Miss Gladys Jones held a Hallowe’en party at her home last Monday night. Her school chums were present.

Mrs. Carlton Nichols of Lynn, Mass., niece of George Corson, is rejoicing over the birth of a son.

At the Grange Hall this Friday evening there will be an entertainment consisting of vaudeville acts, given by different Granges. There will be also a cafeteria lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Munroe are greatly enjoying their new Miraco radio.

Mrs. Charles Johnson went to Amesbury, Mass., last Sunday.

Mrs. Belle Garrity has been laid up with a very lame right arm. For a week she was unable to feed herself.

A bob-cat has been seen around Lee Hill several times lately.

George James is having his house painted.

Ellsworth Garrity is planning on starting the cellar for his new house this week.

Mrs. Hazel Dudley spent last Wednesday with her mother.

Three new candidates were taken into Jeremiah Smith Grange. The first and second degrees were conferred on them last Tuesday evening. The third and fourth are to be conferred next Tuesday night.

Leon Dudley has enlisted in the United States Marines. He is now at Paris Island, South Carolina.

Miss Alice Dudley spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Grace B. Dudley. She visited in Durham Saturday and then returned to Worcester, Mass., where she is teaching.

Mrs. Alice Sawyer is home again after a visit in Connecticut. She is planning on a trip to California in about two weeks.

Mrs. Horace Caverno attended the funeral of her sister, Miss Elizabeth Berry, last Tuesday at Lowell, Mass.

George Corson has been very successful with his trapping this year.
November 17, 1927

Wallace Stiles has invested in a new horse.

Mrs. Woodruff Mason, who has been ill, is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatch and family of Dover will leave soon after Christmas for a winter in California. Mrs. Hatch was Mary Chesley of Lee.

David Mitchell visited William Mitchell over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dudley went to Hanover to attend the football game.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavelle and Miss Audrey Spencer went to Lynn, Mass., to see their sister, Mrs. Flora Nichols, and baby.

Mrs. Charles Johnson and Homer Johnson started Tuesday morning for Burlington, Vermont, to attend the funeral of her nephew, but when they reached Wells River they had to return home.

There was a special meeting held at Jeremiah Smith Grange last Tuesday evening. The third and fourth degrees were conferred on three candidates. A supper was served. Two visiting Granges were present.

The MacRaes are now out of quarantine.

There was a milk meeting held at the town hall last Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Phair of Durham was elected president and Charles Johnson of this town was elected secretary and treasurer.

Raymond Munroe spent Wednesday calling on friends.

November 24, 1927

Mrs. Ella (Kingman) Hayes, widow of Edward F. Hayes, passed away November 14, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry R. Hill, in Durham. Mrs. Hayes was the daughter of Charles H. and Mary E. (Hanson) Kingman, representatives of some of the earliest settlers of New Hampshire. Besides her daughter she is survived by a grandson, Claude H. Rice, and a brother, Charles S. Kingman, of Madbury. Funeral services were held at Ricker Memorial Chapel, Pine Hill cemetery, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Lewis E. Perdum, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiated. Mrs. Eula H. Buckley sang. Burial was in the family lot. The bearers were Major John Demeritt of Madbury, Former Mayor Charles H. Foss, Bert Wentworth and Charles A. Davis of Dover.

Seth W. Sherburne has recently purchased a tractor mill.

David Bartlett and family were visitors in Manchester this week.

There is to be a community sale and supper held at Grange Hall, Friday, December 2.
December 1, 1927

Mrs. Alice Sawyer left last Friday morning for California, where she will stay for the winter with her son.

The Red Cross representatives are out soliciting for the November roll call.

Donald Davis is very ill. He has been sick for two weeks. His temperature is up to 104.

Election of officers was held Tuesday night at Jeremiah Smith Grange.

Ruth Mentor is ill with a very sore throat.

The cow which Raymond Munroe bought recently got lonesome and thought it would try to go back home. It swam the Lamprey River to get out and after a long search, Mr. Munroe found her at the Old Keniston place. The man there got her and tied her up in his barn.

The Ellison family spent their Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Don’t forget the chicken pie supper and sale to be held at Grange hall this Friday evening. There is to be a one-act comedy by the young people and music by the Alpha Xi Delta Orchestra of the University of New Hampshire.

Moss Carrie Snell of Dover spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Elizabeth Snell.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel and family were in Somerville, Mass., over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fogg were guests of Mrs. Fogg’s sister in Concord last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts of Dover spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. and Mrs. Benton Layne.

Mrs. Ruth K. Munroe spent Thanksgiving and the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley, of Northwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Sawyer of Philadelphia, Pa., are rejoicing over the birth of a son. They were formerly of Lee.

Arthur Thompson attended the session of the legislature at Concord this week. Alfred Durgin, Clarence Laughton and William Thompson went with him.

Miss Gertrude Currier visited her father over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Maude Page spent the holiday with her father, Alphonso Jones.
The annual Christmas sale and supper was held last Friday evening at Grange hall. In spite of the weather a good number was in attendance. An interesting program was given, music being furnished by the Alpha Zi Delta girls from the University. There were readings by George McDaniel, solos by Everett Menter. Much credit is due the young people who presented the one-act comedy, “Not Quite Such a Goose.” The cast included Clare Ellison, Ruth Menter, Virginia Menter, Mary MacRae and William Currier. About $55.00 was realized from the sale and over $20.00 from the supper. The committee wish to thank all who so willingly contributed to making the affair a success.

Mrs. Mary Childs is very low.

Charles Caverno and wife spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caverno.

Miss Inez Jennerson has gone to Massachusetts for a few days.

Donald Thompson is home for a week, while the deer season is on.

Eliott Wellington is home for a week to hunt deer.

Gardiner Kimball has closed his house for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Nichols are spending the week at George Corson’s.

Jeremiah Smith Grange hall will be under repairs very soon.

The Grange supper and church sale held last Friday evening was a success, although the evening was stormy.

December 8, 1927

The Grange supper and church sale held last Friday evening at Grange hall. In spite of the weather a good number was in attendance. An interesting program was given, music being furnished by the Alpha Zi Delta girls from the University. There were readings by George McDaniel, solos by Everett Menter. Much credit is due the young people who presented the one-act comedy, “Not Quite Such a Goose.” The cast included Clare Ellison, Ruth Menter, Virginia Menter, Mary MacRae and William Currier. About $55.00 was realized from the sale and over $20.00 from the supper. The committee wish to thank all who so willingly contributed to making the affair a success.

Mrs. Mary Childs is very low.

Charles Caverno and wife spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Caverno.

Miss Inez Jennerson has gone to Massachusetts for a few days.

Donald Thompson is home for a week, while the deer season is on.

Eliott Wellington is home for a week to hunt deer.

Gardiner Kimball has closed his house for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Nichols are spending the week at George Corson’s.

Jeremiah Smith Grange hall will be under repairs very soon.

The Grange supper and church sale held last Friday evening was a success, although the evening was stormy.

December 15, 1927

Donald Thompson killed a deer on the last day of his vacation and took it back to Boston with him.

Grace B. Dudley is in Concord this week, attending the State Grange meeting held there.

Mrs. William Carpenter is stopping in Manchester and will return home the day before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Phipps of Dover called at the Hale farm Sunday afternoon.

The Randalls have left town, having moved back to Dover.

The Lee Center school closes this Friday for the two weeks Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson were visitors in Dover last Monday.

The missionary society held their monthly meeting with Mrs. Alfred Durgin last Thursday afternoon.

While Mrs. Menter was driving her car through West Epping the car skidded and struck a telephone pole, breaking the bumper and windshield. No one was hurt.

The repairs on Jeremiah Smith Grange hall have been completed. The hall looks very nice and everyone who has seen it approves of it.
December 22, 1927

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith are expecting all their family home for the Christmas holidays.

Ellsworth Garrity and "Billie" Ellison both got a deer this week. Ellsworth's was an eight pound buck weighing about 200 pounds.

Mrs. Ruth Munroe closes her school this Friday for the Christmas vacation with a Christmas program in the afternoon.

Miss Audrey Spencer was home over the weekend.

Pauline Johnson and Barbara James are home for a two-weeks' vacation.

December 29, 1927

The Charles Johnson family spent Monday in Boston, Mass.

Among those on the sick list here in town are Mrs. Grace P. Dudley, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Raymond Munroe and Mrs. George James.

Miss Audrey Spencer has a very bad set of tonsils which she has got to have removed this week at the Hayes Hospital, Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Thompson's father and sister spent Sunday in Boston, Mass.

Homer James and wife and Mabeth Chesley and other members of the James family were home for their usual Christmas holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest James spent Christmas with Mrs. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens.

Thirteen members of the Walter Smith family were home for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker spent Christmas with Mrs. Felker's father, Alphonso Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Menter met with another accident to their car, this being the second. They broke one of the front wheels.

There were 31 last Monday at Mr. and Mrs. Menter's for Christmas.

The deer season is about over but it happened that four men were out last Tuesday, and they met by accident and each other what they were doing. Each said "deer hunting," but the strange part of it is that not one of the four had a gun.

One candidate was taken to Jeremiah Smith Grange. The first and second degrees were worked.

There was a Christmas party at Alfred Durgin's last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett went to Manchester on the holiday.

Miss Marjorie Davis of Newton, Mass., is the guest of Madeline Caldwell this week.

The solicitors of the Red Cross drive should be given much credit for their work, which resulted in 65 members for this town.

Seth W. Sherburne has recently purchased a tractor mill and is operating a lot in Barrington.