"I love the fair October days,

So cool and fresh at night.
I love to see the turning leaves,
In all their colors gay,
That make the flaming forests such
A wonderful display.
"October is the month, I think,
Of all the year the best,
Although I should not wish to do
Injustice to the rest.
It is a golden topaz month,
The gem of all the year;
And so with all my heart to-day
I'm glad October's here."
