The school in North Lee closes Friday, and the Center and South Lee schools close Friday of next week.

We were pleased to notice that Mrs. Jane Plumer of South Lee was able to attend the baccalaureate sermon at Durham Sunday, through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee, who also accommodated Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lee. They were all interested, as Miss Mary McCarty of Dover, a niece of the Lees, graduated this year. She also gave the ivy oration, Tuesday.

Many of the Lee people are interested in Commencement week, especially those who have their children educated at the college. We notice that 32 females graduated this year. We think the whole number of students who have attended New Hampshire College from Lee, or had homes here, number 19. Twelve have taken the full course and graduated, as follows: Carrie Bartlett Mason, Mary Comings, Carrie Comings, Bernice Caverno, Helen Buzzell McRae, Lizzie E. Snell, Mary A. Chelsey, Marion Dudley Cram, Ellery Jenkins, Alfred C. Durgin, John Randall and Edwin Hancock. Seven others have been students at the college: Evelyn Jenkins, Maurice Buzzell, Edna Snell Bartlett, Lester Sawyer, Charles Sawyer, Herbert Hill and Robert Hardy. Five graduated from the college when it was located at Hanover, Bert P. Comings, Dr. Frank A. Davis, Edwin C. Thompson, Ernest Comings and Herbert Davis. The present year there was only one attending, Hazel Dearborn.
June 27, 1919

A correction. In an item in last week's issue concerning the Lee students at New Hampshire College, the name read Bert P. Comings, it should have been Fred P. Comings. The names of Albert Caverno, Nellie Wiggin and Frank I. Caldwell should be added to the list of students, so the whole number is 23, up to June, 1919, who have been identified with the college.

This day is 15 hours, 25 minutes in length, a long day to give account for.

Wednesday, June 25, a quiet wedding took place at noon at the home at Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell, when their eldest daughter, Ethel Sophia, was united in marriage to Chester Ernest Tebbetts of East Rochester. Only immediate relatives were present. Rev. M.H. Babcock, performed the ceremony, the single ring service being used. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with evergreen, white daisies and ferns. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Frank I. Caldwell, the couple met under an arch of evergreen and white daisies. The bride was gowned in Georgette crepe and carried white carnations, and was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Caldwell, who wore blue silk and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Miner L. Fall of Dover. Following the ceremony and reception a lunch was served. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in East Rochester. They were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts. It was also the seventh anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Caldwell, a brother of the bride.
