June 2, 1927

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. York are enjoying their fine new Automobile sedan.

Stanley Dalton is working at the University. Wallace Stiles' sisters from Connecticut have been visiting him, with their families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Reading, Mass., spent the weekend with Mrs. George McDaniel.

Mrs. Charles Philbrick of Melrose, Mass., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. David Bartlett, over Memorial Day.

The Memorial services of the North Lee school were held last Friday afternoon. The children made wreaths and with the flags decorated the soldiers' graves.

Work on the trunk line has resumed this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and family of Newton, Mass., were at the Bungalow over Memorial Day.

Mrs. Emma Corson is with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Munroe, who has been quite sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Plumer of Northwood spent Sunday and Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Plumer, and grandmother, Jane Plumer.

Mr. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Granville Thompson went to Biddeford, Maine, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley and two daughters and friend of Northwood called on their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Munroe, last Monday evening.

Mrs. William Plumer and brother spent Sunday at Hampton beach.

Homer James and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Wells spent Sunday and Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George James.

Gardner Kimball is going to rebuild his barn that was burned a few weeks ago, caused by lightning.

Among the many callers at the old Hale farm for the holiday were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plumer and son, Mrs. Pike, all from Portsmouth, Mrs. Snow from Dover, formerly of Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellison from Fitchburg, Mass. Also Mrs. William McDonald, with her sister, niece and nephew and his wife, of South Groveland, Mass. Mrs. McDonald used to live at Hale farm.

Bert Pray was in town Sunday.

The buildings of Ben Lang are being repainted.

Evangeline Durgin went to Meredith with fifteen other girls of the Alpha Xi Delta of the University. They went Saturday morning and returned Monday night.

Paul Dixon will continue preaching at the church until vacation. He will also continue with his Boys' Club.

Edwin Wiggin and wife, with their son, Dana, of Lynn, Mass., also Clarence Wiggin and daughter, Marion, of Stratham, were at their farm for the week-end.

Rev. Frank Tyler and wife and Byron Rowell and daughter, Norma, stopped at the Cartland farm last Sunday.

Charles Cartland and sister, Bessie, were at their farm recently.

Miss Nora Whitehouse spent Memorial Day in Farmington.

Donald Leonard with his wife and two children spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Peach, at Wadley's Falls.

A family by the name of Randall, of Dover, has moved into the Lee's house, owned by E. Hall of Dover.

Albert Caverno and family of Kittery, Maine, and Charles Caverno and family of West Someville, Mass.,
June 2, 1927 cont.

Albert Caverno and family of Kittery, Maine, and Charles Caverno and family of West Somerville, Mass., were visitors at their father’s Horace Caverno, last Sunday.

A Studebaker car, driven by a young lady from Dover, skidded and tipped over in front of the home of Charles Johnson, last Tuesday forenoon. The lady was uninjured and the glass was broken in but one window until the wrecker from Dover came. As they were righting the car they broke most of the rest of the glass, except the back window.

Horace Caverno, who is over 70 years of age, has planted 50 bushels of potatoes, besides other garden seeds, this spring.

A family by the name of Fiske is going to move into the Dame farm.

They have started again on the state road here in town.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rawlson and son, John, of Terryville, Conn., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stiles. They came Friday and went back Monday night.

Arthur Thompson is much better and it is expected that he will be home soon.

Donald Stiles, who was hit by an automobile, is better and is up and around.

June 9, 1927

The Girl Reserves are all requested to meet at the church lawn Saturday afternoon at two o’clock.

Raymond and Harry Munroe went to Lynn Sunday, to see their father, who is very ill.

Lucille Wiggin has gone to Alton Bay to work for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity are rejoicing over the birth of a son, born June 1. They have named it Junior.

Arthur Thompson returned home from the Hayes hospital last Monday.

The North and South Lee schools close this week Friday for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Nichols were visitors at George Corson’s last weekend.

The Pioneer Club met at the swimming hole last Saturday to make it better for bathing.
June 16, 1927

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peach went to Malden, Mass., recently, to see Mr. Peach’s mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith are at their camp at the Bay for a week.

Several in Lee attended the 101 Ranch show at Portsmouth last Saturday.

Mrs. Alfred Durgin, Evangeline and Chesley, went to Manchester one day last week.

James Faylen has rented the Keniston place. He came last week.

Robert Thompson, Mr. Mentor, and several others went to York Harbor deep sea fishing. They all brought home a good catch.

Evangeline Durgin goes to Poland Springs this Friday as one of the delegates for the Y. W. C. A. from the University.

Helen Thompson and sister went to Boston, Mass., last Thursday.

Mary Lane has gone to Nantucket for the summer.

Mrs. Simonds went to Boston last Thursday and returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Alice Sawyer is getting along nicely but slowly.

Katherine Jones was home over the week-end.
June 23, 1927

Those having a record of perfect attendance for the year at the North Lee school were Chester and Elizabeth Ellison.

At the next regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange, June 28, State Master James C. Farmer will be present, and Centennial Grange of Barrington is invited to furnish half of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell attended the district meeting of Granges held at Goffstown last Wednesday evening.

Pauline and Homer Johnson attended the Junior Prom at the Dover Opera House Tuesday night.

Elmer Dixon spent the week-end at his home in Milton.

While helping to get a car onto the road Bert Stimpson got his thumb caught in the brakeband of the car. Part of the bone was pulled out and the thumb pulled out of joint.

Charley Whitney, who has spent his school year at Mr. Simons’, has returned to his home in Massachusetts. Florence Simons went with him for a visit.

Lee Hill school closed last Friday. A picnic was had. Ice cream, candy, lemonade and cake were served and a good time was had by all.

Another accident occurred at Harvey’s bridge last Sunday night about ten o’clock. This was a more serious accident than the others. A car containing two fellows and a girl went off the bridge. The girl was not injured but both men are not expected to live. They were taken to the Exeter hospital, where one had 19 stitches taken in his head. The girl got her head above water and was able to call for help.

Herbert Wiggin of California visited his son, Arthur Wiggin, for a few days last week.

Mrs. Arthur Wiggin and son, Charles, were visitors in Portsmouth last Monday.

June 30, 1927

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held last Tuesday evening. State Master Farmer was present and gave a very interesting talk. Visitors were present from Barrington, Newfields, Durham and Epping. Refreshments were served. It was voted to invite State Overseer John Hammond and wife to be present at the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel entertained Frank McDaniel and daughter, Bertha, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Beaudoin and family of Dover over Sunday.
July 7, 1927

Paul Cilley was home over the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cilley.

Donald Learnard was a visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peach on the holiday.

Rev. Harry Smith of Durham conducted the communion services at Lee church last Sunday.

Haven D. Layne motored from New York to spend the holiday with his parents.

Clara Wolfram of Somerville visited Miss Inez Jennerson on the holiday.

Donald Thompson and cousin, Roger Smith, of Boston, spent the week-end and the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

A party of twenty-five from Newburyport were at the Belle Tuttle Homestead this week-end.

Charles Davis and family of Lynn, Mass., were at the Willow Homestead this week.

Frank Seaward and wife of Manchester and Carrie and Mabel Thompson of Epping were recent callers at the old Hale farm.

Mrs. Muriel Caverno Davis and Miss Rebekah Caverno of Portsmouth called on Clare Ellison this week.

Harry Davis and family, with Dr. Harding, have come to spend the summer with Charles Stackpole.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hanscom and daughter, Nora, of Cheshire, Conn., with Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stimpson of Portsmouth, recently made a short call on Mrs. Belle Garrity and family.

Ellsworth Garrity, wife and baby, Junior, spent the week-end at his mother’s.

Mrs. Belle Garrity and family had an outing at Milton Mills on the Fourth. In the afternoon they returned to Dover, where they saw the ball game between Dover and Amesbury. The Dover team won, 8 to 7.

Elliott Wellington and wife of Dorchester, Mass., were home over the holiday.

Miss Marion Walker has gone as instructor in swimming for several weeks at camp Kearsarge, on Lake Pleasant, New London.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatch and family were in town Sunday from Dover.

Edwin Thompson visited his brother and sister, William and Lizzie Thompson, over the week-end.

Mrs. Annie Coleman is spending a few weeks at the Ferguson place.
July 14, 1927

John P. Sawyer left town last Tuesday for Los Angeles, California, to attend a summer school there.

Mrs. Fred Cobb of Biddeford, Maine, is visiting her brother, Granville Thompson.

Mrs. Edward Hancock and two daughters, Jeannette and Priscilla, of Melrose, Mass., are staying for the summer with Horace Caverno.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe have for visitors, Mr. and Mrs. George Munroe and children, who came last Monday.

The Lee Missionary Society will hold a picnic for the children in town, Thursday afternoon, July 21. Games will be played and refreshments served.

Miss Natalie Sawyer of Newtonville, Mass., was a guest of Miss Mildred Davis over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel.

The Lee Missionary Society will hold a picnic for the children in town, Thursday afternoon, July 21. Games will be played and refreshments served.

Miss Natalie Sawyer of Newtonville, Mass., was a guest of Miss Mildred Davis over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel.

The Sunday School picnic will be held Saturday, August 6, at Suncook Lake.
July 21, 1927

Walter Jones and Warren Sawyer spent the week-end in the White Mountains.

Belle Garrity and family took a trip up through Northwood, Dover and Madbury, and stopped at Barbadoes Pond, where there were many people in bathing.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ellison and family motored to Exeter, East Kingston and Kensington last Sunday.

George McDonald of Durham, has been spraying the potatoes of Chester Ellison, Horace Caverno and Benton Layne this week.

Harry Brow and family of Haverhill, Mass., were callers at the Old Hale Farm last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe went to Northwood last Sunday.

Raymond Munroe took his brother, Harry, and family back to Lynn, Mass., Sunday. They have been visiting at Raymond Munroe’s for the past week.

The two plays were given last Thursday evening by the Girl Reserves. Not all the program was given, because some that were to take part in the musical part did not come, on account of the severe thunder storm. The girls were very much pleased with the good attendance and sum of money received, for the condition of the weather.

Mrs. Fred Carl York has been sick.

Ronald Thompson and family of Lawrence, Mass., were recent visitors at the Hill Top farm.

There was a large picnic crowd from Portsmouth at Sidney Davis’ last Sunday.

Mr. Simonds is doing Granville Thompson’s haying.

George Bennett and William Mitchell are going to do Deacon Thompson’s haying.

Harry Smith is in the Exeter hospital with an infected hand caused by a firecracker. Albert and Guy Durell are staying with Mrs. Smith at the Bay.

Mrs. Ernest Menter’s mother is visiting her.

There are some girls boarding at Imogene Simonds’.

Willard Dow of Boston visited at the Thurston farm over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee took their two nieces, who have been visiting them, back to their home in Bryantville, Mass., Sunday.

Miss Grace Thurston attended the funeral of a cousin, Mrs. Edward Thurston, at Exeter, Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carlton have been visiting at Mrs. Robert Thompson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cobb returned to Biddeford, Maine, last week. Their sister, Mrs. Fred Cobb, who has been staying for two weeks at Mrs. Granville Thompson's, went back with them.

Miss Inez Jenerson visited in Cambridge, Mass., for two days last week.

John T. Sawyer has arrived in Los Angeles, California. On his way he visited his brother, Charles Sawyer, and from there he stopped at the Grand Canyon at Colorado. His brother, Lester, and wife met him at Los Angeles and then they took a 200-mile trip with auto through parts of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart of Derry visited at Mrs. Ruth Munroe's last Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Munroe, Mrs. Young and friends of Dover called on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe last Sunday.

Mildred and Grace McDaniel are visiting their aunt in Reading, Mass.

There will be a special Grange meeting next Tuesday, August 16. All Grangers are invited to be present.

The work on the Mast road has greatly improved the road.

Raymond Munroe is cutting Belle Garrity's hay this year.
August 18, 1927

The Sunday school picnic, held at Suncook Lake last Saturday, was well attended, there being almost sixty there. It was a beautiful day and all enjoyed bathing, canoeing, games and a basket lunch.

Miss Madeline Caldwell is spending a week with her aunt in Dover.

Mrs. Granville Thompson and Mrs. Robert Thompson spent the week-end in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel attended the funeral of Rev. Charles Roeke, State Grange chaplain, at Hudson last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer James of Somerville, Mass., are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. George James.

Mrs. Kenneth Fogg went to Boston last week with Mrs. Ronald Coker.

John McDaniel and family of Portland, Maine spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel.

Mrs. Alice Sawyer, who has been at the Wentworth hospital for the past four months, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Randall and family of Fitchburg, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randall.

Miss Mildred Davis returned to Newton for a few days this week to attend the wedding of one of her friends.

Mrs. Jay Thompson of Epping and her daughter, of Exeter, called on Mrs. Chester Ellison last Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eliott Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Day of Dorchester, Mass., were visitors over the week-end at Walter Wellington’s.

Mrs. Cynthia Goodwin and two daughters of Suncook are visitors at George Corson’s.

Mrs. Maud Page and daughter, Miss Nora Whitehouse and Earl Jones took a trip to New Durham Ridge one day last week, and pronounced the scenery very beautiful.

Miss Barbara James went to Boston, Mass., one day last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Edna Wells.

Charles Johnson was very badly stung last Saturday, while trying to take some bees that were swarming.

Miss Isabelle Smart of Durham was a caller at Mrs. Belle Garrity’s last Tuesday.

Raymond Munroe’s father passed away at his home in Lynn, Mass., last Monday morning. The funeral will be held Wednesday.

There was a clam bake at Durham Point last Sunday, held by twenty people from Lee Hill.

Fourteen candidates have made applications for the Grange. The first and second degrees will be worked next Tuesday night, August 23.

Miss Evangeline Durgin has been away visiting over the week-end.

Horace Caverino has his cottage at Lake Wheelwright let to Biddeford parties.

Audrey Spencer and Ruby Goodwin were visitors in Dover last Tuesday.

Many Lee people are attending the Farmers’ and Homemakers’ Week at the University this week.
August 25, 1927
Jeremiah Smith Grange worked the first and second degrees Tuesday night on fourteen candidates. There were visitors from Pawtuckaway Grange, Nottingham, Braintree Grange, Mass., Scammel Grange, Durham, and Rockingham Grange, Epping. At the next meeting the third and fourth degrees will be worked by two visiting Granges.

Mr. and Mrs. Menter and family returned Monday from their trip to Canada.

There were callers at the Hale farm last Monday from Wales, Wisconsin.

Miss Anna Kelly is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruth Munroe.

September 1, 1927
Mrs. David Mitchell died at her home Wednesday night, August 24, aged 74 years, 1 month and 13 days. She was born in Bradford, Vermont, and has resided here for the past 18 years. She is survived by her husband, David Mitchell, and a niece and a nephew, who live in Vermont. The funeral was held at her late home Saturday morning at ten o’clock. Rev. Mr. Ramsden of Newfields was the officiating clergyman. The body was taken to Leominster, Mass., for burial. Brown & Trottier were the undertakers in charge.

The Chesley family will hold a reunion over Labor Day at Alfred C. Durgin’s.

The Lee Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. George McDaniel Thursday afternoon, September 8.

Miss Susan Layne has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Martha Caldwell.

September 8, 1927
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders moved their goods on Wednesday from Reading, Mass., to the so-called John C. Bartlett farm, where they will reside in future.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker were away on a trip of several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cram of Greenwood, Mass., who passed the month of August at the Nutwood Farm, returned to their home on Tuesday.
Mrs. Frank Randall is visiting her son in Fitchburg, Mass.

The Lee Missionary Society met with Mrs. George McDaniel last Thursday afternoon. Plans for the year were discussed and arrangements made to entertain the Madbury and Barrington societies in October. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and family returned to Newton, Mass., this week, after a summer at the bungalow.

Mrs. Ann Randall is visiting her nephew, Kenneth Fogg.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett went to Manchester last Sunday.

The regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Tuesday evening. The third and fourth degrees were conferred on a class of fourteen candidates by Raymond Grange and Rockingham Grange of Epping. A fine program was presented by the Lecturer. There were 146 in attendance; sixteen granges being represented. A bountiful harvest supper was served and all reported a most enjoyable time.

Herman Rhines and family of Framingham spent Sunday at Chester Ellison’s.

Mrs. Edna Wells has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George James.

Mrs. Ruth Munroe’s mother, Mrs. Charles Kelley, spent the week with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe and father and mother attended the Pittsfield Fair last Saturday.

Mrs. Crosby of Farmington passed Sunday at Horace Caverno’s.

Mrs. Maud Page spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Marion Kimball, of Kensington.

Mrs. Minnie Walker, and daughter and family of Bedford, Mass., visited the Hale farm last Wednesday.

A party of fifteen from Lynn, Mass., had a picnic dinner at the Girls’ Club room at the Hale farm last Sunday.

REV. JOHN W. LEES

Rev. John W. Lees, aged 91 years, a retired Congregational minister, died Sept. 7 at his home, 499 Pleasant street, South Weymouth, Mass. He was born in Edinburg, Scotland, June 24, 1836. He came to America as a young man and studied for the ministry at the Andover Theological Seminary.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Marion Lees. On May 4, 1921, and Mrs. Lees celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary and in 1926 their 65th. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon, Sept. 9, at the Lees home.

Mr. Lees’ first pastorate was in Lee. During the ten years he was with us we learned to love him very much, and it was with deep regret that we parted with him. Their two children were born there, Norman dying young.

We have been much interested in the family and he always seemed to have a large place in his heart for the people of his former parish.

Another grand old man has passed away.
September 22, 1927

Mrs. Herbert Brooks of Dover, a former resident of Lee, was a guest of Mrs. David Bartlett last week.

Frank Wiggin and family have moved to Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fogg spent the weekend at S. W. Sherburne’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe spent the weekend with Mrs. Munroe’s mother at S. W. Sherburne’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts of Dover were visitors at B. E. Layne’s Sunday.

Earl Jones of Madbury, with his father, Alphonso Jones, Miss Whitehouse and Mrs. Maud Page were visitors in Exeter last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Caldwell is visiting her sister, Miss Mary Flanders, in Malden, Mass.

Seth W. Sherburne is making arrangements to build a new house on land he recently bought below Chester Tebbitt’s farm, on the “Turnpike road.”

September 29, 1927

The Frank Oldham farm has been sold to Massachusetts parties, who will use it mostly for a summer home.

The invalid who has been at Wallace Stiles for so long has returned to her home in Kingston.

Mrs. Louisa Merrydew, who recently lost her husband, is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Wallace Stiles.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee and Mrs. Jane Plumer went to Rochester last Sunday.

Miss Nora Whitehouse, Alphonzo Jones and Earl Jones visited the fair grounds at Rochester last Sunday.

Mrs. Belle Garrity and family went to The Weirs last Sunday for a picnic.

Mrs. Chester Ellison was greatly surprised last Sunday when one of her pupils, Miss Mary Moran of San Francisco, made a short visit to see her teacher, whom she had not seen for over 35 years.

Mrs. Addie Mitchell, who has been staying with her brother, David, has returned to her home.

The bridge near Loren Fernald’s has been completed and is now passable.

Many Lee people are attending Rochester Fair this year.
October 6, 1927

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe, Mrs. Emma Corson and Mrs. Ann Randall have gone on a motor trip to Niagara Falls.

Inspection of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held Wednesday evening, October 5.

The Union Missionary Meeting of Lee, Barrington and Madbury will be held at the Lee church Tuesday afternoon, October 11.

Mrs. Grace Dudley is at the farm for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Sanders.

October 13, 1927

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Barnum were visitors at the Sawyer Farm over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Garrity went to Providence, R.I., where they will attend the wedding of a cousin of Mrs. Garrity.

Next Sunday, October 16, there will be no church services, but there will be a Sunday school.

Paul Dixon preached his last sermon at Lee church last Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Sawyer left last Monday for Connecticut with her nephew and niece, where she will visit for a while.

The Lee church will hold a harvest supper at Grange Hall Friday evening, October 21. An interesting program has been arranged and exhibits are solicited.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniell and family spent the week-end in Somerville, Mass.
October 20, 1927

Rev. Anderson Brown, the Congregational minister of Epping, will preach at the Lee Congregational church at 12:15 Sunday. Sunday school is at 11 o’clock Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe spent last Saturday visiting their mother in Lynn, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker have been away on a several days auto trip.

Several of the Lee Congregational church visited the Congregational church in Epping last Sunday.

Elmer T. Dixon, who has been working at the Hale Farm, has gone to Springfield, Mass., to visit his aunt and uncle.

Four more candidates have sent in applications to join Jeremiah Smith Grange.

Audrey Spencer is working for Professor Kendall.

Don’t forget the harvest supper to be held at Grange Hall Friday evening, October 21. An especially interesting program has been arranged.

Mrs. William Caldwell is in Dover for a few days.

Mrs. William Carpenter was a visitor in Manchester last Friday.

Mrs. Kenneth Fogg attended the wedding of one of her friends in Boston this week.

October 27, 1927

The annual meeting of the Lee branch of the American Red Cross will be held at the town hall Saturday afternoon, at three o’clock, for the annual report, election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it. All who contributed $1 or more at the last roll call are members for the year, and it is desired that as many as possible be present.

The annual harvest supper was held last Friday evening at Grange Hall. There was a large attendance, over one hundred partaking of the supper. An excellent program was given by the following talent: Mrs. Lawrence Haley, soloist; Miss Josephine Haley, mandolin; Mrs. Roland Decatur, whistling solos; and Arthur McDaniel, reader. Fruit and vegetables, generously contributed by the townspeople, were then sold at auction. The committee are very grateful to all who helped make the affair a success. The net proceeds of the evening amounted to $44.11.