John McDaniel was at church Sunday, coming home from Bates College to cast his first vote on Tuesday.

The ladies’ missionary meeting was held Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. William Caldwell’s.

The harvest supper, which was postponed from last Friday evening on account of the rain, was held on Monday evening. A large number partook of the supper and pronounced it fine. The entertainment was enjoyed by all and about twenty dollars was realized.

Tuesday morning Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fifield and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgerly took an auto trip to Lee, returning to Nashua the same day, after the gentlemen deposited their votes in the ballot box.

The whole number of votes cast Tuesday, 120. For representative, Fred Carl York received the largest number, 58 votes. For governor, Bass, r., received 74 votes; Carr, d., 47.
November 18, 1910

Mrs. Herbert Canney of Dover spent Sunday with her brothers, Charles G. and Edward Dame.

Mrs. Bertha Geisler and little daughter of Alexandria, Minnesota, visited last week with her sister, Mrs. William Lee, at South Lee. Mrs. Geisler was formerly Miss Bertha Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker and little son, Bartlett, of Dover stopped over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter.

Mrs. Herbert Thompson of Richmond, Maine, came to town a few days this week, stopping with Mrs. Chester Ellison and Mrs. George James.

Bert Howe is to spend the winter with his mother, Mrs. Susan Howe.

Miss Ethel Durgin spent the day in Boston last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Thompson are stopping at B.F. Davis', and are to be care-takers there while Mr. Davis' family are in Portland, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin went Monday to Bristol, Maine, where they are spending a few days this week.

Mr. Tattersall of Haverhill, Mass., was in town Monday, looking for cows and beef cattle.

Frank Page of Dover called at F.B. York's, Walnut Avenue Farms, on Wednesday.

Did you miss seeing the eclipse of the moon Wednesday evening?

Mrs. Chester Atherton died Tuesday morning, after a long illness, aged 43 years. She had lived about two and a half years in the Hook, and for the past six months has been a great sufferer. She is survived by a husband. Funeral Friday at one o'clock.
November 25, 1910
The schools in town have the Thanksgiving recess from Wednesday night to the following Monday morning.

Mrs. Josiah Thompson has closed her house at Pine Row for the winter and returned to Exeter.

Edward Atherton of Exeter stopped over Sunday with his brother, Chester Atherton.

Rev. Mr. Metcalf of Intervale, Maine, supplied the pulpit Sunday.

Tuesday evening Jeremiah Smith Grange had the full inspection. Albion Weeks of Barrington, deputy.

Gilman Y. Durgin, who has been somewhat ill for a week or more, is improving.

Friday evening the social committee of the C.E. Society will give an entertainment and social at Grange hall.

Miss Carrie Bartlett of Haverhill, Mass., stopped over Sunday at her father's, J. True Bartlett.

Tuesday afternoon the Congregational society voted to extend a call to Rev. E.S. Blackmer of Prospect, N.Y., to become their pastor.
December 2, 1910

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thompson of North Andover passed Thanksgiving with their son, Arthur F. Thompson.

Herbert Wiggin of Roxbury, Mass., visited Saturday at Albert Wiggin's.

Daniel Critcherson and Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson were guests at Willow Homestead on Thanksgiving day.

Minot Bartlett, who is attending school at Exeter, stopped over Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett.

Mrs. Emma Hale has been quite sick with tonsillitis for a week, but is now improving.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley and Alfred C. Durgin and family were guests at George H. Bixby's, Haverhill, Mass., on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Mary Hoitt dined last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer at Durham.

Miss Prince, the teacher at the Centre school has resigned and returned to her home at Orr's Island, Maine. Fred Comings is substituting for the present.

Miss Pauline Bradley is visiting with her grandmother, Mrs. Daniel L. Burley.

Mrs. Rebecca Bennett has closed her house for the winter and has hired a tenement in Newmarket where she will stop for the present.

Miss Mary York is spending the week in Newmarket.

Miss Jennie Farwell visited several days last week in Wolfeboro.

A family party met at J. True Bartlett's, the Ranche, last Thursday to celebrate Thanksgiving.

The Ladies Missionary meeting will be held next Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30, at Mrs. Frank Randall's.
December 9, 1910

Mrs. Molly Carpenter and Miss Irene passed the day last Friday in Haverhill, Mass.

Miss Mary Caldwell has gone to Bow, N.H., and commenced Monday teaching the winter term of school.

Miss Ethel Caldwell has been engaged to teach one of the schools in Barrington.

Mrs. Josiah Thompson of Exeter spent the day last Thursday at Pine Row.

Mrs. Josephine Pendergast and little son drove over from Epping one day last week and stopped a few hours at her old home on Lee Hill.

The telephone poles are being numbered around town by employees of the telephone company.

Eddie Wiggin, who has been ill for two weeks at Willow Homestead, is better and has returned to his home in Lynn, Mass.

Frank W. Hanson of Dover recently took a horse over to George E. Chesley’s to board for the winter. A.P. Drew of Dover also has one wintering there.

Mrs. Lulu Walker had a severe attack of tonsillitis last week, but has recovered.

Mrs. Frank Randall had an ill turn the first of the week, having a severe cold.

Miss Ethel Durgin spent the day Thursday in Boston.

The light snow that came just in time to track the deer was very favorable to the hunters. It has proved that the deer were quite plentiful around town, as we have learned that eight or nine young men in different parts of the town were able the first week to carry home one at least, some weighing over 200 pounds.

William B. Tuttle of South Lee, one of the oldest and highly respected citizens, passed away early Sunday morning. He has been feeble for several years, suffering from rheumatism and lameness, which made it difficult for him to get around. The last week he had an attack of bronchitis, which ended in pneumonia. Before his health failed he was a constant attendant at church. He was an industrious, prosperous farmer. His wife, Mrs. Martha Langley Tuttle, died eight years ago. He leaves three sons, Lewis, who is living in Rochester, Olie A., living in Hardwick, Mass., and Willys P., who has lived on the home farm. He and his wife have cared for the father in his feebleness. Funeral was held at his late home Wednesday afternoon at 1 o’clock, a clergyman from Epping officiating. Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Miss Ethel Durgin sang. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Mr. Tuttle’s age was about 78 years.
December 16, 1910

Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin of Willow Homestead had the pleasure last Sunday of entertaining Dr. and Mrs. Barnes of New York.

The services of Miss Ethel Bennett of Sanford, Maine, have been secured as a teacher for this Centre school. She will also teach the winter term. All the schools in town have a vacation of two weeks after this week.

Miss Carrie Bartlett of Haverhill, Mass., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Carpenter, last Saturday and Sunday.

Master Edwin Atherton passed last Sunday in Durham.

Last Friday Mrs. Frank Oldham went to Boston, and is visiting friends in Boston and vicinity.

Miss Lulu Walker went to Boston Monday, returning Tuesday night.

Mrs. Emma Hale is visiting the latter part of the week in Ayer, Mass.

Mrs. Mary Jane Hill, widow of John W. Hill, who lived on the North Side, passed away last week on her eightieth birthday. She was born in Barrington, but had spent most of her life in Lee, where she was greatly esteemed by a large circle of friends. She is survived by six sons and two daughters.

We understand J.C. Bartlett has recently purchased a Buss Mill, and the farmers that raised such a large crop of corn can now have the opportunity to have their corn ground near by.

It is expected that Rev. J.T. Berry, a former pastor, will supply at the Congregational church next Sunday.

Maurice Buzzell of Barrington, a former resident, was in town this week.

Jeremiah Smith Grange elected the following officers Tuesday evening.

Master, George A. Dudley.
Overseer, Arthur J. Thompson.
Lecturer, William Thompson.
Chaplain, Frank E. Sewall.
Secretary, Fred P. Comings.
Treasurer, Frank Caldwell.
Ceres, Mrs. George A. Dudley.
Pomona, Miss Ethel Davis.
Flora, Miss Flora Wellington.
Seward, Clarence Fernald.
Asst. Steward, Albert Dudley.
Gate Keeper, Leroy Smith.
Lady Asst. Steward, Elsie Fernald.
Chorister and Pianist, Miss Ethel Durgin.

John C. Bartlett was elected a delegate to attend the session of the State Grange.
December 23, 1910

Daniel Plummer had business in Boston Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Miss Mary Hoitt was quite ill last week, but is considerably better at the present time.

Miss Nellie Wiggin returned Saturday from her school in Peterboro for the Christmas vacation, which she will spend at Willow Homestead.

Miss Mary A. Chesley is having two weeks' vacation from the academy at Thetford, Vt., where she is teaching.

John McDaniel and sister, Miss Bertha, were at church Sunday. They returned Saturday from Lewiston, Me., where they are attending Bates College.

Ernest Mentor has gone to Alton, where he has obtained employment.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett has gone to Boston for a two weeks' visit.

M. Berry Chesley of Amesbury, Mass., visited Monday at George E. Chesley's.

Daniel Critcherson and sister, Mrs. Thompson, went Wednesday to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller of New York.

Mrs. Frank A. Reed of New York, who has been stopping two weeks at the Howard cottage, returned to her home Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Carpenter of Newmarket is visiting Miss Irene Carpenter this week.

Rev. J. T. Berry supplied the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday. He goes the first of January to a new parish in Springfield, Me.

There is to be a Christmas tree for the Sunday School children on Saturday evening at Grange Hall. All children in town are invited.

Next Sunday, Dec. 25, the children take part in the Christmas services.
December 30, 1910

J. C. Bartlett spent three days at the State Grange, held in Concord last week.

Miss Marion Dudley is enjoying her Christmas vacation at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. York of Tacoma, Washington, are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son on Christmas day.

Miss Bertha Tootill is spending a few days with her parents at York Beach.

Miss Nellie Wiggin, who has been stopping with her parents at Willow Homestead over the holidays, has been quite ill with tonsillitis, but is now better.

Roland Thompson of North Andover is spending the week with his brother, Arthur E. Thompson.

Miss Leah Florence Potter of Boston passed Sunday and Monday with Mrs. FrankDearborn.

Miss Gertrude Smith was at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, over Christmas.

Miss Della Hamilton of Newmarket visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham.

Mrs. Leonard Dalton of Portsmouth is staying a few days with Mrs. Marilla Dalton.

Miss Jennie Farwell, after having a vacation, commenced her school in Madbury Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Thompson, who has been a bookkeeper in Boston, is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, at the Cartland homestead.

Daniel Fernald visited last week in Haverhill, Medford and Boston, Mass.

Miss Mary Caldwell, who stopped a few days over Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell, has returned to Bow, where she is teaching school.

The Christmas concert last Sunday was a credit to Mrs. Granville Thompson, superintendent of the Sunday School, and Miss Ethel Durgin. Rev. Mr. Crosby made some remarks. At the close, Lewis Snell presented Miss Ethel Durgin, organist, with a generous sum of gold pieces, as a token appreciation from her many friends.

The annual meeting of the church and of the society will be held next Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 3, 1911.