January 7, 1921

Mrs. Rebecca Hill of Charlestown, Mass., is caring for Mrs. William Lee, who is now able to sit up.

Alexander McRae, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec McRae, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is improving.

The annual meeting of the Congregational church was held in the vestry Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice N. Layn of Dover and their daughter, Mrs. Warren Mills, of El Paso, Texas, were visitors at Benton E. Layne's, Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker of Dover called at Alphonso Jones', Tuesday of this week.

The children in town who have been ill with the measles are all reported to be improving.

Seth W. Sherburne, who has been ill at his home with a severe cold, is able to resume his work again.

Miss Helen Layne, who has been spending the holidays at her home, from her studies at the Plymouth Normal school, has gone to Strafford to teach for two weeks.

The newly elected officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange will be installed at their regular meeting, Tuesday evening, Jan. 11, by District Deputy Harold H. Hayes of Madbury. Patuccoway Grange of Nottingham and Lamprey River Grange of Newmarket will be the guests of the evening.

Commissioner E. W. Butterfield of Concord will give an address in the Newmarket town hall, Monday afternoon, Jan. 10, at 2:30 o'clock. See Newmarket items.
January 14, 1921

Mrs. Katherine Garrity Jones has gone to the Wentworth hospital at Dover to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

The jurors drawn to serve at the February term of the Superior Court at Dover are, Grand, Perry Harvey, petit, Fred P. Comings.

Mrs. William Caldwell has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Miner Fall, in Dover.

Rev. Donald Babcock from New Hampshire College will conduct services at the vestry every Sunday at 11 o’clock until further notice.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church ten members were present and the following officers were elected: Moderator, Arthur J. Thompson, clerk, Mrs. Nellie J. Durgin, treasurer, Arthur W. McDaniel, deacon for 2 years, Arthur McDaniel church committee, Mrs. Laura A. Randall, Mrs. Abbie H. Chesley, Mrs. Martha A. Caldwell, warden, Ira B. Hill, Alfred C. Durgin, William H. Thompson auditor, Alfred C. Durgin, social committee, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mrs. Nellie J. Durgin, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Superintendent of Sunday School Mrs. Mary F. Thompson, Asst. Superintendent, Arthur McDaniel, secretary and treasurer, Arthur J. Thompson. The reports of the various departments were given. Arthur McDaniel, treasurer, reported the church in a good financial condition. Arthur J. Thompson gave the secretary and treasurer’s report of the Sunday School. Mrs. Martha Casdwell reported for the Woman’s Missionary Society.
Lee's contribution to the Near East Relief fund was $14.

Miss Pauline Johnson is ill at her home with the measles.

Mrs. Walter Jones, who is staying in Durham this winter, is on the sick list with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Katherine Jones underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Wentworth Hospital, Dover, Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Belle Garrity had the misfortune recently of losing a horse. It slipped on the ice and broke its leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernald entertained guests from Haverhill, Mass., last week.

Gorham Sawyer writes from Orlando, Fla., where he is spending the winter, that his health is very much improved, he likes very much and greatly enjoys the climate. The temperature registers around 72 degrees most of the time. Mr. Sawyer anticipates a fine time while he stays there.

Allen Harvey has installed an electric lighting system in his garage recently.

William Small of Fremont was a recent visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Small.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkwood of Nashua and son, Robert, of Portsmouth, were week-end visitors at the old farm.
Mrs. Edna Pierce and Miss Edith n.b. visited their brother, Carl Townsend, at Rochester, last Saturday and Sunday.

[n.b] a former resident of this town, is dangerously ill at his home in Milford, N. H.

Mrs. Chester F. Tebbetts of East Rochester spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell.

Seth W. Sherburne is ill at home with the prevailing epidemic.

The farmers are busy harvesting their ice.

The following officers of Jeremiah Smith Grange were installed by Deputy Harold Hayes of Dover, assisted by Miss Vienna Smith of Patuccoway Grange, Nottingham, Jan. 12, in a very able manner.

Master, Arthur W. McDaniel
Overseer, Ellsworth Garrity
Lecturer, Mercy McDaniel
Steward, Grover Smith
Asst. Steward, Dexter Lane
Chaplain, Arthur J. Thompson
Treasurer, R. Carl Sanders
Secretary, Grace B. Dudley
Gate Keeper, Melvin Wilson
Pomona, Doris James
Flora, Belle Garrity
Lady Asst. Steward, Grace Wellington

After the installation, lunch was served, followed by a very fine programme given by the lecturer.
Lee.

Nehemiah Snell went to Raymond, Monday, on business. Miss Amanda L. Randall visited friends in Dover, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

There was a special meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Horace Caverno is visiting her son, Lewis Caverno, at Lowell, Mass.

Chester Ellison is having the large oak trees beside the road in front of his house cut down.

Nehemiah Snell is moving his portable saw mill from Nottingham on to the college lot in Durham. He has taken the job of sawing the lumber which is being cut there.

The Lee Hill school closed Monday for a week, on account of the prevalence of the measles.

Mrs. Frank Oldham has installed a telephone in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham have returned from Wellesley Hills, Mass., where they attended the funeral of Mr. Oldham's father, who for many years was superintendent of the water system there, and constructed the twin light houses on Thatcher's island, and was a public man in many ways.

Five of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith have been suffering from measles, some of them being seriously ill for several weeks.

Letters from Mrs. George E. Chesley, who, with her family, are located at 305 Savosata avenue, Bradentown, Fla, for the winter, describe a very pleasant journey south, with the meeting of friends by the way, and the beautiful climate, flowers and fruits, which they enjoy so much, and which seem to add strength to their feebleness. Mrs. Chesley writes a most wonderful letter and does not lose her interest in life, as her years tend towards the four score mark.

February 4, 1921

Nehemiah Snell went to Raymond, Monday, on business.

Miss Amanda L. Randall visited friends in Dover, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

There was a special meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Horace Caverno is visiting her son, Lewis Caverno, at Lowell, Mass.

Chester Ellison is having the large oak trees beside the road in front of his house cut down.

Nehemiah Snell is moving his portable saw mill from Nottingham on to the college lot in Durham. He has taken the job of sawing the lumber which is being cut there.

The Lee Hill school closed Monday for a week, on account of the prevalence of the measles.

Mrs. Frank Oldham has installed a telephone in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldham have returned from Wellesley Hills, Mass., where they attended the funeral of Mr. Oldham's father, who for many years was superintendent of the water system there, and constructed the twin light houses on Thatcher's island, and was a public man in many ways.

Five of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith have been suffering from measles, some of them being seriously ill for several weeks.

Letters from Mrs. George E. Chesley, who, with her family, are located at 305 Savosata avenue, Bradentown, Fla, for the winter, describe a very pleasant journey south, with the meeting of friends by the way, and the beautiful climate, flowers and fruits, which they enjoy so much, and which seem to add strength to their feebleness. Mrs. Chesley writes a most wonderful letter and does not lose her interest in life, as her years tend towards the four score mark.
February 11, 1921

Miss Grace Revere visited in Dover recently.

Mrs. Arthur Wiggin has taken her little son, Herbert, to Boston, where he will receive treatment for an injured knee.

John French, Elmer Keniston and Norman DeMerritt are chopping wood for William Harvey of Nottingham. They all live together in a camp, and they enjoy it very much.

Mrs. Benton Layne spent last Sunday with friends in Lowell, Mass.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiggin, a daughter, Mildred Gladys.

Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. George McDaniel, last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wiggin, a daughter, Mildred Gladys.

Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. George McDaniel, last week.

Mrs. Emily (Swett) Wiggin, a highly esteemed resident of this town died at her home very suddenly last Saturday morning of heart trouble. She was born in Parsonfield, Me., June 11, 1842, the only daughter of Josiah and Clara (Bickford) Swett. Much of her early life was spent in her native town, where she taught school. She married Lyford M. Wiggin and lived in Tuftonboro until 19 years ago, when they came to Lee. Mrs. Wiggin took an active interest in all public affairs and made many friends. She was especially interested in the Grange and church, of which she was a member. She has been a great sufferer, having the misfortune of fracturing her hip three years ago, since which she has been confined to her bed and wheelchair. She is survived by her husband. The funeral services were held at her late home, Tuesday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Coe of the First Parish Church, Dover. The floral tributes were beautiful. The bearers were Horace G. Hill, Alphonso Jones, Alexander McRae and William S. Caldwell. Burial was in the family lot on the home place.
February 18, 1921

John Clark had the misfortune to lose his horse recently.

Mrs. Ernest Menter visited relatives in Portland, Me., and Boston, Mass., recently.

Mrs. Helen Wiggin and son have returned from Boston.

Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small.

Those on the sick list are: Mr. and Mrs. Bradbury Caswell, Beatrice Davis and Mrs. Henry Small.

Mrs. Frank Oldham entertained a party of twelve ladies at her home on Tuesday afternoon.

Because of the severity of the epidemic of measles, the schools will be closed for another week.

On account of the storm Monday, there was no school on the North Side.

Jeremiah Smith Grange will observe its 31st anniversary Friday evening, Feb. 23, at Grange Hall. There will be a supper followed by a speaker and other exercises appropriate for the occasion. The public are cordially invited.

Rev. F. O. Tyler has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Congregational church in Barrington, having served there for over four years. An effort is being made to have him reconsider and remain.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Burgess and family, also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts of Dover were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benton F. Layne last Sunday.

Charles Dame recently dressed a hog that weighed 685 pounds.

Miss Mildred Sprague and Miss Leola Fogg of Durham, who are teaching school in Barrington, decided of reaching home last Friday night, decided to brave the elements, snow shooting a distance of ten miles. Mr. Sprague met them in Lee and conveyed them home. They reported an enjoyable time on the trip.
February 25, 1921

Miss Edith Fernald who is teaching school in Franklin, was home over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Davis of Portland, Me., former residents of Lee, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mary A. Bennett of Newmarket and attended the 23rd anniversary of Lamprey River Grange.

Miss Helen Layne has been at home from Plymouth normal school for a few days.

Mrs. Childs who has been visiting in Massachusetts, has returned, and is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Fernald.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Caldwell are spending a month in Dover with their daughter, Mrs. Miner L. Fall.

Frank J. Davis, our representative at Concord, has been staying in Dover with his sister, Mrs. Anna Jenkins, who has been ill with pneumonia. He was to have given a talk on the Sunday Law at the church service last Sunday, but was prevented on account of the storm.

The North Side school has been closed for two days this week on account of the snow.

Mrs. Katherine Jones who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is improving and able to be about again.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held at the hall last Tuesday evening. The town warrant was discussed and the second degree was conferred on Homer Johnson. The programme for the 10th anniversary this Friday evening, will consist of readings by Arthur W. McDaniel, History of the Grange, Grace B. Dudley, music, Mrs. Marion Cram, J.O. Wellman of Newmarket will speak on the constitutional amendments. Sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

E.O. Fifield of Milford has sent his auto truck to his farm in Lee twice this winter, to move hay from his barn to Milford. Mr. Fifield was in the hospital in Nashua three weeks, having an operation performed. When able to leave he returned to his home in Milford, and is now gaining slowly.

Edwin Thompson of Andover visited his mother, Mrs. Lucy Thompson, also his brother, Arthur J. Thompson, one day recently.
March 4, 1921

J. Wesley Harvey has returned from California, where he has spent the last few months. Mrs. Harvey and daughter have returned from Epping, where they have been stopping with Mrs. Harvey’s parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Small of Fremont, Miss Cora Lougee of Kingston and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter were visitors at Henry Small’s, Sunday.

Walter Thurston, who has been sick with rheumatism for nine months, was worse Friday. Dr. Fernald was called at once and he is more comfortable.

Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Caswell are able to be out again, after suffering with severe colds.

Mrs. Noble, who has been sick for several months, is gaining very slowly. Her daughter, a teacher in the Junior High at Newmarket, resigned her position to care for her.

Mr. H. Hill is making extensive improvements in his house.

Miss Lucia Plumer, a teacher in Portsmouth, returned to her school Saturday, after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Plumer.

Mrs. Fred Coffin, a former Lee resident, now living in Epping, called on friends in town recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones and the Misses Ethel Dame and Grace Revere, drove to Dover Tuesday evening, to attend the entertainment and dance, given by the Knights of Pythias.

Fred Allen of Epping, is spending a few days in town.

Melvin Wilson, who has worked on the Ferguson farm for several months, has gone back to his home in Vermont.

Greta Gulliver, the teacher at the South school, was entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stiles’, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Wiggin took little Herbert to the hospital in Boston for treatment, last Monday, returning home Saturday night.

John Clark has purchased a horse of Mr. Stillson of Epping.

Alice DeMeritt spent the day in Rochester, Friday.
March 4, 1921 cont.

Harry Putman sold seven young cattle and two cows to W. Harvey of Nottingham.

Mrs. W.P. Tuttle and daughter Louise, were Manchester visitors, Friday.

Mrs. Bertha Plumer and two sons spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Stillson, of Epping.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson is sick with a cold, also Raymond Jordan.

There will be a meeting at the town hall this (Friday) evening to discuss the constitutional amendments. A member of the convention will be the speaker.

Willis Fernald of Nottingham is spending a few days with his father, Loren S. Fernald.

Earl Cate of Groton, Conn., visited Lyford Wiggin the past week.

School meeting will be held Saturday, March 19, at the town hall.

Miss Florence Corson is enjoying a week's visit in Dover.

Nehemiah Snell lost a valuable horse this past week.

Eastern New Hampshire Pomona Grange will meet with Dover Grange on Thursday, March 17.

The 30th anniversary of Jeremiah Smith Grange was observed last Friday evening at Grange Hall. The programme was as follows:

Community Singing
Address, J.O. Wellman
Reading, Arthur W. McDaniel
Music, Marion Cram
Address, Mr. F. Davis
Grange History, George Dudley
Community Singing.

Remarks were made by the five Past Masters present, also by George A. Bennett, Master of Lamprey River Grange. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable time reported by all.
March 11, 1921

Miss Gladys Demeritt spent the week-end with friends in Epping.

Mr. and Mrs. H.P. Haley formerly of Lee, now of Anderson, N.H., were visitors at Mr. Haley's mother's Sunday.

Mrs. E. J. Gerrish and granddaughter Doris Jones, of Haverhill, Mass., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones.

J.T. Bartlett, who is spending the winter in Boston, is at the farm for a few days. He called on W.J. Thurston Monday.

Master Herbert Wiggin has returned home from the hospital, and is able to walk with the aid of a crutch. He is a little fellow, only six years old.

Herbert Gile entertained visitors from Manchester one day last week.

Mrs. Charles Allen is spending a few weeks with her son, Fred in Epping.

Mr. and Mrs. John Piper and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Robinson in Nottingham.

Paul Cilley and Ruth Revere drove to Dover Saturday evening to attend the basket-ball game.

Mrs. W.A. Plumer spent Wednesday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Harvey in Nottingham who has as a guest for a few weeks her daughter, Mrs. Frank Cockburn of Silver Creek, N.Y.

Several Lee people went to Epping Monday, going by train because the roads are in such a bad condition.

Arthur Carpenter spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. W.W. Plumer.

John French who works in Nottingham, is in town for a few days.

Several Boston people were at the McGerry farm for the week-end.

John C. Bartlett is in very poor health, and is confined to the house.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance considering the traveling. The first and second degrees were conferred and the lecturer presented the following programme. Discussion by the Grange, reading of the State Master's Address by Arthur J. Thompson, music and singing by the Grange.

The annual town election was held Tuesday, when the following officers were elected: Town Clerk Fred P. Comings, selectman for 1 year, Frank L. Caldwell, selectman for 2 years, Benjamin Lang, selectman for 3 years, Fred C. York, town treasurer, George A. Dudley tax collector, James B. Walker, highway agents, North Side, Loren S. Fernald, Centre, John Currier, South Side, Charles Piper. The town voted to raise $2,000 more than required by law and also voted to accept state aid. The vote on the amendments was as follows: Question 1, yes 32, no 38; Question 2 yes 35, no 35; Question 3 yes 39, no 31; Question 4, yes 34, no 27.
March 18, 1921

Jay Demeritt had business in Nashua last Monday.

Harry Putman spent the week-end with his family.

Mrs. John Clark visited friends in Fremont, Sunday.

Mrs. Flossie Menter and Miss Grace Revere were Dover visitors the first of the week.

The roads are very bad in places, and keep our road agents busy making them passable.

Mrs. Arthur Gerrish and daughter Hazel, with Mrs. Harry Davis of Nottingham, called on friends in town recently.

Elmer Keniston of Nottingham spent the week-end with Charlie Revere. Mr. Revere of Braintree, Mass., also spent the week-end with his family.

Mrs. Winfield Robinson of Epping formerly Josephine Thompson of this town, is in Boston slowly recovering from a very serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith entertained Mrs. Bertha Wiggin of Epping a few days.

William O. Thompson, a former resident of Lee, now of New York, called on his mother Mrs. Nellie Thompson, at the Cartland Farm, Monday. After a few days in town he will go to Washington, D.C.

Miss Grace Wellington is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Gray at North Berwick, Me.

Mrs. Albert Dudley and children are able to be out again, having been confined to the house the past few weeks with the measles.

Mr. Bloom is very busy sawing wood for the farmers. He has Austin Caswell to help him.

Mrs. Wallace Stiles and Miss Greta Gulliver attended the Grange meeting at Epping, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stillson of Epping spent Friday with Mrs. Walter Plumer.
March 25, 1921

W.B. Caswell is shingling his barn and making other improvements.

Hiram Kelsey of Newmarket called on W.J. Thurston last Wednesday.

Mrs. Leon Mayo, Mrs. William Lee, Mrs. Harry Putman and Miss Greta Gulliver were visitors in Rochester last week.

Fred Huston of Boston was a week-end visitor at his summer home, the Furber place.

Mrs. Belle Burnham and daughter of Portland are spending a few weeks at Mrs. Flossie Menter's.

Several from this vicinity attended the automobile show in Boston last week.

Mrs. Charlie Davis is slowly convalescing from a severe case of tonsillitis.

Gladys Demeritt is spending a few days in Epping, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith are making extensive repairs on the house they recently bought of Mrs. Alice Glidden.

Mrs. John Piper returned home Friday, after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Robinson, at Nottingham.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkwood of Nashua and Robert Kirkwood of Portsmouth were week-end visitors at the farm.

Ethel Dame and Grace Revere drove to Durham, Saturday evening, to attend a dance.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley and daughter, Miss Mary, who have spent three months in Florida, started for home March 21, and expect to be in Washington, Easter. Alfred C. Durgin and family also started for Lee by auto last week.

Miss Alice Demeritt was a visitor at the home of Loren S. Fernald last week.
March 25, 1921 cont.

Miss Amanda L. Randall returned last Saturday from Boston, where she has been spending a few days.

Walter Jones and family have moved back to the farm this week for the summer.

Sumner Layn is at home from Barrington for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis DeMeritt, who have been spending the winter in Rochester, will return next week.

David B. Bartlett is the guest of his parents in Manchester for a few days.

The North Side school will close Friday for a short vacation.

Nehemiah Snell is moving his sawmill from Durham to Raymond this week, where he has a large lot to operate.

Seven members of Jeremiah Smith Grange attended the meeting of Eastern New Hampshire Pomona Grange at Dover last week.

The school meeting was held last Saturday afternoon and the following officers elected: Moderator, Benton E. Layne, clerk, David B. Bartlett, member of school board for three years, William H. Thompson, treasurer, Frank I. Caldwell, auditors, James B. Walker, Granville Thompson.

At the regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange, Tuesday evening, the third degree was conferred on two candidates. A very enjoyable programme was presented by the lecturer, as follows: Music by the Grange, recitation, John Sawyer, discussion, "What would you do if you were twenty-one", special feature, potato race. A goodly number were present.
April 1, 1921

Mrs. Jenkins, who has been working at Mr. Nobles' for several months, has returned to her home in Northwood for the summer.

Mary Allen is very ill with pneumonia. Dr. Fernald of Nottingham attends her.

William Brown, a cattle dealer of Raymond, was in town Wednesday, buying cattle.

Ruth Revere spent several days in Epping, visiting friends.

Arthur Wiggin had business in Rochester, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Robinson of Nottingham, spent Friday at Mr. and Mrs. John Piper's. Master Frank Piper returned with them, to spend a part of his vacation.

Mrs. Ida Parker of Nottingham is in town taking care of her mother, Mrs. Henry Small, who is suffering from pleurisy. W. Small of Fremont called on his parents Wednesday.

Richard Strout of New Jersey, recently returned from England, was entertained at the home of his uncle, Ben Lang, the first of the week.

E. Thompson of Andover recently spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Thompson, at Hilltop farm.

Charles Davis and family, who have spent the winter with Mrs. Currier, have moved to Epping.

Mrs. L.G. Chesley and daughter have returned to their farm, having spent the winter in Boston.

Robert Kenerston of Newmarket visited in town last week.

Frank Dearborn and family have returned from Wolfeboro, where they have been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Jennie Haley.

Alex McRae has been repairing his house this week.

Charles Stackpole is spending a few days with his niece, Mrs. Clara Frost, at Eliot, Me.

Mrs. Susan P. Layne is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Roberts, at Dover.

Benjamin Lang and Frank Caldwell attended the meeting of the state tax commission in Dover last week.

Charles Caldwell of Medford, Mass., is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell.

The New England Brick Co. at Hoitt's Crossing are to begin work about April 1st.

Helen Layne is at home for two weeks' vacation from the Plymouth normal school.

Charles Dame was in town last week, looking after his interests on the home place.

The time has come to be on the lookout for forest fires. There were two in town last week, one in Alphonso Jones' pasture and the other near Lee depot.

The farm buildings of Fred Carl York, in the Hook, were totally destroyed by fire early Tuesday afternoon. Some of the furniture was removed from the house, and the livestock was saved. Members of the Newmarket fire department did effective work in saving goods. The cause was supposed to be a defective chimney.
April 8, 1921

Arthur Davis has returned to his home here after spending several months in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peach are making extensive improvements on their tenements at Wadley’s Falls.

Charles Allen had business in Dover Thursday.

Mrs. Alice Demeritt was a Rochester visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkwood have returned to the farm for the summer, having spent the winter in Portsmouth.

Charles Ferguson of Boston was a week-end visitor at his farm formerly the Albert Davis farm.

Raymond Jordan is working on the Ferguson farm.

Mrs. Austin Caswell spent last Monday with Mrs. Harry Davis, in Nottingham.

Mrs. William V. Plumer is spending a few days in Northwood, with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plumer.

Mrs. Edith Cook went to the Exeter hospital last Saturday for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plumer, formerly of Lee, now of Northwood, are rejoicing over the birth of a son, born April 2d.

The Misses Ruth Revere, Vivian Bloom and Ethel Jordan gave an “All Fools Party” at the Revere home on April 1. About 25 people were present. Games were played and dainty refreshments served, consisting...
April 8, 1921 cont.

Of assorted cake, ice cream and fudge. Much credit is due Mrs. Bloom, who acted as hostess for the evening.

We are glad to see our state patrolman, W.B. Caswell, back on the road for another season.

Married, March 19th, by a Justice of the Peace, Ted Chapman and Marion Cook, great granddaughter of Mrs. Nellie Cook.

Four veal calves have been sold from the Thurston farm this winter that weighed 857 pounds, live weight.

John French, who has been working in Nottingham several months, cutting wood for William Harvey, is in town.

Nehemiah Snell has recently purchased a new pair of horses.

Warren Sawyer has been appointed tax collector.

Mrs. Caroline Brown, who has been keeping house for Lyford M. Wiggin the past two years, has returned to her home in Kensington.

Fred P. Comings has been drawn on the grand jury for the U.S. District Court, which meets in Concord.

Andrew Wilkinson of Dorchester, Mass., spent the week-end at Walter W. Jones’.

The Missionary Society will meet at the vestry, Wednesday, April 13, at 2:30 p.m.

Miss Susan M. Layn has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Hannah Cate.

Benton F. Layne has recently purchased a new Ford car.

The school at the North Side will commence, Monday, April 11.

Last Saturday afternoon the buildings of Alphonso Jones came very near being burned. The fire started in the field and gained quite a headway before it was discovered. No one was at home at the time.

Ruth W. McDaniel, daughter of Frank McDaniel, of Washington St., Dover, and Theodore Beaudoin were quietly married on Monday, March 28, at St. Charles church. They were attended by a sister of the bride and a brother of the groom. They will reside in Boston.
April 15, 1921

Miss Mary Allen, who has been ill with pneumonia, is gaining slowly.

James Walker has purchased a new Packard car.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stillson of Epping called on friends Sunday.

Wesley Harvey had business in Manchester, Saturday.

Miss Alice Churchill of Deerfield spent a few days recently with Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Sandy Hill and family of Amesbury, Mass., called on several friends in town recently.

The South Side school began Monday, after a two weeks’ vacation.

J. P. Bartlett, who has spent the winter in Boston, is at his farm for the summer. Robert Kenerson is also back from Newmarket.

George Smith spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Mrs. Walter Plumer has a new carriage. She now has the nicest looking team in this section.

George Demeritt has bought a Holstein cow of Ben Lang.

Nehemiah Snell, who recently purchased a pair of horses, lost them both with pneumonia the past week.

James Lee and family were visitors in town last Sunday.

Arthur J. Thompson has been suffering with an attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Caldwell returned to their home this week.

Mrs. Annie Randall of Boston spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Lewis Snell.

Earl Cate was a visitor at Lyford Wiggin’s last Friday.

Harry Hill, Mrs. Alice Rice and son, Claude took a trip to Boston last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall and Mr. and Mrs. Chauncy Fall of Dover spent Sunday at Frank Caldwell’s.

There were many visitors from out of town Saturday, looking for Mayflowers, which are very beautiful this season.
At the Jenkins farm last week a hen laid an egg measuring 6 1/2 x 7 3/4 inches, and weighing 3 1/2 ounces.

George F. Chesley and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Durgin went to Haverhill, Mass., last Tuesday to attend the funeral of George W. Wentworth, aged 86 years, which was held at the North Church. He was a Civil War veteran.

Perry Barnes has recently purchased a new Harley Davidson motor cycle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee called on Edwin Plumer and family in Northwood Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Leavitt of Manchester is spending a few days with Mrs. Sara Haley.

The many friends of little Louise Tuttle will be sorry to hear of the loss of her pet sheep, 'Bo Peep.'

Elmer Keniston has accepted a position in Dover.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Tuesday evening. There was a good attendance, and the first and fourth degrees were conferred. The following programme was presented: Music, Grange; reading, Warren Sawyer, discussion, "Resolved that the United States should prohibit immigration for the next five years," music, Grange; reading, Ellsworth Garrett, music, Grange. Inspection will be held May 10, and Rockingham Grange of Epping is invited.

H. Scott Tuttle, one of the best known contractors and road builders in the East, died at his home, 20 Mapledale Ave., Swampscott, Apr. 5, after a long illness. He was born in Lee, N. H., Nov. 18, 1846. He had been a resident of Swampscott for more than 40 years, for a long time residing on Walker road. It was H. Scott Tuttle who, as contractor, laid out the Mudge and Stetson estate in Swampscott, and was the contractor for many of the other development enterprises in this section. For several years he was connected in business with the late Irving I. Edgerly of Swampscott, in the road contracting business, but for the greater part of the time was in business under his own name. For many years he did a large amount of work for the State of Maine as a builder of State highways, and for several years had charge of the contracting end of several land development enterprises of Long Island and other places in New York State. He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Emma V. Tuttle, and two sisters, Mrs. Annette Hall of Swampscott, and Miss Belle Tuttle of Lee, N. H. He was a charter member of Swampscott Lodge, 140, I O O F. Mr. Tuttle in his younger years did large contracting jobs for the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and for the Boston & Maine. —Lynn Item.
April 22, 1921

Miss Mary Allen is now able to go out driving.

Mr. McGerry and several guests are at his farm for a few days.

Mrs. E. Thompson and son, Clifford, of Andover, are spending a few days at Hilltop Farm.

Alfred C. Durgin of this town purchased the farm of the late Daniel P. Harvey, in Nottingham, at auction last Saturday. Later in the day he sold it to a party from Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Plumer spent Tuesday with Edwin Plumer and family in Northwood.

Mr. and Mrs. F.O. Tyler of Barrington are spending a few days with Mrs. Nellie Thompson at the Cartland Farm.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Plumer spent Tuesday with Edwin Plumer and family in Northwood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Plumer spent Tuesday with Edwin Plumer and family in Northwood.

Mrs. Nellie Shannon spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Walter Plumer.

Frank Blaisdell and family of Epping recently visited with Wesley Harvey and family.

Mrs. Alice Demeritt was a Manchester visitor, Saturday.

Grace Thurston is on the sick list, suffering with pleurisy. W.J. Thurston has had another bad spell and is now not able to walk.

Several from this town attended the auction at Hampton Falls last Thursday.

Bert Davis and family of Greenland were recent visitors in town.

As April 19 was a holiday in Massachusetts, Miss Iber Smith of Haverhill came to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Last Thursday, George E. Chesley, the oldest male resident in Lee, attained his 88th birthday. He was pleased to have his children and other relatives come to help the day pass pleasantly for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and son Eugene are in Atlanta, Ga., on their way home. They expect to arrive home about the middle of May.

George Munroe of Boston was a visitor at Seth W. Sherburne’s over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dodge of Somerville, Mass., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. George T. McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Newman of Everett, Mass., spent the weekend with Mrs. Newman’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell.

Miss Florence Corson and Miss Lida Brewitt were visitors in Dover this week.

Benton E. Layne was in Concord, Thursday of last week.

Harry Munroe is spending a week in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry of Rochester are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caverino.
April 29, 1921

Mrs. Frank Morrison of Durham was a recent visitor in town.

Miss Lucia Plumer is at home enjoying a week's vacation from school duties in Portsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Robinson of Nottingham were visitors at John Piper's recently.

Perry Barnes and Charlie Revere had business in Portsmouth Saturday.

Ben Lang attended the auction in Derry Thursday.

Charles Allen spent the week-end with friends in Massachusetts.

John Bell of Epping is working at W. J. Thurston's.

Fire burned the woodwork back of the stove in the kitchen of Mr. Kirkwood's house Saturday night, but fortunately did no other harm.

Mrs. Mary Currier is visiting in Epping.

Charles Stackpole went to Newton, Mass., Sunday, to spend a few weeks with his nephew, Harry Davis.

Earl Cate and family, formerly of Groton, Conn., are located with Lyford M. Wiggin for an indefinite period.

Harry Munroe and Florence Corson were married in Dover, Tuesday, April 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Thompson of Andover, Mass., are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, Shirley Mac, born April 22.

The summer session of the Sunday School will commence next Sunday, May 3. It is hoped there will be a large attendance, as the records for the summer will be kept from that day.