May 6, 1921

Mrs. Leon Mayo, Mrs. Anna Lee, with Miss Greta Gulliver, were in Rochester, Saturday, on business.

Perry Barnes visited in Boston a few days last week.

Harry Putnam is at home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Small of Fremont were visitors at Henry Small’s Sunday.

Edwin Plumer of Northwood was a visitor in town recently.

Mrs. Ida Fitch is spending a few days with friends in Manchester.

Mrs. Durgin and granddaughter of Newmarket called on several friends in town Sunday.

Miss Althea Plant of Nottingham is working for Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Charles Cartland of Dover was at his farm recently.

A family from Newmarket have moved into Mr. Smith’s house.

The highway agent on the North Side is making a great improvement on the roads in that section.

Harold Caldwell has been enjoying a few days in Boston.

Miss Grace Hill, who is teaching school in Andover, Mass., is spending her vacation with her brother, Horace G. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Portsmouth visited Mrs. Davis’ brother, George Stimpson, last week.

Charles Berry, who recently suffered another shock, is in a critical condition at the home of Horace Caverno.

May 13, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter, of Nottingham, spent Sunday at Henry Small’s.

Mrs. William Kirkwood returned to her home in Nashua, Sunday night, having spent the week with Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Thompson, formerly of this town, are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, which was born April 30.

J. True Bartlett spent the week-end in Boston.

Mrs. Alice Demeritt was a Dover visitor Saturday.
Ben Piper and family of Winthrop, Mass., spent the week-end with John Piper and family.

Miss Grace Revere is spending a few weeks in Epping, with Mrs. M. Young.

Jacob Cilley, who has been working for Lewis Walker at Durham Point, is at home for the summer.

Bessie Thompson of Boston spent the week-end with her mother, at the Cartland Farm.

James Wright and mother of Epping called at W. J. Thurston's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stillson of Epping were Sunday visitors at Walter Plumer's.

Mrs. Robert Haines of Melrose spent the first of the week with her mother, Mrs. Sara Haley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and son arrived home from Florida last Saturday, where they have spent the winter. They traveled over 6,000 miles by auto, and Mr. Sawyer is very much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe have moved into the house of George Woodman, on the North Side.

The annual meeting of the Missionary Society will be held with Mrs. F. I. Caldwell on Thursday, May 19.

The spring inspection of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held last Tuesday evening. There were visitors present from Durham, Newmarket and Newfields. Interesting remarks were made by Worthy Deputy Harrison, George A. Bennett, Master of Lamprey River Grange, Eugene Moore, Master of Scammell Grange, and Past Master Hilton of Piscassic Grange of Newfields. John Sawyer gave a recitation, and Mrs. Florence F. Caldwell read the Grange paper. A harvest supper was enjoyed by all.
May 20, 1921

Charles Berry of Rochester, well known in this town, passed away last Sunday at the home of Horace Caverino, in this town. His death was the result of a second shock a few weeks ago. His funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at his late home in Rochester. Mrs. Berry, who is a sister of Mrs. Caverino, is in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer visited relatives in Boscawen one day last week.

Nehemiah Snell has recently purchased an Essex car.

Lyford M. Wiggin spent last week with his nephew, Dr. George Wiggin, in Exeter.

Arthur J. Thompson has ordered a new Ford car.

Gorham Sawyer came very near losing his buildings by fire last week, when a spark from the chimney caught on the roof. His son, Eugene, who was the only one at home, succeeded in putting out the blaze. Quite a hole was burnt in the roof.

Charles Langley, who has been spending the winter with his nephew in Massachusetts, returned to his home the past week.

Fred C. York was a visitor in Dover Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew and Mrs. Emma Sanborn of Portsmouth called at W.J. Thurston’s Tuesday.

True Bartlett’s housekeeper has returned for the summer.

Beatrice Caswell is with Mrs. Kirkwood for a few weeks. Miss Plant has gone to Durham.

W.B. Caswell has been suffering with a bad cold and the rheumatism.

Fred Langley, Bay Side, Newmarket, was at the Thurston farm for a load of seed potatoes last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenleaf of Brentwood visited with J. G. Thurston, Sunday.

Mrs. Langley of Haverhill is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ben Lang.

Charles Langley is spending a few days at Willy’s Tuttle’s.

Mrs. Fred Coffin of Epping called on friends in town recently.

Arthur Wiggin is confined to his house with a sore throat.

Monday, Ben Lang shipped from Lee to Massachusetts the largest bull ever shipped from Lee station.

John Bell spent Sunday at his home in Epping.
Joshua Cook has sold his auto to a party in Newmarket.

Miss Annie Connor of Newmarket was at the farm Monday.

Ethel Dame of Nottingham called on Mrs. Walter Plumer Tuesday.

Parkman Haley spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Sara Haley.

The Rev. J.W. Lees and Mrs. Lees observed the 60th year of their marriage, May 1st, at their home, 499 Pleasant St., South Weymouth. One man from St. John, N. H., who was present at the marriage, also a number of Mr. Lees’ relatives from Wellesley, Mass., were present. Mr. Lees has preached in Lee and Madbury, N. H., 10 years, Lisbon, N. H., five years, Bradford and Fairlee, Vt., nine years, Westminster, Mass., 11 years, Marshfield Hills, four years, and West Stewartstown, N. H., three years, and is now retired.

—Weymouth (Mass.) Gazette

May 20, 1921 cont.

Joshua Cook has sold his auto to a party in Newmarket.

Miss Annie Connor of Newmarket was at the farm Monday.

Ethel Dame of Nottingham called on Mrs. Walter Plumer Tuesday.

Parkman Haley spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Sara Haley.

The Rev. J.W. Lees and Mrs. Lees observed the 60th year of their marriage, May 1st, at their home, 499 Pleasant St., South Weymouth. One man from St. John, N. B., who was present at the marriage, also a number of Mr. Lees’ relatives from Wellesley, Mass., were present. Mr. Lees has preached in Lee and Madbury, N. H., 10 years, Lisbon, N. H., five years, Bradford and Fairlee, Ct., nine years, Westminster, Mass., 11 years, Marshfield Hills, four years, and West Stewartstown, N. H., three years, and is now retired.

—Weymouth (Mass.) Gazette

May 27, 1921

Mrs. Martha Buzzell of Barrington is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alex McRae.

George Fox of Boston was the guest of Lyford Wiggin over Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George I. McDaniel, May 20, a daughter, Grace Mae.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. McDaniel attended the dedication of the Grange hall at Brentwood, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley, Ellsworth Garrity, Grover Smith, Dexter Layne, Doris and Summer Layne, and Frank I. Caldwell attended the inspection of Lamprey River Grange at Newmarket, Wednesday evening of last week.

Mrs. Edna F. Pierce spent the week-end with her brother and family in Gonic.

Charles Stackpole, who has been in Newton, Mass., the past month, returned Monday.

Those who attended the Pomona meeting at Bow Lake from Jeremiah Smith Grange were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and sons, Warren and John, Mrs. Belle Garrity, Ellsworth Garrity, Grover Smith, Dexter Layne and Summer Layne.

The missionary meeting was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. I. Caldwell. There were 20 present and with the help of the Red Cross needed sewing was done. Refreshments were served by the hostess.
May 27, 1921 cont.

Mr. and Mrs. John McDaniel of Dover are receiving the congratulations of their Lee friends on the birth of a daughter, Ruth Elizabeth.

Loren Fernald has been shearing his sheep the past week. He has over a hundred of them.

Mrs. Susan Layne visited Frank Caldwell and family last week.

The many friends of Mrs. Newman Gerrish will regret to learn that she has passed away at her home in Nottingham. She was formerly well known in this town.

Miss Grace Revere is spending the week in Nottingham.

Mrs. Nellie Shannon of Epping is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Plumer.

Mrs. Clarke is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Russell Shaw of Manchester is working for Mr. Stiles.

Mrs. Alice Demeritt was a Greenland visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Small spent Sunday in Fremont.

The Lee Fiber Co. recently sold their mill at Wadley’s Falls to Norton & Plummer of Milton. It is expected the mill will start about June first.

Mrs. Arthur Wiggin and son, Herbert, spent Tuesday in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammett and daughter of Portsmouth are at the Tuttle farm.

A family from Massachusetts has hired one of the Peach houses for the summer.

Walter Caswell of Berwick spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Caswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Drew and Mrs. E. Sanborn were Sunday visitors at W.J. Thurston’s.

John Bell has gone to Lowell, called there by the sickness of his mother.

George Lang of Onset, Mass., is visiting his brother, Ben. Lang.
June 3, 1921

Mrs. Nellie Thompson visited her brother in Dover one day last week.

Donald Learned is visiting his mother, Mrs. Peach.

Guy Durell has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell of Epping visited their daughter, Mrs. Wesley Harvey, Sunday.

William Lee has a new auto.

Miss Winnifred Chesley has a new auto—a Dodge.

Ralph Clarkson of Nashua was a visitor at John Noble’s Sunday.

Parkman Haley and family called on several of their friends in Lee last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and daughter of Hampton Falls were in town recently.

Mrs. Mabel Haines of Melrose was in town on business last week.

Mr. Bloom had the misfortune to lose a nice cow last week.

Daniel Shannon bought the Bray team at the auction last Saturday.

Miss Leona Page of Worcester, Mass., is visiting her grandfather, Alphonso Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Burgess of Dover and friends from Lowell, Mass., were guests of Benton Layne and family Memorial Day. Miss Helen Layne was also at home from Plymouth Normal School.

George Young has been entertaining his son from Ayer, Mass., over the holiday.

Daniel Fernald spent the week-end with his brother, Clarence Fernald.

George James and Walter Jones attended the races at Dover Memorial Day.

Children’s Night in the Grange will be observed this month. The next meeting, June 14, will be “Flora’s Night,” and Rockingham Grange of Epping is invited.

The meeting of the Magnolia Club was held last week with Mrs. Walter W. Jones. Sewing was done for the Red Cross. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Benton Layne, June 8th.

Miss Edith Fernald was at home from Franklin, N. H., over the weekend.

Mrs. Hazel Ricker and family of Amesbury, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young.
The services at the church Sunday were conducted by Mr. Fisher from Durham. Children's Day will be observed June 12th.

Miss Mary A. Chesley, who is teaching in the Medford, Mass., high school, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Abel Haley and daughter of Wolfeboro spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn, taking a trip to Hampton Beach, Monday, and returning to Wolfeboro that night.

Word was received last week of the death of Mrs. Isabelle Furber Richardson, a native of Lee, and a resident for a long time. She was the widow of Rev. D.W. Richardson, a former pastor of Lee, from 1893 to 1896. Mrs. Richardson has been in very poor health since her husband passed away. Her last days were spent with her sister, Mrs. Bernice Russell, of Newton Center, Mass., where she passed away May 21,—a lovely Christian character. The burial was at Dover.

June 10, 1921

Mrs. Annie Randall of Boston spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Louis Snell.

Mr. and Mrs. F.J. Bourgo and Mrs. E.M. Stamford of Groton, Conn., visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cate over the week-end. Mrs. Cate and daughter returned with them for a short visit.

Sidney McKay has purchased a Ford car.

Mrs. Edna F. Pierce and daughter have been enjoying a week's vacation with Miss Alice Demeritt in Rochester.

Work on the state road has been commenced, under the supervision of Benjamin Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell and family spent the week-end with Mrs. Caldwell's father in Malden, Mass.

Mrs. True Bartlett of Boston was at her home here for a few days.

Mr. Provost and family of Durham and Mr. Bergeron of Newmarket were Sunday visitors at W.J. Thurston's.

Miss Bessie Thompson of Boston visited her mother and sister over the week-end.

Miss Althea Plant of Nottingham is stopping with Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Mrs. Bertha Plumer is suffering with a bronchial cold.

Herbert Wiggin of Roxbury is visiting his son and family.

John Piper is entertaining his sister, Mrs. Piper, from the West.

George Revere of Braintree is at his home here for a few days.

Harry Smith had business in Haverhill Thursday.

George N. Willey of Newmarket was in town Monday, demonstrating the Dodge car.
June 17, 1921

Jacob Villy has bought another horse and is going to do the teaming for the mill at Wadley’s Falls.

The South Lee school closed Friday. The exercises were very nice and the children enjoyed the refreshments after the program. Miss Gulliver went Saturday for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker and daughter of Nottingham were Sunday visitors at Henry Small’s.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkwood of Nashua spent the week-end with their son, Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. George Libby of Melrose, Mass., were guests of Mrs. Sara Haley a few days recently.

Miss Bessie Cartland went Saturday for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Caswell entertained friends from Greenland, Sunday.

Walter Thurston is very sick with inflammation of the stomach.

Miss Bessie Cartland of Dover visited her sister, Mrs. Nellie Thompson, at the “Cartland Farm” recently.

Mrs. Walter W. Jones entertained a party of fifteen from Barrington on Sunday.

Carl Fernald and family of Gonic have been visiting Loren S. Fernald the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne attended the graduation of their daughter, Helen, at Plymouth Normal school on Wednesday.

Flag Hill and sons of Lawrence, Mass., enjoyed a week-end visit with his brother, Horace G. Hill.

Lyford M. Wiggin is spending a short vacation with his nephews in Exeter and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. William Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Miner Fall were entertained over Sunday by Mrs. Chester Tebbetts of East Rochester.
June 24, 1921

Mrs. Bradbury Caswell entertained Marth French of Nottingham, recently.

H. Parkman Haley of Anderson, N.H., spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. S.M. Haley.

Mrs. Anna Lee attended the graduation at New Hampton last Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Plumer and son, Stanley, spent Sunday with Mrs. Stillson of Epping.

Charles Ferguson and family of Malden, Mass., spent the week-end at his farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small visited friends and relatives in Fremont and Raymond Sunday.

Arthur Thompson and family of Newmarket called on friends in town Sunday.

Mrs. Benjamin Lang and daughter, Margaret, were Dover visitors recently.

Mrs. E.J. Plumer had business in Rochester Tuesday.

Sunday, members of Rising Star Lodge of Masons visited Walter J. Thurston, who is very sick.

Miss Ethel Munroe and Miss Nellie Dunn of Lynn, Mass., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe the past two weeks.

There were five members of Jeremiah Smith Grange attended the Pomona meeting at Rollinsford, last Thursday.

The Missionary Society will hold a thank offering meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank D. Randall on Wednesday, June 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. McDaniel attended the graduation exercises at New Hampton last Thursday.

Mrs. Raymond Munroe spent last week with her parents in Northwood.

Sumner Layne, Warren and Eugene Sawyer attended the dance at Central Park last Saturday night.

J. Donnelly, superintendent at the brick yard at Hoitt's crossing, has been transferred to the Boston office.

Albert Caverno and family were visitors in town last Sunday.

Walter Jones and family attended the circus in Dover, Friday evening of last week.

Ellsworth Garrity, with his mother and sister, motored to Farmington last Sunday.

James Lee and family of Dover were up to their farm last week.
July 1, 1921

Mrs. Maude Page and daughter were visitors at Alphonso Jones’ last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fernald and family, John Fernald and Mrs. Edna F. Pierce have gone to Whitefield, N.H., for a short vacation.

Work on the State road has been discontinued until after haying.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark and family of Haverhill, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cate on Sunday.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held last Tuesday evening and was largely attended. After the business meeting the 2nd degree was conferred and the following programme given by the Lecturer: Song, Grange, reading, Ernest Whitehouse; Discussion, “Difficulties Confronting the Farmers at the Present Time”, reading, Ellsworth Garrity, reading, Mrs. Grace Dudley, Song, Grange. At the close of the programme a social hour was enjoyed and ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Louise Allen of Nottingham visited her aunt, Mrs. E. Noble, Sunday.

Charles W. Thompson of Dover spent Sunday at W. J. Thurston’s.

Mrs. Flossie Menter is ill with tonsillitis.

Miss Lucia Plumer is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Plumer.

Several from here attended the dance at Nottingham Center Saturday night.

July 8, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and family of Newton, Mass., are at Charles Stackpole’s for the summer.

The construction of the state road in New Durham is under the supervision of Benton E. Layne.

Alphonso Jones has finished haying.

Mrs. Peterson and daughter, Christine, spent the Fourth with Mrs. Peterson’s father, Frank L. Dinsmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe motored to Lynn, Mass., last Saturday, returning Monday.

Bernice Wiggins, little daughter of Frank Wiggins, fell last week, breaking her arm in two places and dislocating her shoulder.
Miss Evelyn Brown of Barrington is the guest of Mrs. Walter Jones this week.

William Thompson, who was quite ill last week, is able to be out again.

Frank Hill of Boston, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Hill, last week.

Mrs. Marion Cram and daughter, Barbara, are at Greenwood, Mass., for a few weeks.

Homer James of Somerville, Mass., is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George James.

Miss Marjorie Clark of Haverhill, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cate this week.

Mrs. George Day and children have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne the past two weeks.

Albert Corson is at his home suffering from a broken arm.

Frank Wiggin is building a new barn.

Nehemiah Snell, who has been operating a large lot in Raymond, N.H., has returned to his home.

Miss Nellie Wiggin and Miss Ethel Davis are at the home place for the summer.

Thomas Davis is at his farm for a few weeks.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening, which was well attended. The second and third degrees were conferred on two candidates and the following programme presented by the Lecturer, Song, Grange, Piano Solo, Grace Wellington, Discussion, "Resolved, that the Farmers Should Pay More attention to Harvesting Meadow Grass", Grange paper, Alice Dudley, Song, Grange.

On Friday evening, July 22nd, an entertainment will be held in Grange hall for the benefit of the Grange. There will be an excellent programme, consisting of music by the Newmarket Cornet Band, readings and addresses. There will be dancing during the evening. Ice cream and cake will be for sale. Admission, 25 cents.
Haven Layne is confined to his home with chicken-pox.

Mildred and Dorothy Davis are entertaining Miss Natalie Rising of Newton, Mass., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tebbetts of East Rochester are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Caldwell.

Miss Mattie Layne has been visiting in Barrington the past two weeks.

Mrs. Annie Randall of Boston is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis H. Snell.

George Hill is visiting his brother, Horace G. Hill, this week.

Edward O. Fifield, who for a number of years was a Lee summer resident, but who of late had lived in Milford, N.H., died last week at his home in that town, and the funeral was held there Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. A.N. Dary of Nashua and by Benevolent Lodge, A.F. & A.M. of Milford. Mr. Fifield was prominent in all the Masonic organizations up to and including the 32nd degree, being a past officer of each, including that of Past Commander of St. George Commandery, Nashua, and Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter and Past Master of the Grand Council of New Hampshire. For many years he also was treasurer of Ancient York Lodge, A.F. & A.M., of Nashua. Mr. Fifield was a native of Hopkinton, born Aug. 25, 1848. He was educated in the schools of Londonderry, and in 1881 established a box factory at Tyngsboro, Mass., moving his business to Nashua in 1890, which is still in operation, as is another plant established later at Wilton. Mr. Fifield was a Representative from the town of Lee to the State Legislature in 1907. He served in many important public offices in Nashua, besides his Masonic affiliations. Mr. Fifield was a member of Custos Morum Lodge, I. O. O. F., and of the First Baptist Church of Milford. He was married 25 years ago to Miss Grace Hopkins of Nashua, who survives him, also a sister, Mrs. Fannie Colson, of Salem, Mass.
June 29, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. George Chesley and daughter, Mary, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin and family were guests of T. Jewett Chesley of Dover last Sunday.

Mrs. Maude Page, of Exeter, spent a few days with her father, Alphonso Jones, last week.

Miss Helen Layne and a party of girls from Plymouth Normal School are camping out at Alton Bay.

Harry Davis starts on a business trip to California this week. Mrs. Davis will accompany him. They will be gone a month.

Miss Edith Fernald is the guest of Mrs. Flavius Berry of North Barrington this week.

Mrs. Dearborn and daughter, Hazel, and Miss Mary Chesley were visitors in Dover, Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Buzzell spent last Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Alex McRae.

The residence of James B. Walker was totally destroyed by fire last Sunday afternoon. An oil stove in the shed exploded. The flames spread quickly through the house. The fire departments from Newmarket were called and did excellent work in saving the near-by residences. Neighbors early on the scene assisted in saving a few pieces of furniture from down stairs but everything else was lost. It was a great shock to the family when they returned at night from a motor trip.

August 5, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker are to occupy the house of Fred P. Comings until they rebuild.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest James and family are to move on the Mast-Road in the house recently occupied by Homer James.

Jeremiah Smith Grange has invited Lamprey River Grange of Newmarket and Patucoway Grange of Nottingham to be their guests at the next meeting, August 9th, when the fourth degree will be conferred.

Charles Dame of Dover is cutting his hay on the home place.

Doris Layne has returned from a visit to Barrington.

Mrs. Harley Knox, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Wentworth Hospital, is improving and expected home next week.

Nehemiah Snell and his aunt, Mrs. Annie Randall, motored to Boston and returned last Sunday.

Mrs. Helen McRae has accepted a position as teacher in the France School in Barrington for next year.

William H. Dodge of Somerville, Mass., is spending his vacation with his daughter, Mrs. George T. McDaniel.

Professor Walter S. Wrigley and family of Haverhill, Mass., were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell over the week-end.

Charles Stackpole and Richard Davis were visitors in Dover last Wednesday.
George P. James lost a valuable horse last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer are entertaining Mrs. Sawyer’s brother, Robert Littleton, and family of Shelton, Conn.

Mrs. Elizabeth Philbrick of Somerville, Mass., and a party of friends were guests of Mrs. David B. Bartlett last week.

Mrs. Blanche Newman and Mrs. Charles Caldwell and son are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell.

Mrs. Raymond Munroe has accepted a position as teacher at the North Lee School for the coming year.

There will be no services held at the church through this month.

There is to be a Y.M.C.A. campfire meeting held at A.C. Durgin’s this (Friday) evening at 6:30 p.m.

George Fox of Boston was a visitor at Lyford Wigglin’s last Sunday.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening. An excellent programme, furnished by Patuccoway and Lamprey River Granges, was enjoyed by all. A harvest supper was served. The State Lecturer, Mr. Ricard, and wife, and guests from Nottingham, Newmarket, Newfields, Cochecho, Epping and Dover were present.

George A. Woodman, a former resident of this town, passed away at the home of his son, Frank Woodman in Newton, Mass., Aug. 5th, aged 76 years. He was born in Barrington, N.H., the son of Seth W. and Louisa (Gear) Woodman. He leaves a widow, three sons, Fred of Lowell, Mass., Frank of Newton and Charles W. of Watertown, Mass., and five grandchildren. Also two brothers, Leroy W. of Dover, N.H. and Charles A. of Lee, N.H. The burial was in Amesbury, Mass., Tuesday of this week.

August 12, 1921

George P. James lost a valuable horse last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer are entertaining Mrs. Sawyer’s brother, Robert Littleton, and family of Shelton, Conn.

Mrs. Elizabeth Philbrick of Somerville, Mass., and a party of friends were guests of Mrs. David B. Bartlett last week.

Mrs. Blanche Newman and Mrs. Charles Caldwell and son are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell.

Mrs. Raymond Munroe has accepted a position as teacher at the North Lee School for the coming year.

There will be no services held at the church through this month.

There is to be a Y.M.C.A. campfire meeting held at A.C. Durgin’s this (Friday) evening at 6:30 p.m.

George Fox of Boston was a visitor at Lyford Wigglin’s last Sunday.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening. An excellent programme, furnished by Patuccoway and Lamprey River Granges, was enjoyed by all. A harvest supper was served. The State Lecturer, Mr. Ricard, and wife, and guests from Nottingham, Newmarket, Newfields, Cochecho, Epping and Dover were present.

George A. Woodman, a former resident of this town, passed away at the home of his son, Frank Woodman in Newton, Mass., Aug. 5th, aged 76 years. He was born in Barrington, N.H., the son of Seth W. and Louisa (Gear) Woodman. He leaves a widow, three sons, Fred of Lowell, Mass., Frank of Newton and Charles W. of Watertown, Mass., and five grandchildren. Also two brothers, Leroy W. of Dover, N.H., and Charles A. of Lee, N.H. The burial was in Amesbury, Mass., Tuesday of this week.
August 19, 1921

Mrs. Maude Page of Exeter is visiting her father, Alphonso Jones, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cate, who have been staying with Lyford M. Wiggin this summer, have returned to their home in Groton, Conn.

Mrs. George Woodman was a visitor in town this week.

Miss Norah Whitehouse is spending a week at Alton Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson attended the West Rockingham Pomona picnic at Windham last Wednesday.

Eastern N. H. Pomona Grange will hold their annual Field Day at Hanson's Grove, Rochester, Sept. 1st.

Miss Ada Perkins of Nottingham was a visitor at Mrs. Benton Layn's last week.

Horace G. Hill has been drawn as grand juror and Harry Smith as petit juror for the September term of court, held in Dover.
August 26, 1921

Arthur Thompson and family of Newmarket were callers at Walter Plumer’s one day last week.

Mrs. Mabel Haines of Melrose visited her mother, Mrs. Sara Haley, recently.

John Noble is having his buildings painted. Fred Huston is doing the work.

Mrs. Clarke is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

Miss Bessie Thompson is spending her vacation with her mother, at the Cartland Farm.

Ed Coughlin is taking a short vacation from his work at the Cartland Farm.

Mrs. Arthur Wiggin has returned home from a visit in Massachusetts.

Willard Dow and family of Boston were visitors at W. J. Thurston’s Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Coffin of Epping was a recent visitor in town.

Austin Caswell and family spent Sunday in Greenland.

J. True Bartlett is visiting in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. William Carpenter are at the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Sicard, “Betty” and Robert, motored with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Durell of Providence, R.I., for the week-end with Mrs. Durell’s sister, Mrs. Harry Smith of Somerville, who has spent the past week with her sister, returned to Boston with her brother Guy.

Stella Smith of Hampton Falls spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Harry Peach of Malden is visiting his father, Henry Peach.

Donald Learned spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Henry Peach.

Mrs. Alice Elkhart of Boston is visiting her sister, Miss Nellie O’Connor, at John Hobbs’.

Miss Evelyn Brown of Barrington has been visiting Mrs. Walter Jones this week.

Mrs. William Sullivan of Somerville, Mass., was the guest of Mrs. David B. Bartlett the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel attended the union Pomona picnic at Pine Island Park, Manchester, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis will return this week (Friday) from a trip to the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell and family and Miss Doris Layne were visitors in Manchester this week.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening. The following programme was presented by the Lecturer, Song, Grange, Reading, Florence F. Caldwell, Discussion, What work should a man do in the house and what should a woman do out-of-doors, Reading, Alice Dudley, Reading, George Dudley, Song, Grange. There was a good number in attendance and ice cream and cake were served.