September 2, 1921

Walter Smith has purchased a new Dodge car.

Charles Dame is cutting the hay on the Burleigh place.

James Lee has been in town this week repairing his buildings.

Albert Caverino has been visiting his father, Horace Caverino.

Mrs. Martha Buzzell is with her daughter, Mrs. Alex McRae, for two weeks.

James B. Walker is rebuilding his house and the work is progressing rapidly.

Miss Norton of North Berwick is to teach at the Centre School and Miss Todd of Exeter at South Lee for the coming year.

James Wiggin has been visiting his nephew, Willie Wiggin, of Milton the past week.

Miss Doris Clough of Dover and Miss Helen Gerrish of Northwood were guests of Miss Helen Layne over the week-end.

Mrs. Belle Garrity and family were visitors at Middleton, N. H., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox of Boston are staying with Lyford M. Wiggin for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin and family attended camp meeting at Hedding, N. H., last Sunday.

Ernest Whitehouse is enjoying a vacation at Middleton, N. H.

Alphonso Jones held a "husking" at his home last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Caldwell were among the Lee visitors at the camp grounds last Sunday.
Mrs. Able Haley of Wolfeboro is visiting Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mrs. Emma Corson is visiting relatives in Dover.

Harry Davis and family returned to Newton, Mass., this last week. Charles Stackpole accompanied them for a month’s visit.

Edwin Thompson is the guest of his brother, William Thompson.

Edson Sewell and family were visitors in town last Sunday.

D.B. Bartlett was called to Manchester this week on account of the serious illness of his father.

Frank Hill visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Hill, over the weekend.

Seth W. Sherburne has purchased a new Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and son, John attended the field meeting of Eastern New Hampshire Pomona Grange at Rochester last week.

F. H. Hancock and family were guests of Mrs. Hancock’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caveno, over the holiday.

The Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Alfred Durgin Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 14th.

Mrs. Charles Cox and family of Reading, Mass., were guests of Mrs. Frank Caldwell last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin entertained a party of eighteen over Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George James over the week-end.

Mrs. French and friends of Nottingham visited Mrs. Caswell Sunday.

Paul Cilley will attend Dover Business College this fall.

Miss Kirkwood of Nashua has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

The South school began Tuesday with Miss Todd as teacher. She will board with Mrs. Harry Putman.

Mrs. Leavett, who has been visiting Mrs. Sara Haley, has returned to Manchester.

Parkman Haley and family of Anderson, visited friends in Lee, Sunday.

Vivian Bloom, Ethel and Raymond Jordan are to go to Newmarket High School and will drive with their team.

Margaret Lang will go to Pittsburg, Mass., to attend school and will stay with her aunt Mrs. John Randall.

Mr. Wright and mother of Epping called on Mrs. Noble recently.

Norman and Robert Stiles are going to Epping to school.

September 9, 1921

Mrs. Able Haley of Wolfeboro is visiting Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mrs. Emma Corson is visiting relatives in Dover.

Harry Davis and family returned to Newton, Mass., this last week. Charles Stackpole accompanied them for a month’s visit.

Edwin Thompson is the guest of his brother, William Thompson.

Edson Sewell and family were visitors in town last Sunday.

D.B. Bartlett was called to Manchester this week on account of the serious illness of his father.

Frank Hill visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Hill, over the week-end.

Seth W. Sherburne has purchased a new Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and son, John attended the field meeting of Eastern New Hampshire Pomona Grange at Rochester last week.

F. H. Hancock and family were guests of Mrs. Hancock’s parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caveno, over the holiday.

The Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Alfred Durgin Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 14th.

Mrs. Charles Cox and family of Reading, Mass., were guests of Mrs. Frank Caldwell last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin entertained a party of eighteen over Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George James over the week-end.

Mrs. French and friends of Nottingham visited Mrs. Caswell Sunday.

Paul Cilley will attend Dover Business College this fall.

Miss Kirkwood of Nashua has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.

The South school began Tuesday with Miss Todd as teacher. She will board with Mrs. Harry Putman.

Mrs. Leavett, who has been visiting Mrs. Sara Haley, has returned to Manchester.

Parkman Haley and family of Anderson, visited friends in Lee, Sunday.

Vivian Bloom, Ethel and Raymond Jordan are to go to Newmarket High School and will drive with their team.

Margaret Lang will go to Pittsburg, Mass., to attend school and will stay with her aunt, Mrs. John Randall.

Mr. Wright and mother of Epping called on Mrs. Noble recently.

Norman and Robert Stiles are going to Epping to school.
September 16, 1921

Mrs. Mildred Alexander, Miss Doris Durell, George Anderson and Wallace Durell of Brookline, Mass., called on Mrs. Harry Smith, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duwan, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Durell, the Misses Florence and Gertrude Durell of Providence, R.I., were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Nehemiah Snell and a party of friends from Raymond enjoyed a trip to the mountains over the week-end.

Miss Josephine Durgin is visiting her cousin Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson, for a few days.

Miss Helen Layne went to Penacook last Saturday, where she is to teach in the Junior High School.

Wyllis Tuttle and family were visitors in Dover last Saturday.

Miss Edith Fernald will teach in Franklin, N.H., this year.

September 23, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and sons, Warren and John, went on an auto trip to the mountains last Thursday, returning Monday.

Benton Layne was a visitor in Concord last Sunday.

A number of Lee people enjoyed the meeting of Eastern N.H. Pomona Grange at Milton Mills last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopper and family of Newark, N.J., have come to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Oldham.

Ernest Whitehouse has gone to North Rochester to work.

Mrs. Frank Dearborn and Mrs. Walter Smith were visitors in Dover last week.

Mrs. Blake Hill returned from a trip to Boston this week.

Mrs. Edith O’Brien and Mrs. George Fox are visiting at Lyford M. Wiggin’s this week.

Alphonso Jones and Miss Nora Whitehouse attended Rochester Fair Wednesday.

Mrs. Annie Kimball of Dover is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank D. Randall.

The case of William Chapman vs. the Town of Lee is being tried in Dover this week. A number of townspeople are attending.
September 30, 1921

Mrs. Benton Layne is the guest of Mrs. F.H. Burgess of Dover this week.

Doris James has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Wells, in Somerville, Mass.

A number of valuable hens were stolen from Ira B. Hill last Thursday. He had gone to Rochester Fair at the time.

Mrs. Susan P.D. Layne is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Roberts, of Dover.

Mrs. Alfred Durgin and Mrs. Granville Thompson were elected delegates to attend the annual meeting of the N.H. Branch of the Woman's Board of Missions at Portsmouth, Oct. 5th.

The Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Herbert Hill on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. McDaniel and family spent the week-end with Mrs. McDaniel's parents in Somerville, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Neal, Mrs. W.S. Reynolds and Mrs. George B. Prescott of Dover were callers at W.S. Caldwell's last week.

Last Thursday evening the home of Frank D. Randall was visited by fire. The stable was completely destroyed, including a number of valuable farm tools. An alarm was sounded in the neighboring towns and through the very efficient help given by those present the house and barn were saved. The cause is unknown. The building was partially insured and the loss is valued at $3500.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held their regular meeting last Tuesday evening. The third and fourth degrees were conferred and the following program presented by the Lecturer: Reading, Mark L. Mills, Address on Bees, Ernest Wardwell, Reading, Warren Sawyer, Discussion, "What would you do if you had a million dollars?" The annual inspection will be held at the next meeting, Oct. 11th. Visitors were present from Newmarket and refreshments were served.
October 7, 1921

Mrs. Oscar Bartlett of Manchester visited her son, Davis B. Bartlett, last week.

Miss Esther Bell of Dover was the guest of Miss Doris Layn over the week-end.

Mrs. George Chesley visited her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Durgin, last week.

Mrs. Edna Bunker of Dover spent a few days with Loren Fernald and family last week.

Mrs. Anna Lee visited the school at the North Side Tuesday of this week.

A husking party was held at the home of John C. Bartlett last Saturday evening. Over two hundred bushels of corn were husked. There was a good number in attendance and a bountiful supper was served.

Eugene C. Foster, who resided on the Davis S. Bennett farm in Lee Hook, was found dead on the floor of his barn last Sunday afternoon. He had been absent from the house since about 11 A.M. on that day, and late in the afternoon his body was found cold and lifeless on the barn floor, the cause of death being a fracture of the skull, caused by a fall from a scaffold.

He was born in Jonesboro, Me., Dec. 16, 1848, and was 72 years, 9 months and 15 days old. He had been a highly respected resident of Lee for seven years. The body was taken to Machias, Me., where on Tuesday funeral services were held and the interment took place. He is survived by a wife and several children.

October 14, 1921

The ladies of the Lee Congregational Society will hold their annual harvest supper at Grange Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 14. There will be a pianist, cellist and violinist from Durham, Prof. Cottle will give readings. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock. A farmers' meeting will also be combined with the supper. Mr. C. J. Cooper, a farmer of Illinois, will discuss farming problems.

Alphonso Jones observed his 75th birthday anniversary Thursday evening of last week. Neighbors, relatives and friends were present.

Miss Mary Flanders of Malden, Mass., spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Frank Caldwell.
October 21, 1921

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Thompson and family and Miss Mary Chesley were visitors in Dover last Tuesday.

Mrs. Burpee Beals of Malden, Mass., has been the guest of Mrs. Frank Caldwell this week.

Mrs. Benton Layne has been entertaining Mrs. F.H. Burgess and family the past week.

The ladies of the church held their annual harvest supper last Friday evening. There was a good supper and programme, a large attendance, and the sum of $43.00 was realized from the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell attended the three-town fair at Alstead, N.H., last Wednesday.

The Farm Bureau are canvassing the town for members this week.

Mrs. George Woodman has been the guest of Mrs. Louis Snell the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox of Boston will spend the winter with Lyford M. Wiggin.

Sumner Layn is working in Barrington.

D.B. Bartlett was a visitor in Manchester last week.

The repairs that are being made on the church are progressing rapidly.

Mrs. James Lee and family were visitors in town last week.

Mrs. Louis Snell and Mrs. George Woodman spent last Wednesday with Mrs. Maude Page in Exeter.

Mrs. Hazel Dudley had a surprise party for her sister, Doris James, last Thursday evening.

Sidney McKay is having a telephone installed in his house.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Ellsworth Garry, Miss Esther Garry and Warren Sawyer attended the inspection of Patuceway Grange at Nottingham last Thursday evening.

Horace G. Hill was a visitor in Exeter last Sunday.

Mr. George Kimball is making extensive repairs to his house.

He is putting in a heating plant and also running water in the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne enjoyed an auto trip up to Canada last week.

Ambrose Layn is visiting his niece, Mrs. Minor Fall of Dover, for a few days.

Wednesday evening of last week, as William A. Plumer sat reading in his store at Lee Depot, a masked man came in, pointed a revolver at him and shouted, "Hand over your money and do it quick." Mr. Plumer jumped from his chair, slammed the book in the would-be burglar's face and yelled, "Get out of here." The man retreated and got in an auto which was waiting in front of the store and escaped. Sheriff Goodwin of Dover was notified, and started a search.
November 4, 1921

Doris and Mattie Layn held a Hallowe’en party at their home last Saturday evening. There were about thirty present. Games were played, refreshments served, and a good time enjoyed by all.

Charles Stackpole is spending a few days in Newton, Mass.

Dexter and Sumner Layne enjoyed an auto trip to Canada last week.

Chester E. Tebbetts recently caught three raccoons, weighing about 45 pounds.

The members of Jeremiah Smith Grange are invited to be the guests of Piscataqua Grange at Newington next Tuesday evening.

Thomas Jones Davis died at his home in Duluth, Minn., Oct. 28. Mr. Davis had spent the summer at his farm in Lee, and only arrived home a few days before his death. He was a native of Lee, and was well known to our people. Funeral services were held at the farm in Lee on Wednesday, and interment was in the family burying ground. His age was 72 years and 6 days.

November 11, 1921

Mrs. Asenath Cook is visiting relatives in Dover this week.

Miss Helen Layne spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell spent the week-end with Mrs. Caldwell’s father in Malden, Mass.

The members of Jeremiah Smith Grange who attended the annual inspection of Piscataqua Grange at Newington last Tuesday evening were, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mrs. Arthur Thompson, Mrs. Carmichael and son, Ellsworth and Esther Garrity, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Grover Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dudley and Doris James. The fourth degree was exemplified in a very excellent manner, and all reported a good time.

November 18, 1921

Benton Layne has charge of the state road which is being built in Madbury.

Mrs. Edith O’Brien was a visitor at Lyford M. Wiggin’s over the week-end.

Mrs. George Fox is entertaining her sister from Boston this week.

Mrs. Helen McRae visited her mother, Mrs. Martha Buzzell, in Barrington last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones and family moved to Durham for the winter last Saturday.
December 2, 1921

The older boys of Lee met in the Center school and organized a Y.M.C.A., Saturday, Nov. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel spent Thanksgiving Day in Dover with Mr. McDaniel’s father.

Miss Grace Hill is visiting her brother, Horace G. Hill.

Mr. Daniel ? is spending a week with Clarence Fernald?

Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel and family enjoyed Thanksgiving in Somerville, Mass.

Lyford Wiggin spent the weekend with Henry Fox and family in Charlestown, Mass.

David Bartlett and family spent the holiday with Mr. Bartlett’s parents in Manchester, N.H.

Sidney McKay and family enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner with friends in Milton.

A family party of twenty-two were entertained at Loren Fernald’s on Thanksgiving.

Officers elected at the last meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange were Master, Ellsworth Garrity, Overseer, Robert Thompson, Lecturer, Helen Thompson, Steward, Ernest Wardwell, Asst. Steward, George Dudley, Chaplain, Mercy McDaniel, Secretary, Grace Dudley, Treasurer, Mark Mills, Gatekeeper, Warren Sawyer, Ceres, Grace Wellington, Pomona, Florence Caldwell, Flora, Sarah Carmichael, Lady Asst. Steward, Esther Garrity, Member of executive board for three years, Arthur McDaniel.

Mrs. Able Haley of Wolfeboro passed the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Charles Langley has been visiting friends in Epping recently.

Frank Wiggin met with the misfortune of dislocating his shoulder recently while herding calves.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Felker of Dover and Mrs. Maud Page and daughters of Exeter passed Thanksgiving with their father, Alphonso Jones.
Mrs. E. N. Bloom had business in Nottingham Saturday.

James Kelsey, an old resident of this town, has moved to Portland, Me.

Charles Revere has left high school and started a meat route ably assisted by Austin Caswell.

Edgerton Bloom plowed for Archie Couse of Nottingham one day last week.

Mrs. Helen Wiggin called on her mother, Mrs. N. C. Thompson, one day last week.

W. A. Plumer has been very busy with auctions this fall but the season is about over with.

William Plumer has several teams hauling lumber from Nottingham.

Our depot master, Mr. Mayo is on a vacation. Parkman Haley is substituting for him.

E. N. Bloom and Benjamin Lang finished making their cider last Saturday.

Mrs. Nellie Cartland Thompson took dinner with her brother and sister at Dover Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Todd, our teacher at So. Lee gave an entertainment at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served.

Miss Lucia Plumer is spending her Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Mrs. Sarah Haley made a flying trip to her place in Nottingham during the past week.

A. D. Wiggin spent Thanksgiving with his family at Wadley's Falls.

Edgerton Bloom sawed wood at Wadley's Falls last week.

December 2, 1921 cont.

Mrs. E.N. Bloom had business in Nottingham Saturday.

James Kelsey an old resident of this town, has moved to Portland, Me.

Charles Revere has left high school and started a meat route ably assisted by Austin Caswell.

Edgerton Bloom plowed for Archie Couse, of Nottingham one day last week.

Mrs. Helen Wiggin called on her mother, Mrs. N.C. Thompson, one day last week.

W.A. Plumer has been very busy with auctions this fall but the season is about over with.

William Plumer has several teams hauling lumber from Nottingham.

Our depot master, Mr. Mayo is on a vacation. Parkman Haley is substituting for him.

E.N. Bloom and Benjamin Lang finished making their cider last Saturday.

Mrs. Nellie Cartland Thompson took dinner with her brother and sister at Dover Thanksgiving Day.

Miss Todd, our teacher at So. Lee gave an entertainment at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served.

Miss Lucia Plumer is spending her Thanksgiving vacation at home.

Mrs. Sarah Haley made a flying trip to her place in Nottingham during the past week.

A.D. Wiggin spent Thanksgiving with his family at Wadley's Falls.

Edgerton Bloom sawed wood at Wadley's Falls last week.
December 9, 1921

It has been a very unfavorable deer season, so far, this year, owing to the ?, very few deer being taken, as far as known, in this vicinity.

Leon Mayo and Mrs. Mayo have returned from a very pleasant trip to Maine.

Parkman Haley visited his mother last week.

Edward Coughlin made calls at Wadley's Falls Sunday.

Fred York, first selectman, got his first deer this year.

Mrs. Lamprey is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Lang.

John Noble had business in Newmarket Friday.

A. D. Wiggin, who has been at home this past week, has returned to North Conway, where he represents the Fuller Brush Co.

Mrs. Putnam and Miss Todd visited Newmarket Friday evening.

E. U. Bloom has taken a job hauling wood for James Walker.

Miss Lucia Plumer has returned to her school.

James Walker and a party of friends are staying at True Bartlett's, deer hunting.

Mrs. William Carpenter and Miss Fannie Davis of Newmarket, went deer hunting Monday.

Mrs. Childs, who is making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Fernald, for the winter, has been ill with a cold the past week.

Mrs. Ethel Thompson visited her sister, Mrs. Mercy McDaniel, last Tuesday.

Miss Lida Brewitt was a visitor in Dover last Wednesday.

Mrs. George Chesley is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Durgin.

Among the lucky deer hunters are F. C. York, Glover Smith and Charlie Sawyer.

Miss Mary Chesley was a visitor in Dover last Tuesday.

A box party and dance was held at the town hall last Thursday evening, under the auspices of Mrs. Charles Johnson.
Walter Jones was a visitor in town last Sunday.

Charles Stackpole is spending a few weeks with his niece, Mrs. Clara Frost, of Eliot, Me.

A dance was held in the town hall last Saturday evening by Mrs. Charles Johnson. There was a good attendance and all reported an enjoyable time. Another one is announced for Dec. 31st.

Frank Young who has been confined to the house the past two weeks with the jaundice is able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel are attending the State Grange in Concord this week.

Nehemiah Snell is moving his mill from Raymond to Wells, Me., where he is to saw a million feet of lumber.

Mrs. Lavinia Rosenthal went to Chicago last Saturday, on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Stella Hines.

Robert Kirkwood finished working at Portsmouth and is at home.

E. U. Bloom sawed wood for Webster Dow, at North Epping.

Owing to illness, Miss Todd did not return to her school until Wednesday.

The Y.M.C.A. held a meeting at the Grange Hall, Friday evening.

Mrs. Dudley Monroe, of Haverhill, Mass., formerly Grace Revere of Lee, spent a few days with friends at Lee Hill the past week.

James Walker and family plan to spend Christmas in their new home.

Mrs. A. D. Wiggin called on her mother Mrs. N. C. Thompson, Saturday forenoon.

Alfred Durgin and family visited Dover one day last week.

December 16, 1921

Walter Jones was a visitor in town last Sunday.

Charles Stackpole is spending a few weeks with his niece, Mrs. Clara Frost, of Eliot, Me.

A dance was held in the town hall last Saturday evening by Mrs. Charles Johnson. Their was a good attendance and all reported an enjoyable time. Another one is announced for Dec. 31st.

Frank Young who has been confined to the house the past two weeks with the jaundice is able to be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel are attending the State Grange in Concord this week.

Nehemiah Snell is moving his mill from Raymond to Wells, Me., where he is to saw a million feet of lumber.

Mrs. Lavinia Rosenthal went to Chicago last Saturday, on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Stella Hines.

Robert Kirkwood finished working at Portsmouth and is at home.

E. U. Bloom sawed wood for Webster Dow, at North Epping.

Owing to illness, Miss Todd did not return to her school until Wednesday.

The Y.M.C.A. held a meeting at the Grange Hall, Friday evening.

Mrs. Dudley Monroe, of Haverhill, Mass., formerly Grace Revere of Lee, spent a few days with friends at Lee Hill the past week.

James Walker and family plan to spend Christmas in their new home.

Mrs. A. D. Wiggin called on her mother Mrs. N. C. Thompson, Saturday forenoon.

Alfred Durgin and family visited Dover one day last week.
December 23, 1921

Miss Marion Walker is confined to the house with a severe cold.

Charles Allen had business in Boston last week.

Alfred Durgin and family went to Exeter last week.

Our good sleighing of last week suddenly disappeared when we had a sudden downpour of rain Sunday, and now it’s neither sleighing nor wheeling.

Miss Todd made a hasty trip to Boston Saturday.

Lucille Thompson, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson, was ill with a cold last week.

Mrs. Granville Thompson visited Newmarket Monday.

Miss Todd’s school had a very pretty Christmas tree Monday evening.

Alice Demerritt visited Rochester Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Monroe of Haverhill, Mass., visited the home of Mrs. Monroe’s father last week.

Miss Edith Fernald, who is teaching school in Franklin, N.H., is at home for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel were visitors in Portsmouth last Wednesday.

George Fox went to Boston last Monday on business.

Mrs. Chester Tebbetts spent a few days with her sister in Dover this week.

Mrs. Stella Hines, daughter of Mrs. Lavinia Rosenthal, passed away at her home in Maywood, Illinois, last Saturday.

Mrs. Anna Lee was a visitor in Dover last week.

Frank McDaniel of Dover was in town last Tuesday.

The schools in town will close Friday for a week’s vacation. Christmas exercises will be held Friday afternoon.

Alex. McRae is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Miss Gertrude McKay of Dover spent a few days with her parents this week.

Mrs. Abigail Jane Wingate, who quietly observed her 93d birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Morrison of Rochester, was born in Lee, N.H., Dec. 14, 1828, the daughter of Cutter Wigg. At the age of 17 years she married Daniel Wingate, Jr., of Dover and later they went to Somersworth, where they resided for 72 years. Mrs. Wingate, who has a remarkable memory, recalls her early days in Lee, relating one incident of making a trip to Exeter with her mother on horseback, she riding behind holding on to her mother. Four generations were at the birthday dinner. She has three children, William Wingate of Nashua, Mrs. Emma Fernald of Dover and Mrs. Frank Morrison of Rochester besides three grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren, also a nephew, James M. Wiggan, and a niece, Mrs. Alonzo Langmaid, of Lee.