Miss Alice Dudley went Wednesday to Greenwood, Mass., to visit her sister, Mrs. Marion Cram.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill went to Manchester to spend Christmas with Mr. Hill's brother and sister.

Mrs. James B. Walker is visiting friends in Brockton, Mass.

Mrs. Harry F. Smith visited one day last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Durell, at Newmarket.

George Smith of Lynn spent the week-end with his brother, Harry F. Smith.

Thomas Stevens was unfortunate Tuesday in losing a finger while working in a saw mill.

Miss Pauline Bartlett of Boston spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Woodruff Mason.

J. Fred Bessom and granddaughter, Miss Mary Lasalle, spent Wednesday of last week in Haverhill, Mass.

Mrs. Mary J. Twombly visited her daughter in Exeter last week.

Lewis Snell and son are now sawing lumber on the Keniston lot.

Mrs. Walter Smith entertained the Country Whist Club, Tuesday afternoon.

Several families in town held reunions on Christmas Day. Mr. and Mrs. George James entertained all their children and grandchildren, 26 in number. Miss Doris James returned to Boston with her sister, Mrs. Edna Wells, for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel had for guests over Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Dodge of West Somerville, the parents of Mrs. McDaniel. Also Frank McDaniel and several of his family from Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin entertained a family party Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith had as guests over Christmas their daughters, the Misses Gertrude, Iber and Nellie Smith.

Frank S. Ellison, who is at the base hospital at Camp Devens, and has been there for a long time, can now walk with the use of a cane. He had a furlough of five days and visited friends in this vicinity.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet next Thursday afternoon at the vestry.

The annual meeting of the Congregational church and society will be held at the vestry Tuesday, Jan. 6, at 1 o'clock p.m.
George Dudley was in Exeter last Sunday.

Fred Comings is taking the census in Lee and Madbury.

Mrs. Walter Smith is visiting her son in Hampton for a few days.

Miss Belle Tuttle of Swampscott, Mass., is staying for a short time at Wadley's Falls.

Mrs. Susan Howe is in very poor health and is now living with her brother, Bert Howe, in Natick, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Priest of Newmarket spent last Sunday with Mrs. Priest's father, Sargent Jenkins.

Miss Marion Walker and Donald Thompson are attending school at Newmarket.

Albert Dudley went last week Wednesday to the Cottage Hospital, Exeter, for an operation for appendicitis. He is improving as fast as can be expected.

The schools at South Lee and North Lee commenced Monday, with the same teachers, Miss Gulliver and Miss Ellen Hoyt. The Center school will commence next Monday, with Miss Wentworth of Madbury, teacher.

Mrs. Childs and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernald were called to Haverhill, Mass., this week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Child's daughter, Mrs. Mary Huntington, aged 47, who died very suddenly of pneumonia last Saturday. She was a sister of Mrs. Clarence Fernald.

The annual meetings of the church and society were held Tuesday afternoon. Arthur J. Thompson was chosen chairman. The society elected Ira B. Hill, Alfred C. Durgin, and William H. Thompson, wardens; Nellie J. Durgin, clerk. At the church meeting Mrs. Ella Thompson was chosen Superintendent of Sunday Schools, Arthur J. Thompson, secretary and treasurer, social committee, Arthur McDaniel, Mrs. Mercy McDaniel, Mrs. Ella Thompson and Mrs. Nellie J. Durgin.

Mrs. Frank Oldham visited friends in Lawrence, Mass., several days last week, returning Saturday.

Announcements have been received here of the marriage of the daughter of Thomas Davis of Duluth, Minn., Miss Millett Davis, to Frederick Dwight Raymond, on New Year's Day.

Rev. Daniel W. Richardson, who was a pastor here from 1893 to 1896, passed away at Middleton, Mass., Dec. 31. At the time of his Lee pastorate he married Mrs. Belle Furber, a native of Lee, who survives him, and is in very poor health. People regretted Mr. Richardson's leaving here, as he had a pleasant pastorate and many warm friends.
Mrs. Marion Cram of Greenwood, Mass., spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley.

Horace Caverno has been away from home two weeks, visiting his children in Cambridge, Melrose and Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Bryant of Vermont has come to spend the rest of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Morton Laselle were called to Lynn last Friday by the death of Mr. Laselle's father.

Several farmers in town have commenced to harvest their ice.

James B. Walker went to Boston last Friday.

Albert Dudley has returned from the Cottage Hospital, Exeter, and is improving as fast as can be expected.

J. True Bartlett came from Boston to his farm last Wednesday and went to Concord, Tuesday, to attend the constitutional convention held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel went to Middleton, Monday evening, to install the officers for the Grange. Mr. McDaniel went to Concord, Tuesday, to attend the constitutional convention.

Benton Layne's house came very near being destroyed by fire one day last week. Probable cause, an overheated stove and defective chimney. Much damage was done. Mrs. Susan Layne was alone in the house, and her son, Morris Layne, coming in sight of the house on his way there, saw the blaze breaking through the roof, and fortunately he aroused the town and saved the house.

January 16, 1920

Mrs. Marion Cram of Greenwood, Mass., spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley.

Horace Caverno has been away from home two weeks, visiting his children in Cambridge, Melrose and Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Bryant of Vermont has come to spend the rest of the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Morton Laselle were called to Lynn last Friday by the death of Mr. Laselle's father.

Several farmers in town have commenced to harvest their ice.

James B. Walker went to Boston last Friday.

Albert Dudley has returned from the Cottage Hospital, Exeter, and is improving as fast as can be expected.

J. True Bartlett came from Boston to his farm last Wednesday and went to Concord, Tuesday, to attend the constitutional convention held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel went to Middleton, Monday evening, to install the officers for the Grange. Mr. McDaniel went to Concord, Tuesday, to attend the constitutional convention.
Miss Doris James, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Welles, in Boston, since Christmas, returned home last Saturday.

Frank Ellison, who has been at Camp Devens, in the hospital, has been discharged from the army, and is now stopping with his sister, Mrs. Ackerman, in Portsmouth.

Fred Huston, who has been in Boston for some time, returned for a few days to put in his ice.

The installation of the officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange will take place Friday evening and will be public.

Elliot Wellington, who has been serving in the motor truck division, in France landed at Hoboken a week ago. He was sent to Camp Dix, and having a week’s furlough last week came to Lee, stopping over night at John C. Bartlett’s and spending the week-end at Granville Thompson’s. He went to Boston, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis of Duluth, Minn., well known in Lee, will spend the remainder of the winter in California.

Rev. M. H. Babcock attended the meeting of the Piscataqua Association of Congregational Ministers, held at South Berwick, Tuesday.

Alfred C. Durgin has been drawn to serve on the grand jury, and Charles Piper on the petit jury, at the February term of court at Dover.

Mrs. G. E. Chesley, who has been our Lee correspondent for some time, is obliged to give up her duties on account of illness. Rev. M. H. Babcock has kindly consented to act in that capacity, and all having items are requested to send or telephone them to him, as early in the week as possible. We hope Lee people will cooperate and make our Lee department a newsy and interesting part of the paper.
January 30, 1920

James Lee went to Newmarket last Saturday.

Charles Johnson has been nursing a severe attack of the mumps.

Rev. M.H. Babcock, the pastor of Lee, visited his brother, Charles S. Babcock, at Candia last week, and driving homeward called on Rev. Arthur Hunt at Deerfield.

The many friends of Mrs. G.E. Chesley greatly regret that illness, which all hope is of a temporary nature, has compelled her to relinquish for a time the responsible position of Lee correspondent for the Advertiser.

Mrs. S.P. Wentworth, teacher at the Center school, goes to her parents' home in Madbury, Friday nights, returning Sunday evening.

New window shades have recently been installed in Grange Hall.

John C. Bartlett visited his niece, Mrs. Bradbury Scales, at Exeter last week.

Clarence Fernald has been cutting ice the past month and reports it of excellent quality and sixteen inches thick.

Albert Dudley and family are about to move to Newmarket.

Mrs. Carrie Ellison has been nursing a severe cold of late.

James Lee did Charlie Johnson's chores while he was sick.

One of the attractions at the parsonage is a bevy of chickadees and blue jays, drawn thither by careful feeding.

Granville Thompson is helping Clarence Fernald harvest ice.

Much sympathy is felt for George Dudley and his family, because of their varied trials recently.

The stork has recently left some very promising new citizens on the hearths of Lee.

Mrs. J.H. Smith has just recovered from several days' indisposition, resulting from a cold.

Fred Comings has about completed the census of Lee and Madbury.

The officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange were installed last Friday night in an able manner by the Steward of the State Grange, James C. Farmer.

Mrs. Winfield Robinson, a daughter of Mrs. Nellie Thompson, and lady friends, of Epping, took dinner at the Cartland Farm last week Thursday.

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet at the vestry Thursday afternoon, Feb. 5.
Frank A. Clay bought a horse in Dover last week.

Eloise Wiggin is taking music lessons of Mrs. Trombly in Madbury.

Arthur J. Thompson was on Saturday taken with an attack of acute indigestion and hiccoughs.

Mrs. A.C. Coleman and son, Charles, are spending the winter in Malden, Mass.

The mercury was reported 23 below zero Sunday morning at Alfred Durgin's, 24 below on Lee Hill, 30 below at William Caldwell's and 36 below at Horace Hill's.

The consensus of opinion among Leeites is that we have had enough cold weather.

Charles Coleman was in Lee Sunday, returning to Malden Mass. Sunday night.

Arthur and William Thompson have completed harvesting their ice.

F.W. Huston and his sister who occupy the Walker farm house, returned from Massachusetts last Saturday night for a brief stay.

Rev. M.H. Babcock, the pastor at Lee and Madbury, represented those churches at the inter-church world movement of North America, county training conference, held at Rochester last week Thursday and Friday.

The following parties are entitled to prize books, having completed six months' regular attendance at Sunday School: J. Maurice Lee, R. Caverly Durgin, Donald Thompson, Lizzie I. Thompson, Marion D. Walker, Gladys James, Evangeline Durgin, Margaret Lang, Mary E. Thompson, Barbara James, Irene Lang, Chesley F. Durgin, Eleanor Lang, Bernice Lang, Clara Ellison, Anna L. Lee, Nellie J. Durgin, William H. Thompson, Carrie Ellison, A. J. Thompson, Alfred Durgin, Mercy McDaniel and Ethel D. Thompson.

Eastern N.H. Pomona Grange met at Dover, Thursday. Several from Lee attended.

Mrs. Arthur McDaniel recently met on the train Rev. Arthur Brotherston, a former pastor here, now located in Franklin, Vt. She reports him looking well and in his usual good, cheerful spirits.

Mrs. Charles A. Langmaid has been nursing her husband out of the clutches of a bad cold.

Frank J. Wiggin suffered the dislocation of his shoulder by the upsetting of a load of hay in Madbury, Tuesday of last week. He was otherwise bruised and shaken up. Dr. Grant is attending him.
Mrs. William Caldwell, who was confined to her bed by sickness several days, is about the house again.

Nehemiah Snell has finished sawing the lumber on the Kenniston lot and has moved his mill on to the John Piper lot; he is making some improving changes in his engine.

Arthur D. Wiggins and family are now occupying Miss Bessie Thompson's cottage.

Jasper Robinson, who is working for Nehemiah Snell, was obliged to lay off a few days last week, on account of an accident to his mother. Mrs. Samuel Robinson, of Nottingham. She slipped on the ice last week Thursday, breaking both bones above the ankle. Jasper's wife is taking care of her.

The people hereabouts are improving the fine sledding in hauling hay, wood, ice, etc.

At the annual church meeting it was voted unanimously to use the everybody canvas card and envelope system, which was introduced here last year and which works satisfactorily wherever it is welcomed.

The North Lee school is closed for a month, to allow the teacher to obey the requirements of the new state law by attending the normal school at Plymouth.

Last Friday the schools of the town were closed, to permit the teachers, Mrs. Wentworth of the Centre school and Miss Gulliver of the South Lee school, to attend the institute at Rochester. Mrs. James Lee and Mrs. William Lee, members of the school board, also attended.

Mrs. Sarah Preston, who is spending the winter at Horace Caverno's, had an attack of acute indigestion recently. She was attended by Dr. Grant, and is now resting comfortably.

Gorham Sawyer and his family, with the exception of John, are all down with the influenza. Dr. Butler is in attendance, also a trained nurse. Edward Farrell, a neighbor of Mr. Sawyer, went over to assist with the chores and is now on the sick list himself.
February 13, 1920

James Lee, Charlie Johnson, Robert Thompson and others celebrated the last week-end breaking out roads.

Thursday afternoon and Friday of last week the Centre school was closed on account of the weather and traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. George James went to Haverhill last Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. James' sister, Mrs. George Reading. They returned home Saturday night.

Saturday morning James Lee carried Mrs. Wentworth to Durham; she returned to her home in Madbury by train.

Rev. Milton H. Babcock was in Rochester, Thursday, attending the Strafford Association Ministers' Retreat.

Miss Mary A. Chesley returned home last Monday from Wolfeboro. The academy, churches, library, and all places of public gatherings are now closed there on account of the influenza.

The current epidemic has just gone through the family of Mrs. Belle Garrity. Leander Fogg Chester Ellison did their chores.

Homer Johnson likes his high school work in Dover. He comes home every night.

In the town hall this (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock there will be a meeting of three schools and the public. There will be exercises by the scholars, followed by addresses by Superintendent Wellman and others, and a discussion of the new state laws and junior high school.

Arthur J. Thompson recovered from the attack of indigestion and hiccoughs last Friday morning. Prolonged dieting weakened him some.

Granville Thompson is getting over an illness that has kept him in the house for several days.

Mrs. M.F. Childs received a visit last Sunday morning from Barbara and Gladys James.

Alfred C. Durgin went to Dover last week Monday and assisted in finishing the work of the grand jury in one day, thanks to prohibition. Mrs. Durgin went to Dover with him.

J. G. Mayo, station agent at South Lee, has been confined to his house the past month by trouble with his injured ankle. H. P. Haley is acting as agent in the absence of Mr. Mayo.

William Lee, the genial rural mail carrier, didn't miss a trip on his route during the recent storm.

Edward Farrell is getting over his recent illness. The neighbors were very thoughtful of him while he was shut up in the house.

Cont...
February 13, 1920 cont.

Pauline Thompson has been kept from school two weeks by company, similar to that which her father recently entertained.

Charles Piper went to Dover, Monday, to sit on the jury.

Albert Dudley, who lately underwent an operation for rupture, is regaining his strength. He now lives in one of the new corporation houses at Newmarket.

Walter Wellington, who, with his daughter, Grace, went to Massachusetts in the fall, is among the many who have learned that Boston isn’t in it with Lee, and he has come home to stay.

Marion Bloom and Caverly and Evangeline Durgin have been out of school on account of colds.

Mrs. Mabel Leavitt of Manchester is taking care of Mrs. H.P. Haley.

Mrs. Carrie Ellison suffered an attack of palpitation of the heart, last Sunday, and was unable to attend church.

Miss Gulliver, the South Lee teacher, found two-thirds of her school intact last Friday, in spite of the weather. They are preparing a play to give Friday of this week at the meeting in the town hall.

Mrs. J.J. Demeritt has been so ill of late that her daughter, Gladys, was obliged to stay out of school.

Dr. George Wiggin of Exeter spent Sunday with his uncle, Lyford Wiggin.

William Caldwell is utilizing his new son-in-law, Minot Fall, in remodeling his house, to increase the convenience of both families.

Madeline Caldwell had a touch of influenza last Friday. Dr. Grant cured her.

Mrs. Helen McRae and other members of her family joined the circle of epidemic sufferers.

Sumner Layne is working for the Fernald brothers in Nottingham.

Mrs. Mary Fall went to Dover, Tuesday.

Mrs. Susan P.D. Layne is visiting with her daughter and nieces in Dover.

Miss Helen Layne, a student at Plymouth Normal School, is substituting during the month of February in a school at Raymond.
February 20, 1920

Snow is reported from two and a half to three feet deep in the woods.

No one is willing to acknowledge the responsibility of having taken the gall out of Lee.

Donald Thompson and Ralph Wiggin recently killed and dressed a four weeks' old calf.

Mrs. Martha Snell, Louis Snell's mother, who lives in Dover, had a fainting spell, Monday morning, caused by indigestion.

Last week Wednesday, Mrs. Nellie Durgin and son, Chesley, spent the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Henry A. Peach and his wife attended the meetings of William Sunday in Boston and they are unstinted in their endorsement of the work of the great evangelist.

Rev. M.H. Babcock attended the Congregationalist Ministers' Retreat at Rochester last week Thursday. It was postponed from the preceding week.

Willis and John Fernald are working at their Uncle Fernald's sawmill in Nottingham.

Fred Huston and sisters, Mary and Jennie, with a cousin, came home last Saturday and tarried several days.

Mrs. Susan Layne returned from Dover last week Tuesday, where she visited her daughter and nieces.

Arthur Thompson and Norman Snell, two of the supervisors, met at the town house Monday to post the check-list.

The County Whist Club held their last meeting of the season last week Tuesday, at Mrs. Griffiths', in the afternoon. The first pick-out of the twelve prizes was won by Mrs. David Fogg.

The closing ban was raised in Wolfeboro at 12 o'clock last Saturday night. Miss Mary Chesley, who teaches in Brewster Academy, returned to Wolfeboro on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Louis Snell recently made 54 pounds of very relishable sausage.

Robert Thompson came home from his work Tuesday morning sick with the mumps, and his mother put him to bed.

The Ladies' Missionary Society meets in the vestry next Thursday, March 4, at 2.30. All members and friends are requested to be present.

Miss Hazel Dearborn, a senior in the State College, Durham, stayed at home several days, warding off the grippe.
Thomas Stevens and Granville Thompson are on the mend.

The school committee and other town officers are getting ready for the annual town and school meeting in March.

Dexter Layne, and William Young of Dover, who is working for Frank Morrison of Durham, are hauling wood from the Frost lot to Hoitt’s Crossing.

Harry Putnam, who will soon move on to the Clarence Wiggin place, is remodeling his barn, to make it suitable for cattle.

James Lee, our efficient road agent, with a bunch of men, is keeping the roads in very passable condition between storms.

Benton Layne had a severe attack of chills and fever last Monday.

Misses Ellen Hoitt and Edith Fernald, who were taking the February training course at the Plymouth Normal School, have been at home the past two weeks, as the schools at Plymouth were closed on account of influenza.

Haven Layne, 11 years old, and rather small for his age, is successfully carrying five difficult studies in the Dover high school. He stops through the week with his uncle, Maurice Layne and comes home Friday nights.

Frank Wiggin got over the effects of his late accident so as to go back to work last week.

Mrs. Edna Pierce, who cared so long and tenderly for her mother, Mrs. Loren Fernald, recently deceased, continues to reside over her father’s home.

Mrs. Alice Clay was called to Dover, last week Thursday, to attend the funeral of a nephew, who died in Lowell.

Mrs. Mary Currier has been away from home several weeks and she has not yet returned.

Mrs. Sarah Randall of Boston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Snell.

Arthur Berry, who formerly made his home on the Hosea Snell place, died in Manchester, last week Wednesday, of pneumonia.

Mrs. Sarah A. Stimpson has shaken with palsy over eight years. Her widowed son, George D. Stimpson, provides for her wants.

Grant H. Farwell, son of Mrs.

February 20, 1920 cont.

Thomas Stevens and Granville Thompson are on the mend.

The school committee and other town officers are getting ready for the annual town and school meeting in March.

Dexter Layne, and William Young of Dover, who is working for Frank Morrison of Durham, are hauling wood from the Frost lot to Hoitt’s Crossing.

Harry Putnam, who will soon move on to the Clarence Wiggin place, is remodeling his barn, to make it suitable for cattle.

James Lee, of efficient road agent, with a bunch of men, is keeping the road in very passable condition between storms.

Benton Layne had a severe attack of chills and fever last Monday.

Misses Ellen Hoitt and Edith Fernald, who were taking the February training course at the Plymouth Normal School, have been at home the past two weeks, as the schools at Plymouth were closed on account of influenza.

Haven Layne, 11 years old, and rather small for his age, is successfully carrying five difficult studies in the Dover high school. He stops through the week with his uncle, Maurice Layne and comes home Friday nights.

Frank Wiggin got over the effects of his late accident so as to go back to work last week.

Mrs. Edna Pierce, who cared so long and tenderly for her mother, Mrs. Loren Fernald, recently deceased, continues to reside over her father’s home.

Mrs. Alice Clay was called to Dover, last week Thursday, to attend the funeral of a nephew, who died in Lowell.

Mrs. Mary Currier has been away from home several weeks and she has not yet returned.

Mrs. Sarah Randall of Boston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Snell.

Arthur Berry, who formerly made his home on the Hosea Snell place, died in Manchester, last week Wednesday, of pneumonia.

Mrs. Sarah A. Stimpson has shaken with palsy over eight years. Her widowed son, George D. Stimpson, provides for her wants.

Grant H. Farwell, son of Mrs.

Cont...
Frank Dearborn, is making his home with her this winter. He works at the power house, Packer's Falls, driving to and from his work with a newly-broke, three-year-old colt.

Mrs. Martha Buzwell, mother of Mrs. Helen McRae of the school board, still lingers in bed as a result of the influenza, from which she is slowly recovering.

Last week Tuesday, Edward Farrell recovered sufficiently to go out.

Edith Fernald was under the doctor's care last week, but is now well and is preparing to return to her school in Barrington.

Charles Langley contemplates going away soon to visit with his relatives.

Miss Helen Layne finished teaching in Raymond last week, and is getting ready to return to the normal school at Plymouth, in which she is taking a regular course. She is much pleased with the Plymouth school.

February 20, 1920 cont.

Frank Dearborn, is making his home with her this winter. He works at the power house, Packer's Falls, driving to and from his work with a newly-broke, three-year-old colt.

Mrs. Martha Buzwell, mother of Mrs. Helen McRae of the school board, still lingers in bed as a result of the influenza, from which she is slowly recovering.

Last week Tuesday, Edward Farrell recovered sufficiently to go out.

Edith Fernald was under the doctor's care last week, but is now well and is preparing to return to her school in Barrington.

Charles Langley contemplates going away soon to visit with his relatives.

Miss Helen Layne finished teaching in Raymond last week, and is getting ready to return to the normal school at Plymouth, in which she is taking a regular course. She is much pleased with the Plymouth school.
February 27, 1920

Miss Stella Smith spent the week-end at the home of Benjamin Lang.

Last week Monday, George E. Chesley, our oldest male citizen, drove to Durham, and met his daughter, Miss Mary Chesley, as she returned from Wolfeboro.

F. H. Hancock, Horace Caverino's son-in-law, has purchased a wholesale ice cream plant in Boston, which he will run in connection with his regular business of selling dairy supplies.

Owing to scarcity of water, the fiber mill is now only running nights.

Benjamin Lang sold a horse last week to Raymond Monroe of Strafford.

Granville Thompson went out too soon after having the mumps, and suffered a relapse, he returned to his bed Saturday and was under a doctor's care several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caverino have been busy of late making sausage.

J. H. Smith is getting up his winter's wood and hauling freight for Harry Smith.

The exercises which were to have been held in the town hall by the schools last Friday, took place Saturday afternoon instead. Three very pretty features were given by the South Lee scholars, under the direction of Miss Gulliver, a play school and two songs, "Where are you going, my pretty fair maid" and "Snow Flakes," by five little girls. Miss Marion Walker of the Centre school won encores with a piano solo and recital of "My Sister Sue." Supt. J. O. Wellman explained the new state law and was questioned about the junior high school by Alfred C. Durgin and Mrs. Lulu B. Walker. It is expected the matter will come up for action at the annual school meeting.

Frank Caldwell recently made a very good pig trade.

Mrs. H. P. Haley, who has been quite ill, felt stronger a few days ago and got up and tried to do her own work, but she has to take her bed frequently. Mrs. Leavitt, who has been assisting her, went to South Lee last Saturday and returned to her home in Manchester, Monday.

Robert Thompson is working for Nehemiah Snell on the John Piper lumber lot.

Mrs. Carrie W. Chesley and daughter, Miss Winifred Chesley, are spending the remainder of the winter in Malden, Mass. Their two horses were left with Henry A. Peach.

Mrs. Mary M. Thompson, the oldest...
February 27, 1920 cont.

Mrs. Lucy M. Thompson, the oldest citizen of Lee, continues about the house, she has mastered the rare art of gliding into the sunset hour with grace and cheerfulness.

Joseph Bennett, the mail carrier from Newmarket, came down with influenza the first of the week. Robert Bennett substituted for him.

Ernest Tanzi is caring for 16 pigs, belonging to Harry Putnam, on the Clarence Wiggin farm. He feeds them on prize cracker-jack and grain. The prizes are distributed among the children.

Last week Wednesday, Mrs. R.D. Caverino received word that her son Albert’s wife of Kittery, Me., had the influenza.

Miss F. Genevieve Haley and Norman Cilley came to the “Hill” last Friday in the storm and were disappointed that the school entertainment had been postponed.

Rev. Samuel A. Dyke of Melrose, Mass., who occupied the pulpit here last summer, so much to the help and enjoyment of those present, is reported well at his home. His wife is a cousin of Mrs. Horace Caverino.

Mrs. Nellie M. Cook fell from a chair two weeks ago and struck on her head. She is recovering nicely.

George Reede, the unfortunate fellow who sidestepped on Lee Hill some months ago, was tried in Dover, Monday, by jury, who received the case Monday night, and rendered a verdict of guilty.

James Lee and Charlie Johnson are hauling lumber for Fred B. Philbrick to Pendergast’s crossing.

Paul Cilley has entered Al. Place’s drug store at Newmarket, to work spare hours before and after school.

Daniel Shannon was kept in the house for a few days by a bad cold, but is now out again. He works for the Housing Co., Newmarket.

Gorham Sawyer’s family are getting over their severe illness and are all able to be out with the exception of Mrs. Sawyer, who sat up for the first time Monday.

Edward Farrell, who has had a protracted sickness, tried to go out Monday, but found himself too weak.

Mrs. Katherine Jones came from Dover, Tuesday, to be with Mrs. Garrity, who is still weak and has a bad cough. Esther and Ellsworth are up.....cont.
Miss S Belle Tuttle sold a wood lot to James Walker last week, and has returned to Swampscott, Mass.

Donald Learnard, the son of Mrs. B.M. Peach, comes from Lawrence, Mass., to spend the week-ends with his parents.

Irving Gile of Nottingham is living in the green cottage at Wadley's. He works at the fiber mill.

George James conferred a great favor on the people hereabouts last Saturday with his wide snow-plow and pair of strong horses.

Roberts' Brothers of Dover have purchased a lumber lot of H.A. Peach on the Hoard Glidden farm. Freeman Thompson has moved his sawmill from Durham Point on to the lot, and expects it will take two months to saw it.

Wilfred H. Kidder, son of Mrs. Jesse Smith, is in the navy. His enlistment expired the 18th of this month, and he is expected home soon.

Mrs. Lydia Smith, recently confined to her bed, threatened with pneumonia, is now fully recovered and doing her work. For three years she has been the secretary of the local Larkin Club.

February 27, 1920 cont.

And out, and little Gladys is quite herself again.

Miss S. Belle Tuttle sold a wood lot to James Walker last week, and has returned to Swampscott, Mass.

Donald Learnard, the son of Mrs. B.M. Peach, comes from Lawrence, Mass., to spend the week-ends with his parents.

Irving Gile of Nottingham is living in the green cottage at Wadley's. He works at the fiber mill.

George James conferred a great favor on the people hereabouts last Saturday with his wide snow-plow and pair of strong horses.

Roberts' Brothers of Dover have purchased a lumber lot of H.A. Peach on the Hoard Glidden farm. Freeman Thompson has moved his sawmill from Durham Point on to the lot, and expects it will take two months to saw it.

Wilfred H. Kidder, son of Mrs. Jesse Smith, is in the navy. His enlistment expired the 18th of this month, and he is expected home soon.

Mrs. Lydia Smith, recently confined to her bed, threatened with pneumonia, is now fully recovered and doing her work. For three years she has been the secretary of the local Larkin Club.
The North Lee school, Miss Ellen Hoitt, teacher, commenced the spring term last Monday after a month's vacation.

Mrs. Annie B. Burnham and her daughter, Anna E. Raymond, of Portland, Me., have come to make their home with Mrs. Burnham's daughter, Mrs. Florence May Menter.

Walter Jones, who has suffered a long time with asthma, but has continued to work in the ship yard, has been obliged to lay off the last three weeks on account of an attack of the grippe.

Miss Mary McGuire, a former teacher at the Centre school, has been a guest at the home of Mrs. Lulu Walker since Tuesday of last week.

Ernest Menter and Forest James were released from work at the fibre mill several days last week, owing to a shortage of coal at the mill.

Oscar Bartlett, the favored son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett, weighed ten pounds when he came to Lee, and has gained two pounds a month since his arrival, thanks to a healthy climate and a well trained nurse for a mother.

Edgerton Bloom and George Revere, who have been working all winter on the Walker & Lang lumber lot in Barrington for William Ellison, came home with their teams last Friday morning. Over abundance of snow forced a shut down of the mill.

The first crow made its appearance among the various birds that are entertained at the parsonage, last Saturday morning. He has been a frequent visitor since.

John S. Jenkins is recovering from the grippe and doctor's services. Grover Smith helped do his chores.

Mrs. Isabel Whitehouse, James Lee, Charles Johnson, Walter Smith, Fred Comings, Pauline Johnson and Mrs. Winifred Johnson were witnesses from Lee, at the trial in Dover, which resulted in the sentencing of George H. Reed to serve from three to five years at hard labor in the state prison.
March 5, 1920 cont.

Doris Layne has six very nice rabbits which she takes much pleasure in caring for.

Jones Stevens went home from school last week Monday, threatened with the mumps of which he had a slight attack.

Louis Snell’s mother, Mrs. Martha Snell, of Dover is reported in a feeble condition.

Town meeting is called for Tuesday, March 9, at the town house at 10 a.m.

Leo Desmoines, who worked at Frank Randall’s farm until early winter, is now in Rochester.

Grover Smith is spending the winter at home.

Sumner Layne came home last Sunday for a few days’ visit while snow stopped his work.

Five sections of the horse sheds collapsed under the weight of snow last week.

Mrs. Freeda Oldham returned from a visit to an old friend, Mrs. Barton, of Lawrence, with whom she lived sixteen years, before her marriage to Mr. Oldham, last Saturday.

Mrs. Ernest Menter and her sister, Anna Raymond went to Boston on a visit last week and returned Monday. They report much coughing in the Hub.

Mrs. Edith Tuttle had a mild form of the mumps last week.

The electric plant which generally furnishes heat and light for the home of Arthur and Ethel Thompson is now only affording light; low water in the river is not making power for both.

Donald Thompson greatly regrets the loss of four weeks of schooling, made necessary by sickness in his home.
March 5, 1920 cont.

Our energetic snow shovelers had the roads all nicely cleared of drifts Monday night.

Ralph Wiggins hauled wood from the Durgin place to supply Ernest Menter.

Some of the latest designs of phonographs have recently been installed in Lee homes. Robert Thompson presented his mother with a splendid cabinet "Puritan," while a "Silvertone" helps to brighten the home of Ernest Menter. Your correspondent listened to some beautiful records while calling at George E. Chesley's.

The trained nurse has gone to her home from Gorham Sawyer's, where her services were long required.

Mrs. Bernice E. Hancock, the daughter of Horace Caverno of Melrose, Mass., presented her family with a little girl, Feb. 17.

Mrs. George James returned last Tuesday from Newmarket, where she has been caring for her daughter, Mrs. Frank Walker.

Robert Thompson was so as to sit up the first of the week.

Edward Hancock is spending a week's vacation with his grandparents.

--

EDITOR ADVERTISER

Dear Sir—In the last issue of your paper among the Lee items appeared the following: "No one is willing to acknowledge the responsibility of having taken the gali out of Lee." We do not realize the meaning of that word "gali," or what of great importance has recently disappeared from Lee. We may be rather dense not to understand this, but must beg of your Lee correspondent to enlighten us as to the meaning of this item.

A CITIZEN
March 12, 1920

Samuel Douglas is driving a team for Benjamin Lang.

Chesley Durgin required the services of a doctor, Monday.

John Perkins of Nottingham lately killed two pigs for Edgerton Bloom.

Madeline Caldwell, the little daughter of Frank and Florence Caldwell, fell on a hot stove Monday and burned her face.

George Revere's valuable live stock was increased Monday by the addition of a fine Holstein calf.

J. T. Bartlett returned from Boston two weeks ago and has been visiting his daughters in Newmarket and Dover, coming home Monday to attend town meeting. He looks unusually well and says he is. He left Mrs. Bartlett well at the Metropolis.

Robert Thompson got out last Saturday, and attended the citizens' caucus in the town house Monday afternoon.

Charles G. Dame, who moved to Dover about a year ago, after the death of his brother, finds life irksome outside of Lee, and will return to Newmarket and Dover Monday to attend town meeting. He looks unusually well and says he is. He left Mrs. Bartlett well at the Metropolis.

Robert Thompson got out last Saturday, and attended the citizens' caucus in the town house Monday afternoon.

Charles G. Dame, who moved to Dover about a year ago, after the death of his brother, finds life irksome outside of Lee, and will return to us as soon as his business affairs will permit.

After quite a long siege of bad colds and influenza in the family of J. F. Bessom, all are now enjoying good health.

Charles Stackpole has been loading cars this winter for S. W. Sherburn.

George Revere has been visiting his former home, Braintree, Mass., and has been to see Mrs. Revere, who is in the Thornton hospital. She is slowly improving in health.

Mrs. Stella Wentworth went to Boston last Saturday, and owing to railroad obstruction was unable to return before Monday noon.

Robert Kenniston and Lawrence Bloom, and companions, are having much sport with a double-runner of their own construction.

Friends of George Woodman are sorry to learn that he is not improving in health in Massachusetts, whether he went last fall in quest of it.

Leon Dame of Nottingham is spending the week with J. W. Harvey.

Mrs. Elizabeth Burleigh's heart trouble has reached such an acute stage as to require the constant attention of her devoted daughter, Mrs. William McFarlane, of Haverhill.

Since Will Ellison's saw-mill shut down, on account of snow, Edgerton Bloom has divided his time between breaking out roads and hauling wood from the Frost lot.
March 12, 1920 cont.

J.F. Bessom sold two cows last Monday to Joseph Cohen of Portsmouth.

Frank Haley, for many years postmaster at South Lee, died last Saturday in a Nashua hospital, while undergoing an operation. The funeral was held from the Congregational church at Epping, Wednesday.

Caverly Durgin and his sister, Evangeline, were kept from school last week by sickness.

We are sorry to have to chronicle the general apprehension that Mrs. Martha Buzzell will be permanently deprived of her sight.

Miss Grace Revere is at home this winter.

J.F. Bessom killed two fine pigs, Wednesday.

Miss Helen Granger of Oakland, Calif., who is visiting at J.W. Harvey’s, went to Rochester, stopping one day, last week.

Your correspondent regrets that his awkward attempt at punning caused any anxiety. The reference to Galilee was only a pun and does not admit of explanation.

Town meeting was held Tuesday. Fred Comings was re-elected clerk. Horace Hill, Benjamin Lang and Perry Harvey, selectmen. George B. Dudley was re-elected treasurer. The honor of collecting taxes was conferred on William H. Thompson. Highway agent for North Lee district, Warren D. Sawyer, Center district, John H. Currier, and Charles A. Piper was elected by acclamation agent for the South Lee district. Walter D. Smith was re-elected for a term of three years as trustee of trust funds. Auditors, Gorham Sawyer and Arthur J. Thompson. Library trustee, Alfred Durgin. The sum of $100 was appropriated to complete the repairs on the “New Town road.” The matter of the cement bridge was left to the judgment of the selectmen. Gorham Sawyer and Louis Snell were at their posts to see that everything was done right. The largest number of votes cast was 58. The meeting adjourned at noon.
March 19, 1920

Two of John Currier’s boys, Herbert and Willie, were at home with the mumps the first of the week.

Mrs. Emma Lee, the painstaking member of the school committee, went to Rochester last Friday, by the way of South Lee, and was met by her husband, James Lee, when she returned at night, by way of Durham.

Miss Mary Maguire, a former teacher here, substituted in a school at Newmarket while the regular teacher was sick.

A good and profitable service of worship was enjoyed in the church last Sunday, at the regular hour, 11 a.m. It is hoped there will be no further interruption of public worship.

C.H. Laughton, who lives just over the Lee line, on the road to Nottingham Center, recently returned from a trip to Haverhill, Mass., his former home, whither he went on business.

Chesley Durgin has recovered from his recent sickness and attended church with his parents, Sunday.

Mrs. H.L. Babb of Melrose, Mass., who has spent the winter with Mrs. Annie Laughton, returned to her home the first of March.

At the recent town meeting two prominent citizens were conspicuous by reason of their absence. Hon. C. Bartlett missed attending for the first time, as did also George E. Chesley. Both of these life-long citizens were kept away by advancing years.

The annual school meeting will be held at the town house next Saturday, March 20, at 2 p.m.

Alphonso Jones and Miss Nora Whitehouse, his competent housekeeper, who has prepared his meals for nearly 20 years, went to Dover last week Thursday.

Donald Thompson, after helping his mother care for several other members of the family through the mumps, came down with them last Saturday morning. Tuesday, he was reported better.

Ralph Wiggin butchered for John Walker in Newmarket last Saturday, and tarried in his home town over night.

The national census just taken discloses, what many expected, that the population of Lee is rapidly and deservedly increasing.

Grace Revere spent two days last week with Eva Magnan.

Miss Mary Maguire and Mrs. John
March 19, 1920 cont.

Miss Mary Maguire and Mrs. John Currier visited the Centre school last week Thursday. Mrs. Currier has three budding boys in the school.

Mrs. Charles Case has been visiting with relatives in Haverhill, Mass. Master George Peter Thompson, her fortunate infantile charge, is with her.

James A. Johnson and wife and their daughter, Mrs. Edward Soule, have all recovered from the flu.

Walter York came up from Haverhill, Mass., to be with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Burleigh, over Sunday. He brought her a large bunch of beautiful carnations.

William Harvey has been hauling dry wood to supply Newmarket this winter.

Robert Thompson went to Concord last Monday, to attend to some business matters for his employer, Nehemiah Snell.

Dean Burnham, a noted fisherman from Maine, came last Monday to spend a day with his wife and daughter, Mrs. Annie Burnham and Mrs. Florence Menter.

Mrs. Stella Wentworth, the teacher at the Center school, accompanied James Lee to Durham last Friday night, on her way home to Madbury.

Nehemiah Snell was attacked with the mumps last Friday.

Miss Virginia Menter went with her mother and aunt, Anna Raymond, to Nashua, Saturday, to see Ernest Menter's grandmother, who is very sick.

Frank Burleigh is home, helping to take care of his mother. She is hopeful of her recovery.

Mrs. Mary M. Sawtelle, Joseph and Frances Mulholland, who spent last winter with Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Laughton, became so attached to Lee that they could not stay away, and they are with us again this winter.

Mrs. Kelpha Magnan and daughter, Mary, spent last week Thursday in Dover. Mary met her former schoolmate, Mary Smith, who is enjoying a course in the Dover high school.

George Revere returned home from Braintree, Mass., last week.

James B. Johnson has been sick nearly all winter. He is better now and out around, after having been carefully housed at the home of Charles Case.

Alfred Magnan, who has been prevented from following his grocery peddling business by bad weather and traveling, was able to begin the season's work, Tuesday.

Miss Gretchen Mulholland, a teacher in the schools at Danvers, Mass., visited her aunt, Mrs. Annie Laughton, a week, returning to her duties last week Tuesday.

The much-delayed January thaw has at last come. Sleighing is nearly over.
March 26, 1920

Arthur McDaniel was elected tax collector at the annual meeting of the town of Nottingham.

William Caldwell and Lyford Wiggin went to Dover last Friday.

Frank McComber, who has worked for George E. Chesley this winter, has got through and returned to Boston.

Herbert and Willie Currier have recovered from the mumps, and went to school Monday.

Roadside rock-maple trees are now yielding luscious sap. It commenced running freely last Sunday.

Monday of last week Willys Tuttle came home with a new horse, which he purchased in Everett, Mass.

Mrs. George F. Harding, formerly Adelaide Matthews, now of Evanston, Ill., has presented the Lee library with two copies of her latest book, "Italy and Austria in Contrast."

Miss Lucia Plumer is enjoying three weeks rest at home from her teaching in Littleton, N.H., where she is having fine success.

Frank Caldwell hauled a load of hay to Dover last Monday on a sled, but he says he won't try it again.

Kenneth Fogg finished working for Seth Sherburne last Monday, and went home.

Rev. M. H. Babcock visited his brother, Charles S. Babcock, in Candia last week.

When George Chesley went to his barn last Monday morning he discovered that a valuable cow and calf had died during the night. Two of Gorham Sawyer's boys removed the pelts.

The church society will hold a candy-pull and pop-corn social in the vestry, Tuesday evening, Apr. 6.

Frank Randall's folks are serving a very fine quality of 1920 sap on their table.

The South Lee school will close Friday. The teacher, Miss Greta Gulliver, will spend the two weeks' vacation at her home in Auburn, Me.

Horace Hill went to Dover, Tuesday, with two calves that he dressed Monday.

Alfred Durgin sold two cows last week to William Lee.

Mrs. Florence Caldwell and Mrs. Mary Fall went to Dover, Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Jones went to Somersworth last week Wednesday, to see her sister, Mrs. Warren Grant.

Sumner Layne came home last Friday and returned to his work the first of the week.

Helen Granger visited relatives in Concord for a week.

The remains of the late Frank...
March 26, 1920 cont.

The remains of the late Frank Haley will be in the receiving tomb until spring and then buried in the family graveyard on the old Haley farm.

Mrs. Stella Wentworth went to West Brookfield, Mass., Monday, to attend the funeral of her mother’s sister, returning Wednesday morning.

Parkman Haley is assisting his mother in the South Lee post-office.

Miss Gulliver had a pleasant visit recently with Mrs. Stiles.

Horace Hill has butchered five fat cows this winter, to save hay. He finds a ready market for the beef in Dover.

A pet cat at the Cartland Farm expired the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall called last Sunday to cheer their neighbor, Mrs. Emily Wiggin, for whom they have expressed much sympathy during her long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGarry, who bought the farm on which Mr. Wheeler has lived for nine years, came from Boston, Feb. 22. They were accompanied by Mrs. McGarry’s sister, Miss Elizabeth Cronin, who had the misfortune to sprain her ankle and has been confined to the house since Dr. Fernald has attended her.

The social committee of the church society, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mrs. Granville B. Thompson and Mrs. Nellie Durgin, met at Granville Thompson’s, Sunday afternoon and appointed sub-committees for each month of the year.

The annual school meeting was held in the town hall last Saturday, 42 being present, in spite of the severe storm. Arthur J. Thompson was elected moderator; Frank J. Caldwell, clerk; Horace B. Hill, treasurer; Gorham Sawyer and Fred C. York, auditors. William H. Thompson was chosen on the school board for one year, to fill the unexpired term of the chairman, Mrs. A.C. Lee, resigned. Fred P. Comings was elected on the board for three years. Supt. Justin O. Wellman held close attention while he ably explained the junior high school proposition. The motion to bond the town to raise the funds for a new schoolhouse lost out. The sum of $600 was voted to remodel the Centre schoolhouse. The sum of $3,591.00 was appropriated for general school expenses. Supt. Wellman complimented Lee children on their brightness and scholarly aptitude.
March 26, 1920 cont.

The Magnolia Club, including the following members, Miss Florence Corson, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Mary Fall, Mrs. Frank Caldwell, Mrs. Emma Corson, Mrs. Mabel Layne, Mrs. Edna Bartlett, Mrs. Elizabeth Snell, Mrs. Helen MacRae, and Mrs. Ethel Tebbetts, met last week Thursday at the home of Seth Sherburne. A social good time and light refreshments made a pleasant afternoon.

George Corson is helping George Chesley with his work.

Nehemiah Snell’s new engine for his mill has arrived and is now in use.

Mrs. Louis Knox has accepted a position in one of the Dover shoe shops.

Edward Caldwell hauled a load of wood to Dover, Monday.

Ellsworth Garrity, Edward Farrell, Clarence Fernald, Walter Sawyer and Charles Johnson got busy last week and sawed four hundred cakes of ice for Chester Ellison.

The Missionary Society will meet at Alfred Durgin’s, April 1st, at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell are now nicely settled on the first floor of the family residence. His parents are cozily situated in the remodeled part of the house.
April 2, 1920

Alice Dudley, who has been at home during a ten days’ vacation, returned Tuesday morning to resume her studies at Kimball Union Academy, Meriden. Her school friend, Arne Martin, of Hartland, Vt., came and returned with her.

William Thompson made a business trip to Newmarket, Wednesday of last week.

Beginning next Sunday the church services will be held in the large auditorium.

Mrs. Isabel Whitehouse, with Richard and Dorothy, have been enjoying a vacation visit with her older children in Rochester, Milton and Middleton.

Miss Belle Tuttle, who divides her time between Swampscott, Mass., and her old home here, is now here on business and will remain as long as she possibly can.

Not to be out of fashion, Forrest James came in on the home run of the mump race, and being eager to reach the goal, contracted a setback, and was still confined to his bed the first of the week.

Don’t forget the candy-pull and pop-corn sociable at the vestry next Tuesday night, April 6.

The water has been very high at Wadley’s Falls and the fibre mill was obliged to shut down one day last week on account of it. The people got uneasy about the bridges, but the water is subsiding without doing any harm.

Edwin A. Thompson of Andover, Mass., visited at Hilltop Farm over the week-end.

There is a big contest now on for new members at the Grange, to last until the first meeting in May. Arthur McDaniel and Ellsworth Garrity, with their selected followers, are pitted against each other. The losing side is to furnish a chicken supper to the public. In case there is a draw, both sides will give a supper on different nights.

Those who take a pride in beautifying the town are looking forward to the time when there will be a splendid monument on the inviting square in front of James B. Walker’s store.

Mr. Wheeler, who recently sold his large farm to John McGarry, has moved his family to Brookline, Mass., where he will pursue his profession as architect.

Mrs. Carrie Chesley and daughter, Miss Winnifred, after spending a pleasant winter in Boston, have returned to their delightful residence in Lee, to enjoy the summer.
April 2, 1920 cont.

Mrs. Emma Corson went to Dover last week Wednesday and visited with relatives over Sunday.

Charles Johnson, with his sawing-machine and the assistance of Frank Burleigh and Thomas Stevens, quickly sawed 14 cords of wood for James B. Walker one day last week.

Thompson’s sawmill is now running full blast on the Glidden lot.

Mrs. Harry Smith, who has given close attention to her home duties the past winter, as usual, has recently visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Durrell, at Newmarket.

Mrs. Margaret Child has been quite seriously ill of late. Mrs. George James, her nearest neighbor, Mrs. Winnifred Johnson and Edith Fernald have ministered to her comfort.

Mrs. Anna Coleman is stopping at present with Jennie Huston, both have yielded to the irresistible call to return to Lee.

John Randall, Jr., 9 years old, of Washington, D.C., recently wrote a newsy letter to his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Randall, that would have done credit to one much older and afforded the family great pleasure.

Donald Learnard and Robert Thompson spent Sunday at the home of Henry Peach.

Clarence Fernald butchered for Charles Dame, at his Dover home, Monday.

James B. Walker got out his “auto” last Monday.

Ernest Whitehouse and John Twombly of Middletown spent the week-end with Harvey Whitehouse.

Mrs. Mary and Edith Fernald accompanied one another to Durham last week Thursday.

William Jones, who has wintered at C.C. Fernald’s, has gone to Alton.

Mrs. Annie Burnham has returned to Portland.

Four promising young calves have been added to H.A. Peach’s interest in farming.

Frank Caldwell went to Malden, Mass., last Saturday, with his family, to see Mrs. Caldwell’s folks. William Caldwell met them at Durham on their return, Wednesday afternoon.

The school at the Centre will close Friday. Mrs. Wentworth, the teacher, will spend the vacation at her lakeside home in Acton.

The following social church committees have been appointed for 1920.

For the candy-pull and pop-corn sociable, April 6, the whole committee.

May 4—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin.

May 18—Strawberry festival, Mrs. Alice Sawyer and Miss Esther Garrity.

June—Frank Caldwell and Ethel H. Thompson.

July—Mrs. Laura Randall and Martha Caldwell.

August—Lawn party, Miss Mary Chesley, Ellsworth Garrity, Marion Cram, William Thompson.

September—Men’s supper, Arthur Thompson, George Dudley.

October—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

November—Mrs. Grace Dudley, Mrs. Jessie Smith, Mrs. Helen Wiggin.

December—Church sale by the whole church.
April 9, 1920

The young lawyer and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. C.
April 16, 1920

Homer Johnson accompanied Mrs. Winnifred G. Johnson to Dover last Saturday.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plumer died last Saturday.

Mrs. Winnifred Robinson of Epping visited her mother, Mrs. Ellen Thompson, at the Cartland farm, last week.

Through the kindness of friends, some very excellent quality of maple syrup of local production has found its way on to the parsonage table.

Miss Elizabeth Sawyer of Dover will deliver an address at the church next Wednesday, at 2.30 p.m., on the programme of the Interchurch World Movement of North America. Everybody is urged to be there.

The people of the town were much shocked and grieved by the sudden death of their highly esteemed fellow-citizen, Louis Snell, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith spent several days with their son, Roy, in Haverhill, Mass.

A large quartered-oak, roll-top desk is for sale at the parsonage.

Fred Coffin has moved his family to Epping and Mr. Kirkwood of Portland has moved his family into the house vacated by Mr. Coffin.

Miss Alga Carlson of Dorchester, Albert Durell of Somerville and Geo. D. Smith of Lynn were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Charles Coleman and Fred Huston motored from Boston and spent Sunday at their homes here.

Mrs. James Lee and Maurice Lee were in Dover Saturday.

Mrs. F.O. Tyler of East Barrington visited her sister at the Cartland Farm last Friday, while Rev. Mr. Tyler attended the county conference of the Interchurch World Movement at Rochester.

Marion Walker was deprived of the out-of-door pleasure of the latter part of the school vacation by illness.

Charles Hobbs is now working at home.

Warren Sawyer has returned from the hospital, where he underwent an operation on his throat. He is recovering nicely.

The Dover high school scholars of Lee have returned to school.

Mrs. Davis Fogg and Mrs. Sarah Randall of Boston comforted and assisted their sister, Mrs.
Elizabeth Snell, during her great affliction.

Esther Garrity has enjoyed a visit with friends in Dover.

Mrs. Edith Fernald has indulged in a two weeks’
vacation from her household duties by visiting friends and relatives in Haverhill and other places in Massachusetts.

Rev. M.H. Babcock drove to Rochester last Friday to attend the county conference of the Interchurch World Movement.

Mrs. John S. Jones of Farmington is visiting her brother, Clarence Fernald.

Marion Walker was deprived of the out-of-door pleasure of the latter part of the school vacation by illness.

Charles Hobbs is now working at home.

Warren Sawyer has returned from the hospital, where he underwent an operation on his throat. He is recovering nicely.

The Dover high school scholars of Lee have returned to school.

Mrs. Davis Fogg and Mrs. Sarah Randall of Boston comforted and assisted their sister, Mrs.
Elizabeth Snell, during her great affliction.

Esther Garrity has enjoyed a visit with friends in Dover.

Mrs. Edith Fernald has indulged in a two weeks’
vacation from her household duties by visiting friends and relatives in Haverhill and other places in Massachusetts.

Rev. M.H. Babcock drove to Rochester last Friday to attend the county conference of the Interchurch World Movement.

Mrs. John S. Jones of Farmington is visiting her brother, Clarence Fernald.
April 23, 1920

As Rev. M.H. Babcock, for some time our Lee correspondent, is about to leave town, we would like to secure the services of some one in that town to act in that capacity. Will some one kindly volunteer, and thus help “keep Lee on the map”?

Mrs. John L. Randall of Washington, D.C., is expecting her sister, Mrs. George M. Strout, and her husband, for a few days’ visit, on their way from South Carolina to Brooklyn, N.Y.

April 30, 1920

Harry Smith went to Portsmouth last Saturday on business.

Mr. Richards of Boston repaired the rope drive at the fibre mill last week.

Jacob Cilley spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Lydia Cilley, at Nottingham, who has been quite ill.

James Rollins has bought a new horse recently of Will Lee.

Austin Caswell and family are stopping at Jay Demeritt’s. Mr. Caswell is working in the fibre mill.

Nehemiah Snell is moving his mill from the Piper lot to the Stevens lot in Nottingham.

Mrs. Mary Allen and son of Epping visited friends in Lee and Newmarket recently.

Mrs. Henry Small is suffering with rheumatism.

Mrs. Mary Currier, who is quite feeble, has gone to Epping to live with her daughter.

Fred Coffin, formerly of Lee, now of Epping, has been quite ill with the grip and mumps.

Bradbury Caswell has been quite ill. Dr. Fernald attended him.

Mrs. Harry Parker and Elmer Parker of Nottingham visited at Henry Small’s, Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Blaisdell, who has been caring for her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Harvey, returned to her home in Epping Monday.