January 4, 1918

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dudley spent Saturday and Sunday in Greenwood, Mass.

Andrew Roberts of North Hampton is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Sargent Smith.

George Crandon, who has been visiting relatives in Portland, Me., returned to Eugene C. Foster's on Tuesday.

Miss Laura Pray has returned to her home in Ayer, Mass., after a week's visit with her aunt, Mrs. Emma Hale.

Miss Esther Hart of Gonic was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee the first of the week.

Theodore Cram, who has been so seriously ill with blood poisoning, is improving a little.

Mrs. Muriel Lawrence has returned home from East Barrington.

Although the thermometers registered below zero, there was a good attendance at the whist party and dance, Monday evening, for the benefit of the Red Cross, and a neat sum was realized.

The annual meeting of the church and society was held Tuesday and the following officers were elected: Wardens, Frank McDaniel, Ira B. Hill, Alfred C. Durgin; clerk, Mrs. Nellie J. Durgin; superintendent of Sunday School, Rev. Arthur Brotherston; assistant Superintendent of Sunday School, Mrs. Granville B. Thompson.
January 11, 1918

Farmers in this vicinity have commenced to harvest their ice. They report the crop of a good quality.

Schools in town commenced the winter term Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dudley went to Greenwood, Mass., Tuesday.

Louis Rayne of Boston is stopping at J. True Bartlett's for a while.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter and Miss Ruth Littlefield called on Mrs. Woodruff Mason, Sunday.

Mrs. Evelyn Russell, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Morton Lassell for the past two weeks, returned to her home in Lynn, Mass., Sunday.

Charles Sawyer of Yale University was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gorham H. Sawyer, over Sunday.

There will be a special collection at the chapel next Sunday for the Armenian and Syrian Relief.

The installation of the officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange will be held Saturday evening. They will be installed by Mr. Smith of Portsmouth, assisted by Miss Marion Dame of Dover.

Theodore F. Cram died of blood poisoning early Tuesday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cram at Greenwood, Mass. Early in October, Mr. Cram underwent an operation for hernia in the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital in Boston and in two weeks came home apparently well. Thanksgiving time eruptions of the blood appeared on his face and body, he went to Boston to see his operating surgeon, who said it was caused from the effects of the operation. He was in the hospital about two weeks and then was taken to his parents' home in Greenwood. Mr. Cram was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cram and sympathy is extended to them, as well as to his wife, who was Miss Marion Dudley of this town, by their neighbors and friends in their great sorrow. "Ted," as he was familiarly called, was well liked by all who knew him and especially by the people of the "Hook," who regret to lose so good a neighbor. He was a graduate of New Hampshire college and was a member of Jeremiah Smith Grange. Funeral services were held at Greenwood, Mass., Thursday afternoon and burial in Exeter, Friday.
Mrs. Frank H. Dearborn spent the day in Rochester, Thursday.

There will be a whist party and dance Saturday evening at the town hall for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Abel Haley and daughter of Wolfeboro are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F.H. Dearborn.

Arthur J. Thompson has a position with Brackett, Shaw & Lunt.

Gilman Y. Durgin is quite ill. Dr. Grant of Durham is attending him.

George Dudley returned home from Greenwood, Mass., Friday of last week.

Charles Stackpole, who has been visiting relatives in Boston, has returned home.

The installation of the officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange was postponed from Saturday evening of last week until the regular meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 22.

The following, from the Haverhill Evening Gazette, may be of interest to Lee people, as Mr. York was born in Lee and lived here until early manhood. He is a son of Mrs. Daniel Burleigh.

"Claimed by experts to be the best Boston terrier ever bred, Sonny Punch, owned by Walter H. York of 83 Emerson street, has been judged the champion of his breed in America, which means that he has no peer in the whole world. No prize has been placed upon his proud head, but some idea of his value may be gained when it is said that a dog he beat easily at a Worcester show recently sold for $2,500. Sonny Punch takes his honors lightly, spending most of his waking hours playing with a cat with which he has been raised. He is given as much care as any baby and is never permitted out of the sight of either his master or mistress. He is never allowed to run about like other dogs, but is always on a leash. Sonny Punch was born April 30, 1915, and is nearly three years old. Mr. York bought him from C.N. Harvey of South Berwick, Me., when he was but three months old. His mother was Harvey's Betty and his father Bert Lauder's Punch, a local dog. Lauder's Punch is the sire of two other champions, Miss Punch, owned by Harry Allen of Boston, and Dr. Punch, owned in Elgin, Ill. He is out of an old line of Boston terrier breeding, which goes back to Squantum Criterion, while Harvey's Betty traces her ancestry back to Bert Hanscom's Monte, Jr., which was one of the first Boston terriers to bring fame to Haverhill. Mr. York started Sonny Punch when 11 months old in the Auburndale open air show, in 1916, when he went from novice to winners, and was judged the best male Boston in the show. He has now competed in 15 shows and has taken one second and a third, and the dog that beat him is now dead. All of his other ribbons are blue ones. He completed his 15 points for the championship at Boston, Nov. 14, and 15 when he was crowned the best Boston terrier in the land. He has won 32 blue ribbons and 48 specials, besides the second and third prizes already referred to. He has always paid his expenses, Mr. York says."
Mrs. Lula Walker spent the day Saturday in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter.

Edwin J. Thompson of Cambridge, Mass., spent a few days last week with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Thompson, at Hilltop Farm.

Miss Mary S. Maguire of Northwood was a week-end visitor with Mrs. J.B. Walker.

Mrs. Henry Peach of Malden, Mass., visited a few days with her father, Howard Glidden.

Forrest James, having left the fibre mill, went to Stratham last Monday to work in a mill there.

In accordance with the new law, the selectmen will close the town books on Jan. 31.

The fibre mill has shut down for a time, for lack of coal and water.

The whist party last Saturday night was well attended and a good sum realized for the work of the Red Cross.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Tuesday evening. The installation of officers, which was postponed, will be held Saturday evening, Jan. 26.

Word has been received from Rev. L.W. Muttart, of Vale, Oregon, a former pastor of Lee, saying his health had improved, his eldest son was in the army and the weather had been mild. On the ranch they have 25 acres of fine looking rye growing and at that date, early in January, they had plowed all day.

Fred Blanchard York passed away at his home in Lee Hook on Wednesday morning, Jan. 23. Mr. York was born in Lee, June 7, 1840, son of David D. and Mary (Bartlett) York, and has always lived in Lee, and by his death Lee loses one of her oldest and most respected citizens. He was a successful farmer, of a very quiet and retiring disposition. He has served the town as selectman at several different times, and has represented the town in the General Court, and has always been interested in public affairs. He leaves two sons, Harold, of Tacoma, Wash., and Fred C., of this town, also several grandchildren and a sister, Mary B. York, all to mourn his loss. A devoted husband, a loving father, a kind neighbor and a good citizen. York will be very much missed by his neighbors and fellowtownsmen.

On Friday, Jan. 18, the community was shocked by hearing of the death of one of its oldest and most respected citizens, Gilman Y. Durgin, who passed away after a week's illness, aged 75 years, 3 months and 4 days. He was a life-long resident of Lee, and will be greatly missed. Mr. Durgin was a reliable and successful farmer, a kind neighbor, always devoted to his family, genial and helpful to everyone. He is survived by a wife; three children, Alfred C. Durgin, Mrs. Arthur W. McDaniel and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson; four grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Stillman Nichols of Winchister, Mass. The funeral was held on Monday from his late residence and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Arthur Brotherston, who spoke words of comfort to the family. Musical selections were pleasingly rendered by a male quartette from Portsmouth. Beautiful floral offerings were given by relatives and friends. The remains were placed in the receiving tomb at Pine Hill cemetery, Dover, to await interment.
February 1, 1918

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason drove to Epping, Tuesday.
Rev. Mr. Roundtree of Brunswick, Me., is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Brotherston.
Mrs. Muriel Lawrence is at Newmarket for a couple of weeks.
Sargent Smith is quite ill, suffering from blood poisoning in one of his hands.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Carpenter and Miss Ruth Littlefield of Newmarket called on Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason, Sunday.
A number of the grangers from Lee attended the joint installation in Dover last week of the Eastern Pomona and Dover Granges. Mr. and Mrs. Gorham H. Sawyer and Elliot Wellington joined the Pomona.
There will be a dance in the town hall, Saturday evening, the proceeds of which will be used for the benefit of the Red Cross.
The Woman's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. J. True Bartlett, Thursday, Feb. 7.

February 8, 1918

There will be a dance at the town hall on Saturday evening, the proceeds for the benefit of the Red Cross.
Miss Irene Carpenter of Newmarket visited with friends in the Hook, Saturday.
Mrs. Ella Carpenter of Asheville, N.C., is staying at Walter Wellington's.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason are entertaining their niece, Miss Alison Kingsbury, of Pittsburgh, Pa.
Granville B. Thompson went to Dover, Tuesday, to attend to his duties as grand juror at the February term of court. Norman Snell is to serve as petit juror.
Miss Marietta Breakey spent the week-end at her home in Lowell.
The scholars in town who attend the Dover high school are enjoying a vacation this week, the school being closed for that period.
Miss Laura Henderson, teacher at the North Side, has resigned her position and returned to her home in Lowell, Mass. The school is closed this week, but will open Monday, Mrs. Charlotte Kelsey of Northwood as teacher.
February 15, 1918

Mrs. Horace Caverno is spending a few weeks with her children in Portsmouth and Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Emma Hale is visiting friends in Haverhill, Mass., for a few days.

Miss Mary F. Maguire is the guest of Mrs. James B. Walker this week.

Miss Margaretta Kingsbury of Pittsburg, Pa., who is attending art school in Boston, spent the week-end with her uncle, Woodruff Mason.

Rev. E.R. Sterns of Concord will preach at the chapel Sunday morning.

Mrs. Muriel Lawrence and two children, Miss Bernice and Stanton, are moving to Newmarket, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Jones of Dover were the guests of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Belle Garrity, Monday night.

William L. Priest left town Thursday for Lowell, Mass., where he has a position with the United States Cartridge Co.

Howard Glidden is at the Portsmouth Hospital for a few weeks for treatment.

John Conlon of Haverhill called on friends at Wadley's Falls, Sunday.

The dance at Lee Hill last Saturday evening was well attended and a good sum was realized for the local Red Cross Branch. There is to be another dance Saturday, the proceeds to be used for the Salvation Army fund.

Mrs. Albert Dudley and two children are spending this week in Greenwood, Mass.

There will be a good demonstration on "Meat Savers" at the town hall, Friday, Feb. 15, at 2 p.m.

On the 22d of January last, in the town of Aledo, Illinois, there passed to the other life the widow of Joseph Stevens Mathews, formerly of Lee Hook, N.H. She had outlived her husband 11 years. During the 50 years of an exceedingly happy union they had been zealous workers in the temperance cause, especially prohibition. Although communicants of no one church denomination, wherever they had lived, whether in Indiana, Illinois, Arkansas or Missouri, they were church workers, affiliated with church people, and took especial pleasure in the society of the clergy. The result of this intercourse had been to win to their point of view some influential and gifted preachers, who had previously boasted that they had not voted or been near the polls in several years. Through argument they came to see that being exclusive, preaching Christ and him crucified to a few faithful adherents, was less effective than a vote to prevent a man from getting drunk, beating his wife and preventing his children from getting an education. Indeed this earnest, quiet, reserved couple wielded a powerful influence for good through out a long life.
February 22, 1918

Mrs. William A. Carpenter of Newmarket spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Woodruff Mason.

Mrs. Walter D. Smith had business in Dover, Wednesday.

Mrs. Horace Caverno has returned home from a visit with her children in Lowell, Mass.

George Crandon, who is spending the winter at Hill Crest, has gone to Portland, Me., for a few days.

There were no services at the chapel, Sunday, on account of the storm and bad traveling.

Schools in town close Thursday for the rest of the week, as Friday is Washington’s birthday.

Mrs. James B. Walker went to Exeter, Sunday.

Curtis Stimpson, who has been quite ill with a bad cold, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevens spent the day in Dover, Wednesday.

Twenty of the ladies in town braved the bad traveling Friday of last week and attended the good demonstration on “Meat Savers.”

The dance held at the town hall last Saturday evening, was well attended and the sum of $18 was cleared for the Salvation Army million dollar war fund. The dance this Saturday evening will be for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Nellie McDaniel Bartlett, wife of Joseph B. Bartlett, passed away at her home in Derry, Sunday, of pneumonia. Mrs. Bartlett lived in Lee in her girlhood days and was a favorite with all who knew her. Sympathy is extended to her husband and children, also to her sister, Mrs. A. W. Griffiths of Durham, and two brothers, Frank McDaniel of Lee and James McDaniel of Newmarket, in their great sorrow.
March 1, 1918

Mrs. Benton Layne underwent a surgical operation last week at the Wentworth hospital. At last reports she was resting comfortably.

Mrs. John Jones of Farmington was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernald last week.

Miss Mary A. Chesley of Wolfeboro was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the vestry Thursday afternoon, March 7. Mrs. Arthur Brotherston will be hostess.

Mrs. Daniel L. Burleigh returned home Monday from a week's visit with relatives in Haverhill, Mass.

Mrs. Emma Hale spent a few days last week with relatives in Newmarket.

William L. Priest, who is employed in Lowell, Mass., spent the week-end with his family.

Frank Page of Dover called on Fred C. York, Monday.

James B. Walker had business in Boston, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of Epping were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mentor.

Miss Abbie Whitehouse of Middleton was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whitehouse, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Currier spent the day in Dover, Monday.

Miss Irene Carpenter of Newmarket was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Howard Glidden, who has been under treatment at the Portsmouth hospital, has returned home and is on the gain.

The dances, held for the benefit of the local Red Cross, are very popular, people coming from all the surrounding towns. There will be another dance Saturday evening.

Arthur McDaniel attended the Eastern Pomona Grange at Rochester last week.

The pleasant weather of last Sunday brought out a good sized congregation at the chapel. Rev. Arthur Brotherston preached a fine sermon, taking for his text Luke 12-22.
March 8, 1918

Hall and Currier are moving their sawmill from Epping to the Davis lot, bought by Fred B. Philbrick and George Hardy, and will operate the same.

Mrs. James W. Walker of Dover spent the day Thursday of last week with her sister, Mrs. Woodruff Mason.

George Crandon returned to Eugene C. Foster's last Saturday, after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Portland, Me.

Born, recently, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiggin, a daughter, Mary Matilda.

Mrs. Edna Snell Bartlett has accepted a position as head nurse at the Hayes Hospital, Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Holt of Ludlow, Vt., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Dearborn.

The North Side and Centre schools finished the winter term Friday of last week. The South Side school closes this week Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker went to Boston, Wednesday, to attend the auto show.

Woodbury Burleigh is staying in Stratham for a while.

Mrs. James Lee is visiting in Dover for a few days.

Mrs. Granville Thompson is in Greenfield, N.H., visiting Miss Ethel I. Davis.

Mrs. Hannah Nichols, sister of the late Gilman Y. Durgin, died at her home in Winchester, Tuesday, of pneumonia. Funeral services were held Thursday.

Anyone in town having books they have read, and are willing to give them to the soldiers and sailors, are asked to bring them to the library not later than March 18.
March 15, 1918

Mrs. George A. Dudley went to Greenwood, Mass., Wednesday to visit a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Theodore F. Cram.

Mrs. James B. Walker spent a few days this week with friends in Brockton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whitehouse went to Farmington, Monday, for a few days.

William L. Priest, who is employed in Lowell, Mass., was at home Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Marion D. Walker is visiting her aunt, Miss Martha B. Walker, at Newmarket this week.

Mrs. Catherine Smith is quite ill with a bad cold and bronchitis. Mrs. Smith, who is almost 94 years old, is the oldest person in town and we all hope for a speedy recovery.

Edwin J. Thompson was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Lucy Thompson, at Hilltop Farm, over Sunday.

Mrs. Granville B. Thompson returned home from Greenfield on Wednesday.

There will be a food demonstration on “What to Eat in War Times” at the town hall, Friday, March 22, at 2 p.m. Mill and its uses will also be demonstrated.

Town meeting passed off very quietly and a mixed ticket was used and the following officers elected. Selectmen, Frank J. Davis, J. True Bartlett, Horace Hill, town clerk, Fred P. Comings, treasurer, George A. Dudley, tax collector, Charles H. Johnson, auditors, Arthur J. Thompson, Charles G. Dame, trustee for trust funds, Fred C. York, delegate to constitutional convention, J. True Bartlett.
March 22, 1918

Miss Mary F. Maguire of Northwood is the guest of Mrs. James B. Walker this week.

Miss Irene Carpenter spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason.

Woodbury Burleigh has returned home from a two months' stay at Nottingham.

Alfred Hale returned home Saturday from Springfield, Mass., where he has been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

Ladies, don't forget the food demonstration at the town hall, Friday, at 2 P.M.

School meeting was held Saturday of last week and Mrs. Anna R. Lee was elected to serve on the school board for three years. Arthur J. Thompson was elected moderator and Frank I. Caldwell, clerk. The usual appropriations were made and it was voted to shingle the school houses and remodel the out buildings at the North Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel attended the Carrol County Pomona Grange meeting at Wolfeboro on Wednesday. Mr. McDaniel gave an address both afternoon and evening.

Herbert Sawyer of Atkinson, who is wintering stock at the E.O. Fifield farm, came Tuesday and took home a number of new milch cows.
March 29, 1918

Miss Mary A. Chesley of Wolfeboro is enjoying a ten days’ vacation, which she is spending with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Miss Gladys Demeritt is visiting relatives in Exeter this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Francis O. Tyler of Barrington spent the night recently with Mrs. Nellie Thompson at Walnut Grove.

Wilbur Burleigh, who is working in Nottingham, visited a few days last week with his father, Woodbury Burleigh.

Miss Gertrude Smith of Lynn is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith. Albert Smith of Nottingham called on Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Sunday.

Born recently, in Watertown, Mass., to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman, a son, and also in Dorchester, Mass., to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernald, a son. Mrs. Woodman and Mr. Fernald are children of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fernald, formerly of this town. This makes Mr. and Mrs. Fernald’s sixth grandson.

Mrs. George A. Dudley and son, Leon, returned home last Saturday from a ten days’ visit in Greenwood, Mass.

A number of farmers in town have tapped their maple trees and are busy making syrup and sugar.

Mrs. Catherine Smith, who is almost 94 years old, and the oldest person in town, is seriously ill at her home, Harmony Dale.

Rev. Mr. Roundtree of Brunswick, Me., is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Brotherston.

Schools in town begin the spring term Monday, April 1.

There will be another food demonstration at the town hall, Friday, April 19, at 2 p.m., on “A Well-balanced Menu.” The committee in charge urges all the ladies to make a special effort to attend these meetings, as the talks that are given will repay them for their trouble.
April 5, 1918

Mrs. Lyford Wiggin, who has been at the Hayes Hospital a number of months with a broken hip, is at home but is still helpless.

Grover Smith, who was examined and accepted by the draft board a few weeks ago, has been called to service and went to Camp Devens last week.

Mrs. Charles Fernald has returned home from Watertown, Mass., where she has been visiting relatives.

Miss Laura Pray of Ayer, Mass., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Emma Hale, this week.

Robert Thompson has resigned his position with the Newmarket Electric Co.; and went to Boston, Tuesday, for a few days.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter and Mrs. Guy Carpenter of Newmarket called on Mrs. Woodruff Mason last Friday.

There will be a dance at the town hall, Saturday evening, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Miss Mary Maguire of Northwood spent the weekend with Mrs. James B. Walker.

William L. Priest of Lowell, Mass., spent Sunday at his home here with his family.

Charlie G. Hobbs of the U.S. navy, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hobbs, last week. He left Monday morning for Norfolk, Va., where he is stationed.

Last week Wilbur L. Burleigh of this town was accepted for general service by the draft board of this district and Frederick W. Menns was rejected. Fred P. Comings is the local war historian.

Mrs. Catherine Smith passed away at her home Thursday morning. She would have been 94 years old on the 26th day of May. Mrs. Smith was unusually bright and active for her years, and by her sunny disposition and kindly ways had made a great many friends. Although not a native of this town, she had lived here for 45 years. She is survived by three sons, Albert and Jesse of Nottingham and Walter D. of Lee, and a number of grandchildren. Funeral services will be held from her late home, on the Wednesday Hill road, Saturday, at 1 p.m.
April 12, 1918

Mrs. Horace Caverno is visiting her son, Albert, at Kittery, Me.

Miss Ruby James, who has been staying in Newmarket, is at home on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Smith spent Wednesday at Kittery, Me.

Eugene C. Foster and George Crandon drove to Epping, Sunday.

Mrs. William L. Priest underwent a slight surgical operation, Monday, at the Wentworth Hospital, Dover, and is getting along nicely.

Simeon C. Hardy spent the day in Manchester, Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Carpenter of Newmarket called on Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason, Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Hale is quite ill in bed, at present writing she is some better.

Miss Leona Priest is visiting this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Priest, at Newmarket.

Grover Smith, who is stationed at Camp Devens, was at home over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker went to Cambridge, Mass., Monday, to attend the funeral of their uncle, Dr. Augustus Walker.

William L. Priest has severed his connection with the United States Cartridge Co. at Lowell, Mass., and has accepted a position at the shipyard at Portsmouth.

Jeremiah Smith Grange was inspected Tuesday evening by Deputy Fred B. Philbrick of Durham, the first degree being exemplified. A good programme was given and refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett is visiting relatives in Boston this week.

Born, April 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason, a daughter.
April 19, 1918

Mrs. Walter Smith is in Haverhill, Mass., for two weeks.

Miss Emma Chesley of Newton is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Mrs. Benton Layne, who has been at the Wentworth Hospital, Dover, for several weeks, has returned home.

Woodbury Burleigh was called to Springfield, Mass., Thursday, on account of the illness of his grandson, Wayne Place, who is dangerously ill with pneumonia.

Horace Caverno was in Boston a couple of days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker spent the day in Northwood, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hancock and children of Cambridge, Mass., are stopping at their summer home, Suzanne Cottage, for two weeks.

Miss Gladys James is quite ill, threatened with pneumonia.

Miss Berenice Lawrence of Newmarket was the guest of her grandfather, J. Fred Bessom, Sunday.

There is to be a dance for the benefit of the Red Cross, at the town hall, Saturday evening.
Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Buzzell of Wilmington, Mass., were in town Friday of last week, calling at the Buzzell place, and also visited with other friends.

Mrs. Grace Foster, with her son, Albert, and daughter, Louise, of Northboro, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Foster.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett, who has been visiting in Boston for several weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. William L. Priest, who was a patient at the Wentworth Hospital, returned home Thursday of last week.

Miss Mary F. Maguire of Northwood visited Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Walker of Dover called on Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Mason one day last week.

Born, April 14, in Haverhill, Mass., to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, a son. Mr. Smith is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Smith of this town.

Miss Marietta Breakey went to her home in Lowell, Mass., Wednesday, for the rest of the week.

Born, April 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiggin, a son.

Howard Glidden passed away Friday afternoon of last week, after an illness of several months. Mr. Glidden was 76 years of age and had always lived here. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Henry Peach of Malden, and one grandson, Donald Learmand, who is with the U.S. army somewhere in France. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon from his late home, conducted by Rev. William Ramsden of Newmarket. Interment was in the family lot at Wadley’s Falls.

Rev. Arthur Brotherston will preach a patriotic sermon at the chapel next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel visited in Wolfeboro, Tuesday, and attended the grange at Freedom on Wednesday.

Miss Mary A. Chesley of Wolfeboro was at home over Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Brotherston is spending a few days in Dover.

The Woman’s Missionary Society will meet at the vestry, May 2. Mrs. Anna Lee will be hostess.

Mrs. Olive Hayes, who has spent many summers in Lee, passed away after a long illness at her home in Dover, Monday afternoon, and was buried Thursday in Pine Hill cemetery. Mrs. Hayes was a sister of Mrs. Gilman Y. Durgin.

George E. Chesley’s 85th birthday was observed April 19, with eighteen of his nearest relatives coming to celebrate with him. Most of them remained three days, and left hoping to be present at many more such occasions. He was kindly remembered by post cards from neighbors and old schoolmates.