May 7, 1909

Don't forget to attend the free lecture, which will be delivered by Rev. J. Franklin Babb of Laconia, in Grange Hall next Monday evening. Mr. Babb has the reputation of being one of the most interesting speakers in New England.

Eugene Colie had business in Boston last week.

Miss Bessie Cartland, accompanied by two nieces, the Misses Lucia and Mary Cartland, of Dover, passed last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson, at Walnut Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. York are entertaining their niece, Miss Sadie G. Otis of Canton, Mass., at Walnut Avenue Farms this week.

Miss Lena Boynton made a week-end visit with relatives in Portland, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Otis and Mrs. Flora B. Otis of Dover called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham at Maplewood last week.

Miss Carrie Bartlett, teaching in Haverhill, Mass., passed last week with her father, J. True Bartlett, at The Ranche.

Dr. N. D. Kneeland of Boston, secretary of the New England Sabbath Protective League, spoke very interestingly at the C. E. meeting Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hiram Kelsey visited with her daughter last week in Waltham, Mass.

Frank Caldwell cut his finger quite seriously a few days ago, which necessitated the attention of a physician.

Rev. G. E. Kinney read a paper before the Ministers' Association of Dover and vicinity, which met in Dover Monday.

Quite a number from this town took in the minstrel show which was presented by the Pascatoquack Club at Newmarket Monday and Tuesday evenings. It was pronounced great.

We were pained to hear of the death of Kate (Sanborn) Tuxbury, wife of Frank I. Tuxbury, who passed away at her home in Amesbury, Mass., April 15, like a tired child who falls asleep at eveides. Mrs. Tuxbury was our near neighbor for several years, where she made many friends. She was a quiet, intelligent, kindly neighbor and friend, a large-hearted, faithful wife and an indulgent mother, who will be sorely missed by her family, and we are so sorry for them in this their hour of heavy sadness. The friends of our earlier years are so rapidly sailing away on the sea whose tide never backward turns, that we feel almost like a lone traveler on the pathway of life.

"Sometimes at eve, when the tide is low,
I shall slip my moorings and sail away.
With no response to the friendly hail
Of kindred craft in the busy bay.
In the silent hush of the twilight pale,
When night stoops down to embrace the day,
And the voices call in the waters' flow—
Sometimes at eve, when the tide is low,
I shall slip my moorings and sail away."

AXON.
Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Davis entertained Rev. J. Franklin Babb of Laconia over night Monday at the Meadows.

Miss Marion Dudley, after a three weeks' vacation from Dover high school, returned Monday.

Miss Mary A. Hoitt was the guest of her sister in Stratham two days recently.

Mrs. G.E. Kinney, Mrs. Chester Ellison and Mrs. George E. Chesley represented the local Woman's Missionary Society at the Strafford county meeting held in Barrington Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning and son, Master Frank, of Haverhill, Mass., made a week-end visit with their aunt, Mrs. R.P.D. Bennett, at Hill Crest.

Perley A. Young, on the Newmarket road, has sold his driving horse, Marion, to Charles Hunt of Delphi Falls, N.Y.

Mrs. James B.C. Walker is passing this week in Boston.

Alphonso Jones had business in Kingston one day last week.

Harry Eustis of Wiscasset, Me., has recently passed a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Thompson, and Miss Edith Morse of Malden, Mass., is domiciled at Pine Grove Farm for the summer.

Mrs. Ben F. Davis passed Thursday in Manchester.

A Mrs. Billings and two children of Dorchester, Mass., are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Orlando Dinsmore, at the North Side.

Miss Lena Boynton visited with relatives in Portland, Me., over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles P. Young and daughter, Miss Rena, of Newmarket Plains called at Walnut Avenue Farms Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Randall visited over night with her sister in Durham recently.

Our church will be represented by pastor and delegates, at the installation of Rev. Telesphore Taisne at Durham Monday.
May 14, 1909 cont.

Samuel E. Demeritt, one of our oldest citizens, who is quite feeble, had a very ill turn a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison had business in Dover Tuesday.

Jeremiah Smith Grange conferred the third degree on a class of four Tuesday evening.

Rev. G.E. Kinney expects to attend the centenary of New Hampshire Congregational churches, held in Boscowen next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

At the lecture which was delivered in Grange Hall by Rev. J. Franklin Babb of Laconia Monday evening, there was a very good attendance and after the lecture, ice cream and cake were served. The lecture was one of the best, bright, humorous, practical and very interesting. Mr. Babb is possessed of a pleasing personality, with considerable executive ability and is a very good personator.

James Manning, staying at Hill Crest, is busily engaged in whitewashing, painting and papering in this vicinity.

The beautiful, fragrant trailing arbutus, although a little late this year in lifting their cup-shaped pink and white faces above the leaves, seemingly to compensate for the delay, are larger and more beautiful than usual.

"Thick green leaves from the soft brown earth,
Happy springtime hath called them forth
Fair faint promise of summer bloom
Breathes from the fragrant, sweet perfume,
Under the leaves.

"Lift them, what marvelous beauty lies
Hidden beneath from our thoughtless eyes!
May flowers, rosy or purest white,
Lift their cups to the sudden light,
Under the leaves.

"Fair white flowers of faith and trust
Sprung from spirits bruised and crushed
Blossoms of love, rose tinted and bright,
Touched and painted with heaven's own light,
Under the leaves.

"Full fresh clusters of duty borne,
Fairest of all in that shadow grown;
Wondrous the fragrance that sweet and rare
Comes from the flower-cups hidden there
Under the leaves.

"Though unseen by our vision dim,
Bud and blossom are known to Him;
Wait we content for His heavenly ray—
Wait till our Master Himself one day
Lifteth the leaves."

Anon.
May 21, 1909

“Sweet is the air with the budding haws,
And the valley stretching for miles below
Is white with blossoming cherry tree, as if
Just covered with lightest snow.”

Simeon C. Hardy visited with friends in Lynn, Mass., last week and also had business in Boston.

Mrs. Guy Glidden is visiting with her mother in Derry.

There will be a social, under the auspices of the social committee, at C.E. hall this (Friday) evening. A short programme will be presented and ice cream and cake will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody. Admission is free.

We understand John Webb has rented his farm, and that it will be occupied in the near future.

Miss Charlotte Morgan of Wolfeboro, teaching in Madbury, made a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn at Brookside Farm.

Henry Learnard of Derry passed a few days with Guy Glidden the first of the week.

Rev. G.E. Kinney and Mrs. Ben F. Davis, delegate, were chosen to attend the county conference of Congregational churches, held at Farmington Tuesday and Wednesday, May 25 and 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Berry of Everett, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chesley at The Elms over Sunday. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin at Brookdale.

Mrs. Herbert Thompson and little daughter, Clara, former residents, now of Richmond, Me., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George P. James over Sunday.

W.C. Landis of Lakeport, state missionary for the American Sunday School Union, will speak at the Newmarket Plains school house this (Friday) evening at 7.30 o'clock.

ANON.
George E. Chesley passed Monday and Tuesday with friends in Haverhill and Amesbury, Mass.

Miss Grace Caverly of Chelsea, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin at Glenmere this week.

Mrs. Flora B. Otis of Dover and Fred Nutter of Alton called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham at Maplewood Monday.

Mrs. Anna Fall of Haverhill, Mass., who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George P. James, went to Newmarket Tuesday, to visit awhile with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins had business in Dover Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. George E. Kinney were in Farmington Tuesday and Wednesday, to attend the county conference of Congregational churches.

Frank Page of Dover visited over night Tuesday at Walnut Avenue Farms.

Mrs. Charles Ham of New Bedford, Mass., a former resident, made a weekend visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chesley. Tuesday she went to visit a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall. She will also call on other friends while in town.

At the meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange Tuesday evening the fourth degree was conferred on a class of four, Sargent and Leroy Smith, Miss Edith and Jones Stevens. A harvest supper was served.

Col. and Mrs. Daniel Hall of Dover called on Miss Mary A. Hoitt Sunday.

The many friends of Rev. Daniel W. Richardson, who was pastor here from 1893 to 1896, will be pained to learn he is nearly blind.

Mrs. Francis Tyler of Hudson came last Thursday to visit two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson. Friday Charles Cartland and the Misses Bessie, Lucia and Mary of Dover drove over for the day. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Robinson and little son, Karl Ladd, of Epping called, and Miss Bessie Cartland of Dover passed Monday and Tuesday of this week also at Walnut Grove.

All nature looks very beautiful in its dress of many shades of green, but it is very cold for the last of May. Tuesday night there was quite a heavy frost.

Miss Annie Wiggen, visiting at Willow Homestead, who has been very much under the weather from a severe cold, is able to be out again.

The drowning accident, which happened in Newmarket last week, is one of the saddest things that has ever occurred in this vicinity. We especially sympathize with the widowed invalid mother, who has been so suddenly bereft of her son in the prime of his strong young manhood, and who has ever been so kind, thoughtful and helpful. We think we partially realize what the waiting and suspense means, and the shuddering, sickening horror of his terrible death.

Aron.
Fold up the banners! Smelt the guns!
Love rules; her gentler purpose runs.
A mighty mother turns in tears
The pages of her battle years,
Lamenting all her fallen sons.

Miss Mary Caldwell, teaching in Hollis, Me., visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Plummer of Dover recently passed a day with their brother, D. E. Plummer.

Miss Mary B. York has been the guest of relatives in Newmarket the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Perkins of Haverhill, Mass., visited over Memorial Day with their grandfather, Joseph Knight.

Miss Edith Kelsey, teaching in Newton, Mass., made a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Kelsey, at Locust Grove.

Miss Mollie Bartlett was in Boston a few days the first of the week.

Mrs. Kate Smith celebrated her eighty-fifth anniversary last Thursday. Relatives from Nottingham and Durham, also neighbors, called to extend congratulations, and her friends wish her many more years, crowned with health and happiness.

Miss Jennie Farwell visited with friends in Wolfeboro over Memorial Day.

Two Latter-day Saints called at the parsonage Tuesday evening, footsore and weary, but were intent on canvassing the country.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Priest and two children, Master John and baby Leona, of Providence, R.I., came Saturday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins. Mr. Priest passed a part of the time with relatives in Newmarket, returning home Tuesday morning, leaving Mrs. Priest and the children for a longer visit.

Fred B. York drove to Epping Sunday, to pass the day with friends.

Rev. G. E. Kinney went to Rochester to deliver an address before a club composed wholly of men Wednesday evening. He will also preach in Auburn, Me., next Sunday, consequently the pulpit at the chapel will be supplied by some one else.

Children's night will be observed by Jeremiah Smith Grange June 12.

Mr. and Mrs. David Page and two children of Newburyport, Mass., came by auto to call on Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Young, on the Newmarket road, Sunday.

Miss Carrie Bartlett, teaching in Haverhill, Mass., made a weekend visit with her father, J. True Bartlett, at The Ranch.
Mrs. Sarah C. Hill of Haverhill, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley for a few weeks.

E. F. Colburn of Boston visited with Miss Mary A. Hoitt Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins visited with friends in Rye last Thursday.

Herbert Wiggin and son, Arthur, of Roxbury, Mass., came Saturday to visit over Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiggin. Sunday Mrs. William Davis and Mrs. B. S. Henderson of Dover also visited at Willow Homestead.

Miss Gertrude Smith of Durham passed Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, at Harmony Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Caverley of Chelsea, Mass., and Mrs. Olive Hayes of Dover came Friday to visit over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin, at Glenmere.

Tuesday a fire, of unknown origin, did considerable damage to young growth on Brad. Caswell’s premises, and for a time his buildings appeared to be in danger. On account of the high wind the fire spread rapidly and burned over quite a tract of cleared land on S. Belle Tuttle’s farm.

Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin passed a few days the first of the week with friends in Dover.

Mrs. R. P. D. Bennett entertained Fred Halowell of North Andover, Mass., and Miss Arline Manning of Haverhill, Mass., over Memorial Day at Hill Crest.

Memorial Day dawned bright, cool and fresh, an ideal day for the old veterans to perform their labor, of love; and as the graveyards are entered by the old soldiers with their halting steps to lay their flowers on the graves of their brothers, who have answered to the last roll-call, they become gardens. The war is behind them, like the sunset, and we must stand and see the glory from the hill. “The sun is down and all the west is paved with sullen fire.” Year by year that “sullen fire” sinks lower, and wider and wider the gaps in the ranks show against the light. In a few more years the evening will have descended and the figures will disappear, and the night of history will have closed upon the war. But for those who have no memory of the war, your memorial parade has strange power to impart the thrill of that first wild war note, when from the houses and work shops, and through all the doorways the strong men leapt tumultuous, and lo! The north, armed, marching southward to the conflict.
June 11, 1909

"O, flower-de-luce, bloom on, and let the river
Linger to kiss thy feet!
O, flower of song, bloom on, and make forever
The world more fair and sweet."

Mrs. Charles Page of Worcester, Mass., is the guest of her father, Alphonso Jones, at Maplehurst.

Mrs. Elida Barnes and little Miss Fannie E. Durell of Beachmont, Mass., called on Mrs. R. P. D. Bennett last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Durell of Newmarket also visited Sunday at Hill Crest.

Mrs. E. J. Thompson and visiting friend, Miss Edith Morse, made a trip to Rochester last week.

Mrs. Susan Howe is passing two weeks with relatives in Lawrence, Mass., and vicinity.

Aaron Sanderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Burleigh of Stratham dined with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiggin a few days ago. Fred Worthing of Salem Depot stayed over night and Mrs. Fred Leach and Mrs. John Prescott of Raymond have also recently visited at Willow Homestead.

Mrs. Ben F. Davis had business in Boston one day last week.

Mrs. Bert Pray and Mrs. Emma Hale made a week-end visit with relatives in Ayer, Mass.

Rev. G. F. Stanton of Boston preached at the chapel Sunday. His theme was, "The Unchangeable Christ," his text, "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever." Heb. 13.8. It was a strong, scholarly, interesting sermon.

Edwin Atherton of Exeter is enjoying a brief vacation with his brother, Chester Atherton, at Nutwood.

Mrs. Susan Dow, one of our oldest native residents, is very ill.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson of Exeter passed a few days this week at Pine Row.
June 11, 1909 cont.

It has been deemed advisable to postpone the observance of Children's Day one week, consequently, the children will furnish the programme June 20, instead of June 13, as was announced last Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Baker and two children, Master Harold and baby Dorothy, of Reading, Mass., and Miss Alma Kinnie of Malden, Mass., came Wednesday to pass a few weeks with Miss Mary B. York at Meadowbrook Farm.

Mrs. Carrie Weeden of Roxbury, Mass., passed last week with her brother, Fred P. Comings, at The Larches.

Let the children all remember that Saturday evening will be devoted to them, and they are all expected to be at Grange Hall at 8 o'clock, where a programme will be presented, consisting of recitations and music; ice cream and cake will also be served.

Mrs. R. P. D. Bennett went to Haverhill, Mass., Thursday to pass a few days with friends.

Deacon and Mrs. Frank McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel will attend the graduating exercises at New Hampton next week, Deacon McDaniel's son, John, being one of the graduates.

Miss Ethel Caldwell has gone to Hollis, Me., to visit with her sister over Sunday.

Miss Mary A. Chesley, teaching in Thetford, Vt., will come Saturday to pass the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chesley.

At the last meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange a committee of five, B. F. Davis, G. A. Dudley, A. J. Thompson, F. P. Comings, Rev. G. E. Kinney, were chosen to devise and recommend means whereby the town may be protected from the depredation of horse thieves.
O, the beauty and freshness of these sweet June days, how we wish they could linger.

"Buttercups and daisies, golden and white, Springing to meet and gladden our sight, Tall waving grasses bending low, O Sweet June days, move slow! Move slow!"

John E. Chesley of Amesbury, Mass., came Saturday to remain over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chesley; then made a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chesley at The Elms.

Harry Baker of Reading, Mass., came by auto Saturday to visit over Sunday with his family, who are staying at Meadowbrook Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Plummer of Dover visited Sunday with their brother, D. E. Plummer.

Miss Olive Livermore of Wilton and Miss Mildred Weston of Hyde Park, Mass., came Wednesday to stay awhile with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn at Brookside Farm.

Mrs. Carrie Weeden made a weekend visit with her brother, Fred P. Comings, at The Larches.

As Rev. G. E. Kinney had a funeral to attend Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Kinney drove to Madbury to conduct the regular Sunday service.

Quite a number of our townspeople have been taking in the commencement exercises at the New Hampshire College at Durham this week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson of Boston was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiggin at Willow Homestead a few days the first of the week.

Next Sunday will be observed as Children’s day at the chapel. It is hoped every child in town will be present, and as many out-of-town children as can possibly come will be cordially welcomed.

Miss Jennie Farwell closes her school in Madbury (this) Friday, and Saturday she is to treat her scholars to a picnic in Madbury.

Harry Kelsey, on the Newmarket road, was the guest of friends in Derry over Sunday.

Miss Helen Morse of Malden, Mass., is passing this week with her sister, Miss Edith, who is summering at Pine Grove Farm.
June 18, 1909 cont.

Miss Bertha Tootill passed Wednesday and Thursday with friends in Dover and at York Beach.

Mrs. Mary A. Plummer and Mrs. Ada Frost of Lynn, Mass., were guests of Mrs. James B.C. Walker at D.E. Plummer’s four days this week.

“Aunt” Nancy Pendergast of Somerville, Mass., accompanied by her nurse, Miss Youngman, came Tuesday to pass another summer at Elm Rest.

Last Saturday little Miss Hazel Dearborn took a prominent part at the recital which is given annually by her music teacher in Dover.

Mrs. Susan (Critcherson) Dow died June 10 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel L. Burleigh, of senile decay, aged ninety years and one month. Surviving her are one daughter, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, besides quite a number of other relatives, who came from Exeter, Boston, Haverhill and Lynn, Mass., to attend the funeral, which occurred at the chapel Sunday afternoon, at which Rev. G.E. Kinney officiated. The choir rendered appropriate musical selections, and the floral tribute was very beautiful. The bearers were William Ryan, Charles Woodman, Charles Dame and Fred P. Comings. She was laid to rest in the nearby cemetery, where so many of her kindred have preceded her. (There is only one person in town older than Mrs. Dow.) She has enjoyed good health and retained her faculties in a remarkable degree, until last winter, when she had a severe attack of la grippe, from the effects of which she never fully recovered. Mrs. Dow was the last of a family of ten children, a native and life-long resident of Lee. She lived quietly, and for many years cared for her aged mother, who was buried on her ninety-fourth anniversary.

“Death is but another life.”

ANON.
Mrs. Olive Hayes and Miss Belle Burnham of Dover were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin at Glenmere over Sunday.

All the schools in town close (this) Friday.

June 10, William E. Wiggin of Lee and Miss Annie Isabel Bartlett of Lebanon, Me., were married at the parsonage by Rev. G. E. Kinney.

Quite a number of our townspeople took in the circus at Dover last Friday.

Daniel E. Plummer passed two days last week in Bostoun and Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. William L. Priest, visiting at the Jenkins Homestead, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Smith, visited with friends in Rye last Thursday.

Aaron Sanderson of Stratham dined with, and Mrs. Annie Wiggin and Mrs. Frank H. Durgin of Newmarket called on Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiggin last week. Daniel Critcherson of Boston is staying a few weeks and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wiggin and daughter, Miss Marion, of Epping were callers Sunday, also, at Willow Homestead.

Several out-of-town people were at the morning service at the chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins had business in Dover one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley of Reading, Mass., made a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellington at Seven Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fifield of Nashua visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chesley Sunday, and passed the night at their summer home, Breezy Hill.

There will be a strawberry festival and entertainment at Grange Hall Tuesday evening, June 29. It is hoped there will be a goodly number present.

James B.C. Walker has recently purchased an auto, a Ford runabout.

Fred Carl York drove to Dover Tuesday on business.
June 25, 1909 cont.

Miss Annie Wiggin, who is summering at Willow Homestead, went to Roxbury, Mass., Saturday, to pass a few days with her father.

We wish to extend congratulations and best wishes to our young friends, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Griffiths, of North Andover, Mass., who are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, which arrived June 18.

The three schools will hold a union picnic in the grove at E.J. Thompson's Pine Grove Farm, Friday (to-day), from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Rev. G.E. Kinney and Miss Mary A. Hoitt represented this church at the ordination of Rev. Fred W. Walsh at Somersworth Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Batchelder and son, Master Bartlett, of North Hampton came by auto Sunday to pass the day with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins. Dr. and Mrs. Grant, Miss Gertrude Smith and a Miss Nesbit of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Durgin, Fred Varney and Miss Mary Nesbit of Newmarket were also callers at the Jenkins' homestead Sunday.

Mrs. George Bixby of Haverhill, Mass., visited last Friday, and Miss Nellie Hill and friend, Miss Parry of Groton, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley this week.

Children's day was very pleasantly and interestingly observed at the chapel last Sunday. The house was tastily decorated with cut flowers, and the children, with happy, smiling faces and fresh young voices, in their recitations and songs, gave us lessons of love and trust. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin had their infant son, Caverly Chesley, christened.
July 2, 1909

Miss Alma Kinnie, staying at Meadowbrook Farm, went Monday to pass a few days at her home in Reading, Mass.

Rev. and Mrs. A.F. Arbuckle, from the West, are staying a few weeks with their uncle, Fred P. Comings, at The Larches. Mrs. Arbuckle was Miss Ernestine Weeden, who is well known here.

Mrs. Ben F. Davis is visiting for a few weeks with her daughter in Portland, Me.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson of Exeter came Tuesday to remain awhile at Pine Row.

Mrs. Belle Mathes and son, Stanley, of Durham called on Miss Mary A. Hoitt the first of the week.

The Lord's Supper will be commemorated Sunday morning at the chapel. Preparatory meeting will be Saturday at C.E. Hall, at 2:30.

Col. And Mrs. A.T. Pierce and daughter, Mrs. Brainard, accompanied by Mrs. T.K. Cushman, of Dover, came by auto to visit with Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Chesley Monday.

Mrs. Harry Baker, staying at Meadowbrook Farm, went to Boston last Friday, returning Saturday by auto with Mr. Baker, who came to pass Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Harding and child of West Lebanon made a week-end visit with Rev. and Mrs. G.E. Kinney at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brooks are receiving congratulations on the arrival to their home of a son, which came June 24.

The strawberry festival Tuesday evening was a success in every way. There was a goodly number present, plenty of strawberries, ice cream and cake, and a pleasing programme of music and recitations was presented to an appreciative audience and a neat sum realized.

Sunday Rev. G.E. Kinney read his resignation, which is to take effect the first of September. He has received a unanimous call to locate in Auburn, Me. Mr. Kinney is an indefatigable, conscientious worker, and his many friends here wish him success in his new field of labor.

Mary, wife of Albert M. Spall
Mary, wife of Albert M. Snell, died June 26 at her home at the North Side, after a long and tedious illness which she bore with great patience. She was seventy-six years of age, and is survived by her husband only, as she never had any children. The funeral occurred at her late home Tuesday afternoon, at which Rev. G. E. Kinney officiated. The bearers were Lyford Wiggins, Frank D. Randall, Horace Hill, and Horace Caveno. Interment was in the Snell burying-lot. She was a peaceable, home-loving woman, who lived quietly. And so in His own good time He giveth the weary ones rest.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at high noon Wednesday, June 30, at the home of J. True Bartlett, his daughter, Mary Elizabeth Bartlett, and William Austin Carpenter of Newmarket, being the contracting parties. Rev. G. E. Kinney performed the ceremony, using the single ring service. The house was handsomely decorated with roses and wild flowers, and the bridal pair stood in an arch of ferns and daisies. About seventy relatives and friends, from Boston, Roxbury and Dorchester, Mass., Dover, Exeter, Derry, Epping, Stratham, Newmarket and Lee, witnessed the ceremony. The wedding march was played by Miss Elizabeth Costello of Dorchester, Mass. The bride was handsomely gowned in white satin messaline and carried daisies. The maid of honor was Miss Carrie Bartlett, a sister of the bride, she wore ecru silk muslin and carried marguerites. Albert F. Tebbetts, Jr., of Newmarket was best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held, after which dainty refreshments were served. The wedding presents were many and consisted of gold, silver, cut glass, china, linen and many other beautiful and useful articles. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter went directly to their cozy, pretty home, which was in readiness for them at Lee "Hook."
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellington entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley and four children and William Myers of Reading, Mass., over the Fourth at Seven Oaks.

Miss Velma James visited a few days last week with relatives in Newmarket.

Miss Nellie Kinnie of Malden, Mass., made a week-end visit with her sister, Miss Alma Kinnie, at Meadowbrook Farm.

Miss Mary A. Hoitt entertained Miss Lucetta Van-Ham, a Miss Flower and Arthur Hanson of Boston over the Fourth.

Miss Nellie Wiggin closed her school in Hancock last week and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin, at Willow Homestead during the summer vacation.

Perley Young, on the Newmarket road, is making a trip through the northern part of the state this week.

Miss Ethel Durgin went Tuesday to visit a few weeks with friends in Boston and vicinity.

Forrest James dined Saturday with his grandmother in Newmarket.

Grant Farwell of Boston came Wednesday to pass a week with his mother, Mrs. Frank Dearborn, at Brookside Farm.

Harry Plummer of Haverhill, Mass., visited over the Fourth, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Plummer of Dover spent Sunday with Daniel E. Plummer.

Miss Mary A. Chesley enjoyed a picnic at Durham Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Tash and son, Master Thomas, who have been in Haverhill, Mass., during the winter, are domiciled in their cottage on the “Mast” road for the summer vacation.

Miss Jessie Thompson of Brooklyn, N.Y., is staying a while with her mother, Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson, at Walnut Grove.

Miss Jennie Young, on the Newmarket road, went Sunday to visit over Monday with friends at Durham Point.

Monday Miss Jennie Farwell made the delightful trip across Lake Winnipiseogee, that beautiful sheet of water, with its many rock-rimmed, wooded islands, of which Whittier said

“Lake of the Northland! Keep thy dower
Of beauty still, and while above
Thy solemn mountains speak of power,
Be thou the mirror of God’s love.”

July 9, 1909

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellington entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley and four children and William Myers of Reading, Mass., over the Fourth at Seven Oaks.

Miss Velma James visited a few days last week with relatives in Newmarket.

Miss Nellie Kinnie of Malden, Mass., made a week-end visit with her sister, Miss Alma Kinnie, at Meadowbrook Farm.

Miss Mary A. Hoitt entertained Miss Lucetta Van-Ham, a Miss Flower and Arthur Hanson of Boston over the Fourth.

Miss Nellie Wiggin closed her school in Hancock last week and will be with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin, at Willow Homestead during the summer vacation.

Perley Young, on the Newmarket road, is making a trip through the northern part of the state this week.

Miss Ethel Durgin went Tuesday to visit a few weeks with friends in Boston and vicinity.

Forrest James dined Saturday with his grandmother in Newmarket.

Grant Farwell of Boston came Wednesday to pass a week with his mother, Mrs. Frank Dearborn, at Brookside Farm.

Harry Plummer of Haverhill, Mass., visited over the Fourth, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Plummer of Dover spent Sunday with Daniel E. Plummer.

Miss Mary A. Chesley enjoyed a picnic at Durham Tuesday.

Miss Nellie Tash and son, Master Thomas, who have been in Haverhill, Mass., during the winter, are domiciled in their cottage on the “Mast” road for the summer vacation.

Miss Bessie Thompson of Brooklyn, N.Y., is staying a while with her mother, Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson, at Walnut Grove.

Miss Jennie Young, on the Newmarket road, went Sunday to visit over Monday with friends at Durham Point.

Monday Miss Jennie Farwell made the delightful trip across Lake Winnipiseogee, that beautiful sheet of water, with its many rock-rimmed, wooded island, of which Whittier said

“Lake of the Northland! Keep thy dower
Of beauty still, and while above
Thy solemn mountains speak of power,
Be thou the mirror of God’s love.”
J. True Bartlett visited Sunday with his daughter in Dover.

Mrs. Anna Fall of Haverhill, Mass., is staying at present with her sister, Mrs. George P. James.

Miss Helen H. J. Thompson is passing a few weeks with friends in Epping.

Herbert Owen of Dover, when touring through town Monday, called at Hilltop Farm.

Mrs. G. E. Kinney and Miss Mary A. Chesley attended the Congregational Club banquet, held at Hotel Wentworth, Newcastle, Wednesday.

Carl W. Cartland of Dover, who had the honor to be valedictorian of class of '09, Dartmouth College, is the son of Charles Cartland, owner of Walnut Grove Farm, and has passed many summers here.

The community was pained as well as shocked by the sudden death of Robert G. Bennett, who died, of an abscess in the throat, Sunday evening, July 4, at his home on the Newmarket road. He was about fifty-five years of age and is survived by a widow, two sons, five sisters and a large circle of other relatives and many friends. Mr. Bennett was ill only a few days, and not thought to be in a serious condition until a few hours before his death. He was a kind, indulgent husband and father, an obliging neighbor and a faithful friend, one of those pleasant, genial men whom everyone loved, and he will be so much missed by his friends who know something of what his loss will be to his family.

"Husband and father have from us been taken,
Oft will we list for his kind voice in vain;
His is a mansion by winds never shaken,
His is a home that knoweth no pain.

"While here below a little while longer,
Saddened by sorrow, we labor and wait,
May we be ready, our faith growing stronger,
To meet our dear friend at the beautiful gate."

Anon.

John Noble visited in Alton a few days last week.

Mr. Haines of Melrose spent the Fourth at Mr. Haley's.

Mr. Walter Thurston and daughter are visiting in Dover and Berwick.

Alexander Hill of Exeter was in town Saturday.
July 9, 1909 cont.

John Noble has sold a nice horse to Mr. Cartland of Dover.

Mr. Noyce of Hampstead visited Friday at Frank Haley's.

A number from Lee attended the drama and dance at Nottingham Friday night.

Mrs. Snell of Rochester is visiting at Jay Noble's.

Mr. and Mrs. Plumer went to Manchester on business one day last week.

July 16, 1909

Mrs. Joseph Swift and two children, Miss Gertrude and Master Robert, of Everett, Mass., are with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellington at Seven Oaks for the summer.

Mrs. Ella Carpenter of Newmarket made a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter.

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Barnes of New York City came Monday to pass the remainder of the summer at Willow Homestead. Edwin Wiggin of Lynn, Mass., is also passing a two weeks' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin.

The Misses Jennie and Rena Young, on the Newmarket road, made a trip to Boston last week.

Mrs. Carrie Weeden is staying awhile with her brother, Fred P. Comings, at the Larches.

Mrs. Charles Manning and son, Master Frank, of Haverhill, Mass., came last Wednesday to visit a few weeks with their aunt, Mrs. R.P.D. Bennett. Mr. Manning visited over Sunday also at Hill Crest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Howard, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reed and child, of New York City came last Friday to pass the remainder of the summer at Susanne Cottage, which they have had enlarged and thoroughly renovated for a summer home. Mr. Reed returned to his home Monday, leaving Mrs. Reed and their child for a longer visit.

Mrs. Mabel Glidden visited in Lynn, Mass., over Sunday.

William Sparrow and Miss Grace Eams of Cambridge, Mass., are passing this week with Rev. and Mrs. G.E. Kinney. Dr. and Mrs. G.A. Lewis of South Berwick, Me., were also guests at the parsonage Wednesday.
George E. Chesley, one of our oldest, native residents, has done the mowing on his farm fifty consecutive years, has mowed one hundred acres yearly. A record to be proud of.

George DeMeritt, employed in Haverhill, Mass., is enjoying his vacation, part of his time will be utilized in cutting his grass.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fifield of Nashua are at their summer home, Breezy Hill, for a part of the summer.

John Conlon, employed in Concord, is enjoying his vacation by assisting his aunt, Miss Mary Connor, in harvesting her hay.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson, who have been at Pine Row a few days, returned to their home in Exeter Tuesday.

Tuesday, the proprietor of the Lee Fibre Co., entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Bixby, Mr. and Mrs. H. Keeler and Miss Georgia Chesley of Haverhill, Mass., in a delightful manner. Delectable refreshments were served on the lawn.

Miss Sarah Morse of Malden, Mass., came Tuesday to visit a while with her sister, who is summering at Pine Grove Farm.

Miss Bessie Cartland and Carl and the Misses Lucia and Mary Cartland of Dover are at Walnut Grove for the summer. Charles Cartland, also of Dover, visited with them over Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Tuttle and daughter, Miss S. Belle, former residents, who have lived in Lynn, Mass., the past few years, have recently moved to Newmarket.

July 16, 1909 cont.

George E. Chesley, one of our oldest, native residents, has done the mowing on his farm fifty consecutive years, has mowed one hundred acres yearly. A record to be proud of.

George DeMeritt, employed in Haverhill, Mass., is enjoying his vacation, part of his time will be utilized in cutting his grass.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Fifield of Nashua are at their summer home, Breezy Hill, for a part of the summer.

John Conlon, employed in Concord, is enjoying his vacation by assisting his aunt, Miss Mary Connor, in harvesting her hay.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson, who have been at Pine Row a few days, returned to their home in Exeter Tuesday.

Tuesday, the proprietor of the Lee Fibre Co., entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Bixby, Mr. and Mrs. H. Keeler and Miss Georgia Chesley of Haverhill, Mass., in a delightful manner. Delectable refreshments were served on the lawn.

Miss Sarah Morse of Malden, Mass., came Tuesday to visit a while with her sister, who is summering at Pine Grove Farm.

Miss Bessie Cartland and Carl and the Misses Lucia and Mary Cartland of Dover are at Walnut Grove for the summer. Charles Cartland, also of Dover, visited with them over Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Tuttle and daughter, Miss S. Belle, former residents, who have lived in Lynn, Mass., the past few years, have recently moved to Newmarket.
July 23, 1909

Edward Dame had business in Boston recently.

Many of the farmers in this vicinity are still busy harvesting their hay; quite a few have already finished and report a light crop, but of very good quality and excellently cured. Other crops are looking very well, although somewhat backward.

Miss Mildred Durell of Hyde Park, Mass., accompanied by her brother, Louie, and Harry J. Alexander of Baldwinsville, Mass., who are staying at Hampton Beach for two weeks, visited Saturday with Mrs. R. P. D. Bennett, and also called on other friends. Miss Rebecca Osborne of Boston is also a guest at Hill Crest.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson of Exeter were at Pine Row over Sunday.

Miss Carrie A. Bartlett went to Hampton Beach Saturday to pass Sunday with her sister.

Frank and Stanley Arbuckle of Pittsburg, Pa., and Miss Kathryn Prentiss of Dover are the guests of Fred P. Comings at The Larches.

Harry Baker of Reading, Mass., made a week-end visit with his family, who are staying at Meadowbrook Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chesley are entertaining two gentlemen from Malden, Mass.

Master Donald Learnard of Derry is visiting with his mother, Mrs. Blanche Learnard, at the Glidden homestead, during his vacation.

Miss Bernice Stearns of Dover passed last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lane, at Clearfield.

Miss Gertrude Olson of Roxbury, Mass., is staying with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiggin at Willow Homestead.

Miss Alma Kelsey of Dover has recently been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chesley at The Elms.

Rev. G. E. Kinney was suddenly called to Cambridge, Mass., last week, on account of the death of an uncle.

Herbert Hardy of Ayer, Mass., is staying for awhile with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pray.

We are having a delightfully cool summer thus far, barring one week, the last of June, and a few days last week, which were quite hot.

Mrs. Harry Philbrick of Berlin and three children, Miss Louise, and Masters Earle and Merle (twins), visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Atherton at Nutwood.

Quite a party from this town went by trolley to Hampton Beach Wednesday, returning via Portsmouth.

Miss Pauline Bartlett and Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin, staying at Hampton Beach, were the guests of Miss Bartlett's father, J. True Bartlett, over night last week. ANON.
July 30, 1909

The woman's Missionary Society will meet at the parsonage next Friday, instead of Wednesday as announced.

The Misses Helene and Gladys Arnold and their grandmother, Mrs. Payne, of Enfield, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter last Friday.

Mrs. Moses Swett of Marblehead, Mass., is making a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellington at Seven Oaks.

Frank Reed of New York City is passing his vacation, of two weeks, with his wife and child, who are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Ora Howard, at Susanne Cottage.

Miss Sophia Thurrell of South Portland, Me., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Young, on the Newmarket road, this week.

Miss Della Hamilton, who has been visiting with relatives in Bluefield, West Virginia, for nearly three months, has returned and is staying for the present with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham, at Maplewood.

Mr. and Mrs. James B.C. Walker and little daughter, Marion, passed several days last week in camp at Bow Lake.

Albert Durell, employed in Cambridge, Mass., visited over Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. R.P.B. Bennett, at Hill Crest.

Arthur Wiggin will finish his two weeks' visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin, and return to his home in Roxbury, Mass., Saturday, Granville Davis of St. Louis, Mo., is staying for a few days, and Miss Margaret Guthie of Cleveland, Ohio, will be at Willow Homestead until Sept. 1.

Dr. John T. Scannell of New Mexico has been the guest of the Misses Mary and Annie Connor a few days recently.

Miss Rhoda J. Davis and Mrs. Josiah D. Thompson of Exeter are again staying at Pine Row.

There will be a lawn party on the church grounds next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of a part of the Sunday School. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody and it is hoped a goodly number will be present. Ice cream and cake will be on sale.

Ora Howard went to New York City Tuesday on business, which will detain him a few days.
Mrs. Harry Baker, staying at Meadowbrook Farm, passed Monday in Reading, Mass.

The Misses Jennie and Rena Young, on the Newmarket road, made a trip to Hampton Beach Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glidden, who have been in Derry most of the time during the summer, came home Tuesday.

Mrs. Francis Tyler of Hudson is domiciled with her son, Lee, and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, at the old Whitney house for the summer.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter and daughter, Miss Irene, are passing this week with friends at Hampton Beach.

Miss Mary J. York is visiting with relatives in Malden, Wilmington and Reading, Mass.

Miss Bessie Thompson is the guest of friends in Dover.

The Misses Edith and Sarah Morse, who have been several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Thompson, have returned to their home in Malden, Mass., and Mrs. Alfred Lawson of Reading, Mass., made a week-end visit at Pine Grove Farm.

Miss Helen H. J. Thompson is staying, and Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson and two nieces, the Misses Lucia and Mary Cartland, of Dover passed a few days recently with friends at “Kamp Kill Kare,” at Pawtuckaway Pond, Nottingham.

Mrs. Edward H. Hancock and two sons, Masters John and Edward, of Somerville, Mass., are staying for a few weeks with Mrs. Hancock’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caverino.

By the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Durgin of Newmarket it was possible for Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins and Mrs. Walter Smith to make an auto trip to Portsmouth, and to call on friends in North Hampton and Rye, Tuesday.

There was a very enjoyable lawn party given by the Newmarket Plains Sunday School Tuesday evening on the grounds of Charles P. Young. About ninety were present and the evening was delightful, just right for an out-of-doors party. The spacious grounds looked beautifully, lighted by a nearly full moon and many Japanese lanterns. Phonograph selections were rendered almost continuously

Cont....
July 30, 1909 cont.

And ice cream and cake were generously served by willing hands.

Mrs. B.F. Davis, after returning last week from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Grace Bryant, in Portland, Me., had an attack of tonsillitis and was confined to the house several days.

George Fox of Boston has been visiting with his uncle, Mr. S.E. DeMeritt.

Mrs. George James and family visited in Barrington over Sunday, where there was a party of 18.

A number of summer visitors attended services at the chapel last Sunday. Among them was Mrs. Barnes, who has spent several summers here, also a friend, Miss Guthrie, of Cleveland, Ohio.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bixby and family of Haverhill, Mass., dined with their uncle, George E. Chesley, returning in their auto through Dover and Portsmouth to their summer cottage at Silver Lake, Newton Junction, N.H.
"But the heat of the summer brings a glow,
No other time of the year can know,
We seek the lake, and the little boat,
And over the waters dreaming float,
To gather lilies, starry-eyed,
That rest on the shining, lapsing tide."

Mrs. Jennie Learnard of Derry has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glidden the past week.

Mrs. Carrie Davis of Dover is staying for a while with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Stilman Nichols of Winchester, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin at Glenmere.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Taylor of Oxford, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. George Austin and two children of Roxbury, Mass., are being entertained at The Larches this week.

Mrs. Charles P. Young and daughter, Miss Rena, on the Newmarket road, passed Friday and Saturday of last week with friends in South Berwick, Me.

Miss Bertha Turner of Wilmington, Mass., staying at Hampton Beach, made a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker at Meadowbrook Farm.

Miss Jennie Farwell and little Miss Hazel Dearborn went Wednesday to visit with friends in Wolfeboro.

Miss Kate Adams of Dover is the guest of Miss Bessie Cartland at Walnut Grove.

William H. Howard of Fryeburg, Me., visited, and Samuel Neal of Newfields called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. York at Walnut Avenue Farms Saturday.

Dr. Barnes of New York City, staying at Willow Homestead, is up to his old tricks, as the numerous strings of pickerel which he lures to his hook will testify.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Wiggin made a business trip to Newmarket Monday.
August 6, 1909 cont.

Mrs. Frank Randall was a guest at the wedding of a friend in Exeter Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. George E. Kinney had business in Auburn, Me., Tuesday.

Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson, with her daughter, Miss Bessie, is domiciled at Wayside Cottage for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Plummer of Dover visited Sunday with their brother, D. E. Plummer.

Miss Annie Wiggin, staying at Willow Homestead, is passing this week with relatives in Epping.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Baker and two children, Master Harold and little Dorothy, and Miss Alma Kinnie, who have been rusticating at Meadowbrook Farm eight weeks, returned to their homes in Malden and Reading, Mass., Wednesday.

The Women’s Missionary Society have invited all the women of the parish to meet with them on the church grounds (this) Friday afternoon. Rev. T. Taisne of Durham is expected to entertain them by a talk, and refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Fifield passed Tuesday and Wednesday in Nashua.

Herbert Wiggin of Roxbury, Mass., made a week-end visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wiggin, and Mrs. Fred Spinney, Mrs. Arthur Dow and Mrs. Ada Frost of Lynn, Mass., are also at Willow Homestead for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Currier are rejoicing over the birth of a son, which arrived Aug. 4. Friends extend congratulations.
August 13, 1909

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tasker of Dover and young son, Lee, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee Sunday. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. William Lee and visiting niece, and all went to Lake Wheelwright, where they enjoyed the day by holding a basket picnic.

Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Farnsworth and little daughter, Martha Ann, of Hampstead are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. G.E. Kinney this week at the parsonage.

Miss Rena Young, on the Newmarket road, is visiting with relatives in Portland, Me., this week.

Mrs. G.E. Chesley and Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin went Tuesday to Old Orchard beach. They stayed to the field day exercises of the New Hampshire Pomona Grange, held at Ocean Park Thursday.

Mrs. Fred B. York is the guest of friends at York Beach this week.

The lawn party on the church grounds last week proved to be a very pleasant affair. There was a goodly number present, a plenty of ice cream and cake, and light hearts to participate in the games and social intercourse.

It is our good fortune to be staying at York Beach this week. We are very pleasantly located in a roomy, cosy cottage on Long Sands near "The Sea View." The air is cool, the sun bright and old ocean lulls us to sleep every night by its unceasing murmur. It is a very fine beach, not so extensive for driving as Hampton, but less barren, all around the cottages the grass is thick and green, many have fine vegetable and flower gardens. There are high, rocky bluffs running out, like miniature capes, into the sea, which break the monotony of a low, sandy stretch of beach.

Mrs. Hopkins of Nashua is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. F.O. Fifield, at Breezy Hill.

Mrs. Mary Jane Chesley came from Exeter last week to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler of Hudson and Rev. Mr. Taylor from Oxford, Penn., attended services at the chapel last Sunday, also Miss Margaret Guthrie of Cleveland, Ohio, who favored us with a solilo.

On Tuesday evening Jeremiah Smith Grange instructed a class in the third and fourth degrees.

All interested in the Lee Hill cemetery are requested to meet on Lee Hill Tuesday and Wednesday, August 17 and 18, to put in place the new fence, and make other needed improvements.

The Sunday School picnic is to be held on Thursday, Aug. 19, at Pine Grove, on the Edwin Thompson place, near Wadley’s Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett spent the day in Dover on Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Taisne of Durham called at the parsonage Monday afternoon.
August 20, 1909

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Hunnewell of Reading, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. York at Walnut Avenue Farms.

Miss Bertha Tootill visited last Sunday with her father at York Beach.

Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin and son, Caverly, and Miss Mary A. Chesley went to Haverhill, Mass., Wednesday, to visit a few days with friends.

Mrs. Josiah Bartlett and son, Master Minot, of New Britain, Conn., visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett at Wayside Farm.

Miss Edna James is enjoying a three weeks' visit in Somerville, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin are entertaining a Mr. and Miss Stearns of Hancock, who are the guests of their daughter, Miss Nellie, at Willow Homestead.

Mrs. Charles Hardy and daughter, Miss Helen, of Ayer, Mass., have recently visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pray.

Miss Helen Morse of Malden, Mass., is staying for a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. F.J. Thompson. Horace Reed of Melrose, Mass., returned to his home Monday, after having passed a week at Pine Grove Farm.

John L. Bennett and Miss Sarah Chapman of Newmarket dined Sunday with Miss Mary B. York at Meadowbrook Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Plummer of Dover visited Sunday with their brother, D.E. Plummer.

E.O. Fifield, Fred P. Comings and Alfred C. Durgin are motoring over the northern part of the state.

Fred B. York had business in Dover Tuesday.

Mrs. William Phinney of Sharon, Mass., came last Friday to visit with Mrs. Josiah Thompson several days, and Mr. Thompson of Exeter also made a week-end visit at Pine Row.

Mrs. Hannah Coburn and daughter, Miss Florence, of Weston, Mass., came Wednesday to visit with Mrs. R.P.D. Bennett and Albert Durell of Chelsea, Mass., visited over Sunday, also, at Hill Crest.

At the meeting of the grangers of southern New Hampshire at Durham last Thursday, John C. Bartlett had his pocket picked of nearly $90.
August 27, 1909

Mrs. Ellery Jenkins and two sons, Masters Wayne and Leigh, of Lowell, Mass., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Jenkins during the past week.

The stork brought to Mr. and Mrs. Flavius J. Berry of North Barrington a son, Aug. 17. Mrs. Berry was Miss Nellie Glidden of this town, and friends here extend congratulations.

The Misses Arline and Alice Manning of Haverhill, Mass., called on their aunt, Mrs. R.P.D. Bennett, Sunday at Hill Crest.

Mrs. Susan Randall of Amesbury is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett at Wayside Farm.

Tuesday, Paymaster General and Mrs. Timothy O'Leary and daughter, Miss Elinor, of Seattle, Wash., terminated a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham at Maplewood.

Miss Jennie Young, on the Newmarket road, went to South Portland, Me., Monday to visit a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glidden, who have been passing the major part of the summer with relatives in Derby, are home just now.

Miss Bertha Chesley of Amesbury, Mass., and Miss Bessie Berry of Everett, Mass., have recently been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Chesley at The Elms. Monday, with Miss Winnie Chesley, they visited with Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Chesley.

The Misses Ellen and Amanda Randall of Boston are staying with Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Hill, just in the edge of Durham, and also their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Hill of Attleboro, Mass., are their guests at the present time.

A Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Lynn, Mass., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A.D. Wiggin at Willow Homestead for two weeks.

Mrs. F.P. Wheeler of Worcester, Mass., has recently been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn at Brookside Farm.

Rev. Francis Tyler, who has been enjoying a three weeks' vacation with his family at the old Whiting place, has returned to his parish in Hudson. He delivered the address at his former parish at Marlboro Old Home Day.
Miss Carrie Page of Weare has been the guest of Mrs. Nellie C. Thompson, for several days, at Riverside Cottage.

Miss Frances Cass of Boston is passing a part of her vacation with J. True Bartlett and daughters.

A Mrs. Holyoke, who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Thompson the past week, returned to her home in Dorchester, Mass., Monday.

George B. Haley and three sons, Waldron, Sumner and Lawrence, of Barrington attended services at the chapel last Sunday.

Rev. J. T. Berry of Tunbridge, Vt., a former pastor, with his family, will visit at several places in town this week.

George E. Chesley and daughter, Miss Mary, attended the reunion of the Folsom family, of which they are members, held at Exeter Wednesday.

The picnic at Pine Grove Farm last Thursday was a very enjoyable gathering. There were sixty or more present, a fine dinner was served, followed by ice cream and plenty of lemonade. Swings, boating, croquet and a ball game were features of the entertainment.

Miss Jennie Farwell is camping this week with a party of friends at Wilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atherton and child of Newmarket called on Mr. and Mrs. Chester Atherton Sunday at Nutwood.

Mrs. John Towle of Buffalo, N. Y., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter one day this week.

Charles Cartland of Dover is passing this week with his family at Walnut Grove.

Rev. G. E. Kinney and son, Master Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyford Wiggin visited Tuesday with friends in Barrington.

Miss Mary Critcherson of New York City came Tuesday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ora Howard at Susanne Cottage.