January 7, 1916

Mrs. Frank Dearborn went to Boston, Wednesday, for a few days.

James B. Walker was in Dover last Wednesday.

Schools in town commenced the winter term last Monday. All the districts have the same teachers who taught last term.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett, who has been visiting in Boston, returned home last week.

On account of the storm last Sunday there were no services at the chapel.

Robert Thompson of Boston was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

The annual parish meeting of the church and society was held Tuesday afternoon. A large number attended, and the same officers were re-elected. The Sunday School report showed a larger number in attendance than has been reported for several years. Sixty-nine have received gift books the past year for constant attendance.

Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin, who has been quite ill with pleurisy, is improving, and is able to sit up part of the day.

Miss Hazel Dearborn gave a party last Friday night to twelve of her young friends. Music and games made the evening pass quickly and pleasantly. The guests also had the pleasure of watching the old year out and the new year in. Refreshments were served.

Rev. Arthur Brotherston attended the parish meeting in Madbury, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank H. Dearborn took a trip to Boston Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel installed the officers of Scammell Grange, Durham, Tuesday evening, and on Thursday evening those of Patuccoway Grange of Nottingham.
January 14, 1916

Harry Hardy of Lynn, Mass., was the guest of his father, Simeon Hardy, Sunday.

Frank Page of Dover visited with Fred B. York, Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Lang Lee, who is a member of the school board, and Miss Ada M. Perkins, teacher at the North Side, visited school in Newmarket last Friday.

D. W. Mitchell of Epping made several calls in town last Thursday.

Mrs. Sadie Kintzel went to Nottingham Wednesday of last week.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. J. Burley Keniston, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel installed the officers of Parker Mountain Grange in Strafford this week.

Some of the farmers in town are harvesting their ice this week. They report it good quality and from 12 to 14 inches thick.

Mrs. F. O. Tyler is making a short visit with relatives in Dover.

The "Domino Fiends" met with Mrs. Harry Smith, Jan. 6. Refreshments were served and a good time reported.

George Demeritt went to Haverhill, Mass., Monday, where he has a position to work for the remainder of the winter.

Fred C. York had business in Somersworth, Wednesday.

Mrs. William H. Lee spent the day in Rochester, Thursday.

Daniel Chesley of Durham had business in town Wednesday of last week.

The church in Lee received an invitation from the Immanuel Church, Walnut Avenue, Roxbury, Mass., to be represented by the pastor and a delegate to the examination and installation of the Rev. B. A. Wilmut, Tuesday, Jan. 11. Last Sunday F. O. Tyler was chosen as delegate, and in company with Rev. Arthur Brotherston went to Roxbury Tuesday morning, to attend the examination and installation Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Miss Doris James, who passed a week recently in Charlestown, Mass., has returned home.

The men of the Mutual Improvement Society will give a supper in the vestry from 6 to 8 o'clock Friday evening, Jan. 21. At 8.30 there will be a basketball game between local teams at Grange hall, with music. Admission, 25 cents; children under 12, 10 cents.

The services at the chapel Sunday will be conducted by Rev. F. O. Tyler. The pastor, Rev. Arthur Brotherston, is visiting his brother in Gilbertsville, Mass.
Several people from Lee attended the conference on home economics held at Durham last Friday. Among those present were Rev. and Mrs. F.O. Tyler.

Mrs. Woodruff Mason and her little daughter, Katherine, and Mrs. William A. Carpenter called on friends in Durham Sunday.

Simeon Hardy went to Dover last Friday.

Rev. Arthur Brotherston returned Monday, from Gilbertsville, Mass., where he has been visiting his brother, Rev. Bruce Brotherston.

Thomas Jones Davis of Duluth, Minn., is having extensive repairs and improvements made at Pine Row. Daniel Chesley of Durham has charge of the work.

Mrs. James Lee has been quite ill the past week, and under the doctor’s care.

Mrs. William L. Priest was in Dover Monday.

Miss Pauline Bartlett, who has been employed by the Holtzer, Cabot Electric Co. of Boston for the past three years, has severed her connection with that firm and has accepted the position as private secretary to Dr. John T. Bottomly of Beacon street, head of the Carney Hospital.

Remember the supper and basketball game this (Friday) evening given by the men of the Mutual Improvement Society. Supper is to be served in the vestry from 6 to 8 o’clock, and will be cooked by the men of the society. The menu will consist of roast chicken, mashed potatoes, squash, onions, turnips, and other good things that help make an excellent supper. Basketball will be in Grange hall after the supper.

Fred C. York drove to Dover last Friday.
MONTHLY REPORT OF THE LEE.

The Dame brothers killed a hog Jan. 19 which weighed 600 pounds, dressed.

The supper and basketball game given by the men of the Mutual Improvement Society last Friday evening was a decided success. The supper, which was cooked by the men, was well patronized, and was a credit to the cooks, showing they were skilled in the culinary art. Albert Dudley and Frank Burleigh were captains of the basketball teams, and Albert Dudley's team won. The score was 34-29.

Leon Dudley went to Durham last Thursday and visited a few days with his sister, Marion, who is attending New Hampshire College.

Gladys Demeritt has been confined to the house for a few days with a bad cold.

The jurors that were drawn for the February term of superior court are Grand, George P. James, petit, Fred B. Tyler.

The selectmen are having a building erected on the lot back of the town hall for the purpose of storing the road machine and tools that are owned by the town.

The juror that was drawn for the February term of superior court are Grand, George P. James, petit, Fred B. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker spent the day in Boston Monday.

Mrs. Albert Dudley attended the lecture in the college course at Durham last Thursday evening.

Joseph Cohen of Portsmouth was in town last Friday, looking for cows, he purchased a beef cow of Eugene Foster.

George Demeritt, who is employed in Haverhill, Mass., was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Burleigh, who has been in Haverhill, Mass., for the past two months, returned home Thursday of last week.

Mrs. James Lee was taken to the Hayes Hospital in Dover, Thursday of last week. Friday she underwent a surgical operations for appendicitis. At last reports she was getting along nicely.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, which was well attended. The third and fourth degrees were worked on Rev. Arthur Brotherston.

January 28, 1916

The Dame brothers killed a hog Jan. 19 which weighed 600 pounds, dressed.

The supper and basketball game given by the men of the Mutual Improvement Society last Friday evening was a decided success. The supper, which was cooked by the men, was well patronized, and was a credit to the cooks, showing they were skilled in the culinary art. Albert Dudley and Frank Burleigh were captains of the basketball teams, and Albert Dudley’s team won. The score was 34-29.

Leon Dudley went to Durham last Thursday and visited a few days with his sister, Marion, who is attending New Hampshire College.

Gladys Demeritt has been confined to the house for a few days with a bad cold.

The jurors that were drawn for the February term of superior court are Grand, George P. James, petit, Fred B. Tyler.

The selectmen are having a building erected on the lot back of the town hall for the purpose of storing the road machine and tools that are owned by the town.

John C. Bartlett, who has been quite ill with the grippe, is some better.

Frank Dearborn, with a crew of men, pressed hay for Theodore Cram at Nutwood Farms the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker spent the day in Boston Monday.

Mrs. Albert Dudley attended the lecture in the college course at Durham last Thursday evening.

Joseph Cohen of Portsmouth was in town last Friday, looking for cows, he purchased a beef cow of Eugene Foster.

George Demeritt, who is employed in Haverhill, Mass., was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Burleigh, who has been in Haverhill, Mass., for the past two months, returned home Thursday of last week.

Mrs. James Lee was taken to the Hayes Hospital in Dover, Thursday of last week. Friday she underwent a surgical operations for appendicitis. At last reports she was getting along nicely.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, which was well attended. The third and fourth degrees were worked on Rev. Arthur Brotherston.
February 4, 1916

Miss Grace Dodge of Somerville, Mass., is visiting friends in town.

There will be a basketball game, between the teams of Lee and the Union Club of Durham, this (Friday) evening in Grange hall.

Miss Mary B. York is visiting relatives in Reading, Mass.

Mrs. Sadie Kintzel with her son, Billy, went to her home in Liverpool, Nova Scotia, last Friday, being called there by the illness of her mother.

The warm weather of the past week brought signs of spring. A flock of robins were seen, also a hen hawk.

Mrs. Chas. Pendergast has been visiting relatives in Pittsfield and Barnstead the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson went to Boston Wednesday. Mrs. Thompson, who is a member of the gift-book committee, will purchase the gift-books for the Sunday school.

Frank Caldwell cut his foot quite badly while chopping in the woods recently. A physician was summoned and several stitches had to be taken.

Several people in town attended the meetings of Farmers' Week at N.H.C.

Miss Marion Dudley of N.H. College is at home for the mid-year vacation.

The public installation of officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange occurred Thursday evening, Jan. 27. About 50 members and guests attended, and visitors were present from Newmarket and Nottingham. The officers were installed by State Master Wesley Adams, assisted by Mrs. Adams, and Miss Vienna Smith of Nottingham. Miss Nellie Wiggin sang a solo, and there was singing by a trio—Miss Nellie Wiggin, Theodore Cram and Albert Dudley. A harvest supper was served, after which there were speeches by some of the members and guests.
T. J. Davis, a lawyer of Duluth, who lived as a boy in Lee, New Hampshire, has offered prizes of $5, $3, and $2 to the student who makes the best design for a gate at the entrance to Davis Park. This park, a tract of five acres in Lee, was presented to the college by Mr. Davis in 1912 and is being transformed into an arboretum by the department of forestry, under the direction of Professor K. W. Woodward. Mr. Davis had planted on the tract an avenue of chestnut trees which are now about 15 years old, and the college has growing there, pine, spruce, larch and Douglas Fir. The gate will probably be built of the native stone, and the design is to include not only the structure itself, but suggestions for horticultural decoration. The designs are to be submitted to Prof. Woodward on or before the first of May.

Dr. Frank Woodberry of Patten, Me., and Dr. Eugene Woodberry of Portsmouth called recently on Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Foster.

The basket-ball game played in Grange Hall last Friday evening resulted in the Lee team defeating the Union Club of Durham by a score of 36 to 25.

Last Thursday afternoon, at her home on the Wednesday Hill road, Mrs. William L. Priest entertained a party of ladies. Whist was played, a social time enjoyed and dainty refreshments served. About five o'clock the ladies departed for their homes, thanking Mrs. Priest for the pleasant afternoon she had given them.

Fred C. York had business in Exeter last Friday.

Mrs. Irving Chesley and daughter, Miss Winifred, have gone to Malden, Mass., for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Frank Simonds of Newburyport, Mass., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason over Sunday.

Miss Marion Dudley returned to her studies at New Hampshire College Thursday.
George P. James attended the session of the grand jury in Dover last week.

Miss Nellie Wiggin went to Manchester Saturday.

George Demerritt, who is employed in Haverhill, Mass., was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Abel Haley and little daughter and Mrs. Leighton of Wolfeboro came Wednesday to stay a week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lang have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their little daughter, Sarah, aged 13 months, who died very suddenly Friday night of catarrhal bronchitis. The funeral was held Sunday. The other children of Mr. and Mrs. Lang are very sick with the same complaint.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker spent the day Saturday in Boston.

Frank P. Kenerson, for several years a resident of Nashua, died Sunday night at the state hospital at Concord after an illness of several years. He had been a patient at the hospital since April. He was a native of Lee, born March 24, 1868. He leaves one son, Irving, a sister, Miss Lucie Kenerson of Dover and brother, Ezra Kenerson of Nashua. The interment will be at Newmarket.

Mrs. George M. Strout of Brooklyn, N.Y., recently spent a few days with her brother, Benjamin Lang.

The monthly meeting of the Mutual Improvement Society will be held in the vestry, Wednesday evening, Feb. 16.

Thursday morning Mrs. George E. Chesley was called to Haverhill, Mass., on account of the serious illness of her sister.

The members of Jeremiah Smith Grange are anticipating celebrating the 25th anniversary of their Grange on the evening of Feb. 22.

February 11, 1916 cont.

George P. James attended the session of the grand jury in Dover last week.

Miss Nellie Wiggin went to Manchester Saturday.

George Demerritt, who is employed in Haverhill, Mass., was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Abel Haley and little daughter and Mrs. Leighton of Wolfeboro came Wednesday to stay a week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lang have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their little daughter, Sarah, aged 13 months, who died very suddenly Friday night of catarrhal bronchitis. The funeral was held Sunday. The other children of Mr. and Mrs. Lang are very sick with the same complaint.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker spent the day Saturday in Boston.

Frank P. Kenerson, for several years a resident of Nashua, died Sunday night at the state hospital at Concord after an illness of several years. He had been a patient at the hospital since April. He was a native of Lee, born March 24, 1868. He leaves one son, Irving, a sister, Miss Lucie Kenerson of Dover and brother, Ezra Kenerson of Nashua. The interment will be at Newmarket.

Mrs. George M. Strout of Brooklyn, N.Y., recently spent a few days with her brother, Benjamin Lang.

The monthly meeting of the Mutual Improvement Society will be held in the vestry, Wednesday evening, Feb. 16.

Thursday morning Mrs. George E. Chesley was called to Haverhill, Mass., on account of the serious illness of her sister.

The members of Jeremiah Smith Grange are anticipating celebrating the 25th anniversary of their Grange on the evening of Feb. 22.
February 18, 1916

There will be an entertainment at Grange hall, for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange, Friday evening, Feb. 25, commencing at 8 o'clock. If stormy weather, it will be postponed to Feb. 26. Admission, 20 cents; children under 12, 10 cents. Refreshments served free.

A number of people in town attended the drama given by the senior class of the Dover High School at the Opera House in Dover last Friday evening.

Mrs. Albert Wiggin, who has been quite ill and under the doctor's care, is some better.

On account of the storm last Sunday there were no services at the chapel.

Mrs. James Lee, who has been at the Hayes Hospital in Dover for the past month, returned home this week.

Fred B. Tyler is serving as petit juror for the February term of court in Dover.

Mrs. Arthur Brotherston, who is visiting her mother in New York state, has been very sick with la grippe.

Woodruff Mason spent the day in Boston last Saturday.

Joseph Cohen of Portsmouth was in town last Thursday, he bought of Fred B. York a thoroughbred Holstein bull, which weighed 1800 lbs.

The four children of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lang, who were so seriously ill last week, are considerably better.

Mrs. Sarah Hill of Haverhill, Mass., passed away last Sunday morning. Mrs. Hill was a sister of Mrs. George E. Chesley of this town and has visited here quite frequently.
February 25, 1916

Died in Rushville, Illinois, Joseph Stevens Matthews, youngest grandson of Joseph S. Matthews, formerly of Lee Hook, N. H. This youth was a young man of great promise and exceptionally high moral character. He had an attack of la grippe, combined with an abscess in the ear, which breaking internally caused blood poisoning and death.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Carpenter drove to Nottingham Sunday.

The chimney in the house occupied by Woodbury Burleigh caught fire last Saturday. With the assistance of the neighbors it was extinguished without doing any serious damage.

There will be an entertainment in Grange hall this (Friday) evening for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange. If stormy, it will be held Saturday evening.

Frank Page of Dover spent the day Wednesday with Fred B. York.

There will be an entertainment in Grange hall this (Friday) evening for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange. If stormy, it will be held Saturday evening.

Mrs. George Dudley has gone to Quincy, Mass., for a week's visit.

Miss Mary Caldwell, who has been teaching in Dunbarton, is at home on a vacation.

Jeremiah Smith Grange celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary Tuesday evening, sixty-seven people attending. Guests were present from Dover, Durham, Newmarket, Exeter and Nottingham. Deputy Simes Frink of Newington and State Secretary George R. Drake of Manchester were also in attendance. The third degree was worked and an oyster supper was served. The guests and members were entertained with readings by Fred P. Comings and Arthur McDaniel. Vocal solos were sung by Miss Nellie Wiggin and Rev. Arthur Brotherston.

Frank Caldwell, who so seriously cut his foot several weeks ago, was able to be out of doors for the first time this week since the accident.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Maurice Buzzell of Barrington to Miss Laura C. Edney of Rochester. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Edney, in Rochester. The happy couple will make their home in Barrington. Mr. Buzzell is a former resident of Lee and his many friends in town wish he and his bride a life full of happiness and prosperity.
March 3, 1916

The schools in town close this week (Friday) for a vacation of several weeks.

Mrs. Chester F. Ellison has been confined to the house with an attack of bronchitis for the past two weeks.

Rev. F. O. Tyler preached in Durham last Sunday; he will deliver a lecture in Madbury this (Friday) evening.

Mrs. Emma Hale is visiting relatives in Ayer, Mass.

Theodore Cram went to Greenwood, Mass., one day last week to visit his parents.

Fred B. York is confined to the house with a bad cold.

The entertainment which was given in Grange Hall last Saturday was well attended. Vocal and instrumental selections, readings and a lea[year farce were given. The hall was very prettily decorated and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones Davis of Duluth, Minn., who have a summer home in Lee, are at St. Augustine, Fla., for the remainder of the winter.

March 10, 1916

Miss Nellie Wiggin went to Melrose, Mass., Thursday of last week to visit friends.

Warren Kelsey went to Portland, Me., last Wednesday to visit relatives.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter attended the teachers’ institute at Portsmouth last Friday.

Miss Luella Hoitt, teacher at the Centre, is at John Walker’s in Newmarket for two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and family, who went to Durham to live last fall, have moved back on their farm at the North side.

Miss Ruth McDaniel, who is attending school in New Hampton, arrived home Saturday to spend a two-weeks’ vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDaniel.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn and Mrs. Walter Smith went to Dover last Friday.

A number of people from this town went to Madbury last Friday evening and attended the lecture given by Rev. F. O. Tyler. A chicken supper was served, cooked by the men of the parish.
The following officers were elected at the annual town meeting. Selectmen, Benjamin Lang, Frank J. Davis, J. True Bartlett, town clerk, Fred P. Comings, treasurer, George A. Dudley, tax collector, Gorham H. Sawyer, highway agents, Norman I. Snell, J. H. Currier, J. Burley Keniston; auditors, Arthur J. Thompson, Charles G. Dame; library trustee, Mrs. James B. Walker, trustees for cemetery trust fund, George E. Chesley, James B. Walker, Fred C. York. It was voted to appropriate the sum of $100.00 for the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the incorporation of the town. It was also voted to build a sidewalk from the post-office to the chapel, $50.00 being appropriated for this purpose.

Mrs. Frank Randall, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, is some better.

Mrs. Daniel Fernald, Mrs. Charles W. Woodman and son, Kenneth, have gone to Nashua for a few weeks to visit Mrs. Theresa McDanel, Mrs. Fernald's daughter.

Mrs. Sadie Kintzel and son, Billy, returned from Liverpool, N. S., last Sunday.

John C. Bartlett, who has been in such poor health the greater part of the winter, is much improved and was able to be out for town meeting.

Miss Alice Dudley has gone to Wollaston to attend the high school there. She will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. Mary True Taylor.

There will be an entertainment this (Friday) evening at Grange hall under the auspices of the Mutual Improvement Society. Rev. F. O. Tyler will deliver a lecture, and there will be talent from Madbury. Refreshments included with the price of admission.

Little Miss Leona Priest has been quite ill with abscesses in her ears.

George Demeritt, employed in Haverhill, Mass., spent the week-end with his family.

Miss Bertha Tootill entertained the Country Whist Club at Walnut Avenue Farms last Thursday afternoon. Although the afternoon was blustery, with the snow blowing and drifting, all members of the club were present. Thanks are due Edward Griffiths, who so kindly brought a party of ladies on his horse sled, also to Sherburne Fogg, who came along with his shovel to dig through the drifts.
Frank Page of Dover was in town last Monday.

Mrs. George E. Chesley is quite ill with an attack of pleurisy.

Rev. F. O. Tyler preached in Durham last Sunday.

Miss Esther Garrity is visiting in Dover for a few days.

The snow storms and high winds of last week made the roads so impassable that our rural mail carrier could not go the whole of his route last Thursday and Friday.

There will be a game of basketball in Grange hall Monday evening between the teams of Barrington and Lee.

Mrs. James B. Walker and daughter, Marion, spent a few days in Newmarket last week.

Mrs. Arthur Brotherston and daughters, Lena and Ella, returned Monday from a two-months' visit spent in Oswego, N. Y., and Pownal and Stanford, Vt.

The ladies of the church are planning to give a "progressive supper" in the near future. The date will be announced later.

School meeting will be held Monday, March 27, at 1 p.m.

The entertainment which was to be given in Grange hall last Friday night was postponed on account of the traveling until Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance, 32 coming from Madbury. The programme consisted of singing and readings given by talent from Madbury, and Rev. F. O. Tyler gave a humorous lecture, entitled "The Other Road," which was very much enjoyed. Refreshments were served at the close of the programme, and a social time enjoyed.

Theodore Cram is enjoying a trip to the White Mountains.

March 24, 1916

Frank Page of Dover was in town last Monday.

Mrs. George E. Chesley is quite ill with an attack of pleurisy.

Rev. F. O. Tyler preached in Durham last Sunday.

Miss Esther Garrity is visiting in Dover for a few days.

The snow storms and high winds of last week made the roads so impassable that our rural mail carrier could not go the whole of his route last Thursday and Friday.

There will be a game of basketball in Grange hall Monday evening between the teams of Barrington and Lee.

Mrs. James B. Walker and daughter, Marion, spent a few days in Newmarket last week.

Mrs. Arthur Brotherston and daughters, Lena and Ella, returned Monday from a two-months' visit spent in Oswego, N. Y., and Pownal and Stanford, Vt.

The ladies of the church are planning to give a "progressive supper" in the near future. The date will be announced later.

School meeting will be held Monday, March 27, at 1 p.m.

The entertainment which was to be given in Grange hall last Friday night was postponed on account of the traveling until Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance, 32 coming from Madbury. The programme consisted of singing and readings given by talent from Madbury, and Rev. F. O. Tyler gave a humorous lecture, entitled "The Other Road," which was very much enjoyed. Refreshments were served at the close of the programme, and a social time enjoyed.

Theodore Cram is enjoying a trip to the White Mountains.
March 31, 1916

Miss Gertrude Smith is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith. Miss Smith, who has been training for a professional nurse in the Lynn General Hospital, finished her course and received her diploma March 24. She will make her headquarters in Lynn, Mass.

Miss Phoebe Tyler, who has been teaching in Charlestown (this state), and Lee C. Tyler of Nashua are visiting their parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. O. Tyler.

Mrs. Daniel L. Burleigh, who has been quite ill for the past few weeks, is some better.

Mrs. Alfred Durgin and daughter, Evangeline, returned Tuesday from a trip to Boston, Malden and Haverhill, Mass.

Rev. Bruce Brotherston of Gilbertsville, Mass., preached at the chapel last Sunday. His sermon was enjoyed very much by those who were fortunate enough to hear him. Rev. Mr. Brotherston is the guest of his brother, Rev. Arthur Brotherston.

Our petit juror, Fred B. Tyler, was called to Dover, Monday, on court business.

Mrs. Eugene C. Foster entertained several ladies at “Hill Crest” last Friday afternoon. Whist was played and a good time in general was enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served.

Born, March 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mentor, a son.

School meeting was held last Monday afternoon. Frank I. Caldwell was elected moderator and Benton E. Layn was re-elected a member of the school board for three years.

Miss Nellie Wiggin spent the week-end visiting friends in Stratham.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker spent Wednesday and Thursday in Boston, Mass.

The Barrington team defeated the Lee team at basketball last Monday evening in Grange hall. The score was 35 to 27.

Mrs. Lyford Wiggin had a slight shock last week.

Dr. Edwin M. Barnes, formerly of New York City, but now of Stratham, has been quite ill, but at present writing is some better. Doctor Barnes spent several summers in Lee and made a great many friends while here, who will be glad to know he is on the gain.

At the meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange Tuesday evening a class was instructed in the second degree.

Fred B. York, who has been restricted to the house by a severe cold, is able to be out doors again.
April 7, 1916

Miss Hazel Dearborn of the class of ‘16, Dover high school, is spending several days at the Montreal House, York Beach, where about 40 of the class are holding a house party.

Miss Nellie Wiggin visited friends in Dover, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Gertrude Smith returned to Lynn, Mass., last Friday.

Mrs. Woodruff Mason and Mrs. William A. Carpenter were Dover visitors last Thursday.

Warren Kelsey visited his brother, Hiram, in Newmarket, Sunday.

Mrs. Sadie Kintzel drove to Nottingham, Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Eugene C. Foster entertained Mrs. Bradbury Scales of Exeter, Wednesday and Thursday.

Born, in Nashua, March 30, at the Nashua Memorial Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Woodman of this town, a son, Earl Atherson.

The town schools commenced the spring term last Monday.

The Country Whist Club was entertained last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Smith at “Harmony Dale.” All members of the club were present and several visiting ladies. Three tables played at whist and dainty refreshments were served. The last party of the series will be at the Griffiths homestead, Mrs. Edward and Mrs. Arioch Griffiths, hostesses.

Miss Hazel Dearborn and Miss Iber Smith, members of the senior class of the Dover high school, went with that body to York Beach, Me., the first of the week, for a three days’ stay.

Miss Bertha Tootill went to Dover, Tuesday.

The death of Thomas Edward Co...
The death of Thomas Edward Coburn, for a period of 25 years a road commissioner in the Town of Weston (Mass.), and for years actively interested in affairs of the town, occurred Monday, March 27, at the Deaconess Hospital. His illness was for a period of several weeks, and death followed an operation. Mr. Coburn was born in Weston, on the farm where his mother now resides, and he received his education in the schools of his town and subsequently at Allen School in West Newton, from which he was graduated. For many years he resided on North Avenue and engaged in general farming. He was prominent in Weston and was esteemed by the townspeople who knew his pleasing qualities and disposition. In the town meetings he figured prominently, and he always manifested an interest in town work or improvements. Deceased was the son of Edward and Hannah (Bennett) Coburn. He is survived by his mother, who is now in her 86th year, also by three sons, Edward F., Harold W., and Raymond W. Coburn, one daughter, Mildred E. Coburn, a brother, two sisters, and a granddaughter, Elizabeth Coburn. He married Harriet Sherman at Lincoln, Mass., Dec. 28, 1881, and she, with the others, survives him. He was a member of the Republican Town Committee, a Charter member of Henry A. Upham Lodge, A.O.U.W., a member of Weston Golden Cross, of the Home Benefit Association, of the Weston Grange, the Massachusetts Highway Association and of the First Parish Church of Weston. Whatever his hands found to do he did with his whole might. The funeral services were held Thursday at 2.30 p.m. from the First Parish Church at Weston. Burial was in the Linwood cemetery, Central Ave.
April 14, 1916

Miss Luella Hoitt, teacher at the Center, has been granted a leave of absence on account of illness. Miss Mary Caldwell of this town will substitute for her. Miss Hoitt went to her home in East Concord, Tuesday.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter visited friends in Somersworth, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Belle Tuttle of Bradford, Mass., was in town several days last week.

Mrs. Daniel L. Burleigh, who has been ill most of the winter, is a little better and has gone to Haverhill, Mass., to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Blanche McFarland.

Mrs. H. M. Roy and two children moved from Somerville, Mass., last week Tuesday to the farm owned by Belle Tuttle. They intend to make that place their future home and start a chicken farm.

Born, at the Exeter hospital, April 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Pendergast, a daughter.

Miss Mary A. Chesley, who teaches in the high school in West Warwick, R.I., is enjoying a week's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith went to Haverhill, Mass., last Saturday and visited a few days with their son, Leroy Smith.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn and daughter, Miss Hazel, went to Boston, Mass., Sunday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Horace Caverno, who has been visiting in Lowell, Mass., returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. George James visited in Boston, Mass., several days last week.

At the meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange, Tuesday evening, a class of three was instructed in the third degree.

John C. Bartlett had business in Dover, Monday.

Miss Marion Dudley of N.H. College was at home over Sunday.

The ladies of the church will give a Progressive "Pollyanna" supper this (Friday) evening in Grange hall. The supper is to be served in five courses from 6 to 8 o'clock, after which there will be games and music.
April 21, 1916

James B. Walker spent the day in Boston, Mass., Tuesday.

Mrs. Belle Burnham, who has been visiting at Curtis Stimpson's, went to Connecticut last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cram, Greenwood, Mass., are at Nutwood Farms for a few days.

Mrs. Albert Kingsbury and daughter, Miss Alison, of Pittsburgh, Pa., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason, Wednesday and Thursday.

The progressive Pollyanna supper given in Grange hall last Saturday evening was a success in every way. About eight people sat down to the supper, which was an excellent one and served in first-class style. Music and games were enjoyed during the evening.

The several students in town who attend the Dover high school commenced the spring term last Monday.

Mrs. George E. Chesley went to Haverhill, Mass., Monday for a visit of several days.

Miss Katherine Garrity of Durham was at home over Sunday.

Rev. Arthur Brotherston preached in Durham last Sunday, and Rev. F. O. Tyler supplied the pulpit at the chapel.

The community was shocked and saddened to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. J. Burley Keniston last Thursday night, caused by apoplexy. About a year ago she had quite a serious illness, and since that time did not seem to have her usual good health. Mrs. Keniston's maiden name was Mary Ella Thompson, and she was born in Merrimacport, Mass., Dec. 15, 1876. On Feb. 14, 1893, she married J. Burley Keniston, who survives her, she is also survived by one daughter, three sons, one sister and two brothers. In 1915 Mrs. Keniston united with the church at Lee. She was a good wife and neighbor, willing and anxious to do all she could, both at home and outside. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at her late home, Rev. Arthur Brotherston officiating. A quartette, Rev. Arthur Brotherston, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson, sang three selections, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." The bearers were James B. Walker, Fred P. Comings, John Noble, Benjamin Lang, Arthur J. Thompson and Alfred C. Durgin. The floral tributes were beautiful. Interment was in the family lot at Newmarket.
April 28, 1916

P.W. Angel of Templeton, Mass., passed the week-end with his daughter, Miss Ruth, at Willow Homestead.

Mrs. Marion Dudley of N.H. College was at home for the Easter vacation.

Miss "Bunnie" Walker, who has been quite ill for the past week, is considerably better.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett went to Boston, Mass., last week for the Easter holidays.

Rev. F.O. Tyler conducted the Easter services in Durham Sunday.

Theodore Cram is making extensive repairs and improvements in his house at Nutwood Farms. J. True Bartlett has charge of the work.

James B. Walker went to Barnstead Thursday of last week.

On account of the rain there were no Easter services at the chapel. The concert which was to be given by the children of the Sunday School will be held Sunday.

J. Irving Davis of Providence, R.I., was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Albert D. Wiggin, Easter.

Born, April 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lang, a daughter, Charlotte Rebecca.

Mrs. Frank Morrison of Durham called on her sister, Mrs. William H. Lee, Friday of last week.

Mrs. John Jones of Farmington visited her mother, Mrs. Charles Fernald, over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn is visiting in Wolfeboro for a few days.

Charles Johnson of Nottingham has purchased of George James the place formerly owned by the late Silas Cummings.

At the meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange Tuesday evening the fourth degree was worked and light refreshments served.