Ora Howard came to Lee last Friday and returned with his wife to their home in New York on Monday. Mrs. Howard's brother and sister will remain a few weeks, when they will close their summer cottage for the winter.

Mrs. G. Y. Durgin and Miss Ethel Durgin took a trip to Boston last Friday and visited friends in Chelsea, Mass.

Last Thursday evening Albert Dudley was given a surprise party (which was a complete surprise). As it was his 25th birthday, about thirty of his friends and neighbors met and presented him with a handsome parlor clock. The presentation was made by D. E. Critcherson. It also being the birthday of Mrs. Dudley's sister, Miss Velma James, they presented her with a gold watch. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening enjoyed.

Mrs. Harrley, son and daughter, and Mrs. Norris came by auto from Nahant, Mass., last Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Miss Mary A. Chesley made a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley, returning to Derry on Monday morning.

Grant Farwell and wife of Boston are guests of his mother, Mrs. Frank H. Dearborn.

Miss Gertrude Smith, who has been at home for a few weeks, went last week to Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Frank O. Tyler of Hudson, who is at her cottage in Lee, received remembrances on her birthday last Saturday. Flowers were sent from her husband, also from the Sabbath School in Hudson. She also received 40 birthday cards.

Mrs. Winfield Robinson of Epping visited one day with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, at their cottage.

The Cartland family have left Walnut Grove and returned to Dover. Mrs. Nellie Thompson has closed her cottage, and will remain at Walnut Grove for the winter.

William A. Carpenter has gone to Pine Point, Me., where he is at work for his father, E. S. Carpenter.

Mrs. Emma Hale is visiting relatives in Ayer, Mass.

October 3, 1913

Ora Howard came to Lee last Friday and returned with his wife to their home in New York on Monday. Mrs. Howard's brother and sister will remain a few weeks, when they will close their summer cottage for the winter.

Mrs. G. Y. Durgin and Miss Ethel Durgin took a trip to Boston last Friday and visited friends in Chelsea, Mass.

Last Thursday evening Albert Dudley was given a surprise party (which was a complete surprise). As it was his 25th birthday, about thirty of his friends and neighbors met and presented him with a handsome parlor clock. The presentation was made by D. E. Critcherson. It also being the birthday of Mrs. Dudley's sister, Miss Velma James, they presented her with a gold watch. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening enjoyed.

Mrs. Harrley, son and daughter, and Mrs. Norris came by auto from Nahant, Mass., last Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Miss Mary A. Chesley made a week-end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley, returning to Derry on Monday morning.

Grant Farwell and wife of Boston are guests of his mother, Mrs. Frank H. Dearborn.

Miss Gertrude Smith, who has been at home for a few weeks, went last week to Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Frank O. Tyler of Hudson, who is at her cottage in Lee, received remembrances on her birthday last Saturday. Flowers were sent from her husband, also from the Sabbath School in Hudson. She also received 40 birthday cards.

Mrs. Winfield Robinson of Epping visited one day with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson has closed her cottage, and will remain at Walnut Grove for the winter.

William A. Carpenter has gone to Pine Point, Me., where he is at work for his father, E. S. Carpenter.

Mrs. Emma Hale is visiting relatives in Ayer, Mass.
Miss Rhoda J. Davis was a guest over Sunday at Nutwood, Durham.

Hastings Wellington of Malden, Mass., is visiting at Walter Wellington's.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel Haley dined last Sunday with Mrs. Frank Dearborn. On returning to Wolfeboro, Mrs. Haley was accompanied by her mother and brother, Grant Farwell, and wife.

On Friday of last week, Alfred C. Durgin and family took a trip by auto to Haverhill, Mass. Saturday visiting in Boston, Malden and vicinity, returning home on Monday night.

Arthur D. Wiggin and wife, (Mrs. Wiggin formerly Helen Thompson), are now living at Leesburg, Florida, on a fruit farm. Mr. Wiggin, while out fishing one day, caught an alligator three feet, four inches in length.

Wednesday evening quite a number of the members of Jeremiah Smith Grange attended the meeting of Lamprey River Grange at Newmarket, and reported a very pleasant time.

Mr. Waldron, the superintendent of schools in Raymond, Hampstead, and Lee, has resigned, to fill a similar position in Massachusetts.

William H. Hall and wife recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Choats and daughter of Amesbury, Mass.

George Demeritt is harvesting his corn and Darius Mariotti is harvesting his vegetables raised on the Susan Lane farm in Newmarket.

Mrs. George Demeritt entertained her sister's family, the Carlises, of Exeter last Sunday.

Charles Dame drove to Durham a few days ago to look over his herd of cows and young stock which he has had pastured during the summer, preparatory to getting in shape for their return home.

Mr. O'Brien, the apple merchant, has recently been in this vicinity buying apples.
October 10, 1913

Mrs. Lewis Snell attended the field meeting of the Federation of Woman's Club, which was held at Lebanon last week.

Charles Weeden of Dover passed the day Sunday at James B. Walker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Carleton of Lynn have recently been visiting at Willow Homestead.

Miss Nellie Wiggin and Miss Ruth Angell have gone to Epping to spend the winter with Miss Wiggin's brother, Clarence Wiggin.

Mr. Mentor of Nashua, who has been visiting his son, Ernest Mentor, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Sparr, all of Stratham, spent the day Wednesday at Willow Homestead.

Miss Phoebe Tyler, oldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank O. Tyler of Hudson, teaching school in Rye, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, at their cottage in Lee.

The Thompson Brothers have a fine flock of Rhode Island Red hens. Recently a pullet laid an egg with three yolks.

Mrs. David Mitchell recently visited with her daughter, Mrs. Darrett, at Worcester. Mrs. Mitchell on returning was accompanied by her daughter, who will make a short visit here.

Ellery Jenkins of Lowell has been the guest for a week of his uncle, J. S. Jenkins; his wife coming Saturday and returning with him Monday.

Mrs. Granville Thompson, who has been in the Hayes Hospital, Dover, for several weeks, returned to her home last Saturday. She is much better, but is still under the doctor's care.

Hastings Wellington of Malden, who has been visiting his uncle, Walter Wellington, returned home this week.

Roy A. Kane of Castine, Me., the new superintendent of schools, was in town Wednesday, visiting the schools.

The farm owned by the late Cyrus Comings was sold at auction Wednesday to George James, the price paid being $2050.00.

The ladies of the Missionary Society were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Frank Gerrish in Nottingham. A large number were in attendance. In response to the roll-call, short items of interest in missionary news were given. Several interesting papers were read on China. After the meeting the social hour was enjoyed, with refreshments.
As Columbus Day was a legal holiday it drew quite a number of visitors to town.

Edwin J. Thompson of Cambridge, Mass., spent Sunday and Monday visiting with his mother at Hilltop farm; also with his son, Arthur E. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Berry visited with Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Chesley over Sunday and Monday, returning to their home in Everett, Mass., on Tuesday.

Charles Cartland’s family came to spend the day Monday at Walnut Grove. Miss Phoebe Tyler returned to Dover with them, taking the train there for Rye, where she is teaching school.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Berry visited with Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Chesley over Sunday and Monday, returning to their home in Everett, Mass., on Tuesday.

Mrs. Josephine Brown, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett, returned this week to her home in Portland, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. John Randall and son of Pittsburgh, Pa., came to Lee Wednesday night for a two months’ vacation.

Mrs. Frank Oldham returned Tuesday from a week’s visit in West Somerville, Mass.

The Mutual Improvement Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on this (Friday) evening at the chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmet H. Cram of Greenwood, Mass., passed Sunday and Monday at John C. Bartlett’s.

Mrs. Anna Gaylord and friends of Boston spent two days at Sargent Jenkins’ the past week.

E.O. Fifield came from Nashua on Monday, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. James B. Walker sent to Boston, Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Margaret Burleigh, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, Jeremiah Smith Grange held a very pleasant meeting, Tuesday evening. The deputy, Prof. David Lumsden of Durham, was present for inspection. The fourth degree was conferred on a class of four, a programme was carried out and a harvest supper served. Several visitors from out of town were present.

Tuesday evening, October 12, the Congregational society will hold their annual harvest supper at Grange hall. Music and readings, with the usual attractions, may be expected.
Mrs. Nellie Tash is visiting friends in Haverhill, Mass., for a few days.

Mrs. Jennie Haley of Wolfeboro is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

The children of the Center school are to give an entertainment at Grange Hall next Thursday evening, the night before Hallowe’en.

Last week three of the descendants of the late Captain Parker called at Chester Ellison’s, wishing to look over the place which their great-great-grandfather formerly owned and where he lived so many years ago. One of the ladies came from Manila.

Daniel Critcherson and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, closed Susanna Cottage last Tuesday and will spend the winter in New York.

Mrs. Childs of Haverhill, Mass., has recently purchased a small place on the Mast road, formerly known as the Tash place, and will reside there another year.

Mrs. John C. Bartlett is suffering from erysipelas in her face.

Mrs. Gorham Sawyer is visiting friends in Salisbury, N.H., and Burlington, Vt.

Roy Kane, the new superintendent of schools, and family, are living for the present on Lee Hill in Fred Comings’ house.

Mrs. Walter Wellington is again quite ill.

The harvest festival Tuesday evening was well attended and a success in every way. The supper was served from 6 to 8, the programme was interesting, and a good display of fruit and vegetables sold for a good price.

There will be a Hallowe’en dance for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange at the town hall, Friday evening, Oct. 31. Admission, 25 cents.
October 31, 1913

A good number attended the husking at Burley Keniston’s on Tuesday evening.

Miss Bertha Tootill went Tuesday to visit friends in Ayer and South Attleboro, Mass.

Arthur McDaniel is serving on the jury in Portsmouth.

Mrs. Walter Wellington, who has been quite ill, is a little better. Her daughter, Flora, has returned to Somersworth.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Tuesday evening.

Rev. L.W. Muttart and Deacon Frank McDaniel, delegate, attended the council which convened last week for the dismissal of Rev. A.M. Parker, the Congregational pastor in that place.

Next Sunday morning, Nov. 2, the communion service will be observed at the Congregational church. The preparatory lecture will be held at the vestry this (Friday) afternoon at 2.30.

Rev. Francis O. Tyler of Hudson is stopping in town for a few days.
November 7, 1913

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bartlett took a trip to Exeter, Sunday, to visit Mr. Bartlett's brother, Edward Bartlett, who resides there. Mr. Bartlett has been feeble and confined to his bed for some time.

The children of the Center school met with great success with their Hallowe'en party last week. There was a large attendance, and the children taking part in the programme acquitted themselves with credit to themselves and the teacher.

Rev. L. W. Muttart was called to Worcester last week Friday to attend the funeral of his nephew.

E. O. Fifield came from Nashua Monday to look after his lumber lot and saw mill.

Mary A. Chesley made a week-end visit with her sister, Mrs. Nellie Durgin.

Mrs. Nellie G. Thompson had a family party at the Cartland homestead on Tuesday, Nov. 4, it being her birthday. Relatives were present from Dover, Epping and Boston.

Frank Christie and Joseph Churchill of Dover called at George F. Chesley's on Monday last.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society were entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the vestry by Mrs. Newman Gerrish. After the meeting, refreshments were served.

Mrs. G. Y. Durgin took a very severe cold and was very ill Wednesday, and is now under the doctor's care.

Mrs. Granville Thompson, who was gaining rapidly from her recent illness, had a severe attack Monday night of acute indigestion, which weakened her greatly, but is now convalescent.

Nelson Tellerin is moving his family for the winter into the house on Lee Hill, known as the Pendergast house.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson visited Wednesday at Clarence Wiggin's in Epping.

The cottage that was built near the road on the Wm. O. Thompson farm, came very near being burned the first of the week. But for the timely aid of some men from the fibre mill and James B. Walker's at Lee Hill, it doubtless would have. The fire was caused by a defective chimney and was extinguished without much damage.
Carl Cartland and Mr. Kempton, teacher of manual training in Dover High School, visited at the Cartland farm last Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Peach of Malden visited at her father's, Howard Glidden, this week.

Alfred C. Durgin and family took an auto trip to Haverhill, Mass., Wednesday morning, returning at night.

Mrs. G.Y. Durgin, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Quite a number of Grangers from Lee are attending the National Grange, which meets at Manchester this week.

The Mutual Improvement Society will hold its monthly meeting on this (Friday) evening at the vestry.

Next Thursday evening at Grange hall there will be a supper from 6 to 8 o'clock, followed by an entertainment and apron sale. The entertainment will consist of a farce, music and readings. This entertainment will be for the benefit of the Congregational society.

Mrs. Samuel Fisher of Dover made calls in town last week.

Mrs. Nellie Tash, who has spent most of the summer with her sister, Mrs. Belle Garrity, has taken rooms in John Bunker's house at Durham and has gone to housekeeping.

A masquerade ball will be held at the town hall, Lee Hill, Friday evening, Nov. 1. Admission, including dancing, 25 cents. Good music and a good time assured.

November 14, 1913

Carl Cartland and Mr. Kempton, teacher of manual training in Dover High School, visited at the Cartland farm last Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Peach of Malden visited at her father's, Howard Glidden, this week.

Alfred C. Durgin and family took an auto trip to Haverhill, Mass., Wednesday morning, returning at night.

Mrs. G.Y. Durgin, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Quite a number of Grangers from Lee are attending the National Grange, which meets at Manchester this week.

The Mutual Improvement Society will hold its monthly meeting on this (Friday) evening at the vestry.

Next Thursday evening at Grange hall there will be a supper from 6 to 8 o'clock, followed by an entertainment and apron sale. The entertainment will consist of a farce, music and readings. This entertainment will be for the benefit of the Congregational society.

Mrs. Samuel Fisher of Dover made calls in town last week.

Mrs. Nellie Tash, who has spent most of the summer with her sister, Mrs. Belle Garrity, has taken rooms in John Bunker's house at Durham and has gone to housekeeping.

A masquerade ball will be held at the town hall, Lee Hill, Friday evening, Nov. 1. Admission, including dancing, 25 cents. Good music and a good time assured.
Lee.

Herbert Thompson of Richmond, Me., came last Saturday to stop over Sunday at the old homestead, with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison.

Al Richards of Boston visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham.

Clarence Wiggin and daughter, Marion, Miss Nellie Wiggin and Miss Ruth Angell, all of Epping, spent Sunday at Willow Homestead.

Mr. Lane, the new school superintendent, who took the place of Roy Kane, resigned, visited schools in town Monday.

Miss Bertha Tootill is the guest of Mrs. William Priest. Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Durgin of Newmarket also passed the day Wednesday there.

Nine members of Jeremiah Smith Grange took the seventh degree last week at the National Grange meeting in Manchester.

Harry B. Williams of Topsfield, Mass., was the guest of George E. Chesley, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Flora Wellington came from Somersworth this week to call on her mother, who has been very ill.

Miss Phoebe Tyler, who is teaching school in Rye, stopped over Sunday with her mother at their cottage. Her brother, Lee Tyler, also visited there.

Several gentlemen from Stratham came by auto to Lee the first of the week, to purchase turkeys for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Alice McDaniel spent the day Wednesday at Mrs. Lulu Walker's.

J.B. Walker has had his store, house and barn wired for electric lights.

Fred Comings and Mrs. James B. Walter went to Boston Wednesday to attend the funeral of an aged relative, Daniel W. Smith, a great uncle of Mrs. Walker's.

November 21, 1913

Herbert Thompson of Richmond, Me., came last Saturday to stop over Sunday at the old homestead, with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison.

Al Richards of Boston visited this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham.

Clarence Wiggin and daughter, Marion, Miss Nellie Wiggin and Miss Ruth Angell, all of Epping, spent Sunday at Willow Homestead.

Mr. Lane, the new school superintendent, who took the place of Roy Kane, resigned, visited schools in town Monday.

Miss Bertha Tootill is the guest of Mrs. William Priest. Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Durgin of Newmarket also passed the day Wednesday there.

Nine members of Jeremiah Smith Grange took the seventh degree last week at the National Grange meeting in Manchester.

Harry B. Williams of Topsfield, Mass., was the guest of George E. Chesley, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Flora Wellington came from Somersworth this week to call on her mother, who has been very ill.

Miss Phoebe Tyler, who is teaching school in Rye, stopped over Sunday with her mother at their cottage. Her brother, Lee Tyler, also visited there.

Several gentlemen from Stratham came by auto to Lee the first of the week, to purchase turkeys for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Alice McDaniel spent the day Wednesday at Mrs. Lulu Walker's.

J.B. Walker has had his store, house and barn wired for electric lights.

Fred Comings and Mrs. James B. Walter went to Boston Wednesday to attend the funeral of an aged relative, Daniel W. Smith, a great uncle of Mrs. Walker's.
Mrs. Belle Garrity has recently completed the laying of a pipe from a spring near by to carry water to the house.

Miss Mary York is spending a few days with Mrs. Mary Abbie Bennett at Newmarket.

Wednesday Mrs. William Carpenter went to Boston to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Mr. Cram of Greenwood, Mass., has purchased the farm formerly occupied by Mrs. Rebecca Bennett.

Mrs. Horace Caverno went Wednesday to Somerville, Mass., to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Bernice Hancock.

On Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 2.30 p.m., the Woman's Missionary meeting will be held with Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin.

Mrs. Mary P. Taylor of Wollaston, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John C. Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Caldwell went to Malden, Mass., Tuesday, to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Caldwell's parents.

Mary A. Chesley came from Derry Wednesday night to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Miss Grace Dodge of Somerville, Mass., has been a guest of Mr. William Caldwell several days the past week.

The supper and entertainment on Thursday evening of last week was pronounced fine. There was a good number present. The programme was exceedingly interesting and every number was heartily encored. A good sum was realized.

Rev. L.W. Muttart preached a very interesting Thanksgiving sermon last Sunday. The church was well filled and the Sunday School had a larger number present than at any previous Sunday this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hardy of Lynn visited their father, Simeon C. Hardy, last Sunday.

November 28, 1913

Mrs. Belle Garrity has recently completed the laying of a pipe from a spring near by to carry water to the house.

Miss Mary York is spending a few days with Mrs. Mary Abbie Bennett at Newmarket.

Wednesday Mrs. William Carpenter went to Boston to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Mr. Cram of Greenwood, Mass., has purchased the farm formerly occupied by Mrs. Rebecca Bennett.

Mrs. Horace Caverno went Wednesday to Somerville, Mass., to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. Bernice Hancock.

On Wednesday, Dec. 3, at 2.30 p.m., the Woman's Missionary meeting will be held with Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin.

Mrs. Mary P. Taylor of Wollaston, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John C. Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Caldwell went to Malden, Mass., Tuesday, to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Caldwell's parents.

Mary A. Chesley came from Derry Wednesday night to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Miss Grace Dodge of Somerville, Mass., has been a guest of Mr. William Caldwell several days the past week.

The supper and entertainment on Thursday evening of last week was pronounced fine. There was a good number present. The programme was exceedingly interesting and every number was heartily encored. A good sum was reached.

Rev. L.W. Muttart preached a very interesting Thanksgiving sermon last Sunday. The church was well filled and the Sunday School had a larger number present than at any previous Sunday this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hardy of Lynn visited their father, Simeon C. Hardy, last Sunday.

There will be a social dance at the town hall, Lee Hill, Friday evening, Dec. 5.
Abel Haley, wife and daughter, came from Wolfeboro in their auto last Wednesday to Brookside Farm, to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Haley's mother, Mrs. F.R. Dearborn. Mrs. Dearborn and Miss Hazel Dearborn returned home with them to spend a few days.

Fred Comings spent Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. Weeden, in Lowell.

George Mentor and friend of Nashua are spending a few days with his brother, Ernest Mentor.

Mrs. Francis Tyler has closed her cottage in Lee and returned to Hudson.

Washington Hardy of Dover and daughter, Mrs. Folsom of Newmarket, called on friends in town one day last week.

Mrs. Nellie G. Thompson had her family party at Walnut Grove, Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Albert Dudley had her parents and several of their younger children participate in Thanksgiving festivities.

Mrs. O'Brien of Boston is stopping a few days with her sister, Mrs. Walter Wellington, who remains very ill.

Mrs. George Atherton of Waltham, Mass., was the guest several days last week of Mrs. Frank Oldham.

Frank Christie of Dover called on George E. Chesley, Tuesday.

Charles Cartland and family of Dover took an auto trip to the farm in Lee, Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Warren Chadwick and son, Gilbert, with Mrs. Chadwick's mother, Mrs. Lawson, all of Haverhill, Mass., came by auto and spent the day last Friday with Mrs. Lucy Thompson, who is a sister of Mrs. Lawson.

The record of deer shooting in Lee up to Wednesday night was five. The first one killed was Monday by Walter Jones on Hilltop farm, which weighed over 200 pounds.

Elmer Cram of Greenwood, Mass., has purchased Nutwood farm in the Hook, and not the Bennett farm, as reported last week.

The Woman's Missionary meeting on Wednesday afternoon was entertained at Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin's. A large number were present and much interest is shown in these gatherings.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 17, there will be a concert at Grange hall, under the auspices of Jeremiah Smith Grange, the proceeds of which will go towards the piano fund.

Rev. L.W. Muttart attended the missionary conference of the evangelical churches of New England, held in the Belknap church, Dover, Wednesday.

George E. Chesley and family of Dover spent Thursday and Friday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. T. Jewett Chesley of Dover, who entertained 18 of their relatives over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. S.E.D. Thompson returned Tuesday from a few days' visit in Exeter.

Mrs. Ernest Foster and two children, Elizabeth and Richard, of Fairbanks, Alaska, have come to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Foster, who are living on the Rebecca Bennett farm.

E.O. Fifield of Nashua comes to town occasionally, and as he has a caretaker for the winter at his summer home, has recently added four cows to his stock he is wintering.

James B. Walker has completed wiring his buildings for electric lights, and all is now in running order.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn went to Wolfeboro with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Haley, Thursday night of last week, remaining until Monday.

December 5, 1913

Abel Haley, wife and daughter, came from Wolfeboro in their auto last Wednesday to Brookside Farm, to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Haley's mother, Mrs. F.R. Dearborn. Mrs. Dearborn and Miss Hazel Dearborn returned home with them to spend a few days.

Fred Comings spent Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. Weeden, in Lowell.

George Mentor and friend of Nashua are spending a few days with his brother, Ernest Mentor.

Mrs. Francis Tyler has closed her cottage in Lee and returned to Hudson.

Washington Hardy of Dover and daughter, Mrs. Folsom of Newmarket, called on friends in town one day last week.

Mrs. Nellie G. Thompson had her family party at Walnut Grove, Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Albert Dudley had her parents and several of their younger children participate in Thanksgiving festivities.

Mrs. O'Brien of Boston is stopping a few days with her sister, Mrs. Walter Wellington, who remains very ill.

Mrs. George Atherton of Waltham, Mass., was the guest several days last week of Mrs. Frank Oldham.

Frank Christie of Dover called on George E. Chesley, Tuesday.

Charles Cartland and family of Dover took an auto trip to the farm in Lee, Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Warren Chadwick and son, Gilbert, with Mrs. Chadwick's mother, Mrs. Lawson, all of Haverhill, Mass., came by auto and spent the day last Friday with Mrs. Lucy Thompson, who is a sister of Mrs. Lawson.

The record of deer shooting in Lee up to Wednesday night was five. The first one killed was Monday by Walter Jones on Hilltop farm, which weighed over 200 pounds.

Elmer Cram of Greenwood, Mass., has purchased Nutwood farm in the Hook, and not the Bennett farm, as reported last week.

The Woman's Missionary meeting on Wednesday afternoon was entertained at Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin's. A large number were present and much interest is shown in these gatherings.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 17, there will be a concert at Grange hall, under the auspices of Jeremiah Smith Grange, the proceeds of which will go towards the piano fund.

Rev. L.W. Muttart attended the missionary conference of the evangelical churches of New England, held in the Belknap church, Dover, Wednesday.

George E. Chesley and family of Dover spent Thursday and Friday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. T. Jewett Chesley of Dover, who entertained 18 of their relatives over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. S.E.D. Thompson returned Tuesday from a few days' visit in Exeter.

Mrs. Ernest Foster and two children, Elizabeth and Richard, of Fairbanks, Alaska, have come to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Foster, who are living on the Rebecca Bennett farm.

E.O. Fifield of Nashua comes to town occasionally, and as he has a caretaker for the winter at his summer home, has recently added four cows to his stock he is wintering.

James B. Walker has completed wiring his buildings for electric lights, and all is now in running order.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn went to Wolfeboro with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Haley, Thursday night of last week, remaining until Monday.
December 12, 1913

Rev. Albert Arbuckle of Antrim came to Lee Tuesday and stopped a day and night with Fred Comings at The Larches.

Frank Page of Dover spent the day Tuesday with Fred York.

Howard Glidden spent Thanksgiving in Malden with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Peach.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers of Saugus are to spend the winter at Howard Glidden’s.

John Conlon of Beverly, Mass., was the guest of Miss Mary Connor over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Horace Caverno, who has been in Somerville, Reading and Lowell, visiting her children for a few weeks, returned home Monday.

John Clark, who has been living in Howard Glidden’s cottage, has moved to Mrs. Cook’s house.

One of the old balm-of-gilead trees, which have been a landmark at Chester Ellison’s place, was blown across the road by the strong wind of Monday night and obstructed the highway.

Miss Nellie Wiggin and Miss Ruth Angell returned Wednesday to Miss Angell’s home in Templeton, Mass.

Gorham Sawyer, who bought the Hoyt farm, has decided to spend the winter there. He has made many improvements on the place, and has just completed putting up a windmill and now has a good supply of water in the house.

The funeral of Jasper H. Randlett, a native of Lee, took place at Northwood Centre this week. He was born in Lee in 1827, and was the son of Nathaniel and Mary (Rollins) Randlett. He opened a carriage factory in Dover, where he did business for forty years. He removed a few years ago to Northwood. Two daughters survive him.

Mrs. Lulu Walker, in company with Miss Martha Walker of Newmarket, started Thursday morning to spend a few days in Boston, Mass., and Providence, R.I.

The monthly meeting of the Mutual Improvement Society will be held on this (Friday) evening at the vestry. An interesting programme is being prepared.

A full house is expected at the concert next Wednesday evening at Grange hall. There will be a violinist, soloist, reader, piano soloist, quartette of young men, and selections on the mandolin and guitar by young ladies, all from N.H. College.

Mrs. Florence Caldwell was appointed a delegate from Jeremiah Smith Grange to attend the State Grange, to be held at Concord, Dec. 16, 17 and 18.

The following officers for 1914 were elected by Jeremiah Smith Grange last Tuesday evening: Master, Eugene R. Moore; Overseer, G. Homer James; Lecturer, Charles Woodman; Steward, Robert Hardy; Assistant Steward, Ellsworth Garritty; Chaplain, Arthur J. Thompson; Treasurer, Frank I. Caldwell; Secretary, Fred Comings; Gate Keeper, Clarence Fernald; Ceres, Theresa Fernald; Pomona, Elsie Fernald; Flora, Mrs. LaFalle; Lady Assistant Steward, Bertha E. Moore; Chorister, Albert B. Dudley; Pianist, Grace B. Dudley.
Mrs. Eugene Foster is visiting for a few weeks in Machias, Me.

Miss Ethel Durgin spent the day last Friday in Boston.

Mrs. Walter Wellington, who has been very ill, is gaining a little.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell are attending the State Grange, which meets in Concord this week.

Mrs. Margaret Burleigh has been ill since Thanksgiving.

After spending several weeks in town visiting relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Randall returned last week to their home in Pittsburg, Pa.

Schools in town closed Friday for the Christmas vacation of two weeks. The schools at the Center and the North Side are to have Christmas trees and entertainments, consisting of recitations and music, on Friday afternoon.

A crowded house greeted the students of New Hampshire College at the concert which they so kindly gave in Grange Hall on Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the piano fund. It was highly enjoyed by the audience, and every number was heartily applauded. The concert was a success, and was a credit to those taking part, as well as to the college.

We were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Susan (Davis) Thompson, which occurred at the Davis homestead, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 16, in the same house where she was born. Mrs. Thompson was the daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Jones) Davis and the widow of Josiah Thompson, a native of this town. For many years they made their home in Exeter, but spent many of the summer months at the old home, to which they loved to return. Mrs. Thompson had been in failing health for two years, and was taken worse suddenly but a few days before she passed away. Her age was 69 years and 2 months. She is survived by one brother, Thomas J. Davis, of Duluth, Minn., and one sister, Miss Rhoda J. Davis, of this town. Funeral services will be held at her late home, Saturday, at 2 o'clock P.M. Dr. Dana of Exeter will be the officiating clergyman. “Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.”

December 19, 1913

Mrs. Eugene Foster is visiting for a few weeks in Machias, Me.

Miss Ethel Durgin spent the day last Friday in Boston.

Mrs. Walter Wellington, who has been very ill, is gaining a little.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell are attending the State Grange, which meets in Concord this week.

Mrs. Margaret Burleigh has been ill since Thanksgiving.

After spending several weeks in town visiting relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Randall returned last week to their home in Pittsburg, Pa.

Schools in town closed Friday for the Christmas vacation of two weeks. The schools at the Center and the North Side are to have Christmas trees and entertainments, consisting of recitations and music, on Friday afternoon.

A crowded house greeted the students of New Hampshire College at the concert which they so kindly gave in Grange Hall on Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the piano fund. It was highly enjoyed by the audience, and every number was heartily applauded. The concert was a success, and was a credit to those taking part, as well as to the college.

We were saddened to hear of the death of Mrs. Susan (Davis) Thompson, which occurred at the Davis homestead, Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 16, in the same house where she was born. Mrs. Thompson was the daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth (Jones) Davis and the widow of Josiah Thompson, a native of this town. For many years they made their home in Exeter, but spent many of the summer months at the old home, to which they loved to return. Mrs. Thompson had been in failing health for two years, and was taken worse suddenly but a few days before she passed away. Her age was 69 years and 2 months. She is survived by one brother, Thomas J. Davis, of Duluth, Minn., and one sister, Miss Rhoda J. Davis, of this town. Funeral services will be held at her late home, Saturday, at 2 o’clock P.M. Dr. Dana of Exeter will be the officiating clergyman. “Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.”
December 26, 1913

Mrs. Thomas Davis of Duluth, Minn., is stopping for a few days at the Davis homestead, Pine Row.

Miss Bertha McDaniel, a senior at Bates College, is spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniel.

Miss Marion Dudley returned home Tuesday night from New Hampshire College for the Christmas holidays.

Quite a number of people from Lee attended the celebration of the ninetieth birthday of Mrs. Harriet Dame, which was held at the Griffith farm, Monday. It proved to be a most enjoyable occasion.

Christmas services were held at the church last Sunday.

Miss Mary A. Chesley is spending her two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Lee.

Mrs. Thomas Davis of Duluth, Minn., is stopping for a few days at the Davis homestead, Pine Row.

Miss Bertha McDaniel, a senior at Bates College, is spending the Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniel.

Miss Marion Dudley returned home Tuesday night from New Hampshire College for the Christmas holidays.

Quite a number of people from Lee attended the celebration of the ninetieth birthday of Mrs. Harriet Dame, which was held at the Griffith farm, Monday. It proved to be a most enjoyable occasion.

Christmas services were held at the church last Sunday.

Miss Mary A. Chesley is spending her two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.