July 7, 1922

Charles W. Thompson of Dover was at the Thurston farm to spend Sunday.

Miss L.C. Noble called on friends in Durham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Caswell recently motored to New Hampton to visit their daughter.

Paul Cilley of Portland, Me., spent the week-end at his home.

Miss Grace Thurston, Mrs. Bertha Plumer and Mr. Paul were Dover visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Wiggin and daughter of Durham called at the Thurston farm Tuesday.

Wesley Harvey took a party to Hampton Beach Tuesday night.

Miss Norma Harvey of Haverhill is visiting at her home.

Clifton Clark was burned Tuesday by a cannon cracker.

James Wright and daughter, Sarah, of Epping, were recent visitors at J.M. Noble’s.

Not much prospect of our farmers starting haying as early as usual.
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kenney and family of Madbury were guests of Mrs. Belle Garrity last Tuesday.

John Fernald is driving the mail truck for the college at Durham.

Frank Hill of Boston spent the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Hill.

Harry Monroe is working for Chester Tebbetts at the Five Corners.

George and Albert Dudley were visitors in Raymond last Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Snell visited her sister, Mrs. David Fogg at Packer’s Falls, the Fourth.

Miss Nelson of Brighton, Mass., is spending her vacation with Mrs. George Fox.

Miss Helen Layne is the guest of friends in Penacook for a few weeks.

Mrs. Helen McRae spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Martha Buzzell, in Barrington.

Mrs. Lulu Walker was a visitor in Newmarket last Tuesday.

Albert Caverno and family of Portsmouth are spending a few weeks in town.

Mrs. Harry Tasker and family and Maurice Lee of Dover spent last week at the Lee farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fernald and family of Watertown, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman over the Fourth.

Sumner Layne went to North Conway last Friday to work for the summer.

Lester Sawyer is teaching at the summer school at the college in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel spent the Fourth at Rye Beach.

The new pews for the church are on the way and the committee hope to have them installed this month.
Mrs. Pauline Brewster of Exeter visited her sister, Mrs. Charles Piper Thursday.

Mrs. John Piper recently visited her daughter, Mrs. Jasper Robinson at Nottingham.

Olive Purinton of West Epping visited her aunt, Mrs. Walter Plumer Monday.

Mrs. J.T. Bartlett of Boston has been a recent visitor at the Ranch.

Miss Lucia Plumer is spending the week in Durham with Mrs. Frank Morrison.

Mrs. Charles Allen has returned to her home from Epping, where she has spent several weeks with her son, Fred.

Miss Smith has returned to her home in Manchester.

George and Stanley Plumer are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Stillson in Epping.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harvey and daughter, Goldie, spent Sunday in Epping with Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell.

Ernest Mentor and family motored to Nashua, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill were Manchester visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dore and two children and Mrs. Smith of Portsmouth visited with Grace Thurston last Friday.

Yvonne Paul has returned to her home in Dover, after a two weeks' visit with her brother.

Mrs. Harris is visiting Mrs. Herbert Hill.

Grace Thurston has a new horse.

Willys Tuttle and family were Dover visitors the first of the week.

July 14, 1922 cont.

Mrs. Pauline Brewster of Exeter visited her sister, Mrs. Charles Piper Thursday.

Mrs. John Piper visited her daughter, Mrs. Jasper Robinson at Nottingham.

Olive Purinton of West Epping visited her aunt, Mrs. Walter Plumer Monday.

Mrs. J.T. Bartlett of Boston has been a recent visitor at the Ranch.

Miss Lucia Plumer is spending the week in Durham with Mrs. Frank Morrison.

Mrs. Charles Allen has returned to her home from Epping, where she has spent several weeks with her son, Fred.

Miss Smith has returned to her home in Manchester.

George and Stanley Plumer are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Stillson in Epping.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harvey and daughter, Goldie, spent Sunday in Epping with Mr. and Mrs. Blaisdell.

Ernest Mentor and family motored to Nashua, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill were Manchester visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dore and two children and Mrs. Smith of Portsmouth visited with Grace Thurston last Friday.

Yvonne Paul has returned to her home in Dover, after a two weeks' visit with her brother.

Mrs. Harris is visiting Mrs. Herbert Hill.

Grace Thurston has a new horse.

Willys Tuttle and family were Dover visitors the first of the week.
July 21, 1922

Mary Allen is enjoying company from Lynn.

Mr. Paul of Dover is helping his sons do the haying on the Thurston farm.

Charles Johnson is haying for parties in Nottingham.

Joseph King is working for Herbert Hill.

James Walker of Dover was at the Ranch, Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Kirkwood has returned home, having spent several days in Massachusetts visiting her mother and sisters.

Mrs. Herbert Hill and several friends motored to Durham Point, Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Plumer, Miss Grace Thurston and Oscar and Joseph Paul were Somersworth visitors, Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Blaisdell, Mrs. Mabel Simpson and two children and Mrs. John Blaisdell and baby spent Thursday with Mrs. Wesley Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plumer were visitors at Hampton Beach, Wednesday evening.

Miss Mary Allen, with a party of friends, motored to Hampton Beach, recently.

Miss Ione Griffin and Miss Alice Mitchell of Newmarket were recent visitors at the Noble farm.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson recently visited her brother, Charles Cartland, at Dover.

John Noble went to Rochester last Saturday on business.
Mrs. Emma Corson was a visitor in Dover last Monday.
Nehemiah Snell is at home from Wells, Me., for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan of Somerville, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D.B. Bartlett over the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and Miss Norah Whitehouse motored to Alton Bay last Saturday. Miss Whitehouse will remain for a vacation.
Mrs. Maude Page and daughter of Exeter and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and family of Boston are guests of Alphonso Jones this week.
Miss Bernice McKay spent a few days with Miss Lavena Seawall at South Berwick, Me., last week.
Miss Doris Layne went with a party to Hampton Beach, Monday evening.
The pews have arrived for the church and the committee are in hopes to have them installed so as to hold services in the church next Sunday.
An entertainment was held in Grange Hall last Thursday evening for the benefit of the church. A good programme was enjoyed by all and the sum of $10 was realized from the affair.
Miss S. Belle Tuttle of Swampscott, Mass., is stopping at the Tuttle homestead.
Harry Smith has had a radio outfit recently installed in his home.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox of Charlestown, Mass. are spending their vacation with their son, George Fox.
Mr. and Mrs. Barnum of Vermont were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer, last week.
Mrs. Frank McKone of Long Island, N.Y. and family spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tebbets of Springvale, Me., and Mrs. Emma Tebbets of East Rochester called on Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tebbets on July 16.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small entertained the following guests Sunday, Charles Small of East Kingston, Charles Hazen and Mrs. Lena Sargent of Haverhill, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter Priscilla, of Nottingham.

July 28, 1922

Mrs. Emma Corson was a visitor in Dover last Monday.
Nehemiah Snell is at home from Wells, Me., for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan of Somerville, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D.B. Bartlett over the week end.
Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer and Miss Norah Whitehouse motored to Alton Bay last Saturday. Miss Whitehouse will remain for a vacation.
Mrs. Maude Page and daughter of Exeter and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman and family of Boston are guest of Alphonso Jones this week.
Miss Bernice McKay spent a few days with Miss Lavena Seawall at South Berwick, Me., last week.
Miss Doris Layne sent with a party to Hampton Beach, Monday evening.
The pews have arrived for the church and the committee are in hopes to have them installed so as to hold services in the church next Sunday.
An entertainment was held in Grange Hall last Thursday evening for the benefit of the church. A good programme was enjoyed by all, and the sum of $10 was realized from the affair.
Miss S. Belle Tuttle of Swampscott, Mass., is stopping at the Tuttle homestead.
Harry Smith has had a radio outfit recently installed in his home.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox of Charlestown, Mass., are spending their vacation with their son, George Fox.
Mr. and Mrs. Barnum of Vermont were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer, last week.
Mrs. Frank McKone of Long Island, N.Y., and family spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tebbets of Springvale, Me., and Mrs. Emma Tebbets of East Rochester called on Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tebbets on July 16.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small entertained the following guests Sunday, Charles Small of East Kingston, Charles Hazen and Mrs. Lena Sargent of Haverhill, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter Priscilla, of Nottingham.
August 4, 1922

Mrs. J. Tuttle Bartlett was in town for a few days last week.

Miss Bertha Tootill was a visitor in Dover last week.

Harry Davis and family of Newton, Mass., are in town for the summer.

Mrs. Ann Randall of Boston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Snell.

Mrs. Willie Wiggin and son of Milton are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McKay this week.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, who have been living with Lyford M. Wiggin since last fall, regret to learn that they have returned to Boston to reside permanently.

Gladys Demeritt has returned to her home, after spending several weeks in Greenland.

John Clark is working at the Bay Side for Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Greeley of Exeter was in town recently and did some work at the Runlett yard.

Mrs. Thyng of Reading called at Grace Thurston’s last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Harvey and little daughter were Brentwood visitors Sunday.

Miss Mary Allen motored to Hampton Saturday.

Mrs. Plumer and two sons, Grace Thurston and Oscar Paul visited Hampton Beach, Rye Beach and Portsmouth last Saturday.

Mr. Evans and family of Greenland were Sunday visitors at Austin Caswell’s.

Alfred Durgin and family were recent visitors at Hampton Beach.

Howard French of Andover recently visited his brother, John.

Charles Cartland of Dover and Mr. and Mrs. Tyler of Barrington were visitors at the Cartland Farm, Monday.

Mrs. Nellie Thompson recently visited her daughter, Mrs. Winfield Robinson, at Epping, who is very sick.
August 11, 1922

Vivian Blume is working for Mrs. Robert Kirkwood.
Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Caswell were Newmarket visitors Saturday.
Guy Durell of Boston spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter of Nottingham were Sunday visitors at Henry Small’s.
Stella Smith of Hampton has been visiting friends in town for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plumer were Dover visitors Saturday.
John French and Clifton Clark, with a party from Nottingham, spent Sunday at Hampton Beach.
Miss Grace Thurston and Oscar Paul, with friends, motored to Suncook and Manchester, Sunday.
Mrs. Edna Mitchell and son, Herbert, of Worcester are visiting friends in town and Nottingham.
Mr. and Mrs. John Stillson of Epping were visitors at Walter Plumer’s, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lougee and daughter, Cora, of East Kingston, Miss Alice Nichols of Exeter and Mr. and Mrs. William Small of Fremont last Sunday.
Nehemiah Snell is cutting the hay on the Woodman farm.

Mrs. Robert Lucus of Dover and Miss Addie Nutter of Moultonville were visitors at Mrs. William Caldwell’s last Tuesday.
Doris Layne spent the week end with friends in Dover.
August 11, 1922 cont.

Norman Snell has purchased a new Ford roadster.

Warren Sawyer cut his hand very badly while butchering last Tuesday.

Forrest Demeritt of Dover was a visitor in town last Saturday.

The jurors drawn for the September term of court, to be held in Dover, were Warren D. Sawyer, grand, Woodruff Mason, petit.

Isaiah P. Caldwell, a resident of Barrington and well known in Lee, ended his life instantly with a shotgun last Saturday afternoon, while seated in a chair in his sitting room. Although Mr. Caldwell has been acting strangely of late and somewhat despondent, his act was a surprise and shock to his family. He was born in Barrington, Aug. 26, 1850, the son of the late John and Sally (Langley) Caldwell, and had spent most of his life in his native town. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lavinia Rosenthal, and a brother, Ransom R. Caldwell, both of Barrington, also one cousin, Charles E. Langley, of Lee. The funeral services were held at his late home Tuesday afternoon and were well attended by relatives and friends. Rev. F.O. Tyler of East Barrington officiated. The bearers were: William A. Ellerson, Walter A. Ellerson, Frank Dinsmore and Benton E. Layne.
August 18, 1922

Mr. and Mrs. George Clarrage of Lynn, Mass., were recent guests of her cousin, Mrs. H. F. Small.

John French has been suffering from an attack of blood poisoning in his thumb, caused by a hornpout.

Charles Cammett of Portsmouth was a recent guest of his son, Woodbury Cammett, and family at the Tuttle farm.

The Jordan family were Dover visitors recently.

Charles Ferguson of Malden is at the farm for a few days. His family are spending the summer here.

Paul Cilley of Portland spent the week-end at his home here.

Walter Fernald is visiting his sister, Mrs. John Piper.

Mrs. Elsie Woodman and children have been visiting at the Ranche.

Mrs. Jay Demeritt was a visitor at Perley Batchelder's in Nottingham last week.

Mrs. Mabel Leavitt of Manchester has been visiting Mrs. Sara Haley.

Mrs. Susie Strout is visiting her brother, Ben Lang, and sister, Mrs. Anna Lee.

Mr. Kenney of Derry was in town Friday, demonstrating the Overland automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodman of Newton, Mass., are guest of Mrs. George Woodman this week.

Lewis Ellison is moving his mill from the Caldwell lot to Barnstead, where he has a large lot to operate.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell and Mrs. Nellie Curtis spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne were visitors in Manchester last Tuesday.

Carl Fernald and family are staying with Mr. Fernald's father, Loren Fernald, this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and family of Newton, Mass., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tebbetts and Harry Munroe were in Manchester on business last Wednesday.

Mrs. Helen McRae visited her mother, Mrs. Martha Buzzell, in Barrington last Sunday.

At the regular meeting of Jeremiah Smith Grange last week, Arthur McDaniel was elected Lecturer and Frank Caldwell, Overseer, to fill the offices made vacant by the resignation of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson.

Invitations have been received by many residents on the North Side to attend the Old Home celebration to be held in Barrington next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Munroe will move to Barnstead next week, where Mr. Munroe will work for Lewis Ellison.

Winston Caldwell spent a few days last week with his aunt, Mrs. Miner Fall, in Dover.
August 25, 1922

Benton E. Layne is cutting his wood lot. J.J. Parle of Dover is doing the sawing.

Many of our townspeople attended the Old Home celebrations at Nottingham and Barrington this week.

Married, in Dover, Aug 20, by city clerk Fred E. Quimby, Harold D. Caldwell of Barrington and Mrs. Nellie Curtis of Medford, Mass.

September 1, 1922

W.P. Tuttle and family were Manchester visitors last week.

Herman Keniston has bought an auto of Benjamin Lang.

John French was a Dover visitor, Saturday.

William A. Plumer has a new work horse.

Mr. Evans and family of Greenland visited at Jay Demerritt’s, Sunday.

Mr. Kenney of Derry was in town Friday, calling on friends.

Grace Thurston visited in Epping, Monday, with Mrs. Susan Littlefield.

Miss Louise Hill of Manchester spent the week-end with Mrs. Herbert Hill.

Arthur Carpenter of Epping visited at Walter Plumer’s, Sunday.

William A. Plumer was a Manchester visitor recently.

Mrs. Benjamin Lang spent Friday in Dover.

Mrs. Simpson and two children of Epping were recent visitors at Wesley Harvey’s.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hill and Mr. Noble and sister were Manchester visitors Sunday. Miss Noble has a Dodge touring car.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells of Boston spent Labor Day with Mr. and Mrs. George James.

Raymond Munroe has purchased the house where Tom Stevens lives on Lee Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Aldrich of Whitefield, N. H., have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Carl Fernald.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dodge and family of South Acton, Mass., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George McDaniel this week.

Fred C. York was a visitor in Manchester this week.

Mrs. Marion Cram and Miss Alice Dudley visited in Canterbury this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tebbetts enjoyed a trip to the mountains over Labor Day.

Miss Ellen Grant of Concord is teaching at the North Lee school.

Mrs. Hannah Cate, Mrs. Mary Bickford of Hudson and Mr. Fairfield of Nashua called on Mrs. William Caldwell last Sunday.

Mrs. Katherine Jones of Dover spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Belle Garrity.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wrigley and family of Haverhill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell last week.

The result of the primary vote here Tuesday was as follows: Republican — Representative, Gorham H. Sawyer; supervisors, Frank L. Dinsmore, Perry L. Harvey, Norman I. Snell, moderator, George A. Dudley, delegate to state convention, Frank J. Davis, Democrat — Representative, Fred P. Comings, supervisors, Walter D. Smith, Charles G. Dame, Wyllis P. Tuttle, moderator, Granville B. Thompson, delegate to state convention, Benton E. Layne.
September 15, 1922

Frank Piper is going to school at Wolfeboro.

Austin Caswell and family motored to Greenland recently.

Raymond Jordan is attending the high school at Epping.

Ethel Jordan is spending several weeks in Somerville, Mass.

Miss Lucia Plumer returned to her school work last Saturday.

Miss Mary Cartland spent a few days at the Cartland farm last week.

The Willey mill has been moved from the Alfred Durgin lot to Nottingham.

George Revere and son of Braintree, Mass., spent the weekend at Springvalley Farm.

Gladys Demeritt is spending a few days with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Caswell, of Wadley's Falls.

Miss Ruth Revere, with her sister and little brother, George, have returned to Springvalley Farm, after spending ten weeks with relatives in Massachusetts.

The South Lee school opened on Monday, a Miss Ricker from Maine as teacher. She is boarding with Mrs. A.D. Wiggin.

Quite a number of South Lee pupils are attending Dover high school, Caverly Durgin, Evangeline Durgin, Vivian Bloom and Margaret Lang. The last two are driving back and forth at present. Robert Kenniston is attending Newmarket high.

September 22, 1922

Shapleigh Glover of Revere, Mass., is visiting Alonzo Langmaid this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and family have returned to Newton, Mass., after their summer vacation spent at the bungalow.

Services were held in the church last Sunday, after the vacation season.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel enjoyed a trip through the mountains over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small motored to Fremont, Raymond and Epping, Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker and daughter, Priscilla.

Leola C. Noble has purchased a new Dodge touring car.

S. Belle Tuttle, who has been stopping at her old homestead the past few weeks, has returned to Swampscott.
September 29, 1922

Miss Doris Layne went to Kearsearge last Tuesday to work for the winter.

Mrs. Carrie Davis has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Randall, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodman and family returned to Boston this week.

Miss Mary M. Flanders of Malden, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Caldwell, this week.

Quite a number of our townspeople are taking in Rochester Fair.

The inspection of Jeremiah Smith Grange will be held Tuesday, Oct. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Frank McDaniel, Mrs. Arthur Thompson and Gorham Sawyer attended the Republican state convention at Concord, Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Gray were visitors in Dover last Thursday.

George Kimball of Malden, Mass., visited his parents over the week-end.

George Munroe of Lynn, Mass., was the guest of his brother, Raymond, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chesley are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Alfred Durgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatch will move to Dover this week to reside.

Frank Dearborn has sold his farm to parties from Dover.

Seth W. Sherburne, Dexter Layne, Mrs. Emma Corson and Mrs. Ed Young of Dover were visitors at the Acton Fair, Wednesday of last week.

Benton Layne attended the funeral of Truman Hill at Lowell Mass., last Friday.

Charles Langley cut his hand with a wood saw quite badly, last week.

Mrs. Walter Jones is working at the S.A.E. house in Durham.

Mrs. Susan P. Layne is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Roberts, at Dover, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Walker are enjoying an auto trip to New Brunswick this week.

Ellery Jenkins of Lowell, Mass., was in town last week, renewing old acquaintances.

The church will hold its annual harvest supper, Friday, Oct. 20, at Grange Hall. Fred N. Bates of Dover will furnish music and Eddie Sharples of Newmarket will read. Supper will be from 6 to 8 o'clock. Aprons, candy and vegetables will be for sale.

The body of Truman W. Hill was brought here from his home in Dracut, Mass., last Saturday for burial in the family cemetery. Mr. Hill was born in Lee, the son of the late John W and Mary J. (Caldwell) Hill. He was 63 years of age and is survived by a wife and three brothers, Flagg M. of Lawrence, Mass., George E. of Worcester, Mass., and Horace G. of Lee, also one sister, Miss Grace Hill, of Andover, Mass.
October 20, 1922

Mrs. Carrie Weeden is spending a few days in Dover.

Albert Caverno and family of Portsmouth were in town last Sunday.

Tom Stevens and family are moving to Packer's Falls, with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Atherton.

Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville, Mass., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McRae were visitors in Dover last Monday.

Mrs. Emma Corson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Munroe, in Barnstead.

Mrs. Blanche Newman and daughter of Medford, Mass., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Ellsworth Garrity and Warren Sawyer attended the meeting of Eastern New Hampshire Pomona Grange at New Durham last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Caswell and Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Bloom were Dover visitors last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dart of Newton, N.H., called on Mrs. Alice Demeritt, Saturday.

Miss Bertha Davis of Greenland visited Mrs. Austin Caswell last week.

Gladys Demeritt is working for Mrs. Benjamin Lang.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Monroe of Haverhill, Mass., visited Miss Ruth Revere over the week-end.

Frank Davie of Massachusetts called on Mr. and Mrs. Bloom last Sunday.

Robert Kirkwood and family have moved to Portsmouth.

Mrs. W. C. Cammett expects to go to Amesbury, Mass., where Mr. Cammett has a position. Their little daughter Elsie will spend the winter in Portsmouth with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkwood of Nashua spent the weekend at their homestead.

Mrs. Etta Clarke and brother, Mr. Dame, of Exeter, were callers in town one day last week.

Benton Layne and Horace Hill motored to Lowell, Mass., Saturday.

Horace Hill and Lyda Brewitt were guests of her brother, Thomas Brewitt, and family, of Epping, Sunday.
October 27, 1922

The church held their harvest supper last Friday evening in Grange hall. A good number were in attendance and about $51 was realized from the affair.

Miss Bernice McKay, who underwent an operation at the Exeter hospital last Thursday, is getting along nicely.

Harry Clay of Barrington, formerly of Lee, was operated on for appendicitis at the Wentworth hospital, Dover, last week.

The fall inspection of Jeremiah Smith Grange was held last Tuesday evening. Worthy Deputy Walter Forrest was present and the 1st degree was exemplified. An excellent programme and a harvest supper were enjoyed by all. Visitors were present from Durham, Dover and Newfields. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting, Nov. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Monroe are moving into the house they recently purchased on Lee Hill.
Carol Wiggin, who recently cut his foot quite badly with an axe, is getting along nicely.

Miss Gertrude McKay has been spending a two-week's vacation at her home.

Mrs. Jennie Haley of Wolfeboro spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker of Dover were callers on Mrs. Felker's father, Alphonse Jones, this week.

Pineconia Grange of Concord will give a minstrel show at Grange Hall, Friday evening, Nov. 10. The proceeds are for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange. This has been given in Franklin, Pittsfield and a number of other towns and reported to be an excellent show. The performance will commence sharply at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by dancing at the town hall.

On Oct. 27, Miss Vivian Bloom gave a Hallowe'en party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Caswell were Newmarket visitors last Saturday evening.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter entertained the whist club, Tuesday of last week.

Miss Gladys Demeritt and Vivian Bloom were Dover visitors Monday.

William Ryan has purchased a new Ford car.

The Revere family are moving for the winter to the Carmichaels at Nottingham.

Mrs. Alice Demeritt was a Rochester visitor Friday.

W. A. Carpenter is working at Dow's nursery, Epping.

November 3, 1922

Carol Wiggin, who recently cut his foot quite badly with an axe, is getting along nicely.

Miss Gertrude McKay has been spending a two-week's vacation at her home.

Mrs. Jennie Haley of Wolfeboro spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Felker of Dover were callers on Mrs. Felker's father, Alphonse Jones, this week.

Pineconia Grange of Concord will give a minstrel show at Grange Hall, Friday evening, Nov. 10. The proceeds are for the benefit of Jeremiah Smith Grange. This has been given in Franklin, Pittsfield and a number of other towns and reported to be an excellent show. The performance will commence sharply at 8 o'clock, and will be followed by dancing at the town hall.

On Oct. 27, Miss Vivian Bloom gave a Hallowe'en party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Caswell were Newmarket visitors last Saturday evening.

Mrs. William A. Carpenter entertained the whist club, Tuesday of last week.

Miss Gladys Demeritt and Vivian Bloom were Dover visitors Monday.

William Ryan has purchased a new Ford car.

The Revere family are moving for the winter to the Carmichaels at Nottingham.

Mrs. Alice Demeritt was a Rochester visitor Friday.

W. A. Carpenter is working at Dow's nursery, Epping.
November 10, 1922

George Hill of Worcester, Mass., is visiting his brother, Horace Hill.

Don't forget the minstrel show to be given at Grange hall, Lee Hill, this (Friday) evening, Nov. 10.

Mrs. Maude Page of Exeter was a visitor in town last Tuesday.

Miss Bernice McKay, who recently underwent an operation at the Exeter hospital, returned home last Sunday.

Miss Helen Layne was at home from Penacook over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lang are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Rev. and Mrs. Tyler of Barrington were in town one day last week.

Edwin Plumer of Northwood spent the day with his parents Thursday of last week.

Gladys Demeritt and Beatrice Caswell were Newmarket visitors Friday.

Edward Coughlin had business in Rochester recently.

Mrs. Lang and Alice Demeritt were Dover visitors last week.

There were 188 votes cast at the election Tuesday. The following officers were elected: Representative, Fred P. Comings, moderator, Granville B. Thompson, supervisors of check-list, Frank L. Dinsmore, Perry Harvey, Norman I. Snell.

Edward Coughlin had business in Rochester recently.

Mrs. Lang and Alice Demeritt were Dover visitors last week.

There were 188 votes cast at the election Tuesday. The following officers were elected: Representative, Fred P. Comings, moderator, Granville B. Thompson, supervisors of check-list, Frank L. Dinsmore, Perry Harvey, Norman Snell.
November 17, 1922

Miss Lida Brewitt is visiting with friends in Haverhill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodman of Newton, Mass., spent Sunday with Mrs. George Woodman.

Mrs. Ann Randall returned to her home in Boston last Sunday, after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Snell.

A deputation team from the Strafford County Y.M.C.A. will be in Lee, Nov. 18 and 19. They will arrive about 2:30 p.m., Saturday, and meet the boys between the ages of 12 and 18 of the town at the town hall. Saturday evening the people of the town are invited to the town hall for a short entertainment and a social time. On Sunday the regular church services will be conducted by the young men, with special music for the occasion. All are cordially invited.

Jeremiah Smith Grange held its election of officers last Tuesday evening, as follows,

Master, Robert Thompson
Overseer, Frank I. Caldwell
Lecturer, Mercy D. McDaniel
Steward, Ernest Wardwell
Asst. Steward, George Dudley
Chaplain, Arthur McDaniel
Treasurer, Raymond Munroe
Secretary, Grace B. Dudley
Gate Keeper, Ellsworth Garrity
Lady Asst. Steward, Esther Garrity
Ceres, Helen Thompson
Pomona, Florence F. Caldwell
Flora, Alice M. Sawyer
Member of Executive Committee for three years, Arthur J. Thompson

The Grange voted to hold a Community Christmas tree, assisted by the Sunday School and the three schools in town.

November 24, 1922

Mrs. Benton Layne entertained the Magnolia Club last Thursday afternoon.

There was a good attendance at the Y.M.C.A. services at the church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds, Stanley Reynolds, and children were visitors at the Caldwell farm last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watson and family of Manchester were guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett last Sunday.

Mrs. George Woodman returned to Newton, Mass., last Friday, having spent the summer at the farm.

Mrs. George McDaniel and daughters have gone to Somerville, Mass., to stay until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Mildred Libby of East Rochester visited Mrs. Chester Tebbets over the week-end.
December 1, 1922

Born, Nov. 11, at the Portsmouth hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Kirkwood, a son.

Mrs. Ida Hill and children, who have been living in the spare tenement of John Clark, have moved to Epping.

D. F. Emerson of Hartford, Conn., was the guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Small, a few days last week.

John Piper has sold his lumber to the Plummer Lumber Co. of Milton and Harry Rowe is moving Willey's mill on the lot to cut it. Benjamin Lang has sold his lumber to a Mr. Bailey of Hampstead and John Walker's mill will operate on the lot.

December 8, 1922

Walter Plumer has had a telephone installed in his home.

Chester Tebbetts went to Boston last Monday on business.

Mrs. Emma Corson has returned from an extended visit in Barnstead.

Miss Grace Hill spent Thanksgiving with her brother, Horace G. Gill.

Frank Dinsmore is going to Boston soon, to stay for the winter.

Mrs. Granville Thompson has been visiting down in Maine for a week.

Mrs. Rose Keyes of Haverhill, Mass., has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sidney McKay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caldwell and family spent the holiday with Mrs. Caldwell's sister in Malden, Mass.

Morris Layne, a former resident of Lee, was recently elected street commissioner of the city of Dover for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett and son spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Bartlett's parents in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts of Dover were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne over Thanksgiving.

Charles Sawyer of New Haven, Conn., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Sawyer, over Thanksgiving. Mr. Sawyer has been quite poorly recently, suffering from the effects of a fall.
December 15, 1922

Sumner Layne returned to Kearsarge last Tuesday, after spending two weeks at home.

Mrs. David Bartlett entertained the Magnolia Club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. William Caldwell is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Miner Fall, in Dover, for a few weeks.

Robert Thompson, Ellsworth Garrity, the Sawyer boys, Clyde McKay and Darius Mariotti are among the lucky deer hunters this season.

December 22, 1922

The schools in town will close today (Friday) until Tuesday, Jan. 2d.

Nehemiah Snell is seriously ill at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stimpson have returned to their home. Mr. Stimpson has been working in Maine and Mrs. Stimpson visiting relatives in New York.

Lyford Wiggin has gone to New London, Conn., to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cate. They will all return to the farm in the spring.

Mr. Kimball, a resident of this town, passed away last Tuesday, after a short illness.

There will be a community Christmas tree at Grange Hall, Saturday evening. An interesting programme will be given by the children and plans are made for each child in town to receive a present. The committee in charge hope for a good attendance, as it is for everybody.
Charles Stackpole is visiting his niece, Mrs. Clara Frost, at Eliot, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin and family will go to Dover this week to remain for the winter months.

Mrs. Mary E. Thompson also has rooms in Dover through the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer James of Somerville, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George James over the holiday.

Nehemiah Snell, who has been critically ill at his home, shows a very little improvement.

The Magnolia Club met with Mrs. Emma Corson last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer James of Somerville, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George James over the holiday.

Nehemiah Snell, who has been critically ill at his home, shows a very little improvement.

The Magnolia Club met with Mrs. Emma Corson last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin, Christmas day.

Helen Layne spent her two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville enjoyed the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. George McDaniel.

Miss Alice Dudley is at home for the Christmas vacation.

A community Christmas tree was held at the Grange Hall last Saturday evening. Much credit is due Mrs. Ruth Munroe, the teacher at the center school, for the enjoyable programme and the interest shown in the affair.

December 29, 1922

Charles Stackpole is visiting his niece, Mrs. Clara Frost, at Eliot, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin and family will go to Dover this week to remain for the winter months.

Mrs. Mary E. Thompson also has rooms in Dover through the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer James of Somerville, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George James over the holiday.

Nehemiah Snell, who has been critically ill at his home, shows a very little improvement.

The Magnolia Club met with Mrs. Emma Corson last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durgin, Christmas Day.

Helen Layne spent her two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Layne.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dodge of Somerville enjoyed the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. George McDaniel.

Miss Alice Dudley is at home for the Christmas vacation.

A community Christmas tree was held at the Grange Hall last Saturday evening. Much credit is due Mrs. Ruth Munroe, the teacher at the center school, for the enjoyable programme and the interest shown in the affair.