Charles Coleman of Boston spent the week-end with his mother.

J. True Bartlett is at his farm, after spending the winter in the city. Mrs. Bartlett came from Boston and spent Sunday on the farm.

W.J. Thurston has a new American Separator and will sell cream and butter. He has sold milk, sending it to Boston, for 34 years.

Ben Lang has two new horses.

Mr. Coffin of Epping was over after a load of goods last Saturday.

H. Kelsey is hauling wood from the Thurston farm.

Fred Durell and son of Newmarket called at W.J. Thurston's, Tuesday.

John French is visiting at Walter Plumer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood of Nashua spent the week-end with their son's family at the farm.

Grace Revere spent last week with Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

W.B. Caswell, who has been under the care of Dr. Fernald for a week, is able to be around his farm and will go to work on the road soon.

Miss Leola Noble, a teacher in Newmarket, spent the week-end at her home. Mrs. Noble, a lady 81 years old, is able to look after the housework.

Mr. Revere and family are soon to move from the Keniston farm to the Tibbetts farm.

Mrs. Mayo had business in Newmarket, Saturday.

J. Grace Thurston substituted in the 6th grade at Epping, Tuesday.

Norma Harvey is sick and has had to stay out of school for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plumer are at the Plumer farm.

April 30, 1920 cont.

Charles Coleman of Boston spent the week-end with his mother.

J. True Bartlett is at his farm, after spending the winter in the city. Mrs. Bartlett came from Boston and spent Sunday on the farm.

W.J. Thurston has a new American Separator and will sell cream and butter. He has sold milk, sending it to Boston, for 34 years.

Ben Lang has two new horses.

Mr. Coffin of Epping was over after a load of goods last Saturday.

H. Kelsey is hauling wood from the Thurston farm.

Fred Durell and son of Newmarket called at W.J. Thurston's, Tuesday.

John French is visiting at Walter Plumer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood of Nashua spent the week-end with their son's family at the farm.

Grace Revere spent last week with Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

W.B. Caswell, who has been under the care of Dr. Fernald for a week, is able to be around his farm and will go to work on the road soon.

Miss Leola Noble, a teacher in Newmarket, spent the week-end at her home. Mrs. Noble, a lady 81 years old, is able to look after the housework.

Mr. Revere and family are soon to move from the Keniston farm to the Tibbetts farm.

Mrs. Mayo has business in Newmarket, Saturday.

J. Grace Thurston substituted in the 6th grade at Epping, Tuesday.

Norma Harvey is sick and has had to stay out of school for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plumer are at the Plumer farm.
Mrs. Francena I. Eaton, wife of John P. Eaton of North Bend, Neb., died suddenly at the family residence, April 6. She had been in somewhat enfeebled health for the past year, but her death was a sad shock, as she had been occupied with her usual duties up to the last day of her life. She came to North Bend from Lee, N.H., 52 years ago, and has lived continuously upon the present home site, ten miles northeast of North Bend. Mrs. Eaton was a woman of noble character and refinement and her womanhood has been strongly influential for good. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Miss Gertrude. The funeral was held the following Friday afternoon from the Congregational church, conducted by Rev. Wm. H. Buss, who spoke of her high character and culture and reviewed her life during her long residence here. She was an ardent church worker and during the earlier days of her life took an important part in its activities and in the affairs in her neighborhood. The deaconesses of the church took unusual pains in the church decorations for the departed who had often attended services in the local church. Many friends and neighbors from Maple Grove were present. There was special music by Mrs. J.T. Young, Mrs. Carl Byworth, F.D. Drew and A.F. Plambeck. The bearers were the R.B. Sloss and Fred Eaton of North Bend and T.H. Fowler, A.H. Waterhouse, F.H. Richards and A.J. Eddy.

—Fremont (Neb.) Tribune
May 7, 1920

Gladys Demeritt and cousin went to Epping, Saturday.

Henry Peach has bought a driving horse of Mr. Cook.

J. Grace Thurston and Louise Allen spent Thursday of last week in Dover.

Louise Allen of Nottingham visited her aunt, Mrs. Noble, Sunday.

W. J. Thurston and daughter spent the day Saturday in Epping. They called on Mrs. Martha Miles, a lady 91 years old, and very smart for one of her age. The only way that age tells is her hearing, she is deaf.

W. J. Thurston spent his 77th birthday in the woods, cutting a cord and a half of wood.

Austin Caswell is moving his family from Greenland to the Knight house.

May 14, 1920

Dr. George Wiggin of Exeter passed the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Lyford Wiggin.

Mrs. Lida Jones entertained the Magnolia Club last Thursday afternoon. The usual number were present.

Prof. John L. Randall of Washington, D. C., spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Randall, last week.

Chester Ellison has recently purchased a new tractor.

Miss Amanda L. Randall is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ira B. Hill, at Durham this week.

There will be services at the church next Sunday at the usual hour. Rev. E. R. Stearns of Concord is expected to preach.

Mrs. Frank D. Randall and Mrs. William Caldwell are the delegates from the Lee church to attend the conference in Concord, May 11, 12 and 13.

The missionary meeting was held in the vestry last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Florence Caldwell will entertain the society at its next meeting, Tuesday, May 25.

The roads on the North Side, which were washed out in the spring by rains, are being put in good condition again by the road agent.

A clipping from the Redondo Reflex, recently received by your correspondent, reports that J. M. Garrity, a former resident of this town, has recently received a sum of money from the estate of a brother in Massachusetts. This, with a bank account and some property which he owns near the location of the Redondo Oil Corporation well, has placed him on easy street. His Lee friends are pleased to hear of his good fortune.
May 14, 1920 cont.

Ezra Keniston was in town Monday, visiting friends.

Mr. Ferguson and two sons of Malden, Mass., were at their farm Sunday.

Miss Blaisdell, who has been with Mrs. Wesley Harvey for several weeks, has returned to her home in Epping.

Parkman Haley and family and Mr. Gile and family went to Methone, Mass., Sunday, in Mr. Haley's car.

Bessie Thompson visited her mother and sister a few days recently.

Mr. Rollins and family drove to Dover one day last week.

Mr. Mayo has a new auto.

George Smith of Lynn spent the week-end with his brother, Harry, at Wadley's Falls.

Several Lee people went to the auction at the Smith farm in Newmarket last Saturday.

Charles Coleman of Boston spent the week-end with his mother.

Lee Hill is still without a minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkwood of Nashua were at their son's, Robert, Sunday.

Edward O. Fifield of Nashua has purchased of Mrs. C. B. Dodge of Milford, N. H., her home on Adams street. Mr. Fifield is the owner of the box factory in Wilton, with headquarters in Nashua. The Dodge place is one of the show places in the town, the best and largest of Milford's modern homes. Mr. Fifield has been a summer resident of Lee for several years.

J. E. Knight of Epping was a caller in town Sunday.

Austin Caswell and family of Greenland have moved into the Knight house.

Mrs. W. H. Small and friend, Miss Katie West, of Fremont, visited at Henry Small's recently.

Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter of Nottingham visited her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Small, a few days last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker of Dover spent Sunday with her father, Alphonso Jones.

Miss Nora Whitehouse is spending a few days in Alton.

Walter Jones and Sumner Layn are working on the state road in Barrington.

Mrs. Edna Pierce has been visiting her brother, Harold Fernald, at Nottingham the past week.

Miss Helen Layne of the Plymouth normal school spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton E. Layne.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wiggin of Barrington called on Mrs. Martha Buzzell, Sunday afternoon.

Frank Dinsmore has returned to his home here, after spending the winter with his daughter in Dorchester, Mass.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held their annual inspection on Tuesday evening, May 11. District Deputy Harold H. Hayes was present, also guests from Patucoway Grange. Two applications were received. A lunch was served.

Mrs. Sarah Prescott, who has been spending the winter at Horace Caverno's, has returned to her home in Barnstead.

Claire Thompson invited a few of her school friends last Saturday to help in celebrating her 12th birthday.

Last Sunday, Mrs. Frank Dearborn, Miss Hazel Dearborn and Mr. Currier took an auto trip to Wolfeboro in their new auto, a Dodge. On their return, Mrs. Jennie Haley came with them. Monday they motored to Haverhill.

Albert Caverno and family of Kittery Point spent Sunday at his former home in Lee.
Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkwood of Nashua spent the week-end with their son, Robert Kirkwood, and family. The remains of Frank Haley were brought here from the receiving tomb in Epping, last Wednesday, for burial in the family lot.

Daniel R. Smith, the Newfields R.F.D. carrier, now has an auto to cover his route.

Quite a few changes in real estate have been made. Jesse Smith of Wadley's Falls has sold his farm to a western party, and will move on to the Connor place for the present. Mr. Ferguson has purchased the Durrell farm, and Mr. Rollins has moved to the French place in North Epping.

Samuel E. Lane is ill with pneumonia. Dr. Fernald of Nottingham is attending him.

Prof. Babcock of New Hampshire College occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church last Sunday, and he will also conduct the services next Sunday.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the Magnolia Club with Miss Florence Corsen last Thursday. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Benton E. Layne.

Mrs. Emma Corsen is caring for Mrs. Flagg Mitchell, who recently broke her arm by falling through a trap door in James B. Walker's store. Ira B. Hill has been ill the past week, and is still under the care of Dr. Grant.

Miss Stella A. Otis passed away at her home, 167 Washington street, Dover, last Friday afternoon, aged 51 years, 10 months and 1 day. Miss Otis was well known here, having spent her early life in this town. She was the only daughter of the late John P. and Avis J. (Snell) Otis of Lee. Her quiet and unassuming manner, with many other good qualities, endeared her to all who knew her. She went to Dover from here about 35 years ago and has since resided there. Miss Otis was a member of Purity Rebekah Lodge and St. John's M.E. church. She leaves one brother, Thomas J. Otis, of Dover. Funeral services were held at her late home, Monday, at 2 o'clock. Burial was in the family lot at Pine Hill cemetery.
June 4, 1920

The school children on the North Side held their Memorial Day exercises Friday afternoon.

Ira B. Hill, who was threatened with pneumonia two weeks ago, is slowly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall motored to Malden, Mass., Sunday and spent the holidays with Mr. Caldwell's father and sister.

Miss Christine Peterson of Dorchester, Mass., was the guest of Miss Lida Brewitt, at the home of Horace Hill, over Memorial Day.

The remains of Ben Comings, who died in Freedom, after a surgical operation and short illness, were brought to Lee last Thursday. The funeral services were in the church and were conducted by Rev. Vaughan Dabney of Durham. Interment was in the family lot at Lee cemetery. The deceased was a former resident of this town, the son of the late Albert L. and Emma (Dow) Comings. He is survived by a wife and nine children, also two sisters, Miss Carrie Comings of Oakland, Cal., and Mrs. William Phair of Manchester, and one brother, Fred Comings.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Tebbetts spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell.

Homer James of Somerville, Mass., spent Memorial Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George P. James.

Walter Caswell visited his grandparents Memorial Day.

Mrs. Clark of Deerfield is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Sanborn of Portsmouth called at W.J. Thurston's last week.

Miss Buelduc and Miss Price of Manchester visited the Bickford brothers, who live at W.J. Thurston's last Friday.

Mrs. Thompson is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Arthur Wiggin.

Mr. and Mrs. Plumer have gone to their new home in Northwood.

Mrs. True Bartlett visited at her home here last week.

Mr. Glidden and Mr. Stevens of Durham called on W.J. Thurston Sunday.

The saw mill that has been on the Glidden lot for several months has been moved to the Allen lot.

The Cook family have returned to their home, after spending the winter in Strafford, where Mr. Cook worked in a saw mill.

W.W. Durrell of Newmarket spent Friday with his daughter, Mrs. Harry Smith.
June 11, 1920

Harry Hill has a new Velie car.

Mrs. Sarah Stimpson is quite ill.

Jeremiah Smith Grange will observe Children's Night this (Friday) evening, June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morse of Eliot, Me., called on Charles E. Stackpole last Tuesday.

Thomas Wagner, mother and niece, of Dorchester, Mass., are spending a few weeks with Mrs. Walter Jones.

Mrs. Martha Snell, widow of the late Deacon Nehemiah C. Snell of Lee, passed away at the home of her daughter, Miss Carrie E. Snell, 46 Rutland street, Dover, June 4. Mrs. Snell was born in Lee, April 18, 1836, the daughter of the late Aaron and Deborah (Hall) Hanson. Her early life was spent in Lee, where she was respected and esteemed by all who knew her. She had been a member of the Lee Congregational church for 52 years and will be remembered by many for her long and loving connection with the church. Although she went to Dover from here 26 years ago, she has kept her interest in all that was happening here and in her circle of old friends. She leaves two daughters, Miss Carrie E. Snell of Dover and Mrs. Grace Ecklund of Philadelphia, Pa.; four grandsons, Norman I. and Nehemiah R. Snell of Lee, Dwight Vittum of San Jose, Cal., and Leith Ecklund of Philadelphia. Also one brother, George W. Hanson, of California, and a sister, Mrs. Owen Morse, of Collins, N.Y. The funeral was held from her late home in Dover, Monday afternoon. Many friends and relatives were present to pay their last respects to a most worthy woman. The services were conducted by Rev. Robert W. Coe, pastor of the First Congregational church. There was a handsome floral tribute. The burial took place in the family lot at Lee Hill cemetery.
June 18, 1920

Irving Gile and family have moved to Newmarket.

Jesse Smith has purchased a farm at Hampton.

Ernest Tansy has gone to Hanover, where he is working at a mechanical business.

Harvey's Orchestra played at Epping last Saturday evening for the moving pictures, which are being run there by Mrs. Willey of Rochester.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burley, wife of Daniel Burley, passed away at her late home June 1, after a lingering illness. Funeral services were held June 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Peach are visiting in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Mary Thompson and Mrs. Carter of Dover spent Thursday at W.J. Thurston's.

Arthur Wiggin is working in Newmarket and goes in his auto.

Mr. Horne of Rochester was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Coleman went to Boston, Wednesday, for a short visit.

People from various places are visiting Lee looking for antiques.

Mrs. Ferguson visited at the farm last week.

Mr. Lunt and Mr. Fresin of Dover called at Mr. Bartlett's last Sunday.

W.J. Thurston and daughter drove to Exeter last week to attend the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Martha A. Sanborn. Last Saturday afternoon they visited with Harry Watson and family at Newmarket.

Warren Sawyer went to New Haven, Conn., Tuesday, to visit his brother, Charles, who is at Yale University.

Mrs. Granville Thompson spent the day Tuesday in Newmarket.

Mrs. Rebecca Caverno visited last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Berry, at Rochester.

William I. Priest has moved his family from Newmarket and will spend the summer with Sargent Jenkins.

Miss Nellie Smith is spending two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Mrs. Carrie Weeden has been stopping in town several days.

Mrs. Wescott and two sons of Malden, Mass., are stopping a short time at Fred Huston's.

Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Peach are visiting in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Mary Thompson and Mrs. Carter of Dover spent Thursday at W.J. Thurston's.

Arthur Wiggin is working in Newmarket and goes in his auto.

Mr. Horne of Rochester was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Coleman went to Boston, Wednesday, for a short visit.

People from various places are visiting Lee looking for antiques.

Mrs. Ferguson visited at the farm last week.

Mr. Lunt and Mr. Fresin of Dover called at Mr. Bartlett's last Sunday.

W.J. Thurston and daughter drove to Exeter last week to attend the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Martha A. Sanborn. Last Saturday afternoon they visited with Harry Watson and family at Newmarket.

Warren Sawyer went to New Haven, Conn., Tuesday, to visit his brother, Charles, who is at Yale University.

Mrs. Granville Thompson spent the day Tuesday in Newmarket.

Mrs. Rebecca Caverno visited last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Berry, at Rochester.

William I. Priest has moved his family from Newmarket and will spend the summer with Sargent Jenkins.

Miss Nellie Smith is spending two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Mrs. Carrie Weeden has been stopping in town several days. Mrs. Wescott and two sons of Malden, Mass., are stopping a short time at Fred Huston's.
June 18, 1920 cont.

Miss Mary Maguire of Boston passed the week-end at J.B. Walker's.

Fred P. Comings spent the week-end at Hampton Beach with the K.P.’s.

Lena Atherton and children are visitors of Thomas Stevens.

Last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Sawyer took an auto trip, spending the night in Salisbury and Boscawen, returning Monday night.

Next Sunday, June 20, there will be no services at the church, but on the following Sunday there will be preaching and the Sunday School at the usual hours.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dudley went to Meriden last Saturday to attend the graduation of their daughter, Miss Alice Dudley, from Kimball Union Academy.

Mrs. Alec McRae, who has been ill the past two weeks, is slowly recovering.

Jeremiah Smith Grange conferred the first and second degrees on a class of four candidates at their last meeting. The third and fourth will be conferred at the next regular meeting. Lamprey River Grange and Patuccoway Grange have been invited to furnish the programme.

Mrs. Lyford Wiggin, who has been confined to her home for the last two years, was surprised last Friday afternoon by a few of her neighbors who came to see her in honor of her 78th birthday. A social hour was spent, after which cake and ice cream were served.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Stimpson, widow of the late George F. Stimpson of Lee, was held in the church last Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Many relatives, neighbors and friends came to pay their last regards to the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. Vaughan Dabney of Durham and there was a beautiful floral tribute. The burial took place in the family lot in Lee Hill Cemetery. The bearers were Seth W. Sherburne, Edwin D. Caldwell, Horace G. Hill and Benton E. Layne. Mrs. Stimpson died very suddenly at her home, June 8, after a short illness, aged 75 years and 10 months. She was born in Lee, the daughter of Peltiah and Sophia (Demeritt) Jones and spent most of her life in her native town. She was a good mother, kind neighbor and friend and leaves many relatives to mourn her loss. She is survived by two sons, George D. Stimpson of Lee and Eugene Stimpson of Portsmouth, three daughters, Mrs. George W. Pinkham of Madbury, Mrs. Frank Davis of Portsmouth and Mrs. Herman Hanscome of Durham, also 16 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Martha Turner of Manchester.
L E E.

Mr. and Mrs. Darius Mariotti are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter.

Maurice Buzzell and family of Barrington called on his mother last Sunday at Alec McRae's.

Miss Grace Hill, a teacher in Andover, Mass., has returned home for the summer vacation.

Edward A. Tuck, field secretary of the Lord's Day League of New Hampshire, is expected to speak at the church next Sunday, June 27.

Arthur Tibbetts and son of Dover called at W.S. Caldwell's last Sunday.

Mrs. Miner Fall entertained the Magnolia Club last Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Jones.

The schools have closed here for the summer vacation. All of the teachers are expected to return next year. Graduates of the 8th grade are as follows: Mary G. Hill, Doris J. Layn, Mattie Layn and Elizabeth McRae from the North Side; Gladys James, Maurice Lee, Donald Thompson and Marion Walker from the Lee Hill school.

Edwin Hancock has moved his family to his cottage here for the summer.

Mrs. Charles Johnson's sister from Vermont is spending a week with her. On her return, Mrs. Bryant will accompany her.

Mrs. Ann Buzzell, an aunt 94 years of age, called on Chester Ellison last Sunday, with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hall, of Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bryant and two children of Portland, Me., visited several days with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson. Mrs. Bryant was formerly Miss Grace Davis of this town.

June 25, 1920

Mr. and Mrs. Darius Mariotti are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter.

Maurice Buzzell and family of Barrington called on his mother last Sunday at Alec McRae's.

Miss Grace Hill, a teacher in Andover, Mass., has returned home for the summer vacation.

Edward A. Tuck, field secretary of the Lord's Day League of New Hampshire, is expected to speak at the church next Sunday, June 27.

Arthur Tibbetts and son of Dover called at W.S. Caldwell's last Sunday.

Mrs. Miner Fall entertained the Magnolia Club last Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Jones.

The schools have closed here for the summer vacation. All of the teachers are expected to return next year. Graduates of the 8th grade are as follows: Mary G. Hill, Doris J. Layn, Mattie Layn and Elizabeth McRae from the North Side; Gladys James, Maurice Lee, Donald Thompson and Marion Walker from the Lee Hill school.

Edwin Hancock has moved his family to his cottage here for the summer.

Mrs. Charles Johnson's sister from Vermont is spending a week with her. On her return, Mrs. Bryant will accompany her.

Mrs. Ann Buzzell, an aunt 94 years of age, called on Chester Ellison last Sunday, with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hall, of Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bryant and two children of Portland, Me., visited several days with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson. Mrs. Bryant was formerly Miss Grace Davis of this town.
June 25, 1920 cont.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Ethel Thompson, Mrs. Grace Bryant and Mrs. Nellie J. Durgin went to Exeter to attend the quinquennial reunion and the 50th anniversary of Robinson Female Seminary. They are all former graduates.

Last Sunday afternoon, George H. Bixby and family of Haverhill called at G.E. Chesley’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel Haley and daughter came from Wolfeboro, Sunday, stopping with Frank Dearborn, to attend the commencement exercises at New Hampshire College this week. Miss Hazel Dearborn graduated from there this year.

Miss Belle Tuttle is having the work commenced on her summer camp at the Tuttle farm.

Mrs. Ernest Menter and four children are spending the week in Portland, Me.

Alfred C. Durgin and family motored to Wolfeboro, Tuesday.

Thursday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer attended the graduation at Strafford Ridge, also the reception in the evening.

Tuesday, Mrs. Gorham Sawyer’s sister, wife of Rev. Samuel Barnum, came from Weybridge, Vt., for a short visit.

Ernest Tansey has returned from Hanover.

Jesse Smith is moving to his new home in Hampton, which he recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Small of Fremont and Miss Cora Lougee of Kinston were visitors at Henry Small’s recently.

John Blaisdell of Epping visited at J.W. Harvey’s, Sunday, also Charlie Harvey.
July 2, 1920

Harry Roberts of Dover and Mrs. Frank McKone and son, Edward, of Brooklyn, N.Y., called on Mrs. Susan P. Layne last Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson will entertain the Lee Missionary Society at her home, Thursday afternoon, July 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and family of Newton, Mass., arrived last Saturday to spend the summer with his uncle, Charles E.N. Stackpole.

Miss Helen Layne has gone to Kensington to teach for two weeks.

Mrs. Annie Kimball of Dover is a guest this week of her sister, Mrs. Frank D. Randall.

Charles Langley has let his house to Mr. Myers and family of Mattapan, Mass., for the summer months. He is now visiting for a few days with Willys Tuttle, after which he intends to spend the rest of the summer with his nephew, Olie Tuttle, at Hardwick, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. James and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones motored to Stratham Hill Park, last Sunday.

Fred Gould, with several others, from Malden, Mass., spent the week-end at the Tuttle farm.

Miss Mary A. Chesley returned home for the summer vacation from Wolfeboro last Saturday.

Fred Huston came home to spend the week-end, taking his sister, Mrs. Aldrich, and Mr. Kingman of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker started Tuesday morning on a two days’ trip to the White Mountains.

George W. Wentworth of Haverhill, Mass., is a visitor at George E. Chesley’s.

Warren Sawyer, who went to New Haven, Conn., to visit his brother, Charles, who was at Yale University, returned home last Saturday.

Charles Sawyer is spending his vacation at a reserve officers’ training camp in Kentucky.

There will be no services or Sunday School at the church during July.

Miss Belle Tuttle went to Swampscott, Wednesday.

Lightning struck a ledge in the pasture at the Cartland Farm, last Tuesday.

The Woman’s Missionary Society will hold a thank offering meeting next Thursday afternoon, July 8, with Mrs. Nellie Thompson at Walnut Grove.
Mrs. Annie Randall of Boston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis H. Snell.

Mrs. Maude Page and two daughters of Worcester, Mass., are spending their vacation with her father, Alphonso Jones.

Mr. Peterson and family of Dorchester, Mass., are at their summer cottage.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson went to Barrington last Friday, to attend the 30th anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. F.O. Tyler's marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Caldwell attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Aseneth (Swain) Cressey, of Dover, last Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Buzzell, who has lost her eyesight and been quite ill, was well enough to enjoy a short ride last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Woodman have returned to their home here, after spending the winter with their son, Charles Woodman, at Watertown, Mass. They came by auto, and were accompanied by his physician and their son, Charles Woodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman of Watertown, Mass., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Plummer of Lynn, Mass., and Joseph Pendergast of Boston were guests at James B. Walker's over the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray of North Berwick, Me., spent the weekend at Walter Wellington's.

William Huntington of Haverhill, Mass., visited over the holiday at Clarence Fernald's.

Donald Fernald of Watertown, Mass., was a guest of Mrs. Childs over Sunday.
Gorham Sawyer took an early spin to Concord, Tuesday morning, taking with him nearly five bushels of strawberries, returning at 10 o’clock in the forenoon.

Albert Caveno and family of Kittery Point, Me., spent the holidays at their farm.

Arthur F. Thompson of Newmarket took dinner July 4th at Granville Thompson’s, spending the evening at Arthur J. Thompson’s.

Alfred C. Durgin has been quite ill this week with bronchitis.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn, Miss Hazel Dearborn and Mr. Currier took a trip to Wolfeboro, returning Monday night.

Miss Edith Caverly and her niece, Carolyn Lantee, of Winchester, Mass., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson, also Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel. Mrs. Ethel Thompson accompanied them to Dover in the evening to attend the band concert and fireworks.

Lee fibre mill has shut down for repairs, as the main shaft is broken.

Frank Ryan is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Susan Howe, who is stopping at their old home on the Hill.

Mrs. Walter Plumer is suffering from an attack of bronchitis. Dr. Fernald of Nottingham attends her.

Mrs. Ada Clarke of Deerfield has moved down with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood, to the Lawrence Tavern.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill of Manchester spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. D.H. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter, Priscilla, of Nottingham, on a trip to Adams Point, Durham, June 27.

Mrs. Herbert Hill recently motored to Epsom.

---

July 9, 1920 cont.

Gorham Sawyer took an early spin to Concord, Tuesday morning, taking with him nearly five bushels of strawberries, returning at 10 o’clock in the forenoon.

Albert Caveno and family of Kittery Point, Me., spent the holidays at their farm.

Arthur F. Thompson of Newmarket took dinner July 4th at Granville Thompson’s, spending the evening at Arthur J. Thompson’s.

Alfred C. Durgin has been quite ill this week with bronchitis.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn, Miss Hazel Dearborn and Mr. Currier took a trip to Wolfeboro, returning Monday night.

Miss Edith Caverly and her niece, Carolyn Lantee, of Winchester, Mass., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson, also Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel. Mrs. Ethel Thompson accompanied them to Dover in the evening to attend the band concert and fireworks.

Lee fibre mill has shut down for repairs, as the main shaft is broken.

Frank Ryan is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Susan Howe, who is stopping at their old home on the Hill.

Mrs. Walter Plumer is suffering from an attack of bronchitis. Dr. Fernald of Nottingham attends her.

Mrs. Ada Clarke of Deerfield has moved down with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood, to the Lawrence Tavern.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill of Manchester spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. D.H. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter, Priscilla, of Nottingham, on a trip to Adams Point, Durham, June 27.

Mrs. Herbert Hill recently motored to Epsom.
Miss Edith Fernald is attending the summer school at Keene.

Nehemiah Snell finished haying last Saturday.

Mrs. William Caldwell is visiting her daughter at East Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Telser, Mr. Allen and Mrs. Gaylord, all of Boston, called last Saturday at Sargent Jenkins'.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross of Amesbury, Mass., are summer visitors of Mrs. Childs'.

Miss Iber Smith of Haverhill spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Miss Hazel Dearborn is spending part of her vacation in Wolfeboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Cram of Greenwood, Mass., spent several days at Nutwood. Mr. Cram spent the week-end and Mrs. Cram returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Menter went to Nashua, Monday, to attend the funeral of Mr. Menter's mother.

Philip Bourque and Russell Powers of Manchester are visitors this week at John C. Bartlett's.

Mrs. Jennie Tyler of Barrington visited her sister at the Cartland homestead one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel recently took a trip to Suncook Lake, Pittsfield and Barnstead, taking with them some of their neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laughton have as guests Mr. Laughton's brother and wife, and friends, from Haverhill, Mass.

Monday, Mrs. Charles E. Davis, Mrs. Charles F. Davis, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggin and Miss Coney, all of Lynn, Mass., motored to Willow Homestead. Mrs. Wiggin and Miss Coney will remain through the summer.

Most of the farmers are haying this week.

E. O. Fifield, who now has a nice residence in Milford, 11 miles from Nashua, was in town Wednesday, calling at Breezy Hill for the purpose of having his grass cut, and also calling on George E. Chesley. On Thursday he went down in Maine to look after his lumber interests.

July 16, 1920

Miss Edith Fernald is attending the summer school at Keene.

Nehemiah Snell finished haying last Saturday.

Mrs. William Caldwell is visiting her daughter at East Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Telser, Mr. Allen and Mrs. Gaylord, all of Boston, called last Saturday at Sargent Jenkins'.

Mr. and Mrs. Cross of Amesbury, Mass., are summer visitors of Mrs. Childs'.

Miss Iber Smith of Haverhill spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Miss Hazel Dearborn is spending part of her vacation in Wolfeboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Cram of Greenwood, Mass., spent several days at Nutwood. Mr. Cram spent the week-end and Mrs. Cram returned Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Menter went to Nashua, Monday, to attend the funeral of Mr. Menter's mother.

Philip Bourque and Russell Powers of Manchester are visitors this week at John C. Bartlett's.

Mrs. Jennie Tyler of Barrington visited her sister at the Cartland homestead one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel recently took a trip to Suncook Lake, Pittsfield and Barnstead, taking with them some of their neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laughton have as guests Mr. Laughton's brother and wife, and friends, from Haverhill, Mass.

Monday, Mrs. Charles E. Davis, Mrs. Charles F. Davis, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggin and Miss Coney, all of Lynn, Mass., motored to Willow Homestead. Mrs. Wiggin and Miss Coney will remain through the summer.

Most of the farmers are haying this week.

E. O. Fifield, who now has a nice residence in Milford, 11 miles from Nashua, was in town Wednesday, calling at Breezy Hill for the purpose of having his grass cut, and also calling on George E. Chesley. On Thursday he went down in Maine to look after his lumber interests.
July 23, 1920

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Learnard and family are stopping at the Peach cottage. Miss Belle Tuttle has rented her summer camp to several gentlemen from Malden, Mass.

George A. Bennett of Newmarket is cutting the grass on the Buzzell farm.

Walter Wellington had business that called him to Boston, Saturday.

The reunion of the Walnut Grove school will be held at the school house on the Cartland farm, Sunday, Aug. 1st. Rev. F.O. Tyler of Barrington will preach at the church at the usual hour, 11 o'clock. It is expected those coming for the reunion will be present in a body at the church services.

Mr. Wardwell and family have arrived from Maine at the Jesse Smith farm, which Mr. Wardwell has recently purchased.

Mrs. George E. Chesley is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin, taking a trip Thursday to Exeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, with some other of the state officers, attended the Grange at Wakefield, one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plummer of Haverhill, Mass., spent the week-end at James B. Walker’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer James, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells, (Mrs. Wells was formerly Ednah James), of Allston, Mass., spent two weeks’ vacation at George James’.

Clifford Midgrin and Clifford, Jr., of Haverhill, Mass., are visitors at Clarence Fernald’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Tanzie have for guests friends from Hanover.

Donald Learnard and a friend of Mrs. Peach, of Boston, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peach.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Durell and son of Providence, R.I., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith. The son returned with them, who had made a longer visit.

Mrs. Harry Watson and two daughters of Manchester are visiting her brother, David B. Bartlett.

There are a few summer boarders at Mrs. Walter Jones’, Sunnyside Farm.

Frank Shedd and son of Worcester, Mass., were visitors at Frank D. Randall’s last Tuesday.

Mrs. Herbert Colby and son of Manchester spent a few days last week with Mrs. Miner Fall.

The Magnolia Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Davis at her bungalow.

Miss Mary Flanders of Malden, Mass., was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Caldwell, Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Small of Fremont and Miss Josephine Susman of Exeter were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small.

Mrs. Arthur Wiggin is visiting in Boston.

Mrs. Walter Plumer, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.
Mrs. Charles Philbrick of Somerville, Mass., is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. David B. Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dodge and daughter of Concord, Mass., spent a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. George T. McDaniel.

Mrs. O.J. Pepin of Dover and Mrs. Grant of Somersworth were guests of their sister, Mrs. Walter Jones, last Tuesday.

John Randall, Jr., arrived Monday from East Falls Church, Va., to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Randall.

Dr. and Mrs. Harding of Boston are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Harry Davis.

Ellsworth Garrity has purchased an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fall of Newington visited his brother, Miner L. Fall, last Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Denson, Mrs. Edward Young and Miss Chase of Dover were guests of Mrs. Emma Corsen last week.

Mrs. Mary A. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chadwick, all of Haverhill, visited Mrs. Lucy Thompson last Sunday.

John C. Bartlett and George A. Dudley went to Exeter last Sunday.

Mrs. George Dudley recently spent several days with her son, Albert Dudley, at Newmarket.

Miss Nellie Wiggin, who is spending a month in Greenfield with Miss Ethel Davis, passed a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggin, at Willow Homestead.

C.B. Wadleigh of Durham has been in town this week, inspecting the children’s school-gardens.

Next Sunday, Rev. Frank O. Tyler of Barrington will supply the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith motored to Revere Beach, Tuesday.

George H. Bixby’s family of Haverhill, Mass., and T.J. Chesley and wife of Dover spent the day last Sunday at Alfred C. Durgin’s.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett was at home from Boston for a few days this week.

Mary A. Chesley spent a few days last week in Boston.

Mrs. Belle Garrity has recently purchased a Ford.

Sarah Ferguson and George and Lillian Quinn of Malden, Mass., are spending the summer with Mrs. Anna Coleman. Mrs. Quinn is a guest for a week.

July 30, 1920

Mrs. Charles Philbrick of Somerville, Mass., is enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. David B. Bartlett.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dodge and daughter of Concord, Mass., spent a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. George T. McDaniel.

Mrs. O.J. Pepin of Dover and Mrs. Grant of Somersworth were guests of their sister, Mrs. Walter Jones, last Tuesday.

John Randall, Jr., arrived Monday from East Falls Church, Va., to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Randall.

Dr. and Mrs. Harding of Boston are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Harry Davis.

Ellsworth Garrity has purchased an automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fall of Newington visited his brother, Miner L. Fall, last Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Denson, Mrs. Edward Young and Miss Chase of Dover were guests of Mrs. Emma Corsen last week.

Mrs. Mary A. Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Chadwick, all of Haverhill, visited Mrs. Lucy Thompson last Sunday.

John C. Bartlett and George A. Dudley went to Exeter last Sunday.

Mrs. George Dudley recently spent several days with her son, Albert Dudley, at Newmarket.

Miss Nellie Wiggin, who is spending a month in Greenfield with Miss Ethel Davis, passed a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiggin, at Willow Homestead.

C.B. Wadleigh of Durham has been in town this week, inspecting the children’s school-gardens.

Next Sunday, Rev. Frank O. Tyler of Barrington will supply the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith motored to Revere Beach, Tuesday.

George H. Bixby’s family of Haverhill, Mass., and T.J. Chesley and wife of Dover spent the day last Sunday at Alfred C. Durgin’s.

Mrs. J. True Bartlett was at home from Boston for a few days this week.

Mary A. Chesley spent a few days last week in Boston.

Mrs. Belle Garrity has recently purchased a Ford.

Sarah Ferguson and George and Lillian Quinn of Malden, Mass., are spending the summer with Mrs. Anna Coleman. Mrs. Quinn is a guest for a week.
Mary A. Chesley spent the day last Saturday in Manchester. Edwin Wiggin of Lynn and Herbert Wiggin of Boston were guests last week of Arthur Wiggin.

Miss Marietta Breakey of Lowell, a former teacher at the Center school, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker and son, Louis, with a friend, all of Kingston, called Sunday on Mr. Parker's cousin, Mrs. Chester Ellison.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Davis, of Lynn, were guests at Willow Homestead, Sunday, also Miss Crombey and a friend, who will remain two weeks at Willow Homestead, as Miss Crombey's sister is spending the summer there.

Miss Bessie Thompson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, a few days at the Cartland farm.

Born, Aug. 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest James, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lang were presented with a daughter, Aug. 1.

Elmer Chesley of Malden and T. J. Chesley of Dover were guests at the Chesley homestead, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Pendergast of Minneapolis, Minn., were calling on old friends and renewing old acquaintances, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parker of Haverhill spent Sunday at Clarence Fernald's. Mr. and Mrs. Williams and son, Lewis, with Mrs. Clifford Midgrin, all of Haverhill, Mass., spent Monday at Mr. Fernald's.

Leroy Woodman of Dover spent Sunday with his brother, George Woodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hines and family of Reading, Mass., were guests of her father, George D. Stimpson, last week.

Henry Van Vliet of Manchester was a visitor in town last Wednesday. Mrs. Nellie Bond of Newton, Mass., is visiting Mrs. Ira B. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. George T. McDaniel.

Winston Caldwell is enjoying a visit with his aunt in East Rochester this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins and family, also Miss Ada Perkins of Nottingham, were guests of Mrs. Benton Layne last Saturday.

---

August 6, 1920

Mary A. Chesley spent the day last Saturday in Manchester. Edwin Wiggin of Lynn and Herbert Wiggin of Boston were guests last week of Arthur Wiggin.

Miss Marietta Breakey of Lowell, a former teacher at the Center school, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker and son, Louis, with a friend, all of Kingston, called Sunday on Mr. Parker's cousin, Mrs. Chester Ellison.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Davis, of Lynn, were guests at Willow Homestead, Sunday, also Mrs. Crombey and a friend, who will remain two weeks at Willow Homestead, as Miss Crombey's sister is spending the summer there.

Miss Bessie Thompson is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, a few days at the Cartland farm.

Born, Aug. 1, to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest James, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lang were presented with a daughter, Aug. 1.

Elmer Chesley of Malden and T.J. Chesley of Dover were guests at the Chesley homestead, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Pendergast of Minneapolis, Minn., were calling on old friends and renewing old acquaintances, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parker of Haverhill spent Sunday at Clarence Fernald's. Mr. and Mrs. Williams and son, Lewis, with Mrs. Clifford Midgrin, all of Haverhill, Mass., spent Monday at Mr. Fernald's.

Leroy Woodman of Dover spent Sunday with his brother, George Woodman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hines and family of Reading, Mass., were guests of her father, George D. Stimpson, last week.

Henry Van Vliet of Manchester was a visitor in town last Wednesday.

Mrs. Nellie Bond of Newton, Mass., is visiting Mrs. Ira B. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. George T. McDaniel.

Winston Caldwell is enjoying a visit with his aunt in East Rochester this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins and family, also Miss Ada Perkins of Nottingham, were guests of Mrs. Benton Layne Last Saturday.
Mattie Layne had an operation for adenoids last Monday.

Miss Nora Whitehouse is spending her vacation at her cottage at Alton Bay.

John Fernald sustained a broken collar bone and was otherwise badly bruised, Monday, by falling under his team loaded with sawdust.

Arlington Johnson of Saco spent Sunday with Granville Thompson.

Miss Elizabeth Stanley of Wakefield, Mass., is visiting Miss Grace Wellington.

Miss Mary Huston is suffering with an infected finger, and is attended by Dr. Fernald.

The young people are talking up a lawn party, to be held on the church grounds some time this month.

Next Sunday, Rev. Mr. Vance of Union will supply the pulpit. Services will commence at 11 o’clock.

Last Sunday the people that usually attend church were glad to meet each other, after the four-weeks’ vacation, and were also pleased to meet the members of the Cartland reunion, which met as usual on the first Sunday in August. It was very fitting that Rev. F. O. Tyler should preach, as Mrs. Tyler is a member of that old, distinguished family. It is needless to say that all were much interested in the sermon. Mr. Tyler, in speaking of the great educator, Moses Cartland, referred to the many men and women whose lives had been influenced for good by being under his instruction. After the services, the members, 24 in number, assembled on the spacious grounds of the Cartland homestead, near the old school house, and partook of the refreshments which had been provided by them.

Frank C. Ryan is recovering from his recent illness. Dr. Fernald attended him.

Among the Sunday visitors at Hampton Beach were Perry Harvey, Wesley Harvey, John French and Charles Hobbs.

Henry Small had an ill turn recently and is under the care of Dr. Fernald.

Freeman Thompson and son have started up their mill, to finish sawing on the lot recently purchased by Mr. Mathes from Miss Louise Allen.

August 6, 1920 cont.

Mattie Layne had an operation for adenoids last Monday.

Miss Nora Whitehouse is spending her vacation at her cottage at Alton Bay.

John Fernald sustained a broken collar bone and was otherwise badly bruised, Monday, by falling under his team loaded with sawdust.

Arlington Johnson of Saco spent Sunday with Granville Thompson.

Miss Elizabeth Stanley of Wakefield, Mass., is visiting Miss Grace Wellington.

Miss Mary Huston is suffering with an infected finger, and is attended by Dr. Fernald.

The young people are talking up a lawn party, to be held on the church grounds some time this month.

Next Sunday, Rev. Mr. Vance of Union will supply the pulpit. Services will commence at 11 o’clock.

Last Sunday the people that usually attend church were glad to meet each other, after the four-weeks’ vacation, and were also pleased to meet the members of the Cartland reunion, which met as usual on the first Sunday in August. It was very fitting that Rev. F.O. Tyler should preach, and Mrs. Tyler is a member of that old, distinguished family. It is needless to say that all were much interested in the sermon. Mr. Tyler, in speaking of the great educator, Moses Cartland, referred to the many men and women whose lives had been influenced for good by being under his instruction. After the services, the members, 24 in number, assembled on the spacious grounds of the Cartland homestead, near the old school house, and partook of the refreshments which had been provided by them.

Frank C. Ryan is recovering from his recent illness. Dr. Fernald attended him.

Among the Sunday visitors at Hampton Beach were Perry Harvey, Wesley Harvey, John French and Charles Hobbs.

Henry Small had an ill turn recently and is under the care of Dr. Fernald.

Freeman Thompson and son have started up their mill, to finish sawing on the lot recently purchased by Mr. Mathes from Miss Louise Allen.
August 13, 1920

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and family and Mrs. Frank Caldwell and daughter spent last Thursday at Rye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall and Mrs. Wm. Caldwell motored to Manchester with Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fall of Newington, last Saturday.

Mrs. F.H. Burgess and two children of Dover, are guests of Mrs. Benton E. Layne, this week.

Miss Florence Corsen is visiting friends in Dorchester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker of Dover, spent Sunday with Mrs. Felker's father, Alphonso Jones.

Seth W. Sherburne was a visitor at Old Orchard Beach, last Sunday.

Mrs. Emma Corsen entertained the Magnolia Club, last Wednesday afternoon. After a social time, refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Benton E. Layne.
Fred Carl York started this (Thursday) morning for Tacoma, Wash.

Miss Edith Fernald has returned from the summer school at Keene.

Miss Abigail Brotherston of Dover spent the week-end with Helen Layne.

Frank Hill of Boston is enjoying his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young and family of Dover are visiting with Mrs. Emma Corsen.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Randall arrived last Saturday from East Falls Church, Va., to spend their vacation with Mr. Randall’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Randall.

Seth W. Sherburne, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Young and Mrs. Emma Corsen were visitors at Hampton and Salisbury beaches last Sunday.

Until further notice, the church services will be held at Lee Hill at 2 o’clock every Sunday afternoon. Sunday School at 1 p.m. Rev. F. O. Tyler will preach.

Mrs. Susan Howe is spending this month at her old home on Lee Hill.

James B. Walker and family, with friends, spent last Sunday at Portsmouth.

Miss Ella Brotherston is a guest this week of Miss Marion Walker.

Miss Josephine Durgin of Salem, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson.

Alfred C. Durgin and family went to Hampton Beach, Tuesday of last week, taking with them Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson and two children. Thursday he motored to York Beach, taking his family and guests.

Last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. White and daughter of Vermont visited Mrs. White’s sister, Mrs. Charles Johnson. Thursday, Mr. White motored with his family to Ogunquit and York beaches, accompanied by the Johnsons.

Mrs. Mary E. Robinson of Merrimac, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George F. Chesley.

Recently, R. Fenno Caverly and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain of Winchester, Mass., were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson.

Miss Iber Smith of Haverhill spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel attended the extra session of the State Grange held at Concord.

Last week, through the courtesy of
August 20, 1920 cont.

Last week, through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bixby, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley spent a week at “The Overlook,” York Beach.

Albert Caverno and family spent the week-end at their farm on the Mast Road.

Miss Elizabeth Stanley of Wakefield, Mass., who has been visiting Miss Grace Wellington, returned home last Saturday.

Granville Thompson is at work on the school house at the Centre, which is being remodeled.

Mrs. Marion Cram is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cram of Greenfield, Mass., at her pleasant home, Nutwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson went to Rochester, Wednesday, to attend the Scruton reunion.

Miss Gulliver, the teacher of the South Lee school, was in town over Sunday, attending church with Mrs. Annie Lee.

The family from Wilton who have occupied F.O. Fifield’s house since July and done the haying on the farm returned home Monday.

George E. Chesley was greatly surprised one day last week by a call from Rev. John Logan and family of Houston, Texas, they having made the entire trip by auto, en route for Old Orchard Beach.

On Wednesday, Aug. 25, the young people of Lee church are planning to hold a lawn party on the church grounds. The musical and literary entertainment will be held in the church. A mystery table, fortune telling and other attractions out of doors. Ice cream and cake will be on sale. If the weather should be very stormy, it will be held Thursday evening, Aug. 26. It is hoped all, old and young, will come and enjoy themselves.

Moving pictures of the Newmarket Day parade, ball game, first prize winners, etc., will be taken by a professional camera man, and will be exhibited at the Star Theatre in about two weeks. —Adv.
August 27, 1920

Mattie Layne visited friends in Rochester last week.

George E. Hill is visiting his brother, Horace Hill.

A special meeting of the Missionary Society will be held with Mrs. William S. Caldwell, Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall and Mrs. Chester Tebbetts of Rochester motored to Townsend, Mass., with Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fall of Newington, last Sunday.

An auto driven by Mr. Nickerson of Revere, Mass., collided with an auto owned by Austin Calef of East Barrington, near the North school house, on the road leading to Newtown Plains, last Thursday. The front of both cars were badly damaged. No one was injured. Mr. Nickerson agreed to pay damages.

James Lee is anticipating closing his house and moving to Dover.

Hazel Dearborn is spending several days in Wolfeboro, attending the celebration of the 150th anniversary of that town.

Mrs. Belle Garrity and family took in Newmarket Day and went to Stratham last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker and daughter and Miss Ella Brotherston went to Hampton and Salisbury beaches, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Bowen of Somersville were guests of Henry A. Peach last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley and Miss Mary A. Chesley went to Groton, Mass., last Saturday.

Miss Gladys Demeritt went to Exeter, Monday, for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Swain and Mrs. Fannie Tebbetts fo Dover called Sunday on Mrs. Walter Smith.

Miss Dorothy Parsons on Rye was a guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Priest. Mrs. Frank Edgerly recently spent several days with Mrs. Priest.

Miss Elizabeth Brewster of Wolfeboro spent one day and evening last week at G. E. Chesley’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall of Rochester motored to Townsend, Mass., with Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Fall of Newington, last Sunday.

Gorham Sawyer went to Concord and Boscawen last Saturday.
A large number of Lee people went to Newmarket last Friday and Saturday. Harvey Whitehouse exhibited his oxen in the parade there on Saturday. Grover Smith took first prize and Miss Mary Laselle second prize for best decorated bicycles. Miss Gladys Demeritt, with Miss Lillian Cook of Newmarket, took first prize for the best decorated bicycle.

Last Sunday being Old Home Sunday, Rev. F.O. Tyler preached a very interesting sermon, taking for his text Psalm 98-6, “God setteth the solitary in families.”

Granville Thompson has commenced laying the shingles on the church roof.

Albert Durell of Somerville, Guy Durell and daughter and Miss Gertrude Durell of Providence, R.I., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Smith.

The following was taken from the Dover Enquirer of Tuesday, Aug. 28, 1819, “Dedication—The Lee South Meeting House, a new edifice erected for the present season, was dedicated for public worship on Wed last (Aug. 23). Sermon by Rev. Mr. Place of Strafford.”

Mrs. David Mitchell, who has been spending a week in Boston, returned home last Friday. Her daughter, Mrs. Barrett, returned with her.

The lawn fete Wednesday evening was a success, both socially and financially. Much credit is due the committee for their efforts to make it such. A good audience in the church listened to the programme. Thanks to some Newmarket people who took part in it and our home talent, it was much enjoyed. After the entertainment, the attractions on the lawn drew the crowd.

The proposed amendments to the Constitution are printed on the 8th page.